4. Hazard management agencies may be prescribed

- (1) A public authority, or other person, may be prescribed by the regulations to be a hazard management agency for emergency management, or an emergency management aspect prescribed by the regulations, of a hazard prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) The regulations may prescribe the whole of the State, or an area of the State, as the area for which the public authority or person is a hazard management agency.
- (3) A hazard management agency prescribed under subsection (1) is to be a public authority or other person who or which, because of that agency's functions under any written law or specialised knowledge, expertise and resources, is responsible for emergency management, or the prescribed emergency management aspect, in the area prescribed of the hazard for which it is prescribed.
- (4) If the hazard management agency is not an individual or a body corporate, the regulations are to designate —
  - (a) one or more persons who are authorised to act in the name of the hazard management agency for the purposes of sections 50 and 53; and
  - (b) one or more persons who are authorised to act in the name of the hazard management agency for the purposes of authorising under section 55 persons to act as hazard management officers.
- (5) In sections 50, 53 and 55 a reference to a hazard management agency is to be taken to include a reference to a person who is designated to act in the name of a hazard management agency under subsection (4) for the purposes of that section.

5. Delegation by hazard management agency

- (1) A hazard management agency, with the approval of the State Emergency Coordinator, may delegate to an officer or employee of the agency any power or duty of the hazard management agency under sections 50, 53 and 55, or any of those sections.
- (2) The delegation is to be in writing.
- (3) A delegate exercising or performing a power or duty that has been delegated under this section is to be taken to do so in accordance with the terms of the delegation unless the contrary is shown.
- (4) Nothing in this section limits the ability of a hazard management agency to act through an officer or person representing the agency.

6. Combat agencies and support organisations may be prescribed

- (1) A public authority, or other person, may be prescribed by the regulations to be a combat agency for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) A combat agency prescribed under subsection (1) is to be a public authority or other person who or which, because of the agency's functions under any written law or specialised knowledge, expertise and resources, is responsible for performing an emergency management activity prescribed by the regulations in relation to that agency.
- (3) A public authority, or other person, may be prescribed by the regulations to be a support organisation for the purposes of this Act.
- (4) A support organisation prescribed under subsection (3) is to be a public authority or other person who or which, because of the agency's functions under any written law or specialised knowledge, expertise and resources, is responsible for providing support functions prescribed by the regulations in relation to that organisation.

20. Directions to, and duties of, public authorities

- (1) If a public authority is given a role and responsibilities under a State emergency management policy, the SEMC may, in writing, direct the public authority, in relation to that role and those responsibilities, to —
  - (a) prepare, or assist in the preparation of, a State emergency management plan; or
  - (b) review, or assist in the review of, a State emergency management plan; or
  - (c) amend or replace, or assist in the amendment or replacement of, a State emergency management plan; or
  - (d) test, or assist in the testing of, a State emergency management plan.

- (2) The SEMC may issue written guidelines to help public authorities respond to a direction under subsection (1).
- (3) A public authority is to comply with a direction under subsection (1) within the time and in the manner specified in the direction.
- (4) A public authority that is given a role and responsibilities under a State emergency management policy is to comply with the State emergency management policy.

21. Sub-committees

- (1) The SEMC may establish such sub-committees as it thinks fit to advise the SEMC on any aspect of its functions or to assist with any matters relevant to the performance of its functions.
- (2) A sub-committee may, but need not, consist of or include members of the SEMC.
- (3) The SEMC may remove a person from membership of a sub-committee and may reconstitute or discharge a sub-committee.
- (4) The SEMC may give directions to a sub-committee with respect to the performance of its functions and its procedures and the sub-committee is to comply with any such direction.
- (5) Subject to the directions of the SEMC, a sub-committee may determine its own procedures.

22. SEMC may delegate

- (1) The SEMC may delegate to a member of the SEMC, a sub-committee established under section 21 or a member of such a sub-committee any power or duty of the SEMC under another provision of this Act.
- (2) The delegation is to be in writing signed by the chairman of the SEMC.

- (3) A delegate exercising or performing a power or duty that has been delegated under this section is to be taken to do so in accordance with the terms of the delegation unless the contrary is shown.
- (4) Nothing in this section limits the ability of the SEMC to act through an agent.

23. Minister may give directions

- (1) The Minister may give directions in writing to the SEMC with respect to the performance of its functions, either generally or in relation to a particular matter, and the SEMC is to give effect to any such direction.
- (2) The text of a direction given under subsection (1) is to be included in the annual report submitted by the SEMC under section 25.

24. Facilities and services for SEMC

- (1) The Minister is to ensure that the SEMC is provided with the facilities and services that, in the opinion of the Minister, are reasonably necessary to enable it to perform its functions.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Minister may arrange with the relevant employing authority (as that term is defined in the Public Sector Management Act 1994) for the SEMC to make use, either full-time or part-time, of the services of any officer or employee —
  - (a) in the Public Service; or
  - (b) in a public authority; or
  - (c) otherwise in the service of the State.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), the Minister may arrange with —
  - (a) a department of the Public Service; or
  - (b) a public authority,for the SEMC to make use of any facilities or services of the department or public authority.

- (4) An arrangement under subsection (2) or (3) is to be made on terms agreed by the parties.

25. Annual report of SEMC

- (1) As soon as is practicable after the end of each financial year the SEMC is to prepare and submit to the Minister an annual report on activities undertaken by it during the financial year.
- (2) The Minister is to cause the report to be laid before each House of Parliament as soon as is practicable after it is prepared.

Division 3 — The State Emergency Coordination Group

26. State Emergency Coordination Group

- (1) If a state of emergency is declared, a State Emergency Coordination Group is established.
- (2) If an emergency occurs or is imminent, the State Emergency Coordinator may, on the request of the relevant hazard management agency, or on his or her own initiative and in consultation with the relevant hazard management agency, establish a State Emergency Coordination Group.
- (3) The State Emergency Coordination Group is to consist of —
- (a) the State Emergency Coordinator; and
  - (b) the chairman of the SEMC; and
  - (c) the executive officer of the SEMC appointed under section 13(2)(c); and
  - (d) a representative of the relevant hazard management agency; and
  - (e) a person who is representative of the local governments in the emergency area, or in the area where the emergency is occurring or is imminent, as the case requires, nominated by the State Emergency Coordinator; and

- (f) such other members as are, in the opinion of the State Emergency Coordinator, necessary.
- (4) The State Emergency Coordinator is the chairman of the State Emergency Coordination Group.
- (5) The State Emergency Coordination Group may determine its own procedures.
- (6) The State Emergency Coordination Group ceases to be established on a day determined by the State Emergency Coordinator.

27. Functions of the State Emergency Coordination Group

The State Emergency Coordination Group has the following functions —

- (a) to ensure the provision of coordinated emergency management by public authorities and other persons;
- (b) to provide advice and direction to public authorities and other persons to facilitate effective emergency management;
- (c) to liaise between emergency management agencies and the Minister.

Division 4 — Emergency management districts

28. Establishment of emergency management districts

- (1) For the purposes of this Act the State is divided into such emergency management districts as the Minister, on the advice of the SEMC, may determine by order published in the Gazette.
- (2) So far as is practicable emergency management districts are to be established by reference to the boundaries of local government districts.
- (3) If an emergency management district is proposed to be established other than by reference to the boundaries of a local government district, the Minister is to notify each local government in whose district any part of the area proposed to be established is situated and allow a reasonable time for submissions on the proposal.

- (4) In making an order under subsection (1) the Minister is to have regard to any submissions of the local governments.

29. District emergency coordinator

The State Emergency Coordinator is to appoint a district emergency coordinator for each emergency management district.

30. Functions of district emergency coordinator

The district emergency coordinator for an emergency management district has the following functions —

- (a) to provide advice and support to the district emergency management committee for the district in the development and maintenance of emergency management arrangements for its district;
- (b) to carry out other emergency management functions in accordance with the directions of the State Emergency Coordinator.

31. District emergency management committees

- (1) A district emergency management committee is established for each emergency management district.
- (2) The SEMC may invite the chairmen of the local emergency management committees within the emergency management district to submit a panel of names to the SEMC for consideration for appointment as chairman of the district emergency management committee.
- (3) The SEMC may appoint such person as it thinks fit to be chairman of the district emergency management committee irrespective of whether the name of that person is submitted under subsection (2).

- (4) The district emergency coordinator for the emergency management district is to be a member of the district emergency management committee, and may be appointed as chairman of the committee.
- (5) Subject to this section, the constitution and procedures of a district emergency management committee, and the terms and conditions of appointment of members, are to be determined by the SEMC.

32. Functions of district emergency management committees

- (1) It is a function of a district emergency management committee to assist in the establishment and maintenance of effective emergency management arrangements for the district for which it is constituted.
- (2) District emergency management committees have such other functions as are prescribed by the regulations.

33. Annual report of district emergency management committees

- (1) Each district emergency management committee is to prepare and submit to the SEMC an annual report on activities undertaken by it during the financial year.

- (b) destroy or damage property or any part of the environment, the local government may give a person who is the owner or the occupier of the land a direction in writing requiring the person to take measures specified in the direction to prevent or minimise the loss, prejudice, harm, destruction or damage.

- (2) A person who is given a direction under subsection (1) is not prevented from complying with it because of the terms on which the land is held.

48. Additional powers when direction given

- (1) This section applies when a direction is given under section 47.
- (2) If the person who is given the direction (the direction recipient) fails to comply with it, the local government may do anything that it considers necessary to achieve, so far as is practicable, the purpose for which the direction was given.
- (3) The local government may recover the cost of anything it does under subsection (2) as a debt due from the person who failed to comply with the notice.
- (4) If a direction recipient —
  - (a) incurs expense in complying with the direction; or
  - (b) fails to comply with such a direction and, as a consequence, is convicted and fined or has to pay to a local government the cost it incurs in doing anything under subsection (2),the direction recipient may apply to a court for an order under subsection (6).
- (5) In subsection (4) —

court means a court that would have jurisdiction to hear an action to recover a debt of the amount of the expense, fine or cost sought to be recovered by the direction recipient.
- (6) On an application under subsection (4) the court may order —
  - (a) if the direction recipient is the owner, the occupier; or
  - (b) if the direction recipient is the occupier, the owner,to pay to the direction recipient so much of that expense, fine or cost as the court considers fair and reasonable in the circumstances.
- (7) In determining what is fair and reasonable the court is to have regard to —
  - (a) the type of land involved; and

Emergency Management Act 2005

Division 3 Powers of local government during cyclone

s. 49

- (b) the terms on which the occupier is occupying the land;
and
- (c) any other matter the court considers to be relevant.

49. Provisions are in addition to other powers

This Division is in addition to, and does not derogate from, the powers of a local government under the Local Government Act 1995 Part 3 Division 3.

Part 4 — Hazard management

Division 1 — Emergency situation declaration

50. State Emergency Coordinator or hazard management agency may make emergency situation declaration

- (1A) The State Emergency Coordinator may, in writing, declare that an emergency situation exists in an area of the State in respect of any hazard.
- (1) A hazard management agency may, in writing, declare that an emergency situation exists in an area of the State in respect of a hazard of which it is the hazard management agency for emergency management.
- (2) The State Emergency Coordinator or the hazard management agency must not make the declaration unless satisfied that —
- (a) an emergency has occurred, is occurring or is imminent in that area of the State; and
  - (b) there is a need to exercise powers under Part 6 to prevent or minimise —
    - (i) loss of life, prejudice to the safety, or harm to the health, of persons or animals; or
    - (ii) destruction of, or damage to, property; or
    - (iii) destruction of, or damage to, any part of the environment.
- (3) An emergency situation declaration is to include —
- (a) the time when, and date on which, the declaration is made; and
  - (b) the area of the State to which it applies.
- (4) Before making a declaration under this section the State Emergency Coordinator or the hazard management agency is to take reasonable steps to undertake consultation in accordance with State emergency management policies.

- (5A) If a declaration under this section is made by the State Emergency Coordinator in respect of a hazard, the State Emergency Coordinator must notify the hazard management agency for emergency management of the hazard as soon as practicable after the declaration is made.
- (5) If a hazard management agency makes a declaration under this section, the hazard management agency must notify the State Emergency Coordinator, and each district emergency coordinator and local emergency coordinator for a local government district to which the emergency situation declaration applies, as soon as practicable after the declaration is made.
- (6A) If a hazard management agency is notified under subsection (5A) of a declaration under this section made by the State Emergency Coordinator, the hazard management agency —
- (a) must notify each district emergency coordinator and local emergency coordinator for a local government district to which the emergency situation declaration applies as soon as practicable after the notification is given; and
  - (b) is taken to have made the declaration for the purposes of any provision of this Act other than this section.
- (6) A failure to consult under subsection (4) or notify under subsection (5A) or (5) does not affect the validity of the declaration.
- (7) The making of an emergency situation declaration does not prevent the making of further emergency situation declarations in relation to the same or a different emergency.

[Section 50 amended: No. 22 of 2012 s. 108.]

51. Duration of emergency situation declaration

An emergency situation declaration —

- (a) has effect on and from the time it is made, or such later time as is specified in the declaration; and
- (b) if it is not extended by the State Emergency Coordinator under section 52, or sooner revoked under section 53, remains in force for 3 days after the time it first has effect.

52. Extension of emergency situation declaration

- (1) The State Emergency Coordinator may, in writing, by declaration extend, or from time to time further extend, the duration of an emergency situation declaration.
- (2) The declaration may limit the powers that may be exercised during the period by which the duration is extended.
- (3) A declaration extending, or further extending, the duration of an emergency situation declaration —
  - (a) is to include the time when, and date on which, the declaration is made; and
  - (b) is to state the period by which the duration of the emergency situation declaration is extended; and
  - (c) remains in force until the end of the period stated under paragraph (b) unless the emergency situation declaration is sooner revoked under section 53.
- (4) The period by which the duration of an emergency situation declaration is extended —
  - (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, must not exceed 7 days; or
  - (b) if the only powers that may be exercised during the period are any or all of the powers under section 69 in relation to a place or the powers under section 72, may be for such period as the State Emergency Coordinator considers necessary.

- (5) A declaration extending the duration of an emergency situation declaration has effect on and from the time it is made.

53. Revocation of emergency situation declaration

- (1) As soon as a hazard management agency is satisfied that it is no longer necessary for the powers under Part 6 to be exercised in relation to an emergency situation it has declared to exist, the hazard management agency is to revoke the emergency situation declaration.
- (2) The revocation is to be made by declaration in writing and is to include the time when, and date on which, it is made.
- (3) The revocation declaration has effect on and from the time it is made, or such later time as is specified in the revocation declaration.
- (4) Despite any other written law, the revocation of an emergency situation declaration does not affect —
- (a) any penalty or punishment incurred, imposed, or liable to be incurred or imposed, before the revocation; or
  - (b) any investigation or legal proceedings in respect of such a penalty or punishment.

54. Notice of declaration

- (1) Notice of a declaration made under section 50, 52 or 53 is to be —
- (a) published for general information as soon as is practicable after the declaration is made in any manner that the hazard management agency or State Emergency Coordinator, as the case requires, considers to be appropriate having regard to the circumstances and what is practicable; and
  - (b) published in the Gazette as soon as is practicable after the declaration is made.
- (2) A failure to publish notice of the declaration does not affect the validity of the declaration.

Division 2 — Hazard management officers

55. Authorisation of hazard management officers

- (1) A hazard management agency may authorise officers or employees of the hazard management agency, or other persons, to act as hazard management officers during an emergency situation declared by that hazard management agency.
- (2) An authorisation under subsection (1) is to specify —
  - (a) whether it applies to any emergency situation declared by the hazard management agency or whether it is limited to a particular emergency situation declared by the hazard management agency; and
  - (b) the particular, or the particular class of, employee, officer or person to whom it applies; and
  - (c) the terms and conditions on which it is given.
- (3) An authorisation under subsection (1) may be given orally or in writing but if given orally is to be put in writing as soon as is practicable.
- (4) A failure to put an authorisation in writing under subsection (3) does not invalidate the authorisation or anything done under the authorisation.
- (5) A hazard management officer may exercise a power under Part 6 only subject to the terms and conditions on which the person is authorised under this section.
- (6) A hazard management officer is to comply with the directions of the relevant hazard management agency when exercising a power under Part 6.

Part 5 — State of emergency

Division 1 — State of emergency declaration

56. Minister may make state of emergency declaration

- (1) The Minister may, in writing, declare that a state of emergency exists in the whole or in any area or areas of the State.
- (2) The Minister must not make a declaration under this section unless the Minister —
  - (a) has considered the advice of the State Emergency Coordinator; and
  - (b) is satisfied that an emergency has occurred, is occurring or is imminent; and
  - (c) is satisfied that extraordinary measures are required to prevent or minimise —
    - (i) loss of life, prejudice to the safety, or harm to the health, of persons or animals; or
    - (ii) destruction of, or damage to, property; or
    - (iii) destruction of, or damage to, any part of the environment.
- (3) A declaration under this section is to include —
  - (a) the time when, and date on which, the declaration is made; and
  - (b) the area of the State to which it applies.
- (4) The making of a state of emergency declaration does not prevent the making of further state of emergency declarations in relation to the same or a different emergency.

57. Duration of state of emergency declaration

A state of emergency declaration —

- (a) has effect on and from the time it is made, or such later time as is specified in the declaration; and

- (b) if it is not extended by the Minister under section 58, or sooner revoked under section 59, remains in force for 3 days after the time it first has effect.

58. Extension of state of emergency declaration

- (1) The Minister may by declaration in writing extend, or from time to time further extend, the duration of a declaration made under section 56.
- (2) The declaration may limit the powers that may be exercised during the period by which the duration is extended.
- (3) A declaration extending, or further extending, the duration of a state of emergency declaration —
  - (a) is to state the period by which the duration of the state of emergency declaration is extended; and
  - (b) remains in force until the end of the period stated under paragraph (a) unless the state of emergency declaration is sooner revoked under section 59.
- (4) The period by which the duration of a state of emergency declaration is extended —
  - (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, must not exceed 14 days; or
  - (b) if the only powers that may be exercised during the period are any or all of the powers under section 69 in relation to a place or the powers under section 72, may be for such period as the Minister considers necessary.
- (5) A declaration extending the duration of a state of emergency declaration has effect on and from the time it is made.

59. Revocation of state of emergency declaration

- (1) The Minister may revoke a state of emergency declaration at any time.
- (2) The revocation is to be made by declaration in writing and is to include the time when, and date on which, it is made.

- (3) The revocation declaration has effect on and from the time it is made, or such later time as is specified in the revocation declaration.
- (4) Despite any other written law, the revocation of a state of emergency declaration does not affect —
  - (a) any penalty or punishment incurred, imposed, or liable to be incurred or imposed, before the revocation; or
  - (b) any investigation or legal proceedings in respect of such a penalty or punishment.

60. Notice of declaration

- (1) A declaration made under section 56, 58 or 59 is to be —
  - (a) published for general information as soon as is practicable after the declaration is made in any manner that the Minister considers to be appropriate having regard to the circumstances and what is practicable; and
  - (b) published in the Gazette as soon as is practicable after the declaration is made.
- (2) A failure to publish notice of the declaration does not affect the validity of the declaration.

Division 2 — Authorised officers

61. Authorised officers

- (1) The State Emergency Coordinator may authorise persons to act as authorised officers during a state of emergency.
- (2) An authorisation under subsection (1) is to specify —
  - (a) whether it applies to any state of emergency or is limited to a particular state of emergency; and
  - (b) the particular, or a particular class of, person to whom it applies; and
  - (c) the terms and conditions on which it is given.

- (3) An authorisation under subsection (1) may be given orally or in writing but if given orally is to be put in writing as soon as is practicable.
- (4) A failure to put an authorisation in writing under subsection (3) does not invalidate the authorisation or anything done under the authorisation.
- (5) An authorised officer may exercise a power under Part 6 only subject to the terms and conditions on which the person is authorised under this section.
- (6) An authorised officer is to comply with directions of the State Emergency Coordinator when exercising a power under Part 6.

62. Identification of authorised officers

- (1) The State Emergency Coordinator may issue an identification card to an authorised officer —
  - (a) containing the individual's name and a photograph or digital image of the person; and
  - (b) stating that the person is an authorised officer for the purposes of this Act.
- (2) An authorised officer should —
  - (a) carry his or her identification card while performing functions under this Act; and
  - (b) if it is practicable to do so, produce it before exercising a power of an authorised officer under this Act.
- (3) An authorised officer who has been issued with an identification card and who ceases to be an authorised officer is to return the identification card to the State Emergency Coordinator or a person nominated by the State Emergency Coordinator as soon as is practicable.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) without reasonable excuse, the onus of proving which is on the person, commits an offence.

Penalty: a fine of $1 000.

Division 3 — The State Disaster Council

63. State Disaster Council

- (1) If a state of emergency is declared, a State Disaster Council is established.
- (2) The Premier is to be the chairman of the State Disaster Council.
- (3) The Minister is to be the deputy chairman of the State Disaster Council.
- (4) If the chairman is not present at any meeting of the State Disaster Council the deputy chairman is to act as chairman and while so acting has the functions of chairman.
- (5) The State Disaster Council is to include —
  - (a) the State Emergency Coordinator; and
  - (b) such other members as are appointed by the chairman.
- (6) The chairman may give directions as to the procedure of the State Disaster Council.
- (7) Subject to this section and the directions of the chairman the State Disaster Council may determine its own procedures.
- (8) The State Disaster Council ceases to be established on a day determined by its chairman.

64. Functions of the State Disaster Council

The functions of the State Disaster Council are —

- (a) to liaise with the State Government and the State Emergency Coordination Group in relation to the state of emergency; and
- (b) to provide prompt and accurate advice to the Government and the State Emergency Coordination Group in relation to the state of emergency; and

Part 6 — Emergency powers

Division 1 — Powers during emergency situation or state of emergency

65. Application of this Division

Subject to any limitation in a declaration under section 52 or 58, this Division applies if an emergency situation declaration or state of emergency declaration is in force.

66. Obtaining identifying particulars

- (1) The office of hazard management officer is prescribed for the purposes of the Criminal Investigation (Identifying People) Act 2002 and any holder of that office may exercise the powers in Part 3 of that Act in relation to an offence or suspected offence under this Act during an emergency situation.
- (2) The office of authorised officer is prescribed for the purposes of the Criminal Investigation (Identifying People) Act 2002 and any holder of that office may exercise the powers in Part 3 of that Act in relation to an offence or suspected offence under this Act during a state of emergency.
- (3) Without limiting subsections (1) and (2), a hazard management officer or authorised officer may, where reasonably required for the purposes of emergency management during an emergency situation or state of emergency, request a person to give the officer any or all of the person's personal details.
- (4) If an officer reasonably suspects that a personal detail given by a person in response to a request under subsection (3) is false, the officer may request the person to produce evidence of the correctness of the detail.

67. Powers concerning movement and evacuation

For the purpose of emergency management during an emergency situation or state of emergency, a hazard management officer or authorised officer may do all or any of the following —

- (a) direct or, by direction, prohibit, the movement of persons, animals and vehicles within, into, out of or around an emergency area or any part of the emergency area;
- (b) direct the evacuation and removal of persons or animals from the emergency area or any part of the emergency area;
- (c) close any road, access route or area of water in or leading to the emergency area;
- (d) direct that any road, access route or area of water in or leading to the emergency area be closed.

[Section 67 amended: No. 11 of 2020 s. 4.]

68. Use of vehicles

For the purposes of emergency management during an emergency situation or state of emergency, a hazard management officer or authorised officer may use a vehicle in any place and in any circumstance despite any provision of the Road Traffic (Vehicles) Act 2012 that requires a permit for the use of that vehicle or for the use of that vehicle in that place or in that circumstance.

[Section 68 amended: No. 8 of 2012 s. 98.]

69. Powers of officer to control or use property

- (1) For the purposes of emergency management during an emergency situation or state of emergency, a hazard management officer or authorised officer may take control of or make use of any place, vehicle or other thing.

- (2) The place, vehicle or other thing may be in, or outside, the emergency area.

70. Powers of officers in relation to persons exposed to hazardous substances

- (1) During an emergency situation or state of emergency, for a purpose mentioned in subsection (2), a hazard management officer or authorised officer may direct any person who has been exposed, or any class of person who may have been exposed, to a hazardous substance to do all or any of the following —
- (a) to remain in an area specified by the officer for such period as is specified by the officer;
  - (b) to remain quarantined from other persons for such period, and in such reasonable manner, as is specified by the officer;
  - (c) to submit to decontamination procedures within such reasonable period, and in such reasonable manner, as is specified by the officer.
- (2) A direction may be given under subsection (1) for the purpose of —
- (a) ensuring that the hazardous substance is contained; or
  - (b) ensuring that a person to whom the direction is given does not pose a serious risk to the life or health of others or to the environment because of the hazardous substance involved.
- (3) The period specified under subsection (1)(a) or (b) must not be more than 24 hours unless —
- (a) the State Emergency Coordinator gives the direction; or
  - (b) the State Emergency Coordinator has given authorisation for a longer period to be specified in relation to persons exposed to the hazardous substance.

[Section 70 amended: No. 11 of 2020 s. 5.]

70A. Electronic monitoring of persons in quarantine

(1) In this section —

approved electronic monitoring device means —

(a) an electronic monitoring device that has been approved by the Minister for the purposes of this section; and

(b) any equipment, wires or other items associated with such a device.

(2) The State Emergency Coordinator may direct that a person is to be subject to electronic monitoring while the person is in quarantine if satisfied that it is necessary to monitor the location of the person during the quarantine period.

(3) A person is in quarantine while they are subject to a direction under section 70(1) that is or includes a direction described in section 70(1)(b).

(4) If a person is subject to electronic monitoring, an authorised officer may do any of the following —

(a) direct the person to wear an approved electronic monitoring device;

(b) direct the person to permit the installation of an approved electronic monitoring device at the place where the person resides or, if the person does not have a place of residence, at any other place specified by the officer;

(c) give any other reasonable direction to the person necessary for the proper administration of the electronic monitoring of the person.

(5) An authorised officer may —

(a) direct the occupier of a place where an approved electronic monitoring device has been installed to give the device to an authorised officer within the period specified by the officer; and

(b) at any time, enter a place where an approved electronic monitoring device has been installed and retrieve the device.

(6) A person must not —

(a) fail to comply with a direction under this section; or

(b) obstruct or hinder an authorised officer exercising powers under subsection (5)(b).

Penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for 12 months or a fine of $12 000.

(7) A person must not, without reasonable excuse, remove, or interfere with, or interfere with the operation of, an approved electronic monitoring device required to be worn or installed under this section in such a way as to prevent or impede monitoring of the location of the person subject to electronic monitoring.

Penalty for this subsection: imprisonment for 12 months or a fine of $12 000.

[Section 70A inserted: No. 11 of 2020 s. 6.]

71. Powers of police to direct closure of places and concerning movement and evacuation

(1) For the purpose of emergency management during an emergency situation or state of emergency, a police officer may direct the owner, occupier or the person apparently in charge of any place of business, worship or entertainment in the emergency area to close that place to the public for the period specified in the direction.

(1A) A direction under subsection (1) may be given in relation to a class of place.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), during an emergency situation or state of emergency a police officer may exercise any of the powers of a hazard management officer under section 67 or an authorised officer under section 75(1)(i), as the case requires.

- (3) A police officer is not to exercise a power under subsection (2) in a manner that is contrary to or in conflict with —
- (a) a direction given to the police officer by the hazard management agency that made the emergency situation declaration or by the State Emergency Coordinator, as the case requires; or
  - (b) the exercise of a power by a hazard management officer under section 67 or an authorised officer under section 75(1)(i), as the case requires.
- (4) When exercising powers under this section a police officer has all the immunities of a hazard management officer or authorised officer.

72. Exchange of information

- (1) In this section —

relevant information means —

- (a) the personal details of a person;
- (b) information about the whereabouts of a person;
- (c) information about the state of health of a person;
- (ca) information about any recent travel undertaken by a person;
- (cb) information about persons with whom a person has been in close contact;
- (d) information of a kind prescribed by the regulations;

welfare services means the provision of the following for persons affected by an emergency —

- (a) accommodation;
- (b) catering;
- (c) clothing and personal requisites;

- (d) registration and inquiry services for the purpose of enabling individuals to be traced, families to be reunited and inquiries answered;
  - (e) financial assistance.
- (2) During an emergency situation or state of emergency, for the purposes of emergency management —
- (a) a hazard management officer or an authorised officer may disclose relevant information —
    - (i) to an emergency management agency; and
    - (ii) if the regulations so provide, to a person or entity engaged by an emergency management agency to provide welfare services, in accordance with those regulations;
- and
- (b) if the regulations so provide, an agency, person or entity to whom relevant information is disclosed under paragraph (a) may further disclose the information in accordance with those regulations.
- (3) During an emergency situation or state of emergency, for the purposes of emergency management, a hazard management officer or an authorised officer may request an emergency management agency that holds relevant information to disclose the information to the hazard management officer or authorised officer.
- (4) An emergency management agency may comply with a request under subsection (3) despite any law of this State relating to secrecy or confidentiality.
- (5) If information is disclosed, in good faith, under subsection (2) or in compliance with a request under subsection (3) —
- (a) no civil or criminal liability is incurred in respect of the disclosure; and
  - (b) the disclosure is not to be regarded as a breach of any duty of confidentiality or secrecy imposed by law; and

- (c) the disclosure is not to be regarded as a breach of professional ethics or standards or as unprofessional conduct.
- (6) The SEMC must establish procedures for the disclosure of information under subsection (2)(a)(i).
- (7) The regulations may include provisions about —
  - (a) the circumstances in which information may be disclosed under this section; and
  - (b) the agencies, persons and entities to whom information may be disclosed under this section; and
  - (c) the conditions subject to which information may be disclosed under this section; and
  - (d) the receipt and storage of information disclosed under this section; and
  - (e) the restriction of access to such information.

[Section 72 amended: No. 11 of 2020 s. 8.]

72A. General powers during emergency situation or state of emergency

(1) In this section —

relevant information means —

- (a) relevant information as defined in section 72(1); and
- (b) information of a kind specified by the State Emergency Coordinator as relevant to the emergency.

(2) For the purposes of emergency management during an emergency situation or state of emergency, a hazard management officer or authorised officer may take, or direct a person or a class of person to take, any action that the officer considers is reasonably necessary to prevent, control or abate risks associated with the emergency.

(3) For the purposes of emergency management during an emergency situation or state of emergency, a hazard management officer or authorised officer may direct a person to —

(a) give to the officer relevant information about the person or any other person closely associated with the person; or

(b) answer questions intended to elicit relevant information about the person or any other person closely associated with the person.

(4) A person is not excused from complying with a direction given to the person under subsection (3) on the ground that giving the information or answering the question might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a criminal penalty.

(5) However, any information or answer given by a person in compliance with a direction given to the person under subsection (3) is not admissible in evidence in any criminal proceedings against the person other than proceedings for an offence under section 89.

[Section 72A inserted: No. 11 of 2020 s. 9.]

Division 2 — Further powers during state of emergency

73. Application of this Division

Subject to any limitation in a declaration under section 58, this Division applies if a state of emergency declaration is in force.

74. Power to direct public authorities during state of emergency

(1) During a state of emergency the State Emergency Coordinator is responsible for coordinating such activities of public authorities as the State Emergency Coordinator considers necessary or desirable for responding to the emergency.

- (2) For that purpose the State Emergency Coordinator may —
  - (a) direct any public authority to do or refrain from doing any act, or to perform or refrain from performing any function; and
  - (b) appoint an officer of a public authority to have overall control of particular activities carried out by public authorities in response to the emergency where a number of public authorities are involved.
- (3) If a direction is given to a public authority under subsection (2)(a) —
  - (a) the public authority is to comply with the direction within the time and in the manner, if any, specified in the direction; and
  - (b) the direction prevails to the extent of any inconsistency with any written law or other law.

75. General powers during a state of emergency

- (1) During a state of emergency, for the purpose of emergency management, an authorised officer may —
  - (a) enter or, if necessary, break into and enter, a place or vehicle in the emergency area; and
  - (b) search any place or vehicle and anything found in or on the place or vehicle; and
  - (c) take into a place in the emergency area the equipment, persons or materials the authorised officer reasonably requires for exercising a power under this Division; and
  - (d) contain an animal or substance in the emergency area; and
  - (e) remove or destroy an animal, vegetation or substance in the emergency area; and
  - (f) remove, dismantle, demolish or destroy a vehicle, or any premises, in the emergency area; and

  - (h) take and use fuel, gas, electricity or water in the emergency area; and
  - (i) direct the owner or occupier or the person apparently in charge of any place of business, worship or entertainment in the emergency area to close that place to the public for the period specified in the direction; and
  - (j) turn off, disconnect or shut down any motor or equipment in the emergency area; and
  - (k) open a container or other thing, or dismantle equipment, in the emergency area; and
  - (l) excavate land or form tunnels in the emergency area; and
  - (m) build earthworks or temporary structures, or erect barriers, in the emergency area; and
  - (n) remove to such place as the authorised officer thinks proper any person who obstructs or threatens to obstruct emergency management activities; and
  - (o) require a person to give the authorised officer reasonable help to exercise the authorised officer's powers under this Division.
- (1A) A direction under subsection (1)(i) may be given in relation to a class of place.
- (2) An authorised officer may enter a place or vehicle in the emergency area without a warrant or the consent of the occupier of the place or the owner of the vehicle.

[Section 75 amended: No. 11 of 2020 s. 11.]

76A. Manufacture, supply and prescription of poisons

- (1) In this section each of the following terms has the meaning given in the Medicines and Poisons Act 2014 section 3 —

CEO

manufacture

poison

prescribe supply

- (2) For the purposes of emergency management —
- (a) the CEO may authorise a person to administer, manufacture, supply or prescribe a poison; and
  - (b) during a state of emergency a person authorised under paragraph (a) may administer, manufacture, supply or prescribe a poison.
- (3) An authorisation under subsection (2)(a) is to specify —
- (a) whether it applies to any state of emergency or is limited to a particular state of emergency; and
  - (b) the person, or class of persons, to whom it applies; and
  - (c) the poison, or a class of poisons, to which it applies; and
  - (d) the terms and conditions to which it is subject.
- (4) An authorisation under subsection (2)(a) may be given orally or in writing but if given orally is to be put in writing as soon as is practicable.
- (5) A failure to put an authorisation in writing does not invalidate the authorisation or anything done under the authorisation.
- (6) When exercising a power under subsection (2)(b) a person is to comply with —
- (a) the terms and conditions of the authorisation; and
  - (b) any directions of the CEO or State Emergency Coordinator.

- (7) This section applies despite any provision of the Medicines and Poisons Act 2014 or the Misuse of Drugs Act 1981.

[Section 76A inserted: No. 13 of 2014 s. 184.]

Division 3 — General provisions

76. General provisions regarding powers

- (1) In this section —
officer means a hazard management officer, authorised officer or police officer.
- (2) If a person does not comply with a direction under this Part, an officer may do all such things as are reasonably necessary to ensure compliance with the direction, using such force as is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (3) An officer may exercise a power under this Part with the help, and using the force, that is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (4) The powers of an officer under this Part are in addition to, and not in derogation from, the powers the person may have under another written law or other law.

77. General provisions regarding directions

- (1) A direction may be given under this Part orally or in writing.
- (2) A direction given orally is to be confirmed in writing within 2 working days after it is given, unless within that period it is complied with or cancelled.
- (2A) A direction under section 67, 70, 71, 72A\(2\) or 75(1)(i) that is given in relation to a class of person or thing —
- (a) need not be given directly to the persons to whom it applies; and
  - (b) despite the Interpretation Act 1984 section 41 (to the extent to which it applies), need not be published in the Gazette; and

Part 7 — Compensation and insurance

Division 1 — Compensation

78. Entitlement to compensation

- (1) Subject to this Division, a person who suffers loss or damage because of the exercise, or purported exercise, of a power under section 46, 47, 48, 69 or 75(1)(f) is entitled to be paid just and reasonable compensation for the loss or damage.
- (2) Compensation is not payable to the person for loss or damage to the extent that —
  - (a) an amount for the loss or damage is recovered or recoverable by the person under a policy of insurance; or
  - (b) the conduct of the person contributed to the loss or damage.
- (3) Compensation is not payable to the person for loss or damage if the loss or damage would have happened in any event irrespective of the exercise, or purported exercise, of the power.

79. Applying for compensation

- (1) A person who suffers loss or damage because of the exercise, or purported exercise, of a power under section 46, 47, 48, 69 or 75(1)(f) may apply to the Minister for compensation for the loss or damage.
- (2) The application is to be made in writing within 90 days after the person suffers the loss or damage.
- (3) The application is to —
  - (a) state details of the person's loss or damage; and
  - (b) state the amount of compensation claimed and the grounds for the amount claimed; and
  - (c) be accompanied by such further information as is prescribed by the regulations.

- (4) The applicant is to provide any other relevant information required by notice given under section 80 to decide the application.
- (5) Despite subsection (2), the Minister may accept a person's application for compensation made more than 90 days after the person suffers the loss or damage if the Minister is satisfied that it would be reasonable in all the circumstances to accept the application.

80. Lapsing of application

- (1) If an application for compensation is made under this Division, the Minister may direct the applicant to provide information to decide the application by giving the applicant a notice stating —
  - (a) the required information; and
  - (b) the time by which the information is to be given to the Minister; and
  - (c) that, if the information is not given to the Minister by the stated time, the application will lapse.
- (2) The stated time is to be reasonable and, in any case, at least 21 days after the notice is given.
- (3) The Minister may give the applicant a further notice extending or further extending the time if the Minister is satisfied that it would be reasonable in all the circumstances to give the extension.
- (4) A notice may be given under subsection (3) even if the time to which it relates has lapsed.
- (5) If the applicant does not comply with the requirement within the stated time or any extension, the application lapses.
- (6) In this section —
information includes a record relating to information.

81. Notice of decision

As soon as is practicable after deciding the application the Minister is to give the applicant a written notice stating —

- (a) the decision and the reasons for it;
- (b) if the Minister decides to pay compensation —
  - (i) details of the amount and how the amount was assessed; and
  - (ii) if the amount is less than the amount claimed — that the applicant may apply for a review of the decision, and how the applicant may apply for the review;
- (c) if the Minister decides not to pay compensation — that the applicant may apply for a review of the decision, and how the applicant may apply for the review.

82. Funding of compensation

The Consolidated Account is charged with the payment of any compensation payable under this Part and any expenses incurred in the administration of this Part, and is appropriated accordingly.

[Section 82 amended: No. 77 of 2006 s. 4.]

Division 2 — Review

83. Review of compensation decision

An applicant who is dissatisfied with a decision of the Minister to refuse to pay compensation or about the amount of compensation may apply to the State Administrative Tribunal for a review of the decision.

Division 3 — Policies of insurance

84. Extension of policy of insurance

- (1) This section applies to a policy of insurance for damage to property if —
  - (a) damage is caused to the property because of the exercise of a power, or performance of a function, under this Act by a person, in good faith, in relation to an emergency; and
  - (b) the power is exercised, or the function is performed, for the purpose of protecting —
    - (i) the property from damage; or
    - (ii) a person or an animal from death or injury.
- (2) For the purposes of the policy of insurance, the damage is, by the operation of this section, to be taken to be damage caused by the happening of an event for which the policy provides insurance cover.
- (3) A term of a policy of insurance that purports to vary or exclude the operation of subsection (2) is void.

Part 8 — Offences

85. Obstruction of a hazard management officer or authorised officer

A person must not obstruct or hinder a hazard management officer or an authorised officer in the exercise of a power under this Act.

Penalty: a fine of $50 000.

86. Failure to comply with direction

- (1) A person given a direction under section 47, 67, 70, 71, 72A or 75\(1\)\(i\) must comply with the direction.

Penalty:

- (a) imprisonment for 12 months or a fine of $50 000;
- (b) for each separate and further offence committed by the person under the Interpretation Act 1984 section 71, a fine of $5 000.
- (2) A person must comply with a direction referred to in subsection (1) despite the provisions of any other written law, and the person does not commit an offence by reason of that compliance.

- \(3\) It is a defence to a charge of an offence under subsection \(1\) for the person to prove that the person had a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with the direction.

[\[Section 86 amended: No. 11 of 2020 s. 13.\]](#)

87. Failure to give help

A person required to give reasonable help under section 75(1)(o) must comply with the requirement.

Penalty: a fine of $50 000.

88. Impersonation of hazard management officer or authorised officer

A person must not falsely represent, by words or conduct, that the person is a hazard management officer or an authorised officer.

Penalty: a fine of $50 000.

89. False or misleading information

A person must not give information that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular to a hazard management officer or an authorised officer exercising a power under this Act or to a person helping a hazard management officer or an authorised officer to exercise a power under this Act.

Penalty: a fine of $50 000.

90. False compensation claim

A person must not, in or in relation to a claim for compensation under Part 7, make a statement that the person knows to be false or misleading in a material particular to, or otherwise mislead, the Minister or any other person.

Penalty: a fine of $50 000.

Part 9 — Employment protection

91. Terms used

(1) In this Part —

employee has the meaning given to that term in the Industrial Relations Act 1979;

employer has the meaning given to that term in the Industrial Relations Act 1979.

(2) For the purposes of this Part —

(a) an employee carries out an emergency management response if —

- (i) the employee undertakes an activity that involves responding to an emergency; and
- (ii) the employee carries out the activity on a voluntary basis; and
- (iii) the employee is a member of, or has a member-like association with, an emergency management agency; and
- (iv) the employee was requested by or on behalf of the emergency management agency to carry out the activity or no such request was made, but it would be reasonable to expect that, if the circumstances had permitted the making of such a request, it is likely that such a request would have been made;

and

(b) an employee does not carry out an emergency management response if the activity involves prevention of, preparedness for, or recovery from, an emergency.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2)(a)(ii) an employee carries out an activity on a voluntary basis even if the employee directly or indirectly takes or agrees to take —

(a) an honorarium; or

- (b) a gratuity; or
- (c) a similar payment,

wholly or partly for carrying out the activity.

92. Protection of employment rights

- (1) For the purpose of calculating the entitlement of an employee to long service leave, sick leave, recreational leave or other benefits to which the employee is entitled, the continuity of service of the employee is to be taken not to have been broken only by the employee's absence from the employment because the employee was carrying out an emergency management response.
- (2) An employee who is absent from the employee's employment because the employee is carrying out an emergency management response is entitled to be paid by the person's employer remuneration for the period of the employee's absence calculated at the employee's ordinary rate of remuneration, determined in accordance with the regulations, on the time that the employee would ordinarily have worked had the employee worked his or her scheduled work time.

93. Victimisation because of emergency management response

- (1) An employer must not victimise an employee of the employer for the reason that, or reasons that include the reason that, the employee was temporarily absent from employment because the employee was carrying out an emergency management response.
- (2) It is a defence for the employer to show that —
  - (a) the absence was not reasonable having regard to all the circumstances; or
  - (b) that the victimisation did not occur for the reason, or for reasons that include the reason, referred to in subsection (1).

- (3) An employer victimises an employee if the employer —
- (a) dismisses the employee from employment with the employer; or
  - (b) alters the employee's position in his or her employment with the employer, to the employee's disadvantage; or
  - (c) refuses to promote or transfer the employee; or
  - (d) does not provide the entitlements referred to in section 92; or
  - (e) otherwise injures the employee in his or her employment with the employer.

94. Civil penalty for breach of section 93

- (1) In this section —
- association* has the meaning given to that term in the Industrial Relations Act 1979;
- court* means the Magistrates Court;
- organisation* has the meaning given to that term in the Industrial Relations Act 1979.
- (2) The following persons may apply to the court for an order under this section in respect of a contravention of section 93(1) —
- (a) the person directly affected by the contravention;
  - (b) an organisation or an association of which that person is a member.
- (3) If the court is satisfied that the employer has contravened section 93(1), the court may order the employer —
- (a) to reinstate the person if he or she was dismissed from employment; or
  - (b) subject to subsection (6), to pay to the person compensation for any loss or injury suffered as a result of the contravention; or

- (c) to pay to the Treasurer an amount not exceeding $50 000, or do any one or more of those things.
- (4) The standard of proof to be applied in determining whether there has been a contravention of section 93(1) is the standard observed in civil proceedings.
- (5) A person is not entitled to compensation both under this section and otherwise for the same dismissal, loss or injury.
- (6) The court does not have jurisdiction under subsection (3)(b) to order that there be paid —
  - (a) to an employee who has been dismissed, any amount exceeding 6 months' remuneration of the employee; and
  - (b) in any other case, any amount exceeding $5 000 or such other amount as is prescribed by the regulations.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (6)(a) the court may calculate the amount on the basis of an average rate of remuneration received during any relevant period of employment.
- (8) A person must comply with an order made against him or her under this section.
Penalty:
  - (a) a fine of $50 000;
  - (b) for each separate and further offence committed by the person under the Interpretation Act 1984 section 71, a fine of $5 000.

Part 10 — Miscellaneous

95. Confidentiality of information

A person who has been engaged in the performance of functions under this Act must not, directly or indirectly, record, disclose or make use of information obtained in the course of duty, except —

- (a) for the purpose of, or in connection with, performing functions under this Act; or
- (b) as required or allowed under this Act or another written law; or
- (c) with the written consent of the Minister or person to whom the information relates; or
- (d) in prescribed circumstances.

Penalty: a fine of $12 000 and imprisonment for one year.

96. Expenses

- (1) The Minister may approve the payment to an emergency management agency of expenses that are —
  - (a) incurred by the emergency management agency in implementing emergency management during an emergency situation or a state of emergency in accordance with this Act; and
  - (b) not otherwise payable out of moneys provided by Parliament for that purpose.
- (2) The Consolidated Account is charged with the payment of any expenses that are approved under subsection (1) and is appropriated accordingly.

[Section 96 amended: No. 77 of 2006 s. 4.]

97. Bodies corporate or employers, conduct on behalf of

- (1) In this section —
- engaging in conduct* includes failing or refusing to engage in conduct;
- state of mind* of a person includes —
- (a) the knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose of the person; and
  - (b) the person's reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose.
- (2) This section applies to and in relation to proceedings for an offence against this Act.
- (3) If it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show —
- (a) that the conduct was engaged in by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and
  - (b) that the director, employee or agent had the relevant state of mind.
- (4) Conduct engaged in on behalf of a body corporate by a director, employee or agent of the body corporate within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority is to be taken to have been engaged in also by the body corporate, unless the body corporate establishes that it took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.
- (5) If it is necessary to establish the state of mind of a person other than a body corporate in relation to particular conduct, it is sufficient to show —
- (a) that the conduct was engaged in by an employee or agent of the person within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority; and

- (b) that the employee or agent had the relevant state of mind.
- (6) Conduct engaged in on behalf of a person other than a body corporate (the employer) by an employee or agent of the person within the scope of his or her actual or apparent authority is to be taken to have been engaged in also by the employer, unless the employer establishes that the employer took reasonable precautions and exercised due diligence to avoid the conduct.

98. Body corporate's officers, liability of

- (1) In this section —
officer, in relation to a body corporate, has the meaning given to that term in the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth but does not include an employee of the body unless the employee was concerned in the management of the body.
- (2) If a body corporate is charged with an offence under this Act, every person who was an officer of the body at the time of the alleged offence may also be charged with the offence.
- (3) If a body corporate and an officer are charged as permitted under subsection (2) and the body corporate is convicted of the offence, the officer is to be taken to have also committed the offence, subject to subsection (6).
- (4) If a body corporate commits an offence under this Act, then, although the body is not charged with the offence, every person who was an officer of the body at the time the offence was committed may be charged with the offence.
- (5) If an officer is charged as permitted by subsection (4) and it is proved that the body corporate committed the offence, the officer is to be taken to have also committed the offence, subject to subsection (6).

- (6) If under this section an officer is charged with an offence it is a defence to prove —
- (a) that the offence was committed without the officer's consent or connivance; and
  - (b) that the officer took all the measures to prevent the commission of the offence that he or she could reasonably be expected to have taken having regard to the officer's functions and to all the circumstances.

99. Evidentiary matters

- (1) In proceedings for an offence against this Act, an allegation in the prosecution notice of any of the following matters is, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to be taken to be proved —
- (a) that at a specified time an emergency situation declaration or a state of emergency declaration was in force;
  - (b) that at a specified time a specified area was, or was part of, an emergency area;
  - (c) that at a specified time a person was a hazard management officer, an authorised officer or a police officer authorised to act under section 71;
  - (d) that at a specified time a specified person was given a notice or direction under this Act;
  - (e) that at a specified time a specified requirement was made of a specified person.
- (2) Unless the contrary is proved, it is to be presumed that a document purporting to have been signed by the Minister, the State Emergency Coordinator, the chairman of the SEMC, a hazard management officer or an authorised officer was signed by a person who at the time was the Minister, the State Emergency Coordinator, the chairman of the SEMC, a hazard management officer or an authorised officer.

---

- (3) Unless the contrary is proved, it is to be presumed that a document purporting to have been signed by a delegate of the Minister, the State Emergency Coordinator or the SEMC was signed by a person who at the time was such a delegate and was authorised to sign it.
- (4) This section is in addition to and does not affect the operation of the Evidence Act 1906.

100.      Protection from liability

- (1) An action in tort does not lie against the State, a Minister, the State Emergency Coordinator, a local government or an official for anything done, in good faith, under this Act.
- (2) This section does not stop a person further limiting the person's liability for an act or omission by relying on a provision of the Civil Liability Act 2002.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not affect any right to recover damages in respect of the death of or bodily injury to any person directly caused by, or by the driving of, a motor vehicle if, at the time of the death or bodily injury —
  - (a) the vehicle was owned or was being driven by a person who, but for subsection (1), would incur liability in respect of the death or injury; and
  - (b) there was in force in respect of the vehicle a contract of insurance in accordance with the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act 1943 section 4 or the corresponding legislation of a State or Territory prescribed for the purposes of section 3(4) of that Act.
- (4) The protection given by this section applies even though the thing done in the performance or purported performance of a function under this Act may have been capable of being done whether or not this Act had been enacted.

(5) In this section a reference to the doing of anything includes a reference to the omission to do anything.

(6) In this section —

motor vehicle has the meaning given to that term in the Motor Vehicle (Third Party Insurance) Act 1943 section 3(1);

official means —

- (a) a member of the State Disaster Council, the State Emergency Management Committee, the State Emergency Coordination Group, a district emergency management committee or local emergency management committee;
- (b) an authorised officer;
- (c) a district emergency coordinator;
- (d) a local emergency coordinator;
- (e) an emergency management agency;
- (f) a hazard management officer;
- (g) a person acting under the direction or on the requirement of an authorised officer, a hazard management officer, or a police officer, under this Act.

101. Regulations as to compensation of volunteers

(1) In this section —

prescribed emergency activity means an activity prescribed by the regulations that relates to emergency management;

volunteer means a person who —

- (a) carries out a prescribed emergency activity; and
- (b) carries out the activity —
  - (i) on a voluntary basis; or
  - (ii) in accordance with a direction given under this Act or any other written law.

s. 101

---

- (2) For the purposes of this section a person carries out an activity on a voluntary basis even if the person directly or indirectly takes or agrees to take —
- (a) an honorarium; or
  - (b) a gratuity; or
  - (c) a similar payment,
- wholly or partly for carrying out the activity.
- (3) The Governor may make regulations concerning compensation and insurance of volunteers carrying out prescribed emergency activities.
- (4) Regulations made under this section may require an emergency management agency to take out and keep current in accordance with the regulations a policy of insurance that insures volunteers for compensation for injury caused to them while they are engaged in carrying out prescribed emergency activities.
- (5) Without limiting subsections (3) and (4), regulations made under this section may —
- (a) provide for the compensation that is payable for injury caused to a volunteer and the circumstances in which the compensation is payable; and
  - (b) prescribe the terms and conditions on and subject to which insurance is to be provided, including the amounts of insurance cover to be taken out and kept current; and
  - (c) prescribe classes or categories of volunteers to which specified provisions or obligations under the regulations apply or do not apply; and
  - (d) prescribe classes or categories of emergency management agencies to which specified provisions or obligations under the regulations apply or do not apply; and

- (e) provide for circumstances in which emergency management agencies are exempt from the regulations; and
- (f) prescribe a penalty of not more than $50 000 for an offence against the regulations, with or without a penalty for each separate and further offence committed under the Interpretation Act 1984 section 71 of not more than $5 000.

102. Regulations

- (1) The Governor may make regulations prescribing all matters that are required or permitted by this Act to be prescribed, or are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to the purposes of this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the regulations may limit the circumstances, and regulate the manner, in which the powers conferred by this Act may be exercised.
- (3) If this Act is a prescribed Act for the purposes of the *Criminal Procedure Act 2004* Part 2, regulations that prescribe an offence under this Act for which an infringement notice may be issued under the *Criminal Procedure Act 2004* Part 2 have effect despite section 5\(2\) of that Act.

[\[Section 102 amended: No. 11 of 2020 s. 14.\]](#)

103. Review of Act

- (1) The Minister is to carry out a review of the operation and effectiveness of this Act as soon as is practicable after the expiry of 5 years from the commencement of this Act.
- (2) In the course of that review the Minister is to consider and have regard to —
  - (a) whether there is a need for the Act to continue; and
  - (b) any other matters that appear to the Minister to be relevant to the operation and effectiveness of the Act.

- (3) The Minister is to prepare a report based on the review and, as soon as is practicable after the report is prepared, is to cause it to be laid before each House of Parliament.
