<sup>3</sup> The Courts Legislation Amendment and Repeal Act 2004 Pt. 3 reads as follows:

Part 3 — Small Claims Tribunals Act 1974 repealed

13. Transitional provisions

- (1) In this section —
“commencement” means the commencement of this Part.
- (2) If immediately before commencement a small claim is pending before a Small Claims Tribunal, then on commencement the small claim is to be taken to be an action within the civil jurisdiction of the Magistrates Court and may be heard and determined accordingly subject to the Magistrates Court (Civil Proceedings) Act 2004.
- (3) If immediately before commencement an order made by a Small Claims Tribunal is in force under the Small Claims Tribunals Act 1974, then on commencement the order is taken to be an order made by the Magistrates Court and has effect accordingly.
- (4) The repeal of the Small Claims Tribunals Act 1974 does not prevent an application or order being made under the Suitors’ Fund Act 1964 in relation to a claim that was before a Small Claims Tribunal before commencement.
- (5) On commencement and for the purposes of subsection (4) the Magistrates Court has jurisdiction to make any order under the Suitors’ Fund Act 1964 that a Small Claims Tribunal would have had jurisdiction to make under that Act immediately before commencement.
- (6) A reference in a written law or book, document or writing to a Small Claims Tribunal is, unless the contrary intention appears, to be construed as if it had been amended to be a reference to the Magistrates Court.
