 - (ii) keeps a driver's licence register to record information about drivers' licences under this Act;

and

- (b) the identification of people driving motor vehicles under the authority of those licences is facilitated.
- (2) The particular purposes for which this Part provides that regulations are to be, or may be, made do not prevent anything in section 61 from applying to the making of regulations for the purposes of this Part.
- (3) The regulations may
 - (a) classify the different kinds of authorisation to drive that may be conferred by a driver's licence and provide for a licence to be designated according to the class or classes of authorisation that the licence confers on the holder; and
 - (b) grade each class of authorisation to drive according to the driving skills and other requirements to be met before a person can hold a driver's licence conferring authorisation of that class; and
 - (c) prescribe different endorsements of drivers' licences that can be made, and the effect of each endorsement; and

Part 2

- (d) provide for schemes for assessing the competency of people to hold drivers' licences; and
- (e) prescribe requirements for the holding of a licence under this Part authorising the holder to drive when learning that may differ from the requirements for the holding of a driver's licence appropriate for that driving when not learning.

Driver licensing

s. 4

 - (ii) an expedited means for the licence holder to obtain a licence authorising anything that was formerly authorised by the licence but, because of the amendment, has ceased to be authorised;

and

- (h) prescribe circumstances in which a driver's licence document has to be returned to the CEO and prescribe how it is to be returned; and
- (i) create offences involving the alteration, destruction, or misuse of a driver's licence document.
- (6) The regulations may relieve any driver described in the regulations from the requirement to comply with this Part, or a specified provision of this Part or the regulations.

- (b) having a blood alcohol content of or above a stated level; or

- (2) The regulations may provide for an alcohol interlock scheme under which

 - (b) the requirement referred to in paragraph (a) ceases to apply if the person satisfies prescribed conditions.
- (3) The particular purposes for which this section provides that regulations may be made do not prevent anything in section 61 from applying to the making of regulations for the purposes of this section.
- (4) Regulations made for the purposes of this section may, in relation to persons who have been convicted of prescribed alcohol offences, make any provision of a kind referred to in section 4.

if the regulations specify a licence of that description as authorising that driving to the same extent as if the person held the appropriate learner's permit.
