to decide for the person, by means of computer random generation, such particulars of the wager as are specified by the person.

- (2) Where such a request is in respect of a race or sporting event, and such particulars of a wager as to such a race or sporting event, as to which RWWA has publicly made known it will receive such requests, RWWA is to decide the particulars by means of computer random generation.
- (3) The provisions of these regulations apply, subject to necessary modifications, to and in relation to a wager made under subregulations (1) and (2) in the same way as they would apply if all particulars of the wager had been decided by the person making the wager.

- (2) Wagers are to be accepted by or on behalf of RWWA —

[Regulation 39 inserted: Gazette 30 Jan 2004 p. 369-70.]

40. Correction of errors and omissions, and the giving of certain refunds

- (1) If a ticket has been issued by RWWA and there is recorded on the ticket in respect of a race meeting or sporting event either an incorrect date or incorrect designation of the race meeting or sporting event, or if either of those particulars is omitted, RWWA may, if satisfied that the record or omission is an error and that it is manifest that the ticket was issued and intended to apply to a particular wager, treat the ticket in the manner apparently intended by the investor and the wager is to be taken to have been made accordingly.
- (2) Subject to this regulation, the person to whom a ticket is issued by RWWA may cancel that ticket —
 - (a) more than 30 minutes prior to the advertised starting time for the race or sporting event, for any reason; or
 - (b) within 30 minutes prior to the advertised starting time for the race or sporting event, if the cancellation is —
 - (i) requested within 2 minutes of the ticket being issued or the closing sell time, whichever occurs first; and
 - (ii) to correct an error or omission.

r. 41

- (3) Despite subregulation (2), on days designated as “major race days” by the Commission, a person who has made a wager in person at a totalisator agency may cancel the wager prior to the close of wagering on the race to which the wager relates, and receive a refund of the wager if the amount of the wager was less than $200.
- (4) If the wager in respect of which a ticket was issued is one which cannot be recorded by RWWA on a totalisator, or is one for which notices exhibited by RWWA at the totalisator agency at the time the ticket is issued are not in accordance with these regulations, the person to whom the ticket belongs is entitled to a refund of the amount shown on the ticket.
- (4a) Where a ticket is issued as a result of a wager being made, but the person does not have sufficient funds to pay for that wager, that ticket may be cancelled immediately by RWWA.
- (4b) In exceptional circumstances, including equipment failure or where a ticket is misread electronically, RWWA may cancel a ticket at any time before the declaration of dividends.
- (5) Unless subregulation (1) applies, where a ticket is incomplete as to any of the particulars required to be shown on the ticket, or if any of those particulars are in the opinion of RWWA ambiguous, the person to whom the ticket belongs is entitled only to a refund of the amount shown on the ticket.
- (6) When a ticket is presented for the payment of a dividend or refund or for the purpose of correcting an alleged error, if the ticket has been altered, mutilated or defaced RWWA may reject the ticket and the person to whom the ticket belongs is not entitled to any dividend or refund in relation to that ticket.

42. Presentation of tickets or claims

- (1) Subject to subregulations (2) and (6), a dividend or refund in respect of a wager, other than a wager against a wagering account, in cash made with RWWA is to be paid upon the presentation and surrender of the ticket issued by RWWA for that wager.
- (2) RWWA may, upon the presentation or surrender of a ticket issued for a wager, refuse to pay a dividend or refund in respect of that wager if there are reasonable grounds to suspect that the person presenting the ticket is not entitled to that dividend or refund.
- (3) The payment of any dividend or refund by RWWA is to be made in cash unless RWWA decides to make the payment by cheque, by voucher or otherwise by the transfer of moneys.
- (4) Subject to subregulation (6), RWWA may pay to a person any dividend or refund that is payable in respect of a ticket issued for a wager without the presentation and surrender to RWWA of the ticket if the person making the claim for the dividend or refund proves to the satisfaction of RWWA —
- (a) that the ticket has been lost or destroyed; and
 - (b) that the person is the person entitled to the dividend or refund.

r. 43

- (5) RWWA may —
- (a) require a person making a claim for a dividend or refund to verify the claim in a manner required by RWWA, and may require verification of the claim by statutory declaration; and
 - (b) pay the dividend or refund to which a claim made under paragraph (a) relates at such time as RWWA determines; and
 - (c) deduct from the amount of any dividend or refund paid under subregulation (4) the amount of the out-of-pocket expenses actually incurred by RWWA, including stamp duty if any, in connection with the establishment and payment of the claim.
- (6) RWWA may refuse to pay a dividend or refund in respect of a wager made with RWWA if the dividend or refund has already been paid under this regulation.

- (3) Any statement of account sent to a depositor by unregistered post is taken to be received by the depositor at the time when, by the ordinary course of post, the statement would be delivered.

- (4) Where RWWA has delivered to a depositor or sent to a depositor by post a statement of the depositor's account with RWWA, if the depositor claims that there is an alleged inaccurate entry in the statement, the depositor is to within 7 days after the statement has been received or is taken to have been received by the depositor notify that claim in writing to RWWA or the person in charge of the totalisator agency where the account is kept in accordance with regulation 58(4).

- (4) If a person who has made a wager with RWWA claims that he or she has not received the full dividend or refund to which that person alleges he or she is entitled or alleges that there is an inaccuracy in relation to the accounting in respect of that person's wagers with RWWA, that person must, if he or she requires an adjustment to be made —
