- (2) A document given by pre-paid post is to be taken to have been given to a person 2 business days after the day on which the document was posted.

33. Ordinary service: how effected

- (1) For the purposes of subrule (2), the proper address of a person is —
 - (a) the address for service in the proceedings of that person; or
 - (b) the address of that person’s legal practitioner, litigation guardian, guardian ad litem or agent; or
 - (c) if, at the time when the copy is to be left or posted under that subrule, the person has no address for service in the proceedings, the person’s usual or last known place of business or residence.
- (2A) A document given by ordinary service must comply with any requirements under these rules, a practice note or a direction.
- (2) If a document is required to or may be given by ordinary service, it is given —

- (a) by leaving a copy of the document at the proper address of the person to be served between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. on a business day; or
- (b) by giving a copy of the document in accordance with the Interpretation Act 1984 section 76(d); or
- (c) if the person to be given the document has specified or authorised a number for service by fax transmission, by sending the document to that fax number; or
- (d) if the person to be given the document has specified or authorised an address for service by email, by sending the document to that email address; or
- (e) if the person to be given the document is a public sector body, by sending the document to the body's address for service in the proceedings.

[(3)-(5) deleted]

- (6) The time of giving any document is, where the document or copy of the document —
 - (a) is sent by post under subrule (2)(b), 2 business days after the day on which the document was posted; or
 - (b) is sent by fax transmission or email under subrule (2)(c), (d) or (e), at the time the fax or email is received.
- (7) If a fax or an email is received after 4.00 p.m. on any day, it is to be taken to have been received on the next business day.

[Rule 33 amended: Gazette 14 May 2013 p. 1970; 6 Feb 2015 p. 571.]

34. Address for service

- (1) The address of a place for service in the proceedings must be an address within this State at which documents may, during ordinary business hours —
 - (a) be left for the person whose address for service it is; and

- (b) to which documents may be posted to that person.
- (2) If a person is represented by a legal practitioner, the address for service in the proceedings must be the address of that legal practitioner or of the legal practitioner's agent located within this State.
- (3) If a person is represented by an agent, the address for service in the proceedings must be the address of that agent located within this State.
- (4) A public sector body may by written notice —
 - (a) give the executive officer a fax number or an address for service by email; or
 - (b) change or withdraw that number or address for service.
- (5) The executive officer is to keep in a register an accurate record of a fax number or an email address of a public sector body.
- (6) If a party to a proceeding is represented by a legal practitioner or an agent and the name and address of the legal practitioner or agent is not provided in the application, the legal practitioner or agent must within 7 days of receiving instructions to represent the party —
 - (a) file with the executive officer a notice of representation in an approved form duly completed; and
 - (b) give a copy of the notice to each other party to the proceeding or, if a party is represented by a legal practitioner or agent, that legal practitioner or agent.
- (7) If —
 - (a) a party to a proceeding is represented by a legal practitioner or an agent; and
 - (b) the name and address of the legal practitioner or agent is not provided in the application; and
 - (c) the legal practitioner or agent has not complied with subrule (6), the legal practitioner or agent may not appear in or file any document with the Tribunal or executive officer in relation to the proceeding.

- (8) If a legal practitioner or agent ceases to represent a party in proceedings, the legal practitioner or agent must within 7 days of ceasing to represent the party —
- (a) file with the executive officer a notice of representation in an approved form duly completed stating —
 - (i) the legal practitioner or agent has ceased to represent the party; and
 - (ii) the party's address for service in the proceedings;
 - and
 - (b) give a copy of the notice to each other party in the proceeding or, if a party is represented by a legal practitioner or agent, that legal practitioner or agent.

[Rule 34 amended: Gazette 13 Apr 2007 p. 1684; 6 Feb 2015 p. 571.]

35. Acceptance by legal practitioner or agent

- (1) This rule applies to —
- (a) an application; or
 - (b) any document required or permitted to be given in any proceeding, that is required to be given by personal service.

- (2) If a legal practitioner or an agent representing a person in accordance with the Act, an enabling Act or these rules (the representative) makes on a copy of a document to which this rule applies a note that he or she accepts the document on behalf of a person, the document is to be taken, unless the representative is shown not to have had authority to represent the person, to have been duly given to that person on the date on which the representative makes the note or on such earlier date as may be proved.

36. Substituted service

- (1) If for any reason it is impractical to give a document in the manner set out in the rules, the Tribunal may order that, instead of using such a manner, such steps be taken as are specified in the order for the purpose of bringing the document to the notice of the person to be given the document.
- (2) If the Tribunal makes an order under subrule (1), the Tribunal may order that the document is to be taken to have been given on the happening of any specified event, or on the expiry of any specified time.

[Rule 36 amended: Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 572.]

37. Informal service: confirmation

If for any reason it is impractical to give a document in the manner set out in the rules, but steps have been taken to bring the document to the notice of the person to be given the document, the Tribunal may order that the document is to be taken to have been given to that person on a date specified in the order.

38. Proof of service

For the purposes of the proof that a document has been given to a person, evidence of a statement by a person of his or her identity, that he or she holds some office or has a representative capacity is evidence of his or her identity, that he or she holds that office or has that representative capacity, as the case may be.

Division 4 — Litigation guardian

39. Litigation guardian: section 40(2) of Act

- (1) A person ~~may be appointed~~ is qualified for appointment as a litigation guardian ~~for an adult person under the Act~~

~~section 40(2)~~ to conduct proceedings or proposed proceedings for a party or potential party if the person —

- (a) is an adult; and
 - (b) has no interest in the proceedings or proposed proceedings that is adverse to the interest of the ~~person needing the litigation guardian~~ party or potential party; and
 - (c) can fairly and competently conduct the proceedings or proposed proceedings for the ~~person needing the litigation guardian~~ party or potential party; and
 - (d) has consented to act as the litigation guardian.
- (2) ~~A~~ On application by any person ~~may apply for the appointment, replacement or removal of~~ its own motion the Tribunal may —
- (a) under section 40(2) of the Act, appoint a qualified person as a litigation guardian ~~of~~for a party or potential party; or
 - (b) remove a litigation guardian previously appointed; or
 - (c) if satisfied that in the circumstances of the case it is proper to do so, permit a party or potential party to participate in the proceedings without a litigation guardian.
- (3) A person appointed as a litigation guardian of a party or potential party must give written notice of the appointment to an applicant or a notifiable person.
- (4) A person appointed as a litigation guardian of a party or potential party —
- (a) is bound by these rules; and
 - (b) must do anything required by these rules to be done by the party or potential party; and
 - (c) may, for the benefit of the party or potential party, do anything permitted by these rules to be done by the party or potential party.

- (5) Subject to the Act Part 4 Division 5, the Tribunal may order the costs of a litigation guardian to be paid —
- (a) by a party; or
 - (b) from the income or property of the person for whom the litigation guardian is appointed.

[Rule 39 amended: SL 2022/219 r. 13.]

Division 4A — Expert evidence

[Heading inserted: Gazette 17 May 2016 p. 1491.]

39A. Experts' duties

An expert at a hearing, or at a conference referred to in rule 39B(1), has these paramount duties as to matters within their expertise —

- (a) to be impartial and independent;
- (b) to assist the Tribunal;
- (c) not to be an advocate for the party that has engaged them.

[Rule 39A inserted: Gazette 17 May 2016 p. 1491.]

39B. Conference of experts pre-hearing

- (1) This rule applies if in a proceeding the Tribunal orders experts with a common or overlapping expertise to confer and to file a joint statement about matters such as the points on which they agree and disagree.
- (2) Unless the Tribunal orders otherwise, the experts must confer in the absence of the parties and the parties' representatives.
- (3) An expert who is required to confer must not, before the joint statement is filed, discuss any matter raised in the conference with, or disclose any such matter to, any person who is not part of the conference.

- (4) Evidence of anything said or done in the course of the conference of experts, other than the joint statement, is not admissible at any later stage of the proceeding without the Tribunal's leave.
- (5) Unless the Tribunal orders otherwise, it will admit the joint statement filed by the experts into evidence at the hearing of the proceeding.
- (6) If the joint statement is admitted into evidence, no party can adduce any evidence inconsistent with any matters on which the statement says the experts agree, without the Tribunal's leave.

[Rule 39B inserted: Gazette 17 May 2016 p. 1491.]

39C. Experts to give evidence concurrently

- (1) If at the hearing of a proceeding one or more of the parties propose to adduce evidence of 2 or more experts with a common or overlapping expertise then the experts must all be present (including by means of a video link or an audio link) together in the witness box at the same time, unless the Tribunal orders otherwise.
- (2) Subject to the Tribunal's directions, when experts are together in the witness box —
 - (a) they may be questioned together or separately by the Tribunal, the parties or the parties' representatives; and
 - (b) they may respond immediately to each other's evidence; and
 - (c) they may ask each other questions.

[Rule 39C inserted: Gazette 17 May 2016 p. 1491-2.]

Division 5 — Settlements

40. Settlement offers

- (1) An offer to settle a proceeding that is before the Tribunal may be made —

- (a) with prejudice, meaning that any party may refer to the offer, or to any terms of the offer, at any time during the proceeding; or
 - (b) without prejudice, meaning that the Tribunal is not able to be told of the making of the offer until after it has made its decision in respect of the matters in dispute in the proceeding (other than in relation to the making of orders in respect of costs).
- (2) If an offer does not specify whether it is made with or without prejudice, it is to be treated as if it had been made without prejudice.
 - (3) A party may make more than one offer.
 - (4) If an offer provides for the payment of money, the offer must specify the amount of money to be paid and when and how that money is to be paid.

41. Acceptance of settlement offers

- (1) An offer may be open for acceptance for any period. However, an offer must be open for acceptance until the commencement of the hearing or until the expiry of a specified period after the offer is made, whichever is the shorter period.
- (2) The minimum period that can be specified is 14 days.
- (3) An offer cannot be withdrawn while it is open for acceptance without the permission of the Tribunal.
- (4) In deciding whether to give permission, the Tribunal may examine the offer, even if it was made without prejudice.
- (5) If the offer was made without prejudice, a member of the Tribunal who examines it for the purposes of subrule (4) must take no further part in the proceeding after determining whether or not to give permission.
- (6) A party can only accept an offer by giving the party who made it a signed notice of acceptance.

- (7) A party may accept an offer even though the party has made a counter-offer.

[Rule 41 amended: Gazette 13 Apr 2006 p. 1558.]

Division 6 — Costs

42A. Time within which costs application may be made

Subject to these rules, an application to the Tribunal for costs under this Division can be made within 21 days of the orders to which the application relates being made by the Tribunal.

[Rule 42A inserted: Gazette 14 May 2013 p. 1970.]

42. Order for costs if settlement offer is rejected

- (1) This rule applies if —
- (a) a party to a proceeding (other than a proceeding in the Tribunal's review jurisdiction) gives another party to the proceeding an offer in writing to settle the proceeding; and
 - (b) the other party does not accept the offer within the time the offer is open; and
 - (c) the offer complies with rules 40 and 41; and
 - (d) in the opinion of the Tribunal, the orders made by the Tribunal in the proceeding are not more favourable to the other party than the offer.
- (2) If this rule applies, the Tribunal is to, in determining the costs that may be awarded, take into account that the party did not accept an offer more favourable than the Tribunal's order.
- (3) In determining whether its orders are or are not more favourable to a party than an offer, the Tribunal —
- (a) must take into account any costs it would have ordered on the date the offer was made; and
 - (b) must disregard any costs it ordered in respect of any period after the date the offer was received.

43. Amount of costs

- (1) If the Tribunal makes an order under the Act Part 4 Division 5 for the payment of costs and does not fix the amount of costs, that amount is to be assessed or settled by the executive officer or a member of the Tribunal nominated by the President (the nominated member).
- (2) An assessment of costs by the executive officer or a nominated member is to be taken to be an assessment of costs by the Tribunal.
- (3) If —
 - (a) a party fails to attend an assessment of costs having been given reasonable notice of the assessment by the executive officer or a nominated member; and
 - (b) the assessment is adjourned as a result; and
 - (c) another party incurs additional costs because of the adjournment, the executive officer or a nominated member may order that the party who failed to attend pay an amount fixed by the executive officer or nominated member in respect of the additional costs of the other party.

- (4) An order under subrule (3) may be enforced under the Act section 85 as if it were a monetary order.

Division 7 — Miscellaneous

[44. Deleted: Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 572.]

45. Barring people from being agents representing parties

- (1) If a judicial member is satisfied a person, other than a legal practitioner —
 - (a) has, under the Act section 39(1), represented a party to a proceeding before the Tribunal; and
 - (b) in doing so has acted inappropriately or improperly, the judicial member may, by order, prohibit the person from again representing a party.

- (2) The practice and procedure for making an order under subrule (1) is to be determined by the President.

[Rule 45 inserted: Gazette 17 May 2016 p. 1492.]

46. Dispensing with compliance with requirement of a rule

The Tribunal may dispense with compliance with a requirement of a rule, either before or after the time for compliance with the requirement arises.

[Rule 46 amended: Gazette 6 Feb 2015 p. 572.]

47. Forms

- (1) A form to be used under the Act must be one approved by the President.
- (2) An approved form must be completed in accordance with these rules and any instructions on or attached to the form.
- (3) A form may be accepted by the executive officer or dealt with by the Tribunal if it is substantially in the approved form and ~~subject to rule 7(2)~~, has been substantially completed.
- (4) The executive officer is to make the approved forms available to persons requiring them.

[Rule 47 amended: SL 2022/219 r. 14.]

Part 3 — Special rules

48. Animal Welfare Act 2002

For the purposes of the Act section 75(1)(c), the following persons are prescribed —

- (a) the Minister of the Crown to whom the administration of the Animal Welfare Act 2002 is committed; and
- (b) the Director General as defined in the Animal Welfare Act 2002 section 5(1); and
- (c) if the original decision-maker was an inspector, as defined in the Animal Welfare Act 2002 section 5(1), that inspector.

48A. Community Titles Act 2018

If a community corporation is given a copy of an application under the Act section 45, the community corporation must give a copy of the application to the persons referred to in the Community Titles Act 2018 section 163(2)(a), (b) or (c).

[Rule 48A inserted: SL 2021/123 r. 4.]

49. Credit (Administration) Act 1984

- (1) In this rule —
cognate Acts and Commissioner have the meanings given to those terms in the Credit (Administration) Act 1984 section 4.
- (2) In any proceedings before the State Administrative Tribunal under the cognate Acts a person is authorised under the Act section 39(1)(f) to be represented by the Commissioner or by a counsel, solicitor or agent for the Commissioner.

50. Employment Agents Act 1976

Under the Act section 39(1)(f), a party to a review of a decision by the Tribunal under the Employment Agents Act 1976 section 22(4) is authorised to be represented by an agent.

51. Equal Opportunity Act 1984

- (1) An application for an interim order under the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 section 126 must be made on an application to commence proceedings before the Tribunal under that Act.
- (2) In cases of urgency an application for an interim order may be made ex parte.
- (3) If an application is made ex parte, a member of the Tribunal may order that the hearing of the application be delayed until any other interested party is informed of the application and given a copy of any documents which have been filed in relation to the application.
- (4) If an order is made ex parte, a member of the Tribunal may order the executive officer to give, in any manner which the member considers appropriate, a copy of the order to any person affected by the terms of the order and any other person.
- (5) Rule 34(6) and (7) do not apply if the Commissioner for Equal Opportunity, or a counsel or representative of the Commissioner, is the legal practitioner or agent representing the complainant in proceedings relating to a complaint referred to the Tribunal under the Equal Opportunity Act 1984 section 93(1).

52. Firearms Act 1973

- (1) This rule applies to an application for review of a decision under the Firearms Act 1973 section 22(2).
- (2) Under the Act section 39(1)(f), a party to a review of a decision by the Tribunal is authorised to be represented by an agent.
- (3) If a licence was —
 - (a) refused; or

- (b) issued with a restriction, limitation or condition the subject of the application for review, by a member of the Police Force, a copy of the application for review must also be given to that member.

- (4) Under the Act section 39(1)(f), the Commissioner of Police is authorised to be represented by a member of the Police Force of Western Australia or an officer of the Department as defined in the Firearms Act 1973 section 4.

[Rule 52 amended: Gazette 14 Oct 2005 p. 4570.]

53. Fish Resources Management Act 1994

54. Guardianship and Administration Act 1990

- (1) This rule applies to proceedings under the Guardianship and Administration Act 1990.
- (2) Rules 26 and 47 do not apply to an application made to the Tribunal under the Guardianship and Administration Act 1990 section 40.
- (3) Despite Part 2 Division 3, if a document is required to be given to a person referred to in the Guardianship and Administration Act 1990 section 115(1) under the Act it must be given personally to that person in the manner specified in section 115 of that Act.

55. Medical Act 1894

Under the Act section 39(1)(f), a person who makes an application for review under the *Medical Act 1894*² section 13(8) is authorised to be represented by a person other than a legal practitioner.

56. Mental Health Act 1996

(1) In this rule —

authorised hospital, community treatment order, involuntary patient and supervising psychiatrist have the meanings given to those terms in the Mental Health Act 2014 section 4.

[(2) deleted]

(3) Despite rule 31, if a document is required to or may be given to an involuntary patient who is not the subject of a community treatment order, personal service is effected by leaving a copy of the document with the person in charge of the authorised hospital in which the person is detained.

(4) Despite rule 31, if a document is required to or may be given to an involuntary patient who is the subject of a community treatment order personal service is effected —

- (a) by leaving a copy of the document with him or her; or
- (b) if the involuntary patient cannot be found, by leaving a copy of the document with his or her supervising psychiatrist.

(5) Despite rule 31, if a document is required to or may be given to an involuntary patient who is absent on leave of absence and cannot be found, personal service is effected by leaving a copy of the document with the person in charge of the authorised hospital in which the person is required to be detained.

(6) A copy of a document that must be given to an involuntary patient under the Act, an enabling Act or these rules must also be given to —

- (a) the patient's litigation guardian appointed under the Act section 40(2) (if any); and
- (b) the patient's guardian ad litem (if any); and

- (c) if an administrator of his or her estate has been appointed under the Guardianship and Administration Act 1990, the administrator; and
- (d) if the patient has a guardian appointed under a law of a State or Territory, that guardian.

[Rule 56 amended: Gazette 12 Feb 2016 p. 384.]

57. Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1994

- (1) Under the Act section 39(1)(f), a licensing officer who makes an allegation to the Tribunal under the Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1994 section 27(2) that it should take action against a specified licensee under section 27 of that Act is authorised to be represented by a member of the Police Force of Western Australia or an officer of the Department as defined in section 3(1) of that Act.
- (2) Under the Act section 39(1)(f), a licensing officer whose decision is subject to review under the Pawnbrokers and Second-hand Dealers Act 1994 section 30(1) is authorised to be represented by a member of the Police Force of Western Australia or an officer of the Department as defined in section 3(1) of that Act.

[Rule 57 inserted: Gazette 14 Oct 2005 p. 4570; amended: Gazette 13 Apr 2007 p. 1684.]

58. Public Order in Streets Act 1984

- (1) This rule applies to an application for review under the Public Order in Streets Act 1984 section 8(1).
- (2) Under the Act section 45(2)(c), the applicant is exempt from the requirement to give a copy of the application to the notifiable person.
- (3) The executive officer in determining the date for hearing the application must ensure that it takes place as soon as is practicable, but in any event on a date before the date of the proposed public meeting or procession.

- (4) In addition to the persons referred to in rule 18, the executive officer is to give notice of the time and place for a hearing in a proceeding to the Commissioner of Police, or the authorised officer to whom the application for the permit was made, as the case may require.

[(5) deleted]

- (6) Under the Act section 39(1)(f), the Commissioner of Police, or the authorised officer to whom the application for the permit was made, as the case may require, is authorised to be represented by a member of the Police Force of Western Australia.

[Rule 58 amended: Gazette 14 Oct 2005 p. 4570; 13 Apr 2007 p. 1685.]
