- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) a person is to be treated as holding a crowd control agent's licence if such a licence is held on the person's behalf under section 43(2).

[Section 40 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 80(2).]

Part 6 — Control of armed bodyguards

41. Authorisation of armed bodyguards

- (1) A person, not being an officer of a police force, must not act as an armed security bodyguard except —
 - (a) under and in accordance with a written authority given by the Commissioner with the approval of the Minister; or
 - (b) as authorised by or under a written law of the Commonwealth.

Penalty: a fine of $15 000.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person is an armed security bodyguard if the person while in actual possession of a firearm escorts another person as a guard or protector, and whether or not he or she does so in any other capacity.
- (3) An authority under subsection (1)(a), may be given subject to any condition or restriction.

[Section 41 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 28 and 80(2).]

42. Revocation etc. of authorisation

- (1) An authority under section 41(1)(a) —
 - (a) may be amended or revoked by the Commissioner with the approval of the Minister at any time by written notice given to the holder of the authority; or
 - (b) may be suspended for 7 days by oral notice given to the holder of the authority by a police officer.
- (2) A police officer may give oral notice under subsection (1)(b) only if he or she is satisfied that there is a significant risk to the safety of any person if the authority continues in force.
- (3) Unless it is sooner revoked under subsection (1)(a), an authority that is suspended under subsection (1)(b) has effect again on the expiration of the period of suspension.

Part 6A — Temporary licences for interstate visitors

[Heading inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 29.]

42A. Temporary licence — security activities

- (1) A person who ordinarily resides in another State or Territory may apply, in accordance with section 46, for a licence (a temporary licence) to carry out in Western Australia any activity, or activities, as a crowd controller, investigator, security bodyguard, security consultant, security officer or security installer that may be authorised under this Act.
- (2) A temporary licence —
 - (a) is to be granted for such period of time of not more than one year as is specified in the licence; and
 - (b) is not renewable.
- (3) The holder of a temporary licence under this section does not commit an offence under this Act while acting under and in accordance with that licence.

[Section 42A inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 29.]

42B. Temporary licence — agent services

- (1) A person who ordinarily resides in another State or Territory may apply, in accordance with section 46, for a licence (a temporary licence) to supply in Western Australia any service, or services, as a security agent, inquiry agent or crowd control agent that may be authorised under this Act.
- (2) A temporary licence —
 - (a) is to be granted for such period of time of not more than one year as is specified in the licence; and
 - (b) is not renewable.
- (3) The holder of a temporary licence under this section does not commit an offence under this Act while acting under and in accordance with that licence.

[Section 42B inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 29.]

Part 7 — Licensing procedures

Division 1 — Who may hold licence

43. Natural persons only to be licensed

- (1) A licence can only be issued to a natural person.
- (2) A natural person may hold an agent's licence on behalf of —
 - (a) a partnership if the natural person is one of the partners;
or
 - (b) a body corporate if the natural person is an officer of the body,

and any business under that licence may be transacted in the name of the partnership or body.

44. Residence requirements for licences on behalf of partnership etc.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a natural person who holds an agent's licence on behalf of a partnership or a body corporate must be a resident of the State.
- (2) A licensing officer may in writing exempt a partnership or body corporate from compliance with subsection (1), and may at any time revoke an exemption by notice in writing to the partnership or body corporate.

45. Automatic termination of licence held on behalf of partnership etc.

- (1) An agent's licence held by a person on behalf of a partnership terminates automatically if the person ceases to be one of the partners.
- (2) An agent's licence held by a person on behalf of a body corporate terminates automatically if the person ceases to be an officer of the body corporate.

Division 2 — Applications for issue and renewal of licences

46. Application for licence

- (1) An application for the issue of a licence is to be —
 - (a) made in the approved form; and
 - (b) lodged in the prescribed manner; and
 - (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed in respect of the licence.
- (2) A form approved under subsection (1) may include a requirement that the applicant's signature be witnessed by a person of a class specified in the form.

[Section 46 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 30.]

47. Material to support application for licence

- (1) An application for the issue of a licence, other than a temporary licence, is to be accompanied by —
 - (a) such evidence as is prescribed of the age and identity of the applicant;
 - (b) photographs of the applicant in such number and form as the Commissioner may determine;
 - (c) testimonials as to the applicant's character from 2 persons who have known the applicant for the whole of the 5 year period before the application was made;
 - (d) in the case of an application for a security officer's licence with an endorsement under section 24 or 26, evidence that the applicant has passed any prescribed medical examination;
 - (e) in the case of an application for an agent's licence, evidence that the applicant has sufficient financial resources to meet his or her financial obligations;

- (f) evidence that the person has —
 - (i) except where section 53 applies, satisfactorily completed any course of training prescribed in respect of the licence; and
 - (ii) passed any test or examination prescribed in respect of the licence;
 - (g) in the case of an application for an agent's licence to be held on behalf of a partnership or body corporate —
 - (i) where relevant, proof of the business name;
 - (ii) where relevant, proof of incorporation;
 - (iii) evidence that the applicant is a resident of the State; and
 - (iv) written confirmation from one of the other partners or one of the body's directors, as the case requires, that the applicant is authorised by the partnership or the body to make the application;and
 - (h) other evidence of a nature or in a form that is prescribed.
- (2) An application by a person is to state an address for service of notices and other documents that may be required to be served on the person under this Act whether as applicant or licensee.
- (2a) An application for the issue of a temporary licence is to be accompanied by —
- (a) such evidence as is prescribed of the age and identity of the applicant; and
 - (b) evidence that the person is licensed or registered or otherwise authorised in his or her State or Territory of residence to carry out the activity or activities for which the licence is sought; and
 - (c) other evidence of a nature or in a form that is prescribed.

- (2b) If requested by a licensing officer to do so, the applicant must do everything that is, in the opinion of the licensing officer, within the applicant's power to procure or facilitate the release to the licensing officer of all information held by a relevant body concerning relevant conduct by —
- (a) the applicant; or
 - (b) a natural person who is relevant to the application under section 56.
- (2c) Subsection (2b) applies in respect of an applicant even if the application for the licence was made before the commencement of the Security and Related Activities (Control) Amendment Act 2008 section 31, unless the application has been refused, or the licence issued, before that time.
- (3) The applicant must also provide such other information and evidence as a licensing officer may require for the proper consideration of a particular application, including all or any of the following —
- (a) further information and evidence that the licensing officer reasonably needs to establish the applicant's identity;
 - (b) if the applicant is a relevant applicant, information as to all or any of the following —
 - (i) the country, or countries, in which the applicant has spent time during the period of 5 years commencing immediately before the making of the application;
 - (ii) the length of time the applicant spent in that country, or those countries;
 - (iii) the reason why the applicant spent time in that country, or those countries;
 - (iv) the persons that the applicant associated with in that country, or those countries;
 - (v) the background, and the reputation, honesty and integrity of, any such persons;

- (c) if the applicant is a relevant applicant, a record of the criminal convictions, if any, of the applicant for offences under the law of any country, or countries, in which the applicant spent time during the period of 5 years commencing immediately before the making of the application, provided by a competent authority of the government of that country.
- (4) In subsection (3) —
relevant applicant means an applicant who —
 - (a) has spent more than 12 consecutive months outside Australia during the period of 5 years commencing immediately before the making of the application; or
 - (b) has not been a resident of Australia for the whole of the period of 5 years commencing immediately before the making of the application.

[Section 47 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 31.]

48. Taking of fingerprints and palm prints

- (1) Subject to subsection (1a), a licensing officer may in writing require any of the following persons to attend at a place and there have his or her fingerprints and palm prints taken by a member of the police force or an officer of the Department —
 - (a) a person who has applied for a licence; or
 - (b) a person who has applied for —
 - (i) the renewal of a licence; or
 - (ii) a permit under section 25; or
 - (iii) an endorsement under section 24 or 26,if the person has not previously had his or her fingerprints and palm prints taken under this section, or if such prints previously taken under this section have been destroyed at the person's election.

- (1a) A requirement under subsection (1) may be made orally if the person is present at the place where the fingerprints and palm prints are to be taken.
- (2) The grant of a licence, permit or endorsement referred to in subsection (1) may be refused if the person of whom a requirement under subsection (1) is made fails to comply with it.
- (2a) An application —
- (a) for the issue of a licence, permit or endorsement; or
 - (b) for the renewal of a licence,
- is to set out an election to be made by the applicant as to whether any fingerprints and palm prints taken from the applicant under this section, and any copy of them —
- (c) can be kept by the Commissioner indefinitely; or
 - (d) are to be dealt with in accordance with subsections (3) and (4).
- (2b) The fingerprints and palm prints of an applicant who makes an election referred to in subsection (2a)(c) are to be kept by the Commissioner in accordance with that election and, unless the applicant subsequently changes the election, subsections (3) and (4) do not apply in respect of those prints or copies.
- (2c) Before making an election referred to in subsection (2a) the applicant is to be informed as to the following matters —
- (a) that the prints taken may be compared with or put in a forensic database, within the meaning of the Criminal Investigation (Identifying People) Act 2002;
 - (b) that the prints taken may provide evidence that could be used in court against the applicant;
 - (c) that the applicant may subsequently change an election made under subsection (2a) by notifying the Commissioner;

- (d) that the applicant may get legal advice before deciding whether or not to have the prints taken and making an election under subsection (2a);
 - (e) such other matters as may be prescribed.
- (2d) The information in subsection (2c) may be provided in writing.
- (3) If an election is made under subsection (2a)(d), then the Commissioner is to cause fingerprints and palm prints taken under this section and any copy of them to be destroyed —
- (a) if the relevant licence, permit or endorsement is not granted; or
 - (b) when the relevant licence, permit or endorsement no longer has effect.
- (4) If a review is available under section 72, the destruction of fingerprints and palm prints under subsection (3) is not required until —
- (a) the time for applying for a review has expired; and
 - (b) if an application for a review is made, it has been determined in a way that does not result in the grant or continuation of the relevant licence, permit or endorsement.
- (5) If a person subsequently changes an election made under subsection (2a) and elects that prints taken are to be dealt with in accordance with subsections (3) and (4), and the time for destroying the prints under those provisions has already passed, the Commissioner is to cause the prints and any copy of them to be destroyed as soon as is practicable after the election is changed.

[Section 48 amended: No. 55 of 2004 s. 1069; No. 4 of 2008 s. 32.]

49. How and when to apply for renewal

- (1) An application for the renewal of a licence is to be —
 - (a) made in an approved form; and
 - (b) lodged in the prescribed manner; and
 - (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed in respect of the licence.
- (2) A form approved under subsection (1) may include a requirement that the applicant's signature be witnessed by a person of a class specified in the form.
- (3) An application for the renewal of a licence is to be made no later than 28 days before the day on which the licence is due to expire or at such later time as the licensing officer, having regard to section 57(2), allows.

[Section 49 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 33.]

50. Material to support application for renewal

- (1) An application for the renewal of a licence is to be accompanied by information of such a nature or in such a form as may be prescribed.
- (2) If requested by a licensing officer to do so, an applicant for renewal of a licence must do everything that is, in the opinion of the licensing officer, within the applicant's power to procure or facilitate the release to the licensing officer of all information held by a relevant body concerning relevant conduct by —
 - (a) the applicant; or
 - (b) a natural person who is relevant to the application under section 56.
- (3) Subsection (2) applies to an application lodged before, on or after the day on which the Security and Related Activities (Control) Amendment Act 2008 section 34, comes into operation unless the application has been refused, or the licence renewed, before that time.

[Section 50 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 34.]

51. False or misleading information

- (1) A person must not, in relation to an application for the issue or renewal of a licence, give information orally or in writing that the person knows to be —
- (a) false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (b) likely to deceive in a material way.

Penalty: a fine of $15 000.

- (2) Subsection (1) extends to the giving of information to a person who witnesses an applicant's signature as mentioned in sections 46(2) and 49(2).

[Section 51 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 80(2).]

Division 3 — Issue and renewal of licences

52. Issue of licences

- (1) A licensing officer is not to issue a licence, other than a temporary licence, unless the officer is satisfied —
- (a) that there is sufficient evidence of the applicant's identity; and
 - (b) in the case of an agent's licence, a security officer's licence and a crowd controller's licence, that the applicant has attained the age of 18 years; and
 - (c) that the applicant is of good character and is a fit and proper person to hold a licence; and
 - (ca) that the applicant is not a prohibited person; and
 - (cb) where there is a charge pending in relation to the applicant for a disqualifying offence, that extenuating circumstances exist; and
 - (d) in the case of an agent's licence, that during the licence period there will be adequate management, supervision

- and control of the business that will be carried on under the licence; and
- (e) that during the licence period the applicant will be able to comply with any condition or restriction to which the licence is to be made subject; and
 - (f) in the case of an agent's licence, that the applicant has sufficient financial resources to meet his or her financial obligations; and
 - (g) that the applicant has —
 - (i) except where section 53 applies, satisfactorily completed any course of training prescribed in respect of the licence; and
 - (ii) passed any test or examination prescribed in respect of the licence;
- and
- (h) in the case of an application for a security officer's licence with an endorsement under section 24, that the applicant has passed any prescribed medical examination; and
 - (i) in the case of an application for an agent's licence to be held on behalf of a partnership or body corporate, that, subject to section 44(2), the applicant is a resident of the State; and
 - (j) that the application complies with such other requirements as may be prescribed; and
 - (k) that there is no other good reason why the licence should not be issued.
- (2) A licensing officer is not to issue a temporary licence unless the officer is satisfied —
- (a) that there is sufficient evidence of the applicant's identity; and
 - (b) that the applicant is not a prohibited person; and

- (c) where there is a charge pending in relation to the applicant for a disqualifying offence, that extenuating circumstances exist; and
 - (d) that the person is licensed or registered or otherwise authorised in his or her State or Territory of residence to carry out the activity or activities for which the licence is sought; and
 - (e) that the application complies with such other requirements as may be prescribed; and
 - (f) that there is no other good reason why the licence should not be issued.
- (3) Section 52A and subsection (1)(b) and (c) do not limit the matters that a licensing officer may take into consideration for the purposes of subsection (1).

[Section 52 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 35.]

52A. Matters to be taken into account in deciding whether to issue licence

- (1) In deciding whether, under section 52(1)(c), an applicant is of good character and is a fit and proper person to hold a licence, the licensing officer must take into consideration —
- (a) the reputation, honesty and integrity of —
 - (i) the applicant; and
 - (ii) where the licence is to be held on behalf of a partnership or body corporate, the partners of the partnership and the officers of the body corporate;
- and
- (b) the reputation, honesty and integrity of people with whom —
 - (i) the applicant associates; and
 - (ii) where the licence is to be held on behalf of a partnership or body corporate, the partners of the partnership and the officers of the body corporate associate.

- (2) A licence can be issued only if the licensing officer is satisfied that to issue the licence to the applicant would not be contrary to the public interest.

[Section 52A inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 36.]

53. Exemption from section 52(1)(g)(i)

- (1) Section 52(1)(g)(i) does not apply to any applicant who is granted an exemption under subsection (2).
- (2) A licensing officer may in writing exempt an applicant for a licence from the requirements of section 52(1)(g)(i) and if the licence is granted may attach to the licence a condition that the person satisfactorily complete any course of training prescribed in respect of the licence within a specified period.
- (3) A licensing officer is not authorised under subsection (2) to exempt from the requirements of section 52(1)(g)(i) an applicant for a security officer's licence who has applied for an endorsement under section 24 or 26.

[Section 53 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 37.]

[54. Deleted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 38.]

55. Refusal of renewal

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a licensing officer is not to renew an applicant's licence —
- (a) if in the officer's opinion there are sufficient grounds —
- (i) to make an allegation to the State Administrative Tribunal under section 67(1) in respect of the applicant; or
- (ii) for the exercise of the power to revoke the licence under section 67A(1)(a) or 81(1); or

- (iii) for the exercise of the power to suspend the licence under section 67A(2);
 - or
 - (b) if the officer is satisfied that the applicant is a prohibited person.
- (2) Despite subsection (1)(a)(i), a licensing officer may renew an applicant's licence if —
- (a) the allegation that may be made under section 67(1) is that there is proper cause for disciplinary action as mentioned in section 67(1a)(c), (d) or (e); and
 - (b) the licensing officer is of the opinion that it is appropriate to do so in the circumstances of the particular case.

[Section 55 inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 39.]

56. Issue and renewal of licences held on behalf of partnerships and bodies corporate

Where an application is made for the issue or renewal of an agent's licence to be held on behalf of a partnership or body corporate, a licensing officer is not to issue or renew the licence unless the licensing officer is satisfied as to each of the matters referred to in section 52(1) or 55, as the case may be, in relation to each of the following persons who is relevant to the application —

- (a) the partnership and the partners; and
- (b) the body corporate; and
- (c) the officers of the body corporate; and
- (d) a person who would have a substantial holding in the body corporate under the definition of substantial holding in the Commonwealth Corporations Act 2001 section 9 if the reference in that definition to 5% were a reference to 25%.

[Section 56 amended: No. 10 of 2001 s. 164; No. 4 of 2008 s. 40.]

57. Notice of refusal to issue or renew licence

- (1) Where a licensing officer refuses to issue a licence the officer, no later than 28 days after the decision is made, is to give written notice to the applicant setting out the decision and the reasons for the decision.
- (2) Where a licensing officer refuses to renew a licence the officer, no later than 14 days before the day on which the licence is due to expire, is to give written notice to the applicant setting out the decision and the reasons for the decision.

58. Form of licences

- (1) Subject to this Part, a licence is to be in such form as the Commissioner may determine.
- (2) The Commissioner may under subsection (1) determine that where more than one licence under a Part is issued to a person the licences may be combined in one document.

[59. Deleted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 41.]

60. Duration of licences

Subject to this Act, except for the first issue of a licence, a licence shall be issued or renewed —

- (a) for a period of 3 years, or such shorter period as is requested; or
- (b) for the duration of a special event or events, as is specified in the licence.

[Section 60 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 42.]

61. Identity cards

- (1) A licensing officer may issue an identity card to a person to whom a licence is issued.
- (2) A licensee to whom an identity card has been issued under subsection (1) must, on request, immediately produce the card for inspection by —
 - (a) a compliance officer or a police officer; or
 - (b) any person for whom the licensee is performing services under the licence, and must have the card in his or her possession to enable this subsection to be complied with.

Penalty: a fine of $200.

- (3) It is a defence to a charge under subsection (2) for a person to prove that he or she had a reasonable excuse for failing to produce the card or to have it in his or her possession or to do both of those things, as the case may be.

[Section 61 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 43.]

62. Conditions and restrictions

- (1) A licensing officer may issue or renew a licence subject to conditions and restrictions set out in, or provided with, the licence.
- (2) A licensing officer may decide to make an existing licence subject to a new condition or restriction or to change or remove a condition or restriction to which an existing licence is subject, but in that case —
 - (a) the officer, no later than 14 days after the decision is made, is to give written notice of the decision to the licensee; and
 - (b) the decision does not take effect until 28 days after the decision is made, or at such later time as is set out in the notice.

63. Regulations may prescribe conditions and restrictions

- (1) Regulations made under section 94(1) may prescribe conditions and restrictions that are to be taken to be attached to —
- (a) all licences;
 - (b) all licences of a particular class; or
 - (c) all endorsements under section 24 or 26,
- unless otherwise provided by the licence or endorsement.
- (2) The conditions imposed under subsection (1) may include —
- (a) a condition requiring the wearing by a licensee of a uniform, of a type approved by the Commissioner, while performing functions authorised by the licence;
 - (b) any condition designed to prevent a uniform worn by, or marking on a vehicle used by, a licensee being confusingly similar to a uniform or vehicle marking in use by a police force;
 - (c) a condition that, if an identity card is issued to a licensee, the card is to be visibly displayed on the person of the licensee while he or she is engaged in activities authorised by the licence.

64. Breach of condition or restriction

A person must not fail to comply with a condition or restriction attached to a licence.

Penalty: a fine of $15 000.

[Section 64 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 80(2).]

65. Licences not transferable

A licence is not transferable.

66. Issue of duplicate licence or identity card

If a licensing officer is satisfied that a licence or identity card has been lost or destroyed he or she may issue a duplicate licence or identity card on payment of the prescribed fee.

Division 4 — Disciplinary proceedings

[Heading inserted: No. 55 of 2004 s. 1071; amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 44.]

66A. Term used: licensee

In this Division —

licensee includes a person referred to in section 67(1)(b).

[Section 66A inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 45.]

67. Power to revoke licence

(1) The Commissioner may allege to the State Administrative Tribunal that there is proper cause for disciplinary action, as mentioned in subsection (1a), against a person who —

- (a) holds a licence; or
- (b) held a licence when the conduct giving rise to the allegation occurred but who no longer holds a licence.

(1a) There is proper cause for disciplinary action against a licensee —

- (a) if the licensee does not meet the requirements described in section 52(1)(c), (e), (f) or (i); or
- (b) where the licence is held on behalf of a partnership or body corporate, if the partnership and any of the partners or the body and any of the body's officers, as the case may be, does not meet the requirements described in section 52(1)(c), (d), (e) or (f); or
- (c) if there is power to cancel an endorsement on the licence under section 68; or
- (d) if the licensee has committed a breach of a code of conduct prescribed as being a proper cause for disciplinary action against a licensee under section 94(2); or
- (e) if the licensee or a person referred to in paragraph (b) has contravened, or failed to comply with —
 - (i) a provision of this Act; or

Security and Related Activities (Control) Act 1996

Part 7 Licensing procedures

Division 4 Disciplinary proceedings

s. 67A

- (ii) the licence or a condition or restriction to which the licence is subject;
 - or
 - (f) it would be contrary to the public interest if the licensee were to continue to be licensed.
- (2) If, in a proceeding commenced by an allegation under subsection (1) against a licensee, the State Administrative Tribunal is satisfied that proper cause exists for disciplinary action, the State Administrative Tribunal —
- (a) may —
 - (i) revoke the licence of the licensee; or
 - (ii) cancel an endorsement on the licence under section 24 or 26; or
 - (iii) suspend the operation of the licence for a particular period;
- and
- (b) if an order is made under paragraph (a), or the licensee is a person referred to in subsection (1)(b), order that the licensee be disqualified from holding —
 - (i) a licence, or a licence of a particular type or class; or
 - (ii) a licence, or a licence of a particular type or class, that is endorsed under section 24 or 26, for a particular period not exceeding 3 years.

[Section 67 amended: No. 55 of 2004 s. 1072; No. 4 of 2008 s. 46.]

67A. Summary power to revoke and suspend licences

- (1) If the Commissioner —
 - (a) is of the opinion that the safety or welfare of members of the public is or may be at risk from the continuance in force of a licence; or

(b) is satisfied that a licensee is a prohibited person, the Commissioner must give to the licensee written notice of the revocation of the licence or, if paragraph (b) is applicable, of every licence held by the licensee —

- (c) stating the grounds on which the revocation is, or revocations are, made; and
- (d) in the case of the grounds set out in paragraph (a), advising that the Commissioner will refer the matter to the State Administrative Tribunal within 14 days of the making of the notice, and the licence, or licences, held by the licensee are revoked when the notice is received by the licensee.

(2) If the Commissioner is satisfied that —

- (a) a security officer whose licence is endorsed under section 24 has, without reasonable excuse, refused or failed to undergo a prescribed medical examination or in any way obstructed the examination; or
- (b) a licensee has, without reasonable excuse, refused or failed to comply with a request made under section 68A(2); or
- (c) there is a charge pending in relation to a licensee for a disqualifying offence and that no extenuating circumstances exist, the Commissioner must give to the licensee written notice of the suspension of every licence held by the licensee —

- (d) stating that the licence is, or licences are, suspended under this subsection and —
 - (i) if the suspension is, or suspensions are, under paragraph (a), giving details of the prescribed medical examination; or
 - (ii) if the suspension is, or suspensions are, under paragraph (b), giving details of the request made under section 68A(2); or

(iii) if the suspension is, or suspensions are, under paragraph (c), referring to the charge on which the decision was based;

and

(e) stating —

(i) the period of time for which the licence, or licences, are suspended; or

(ii) that the suspension is, or suspensions are, until the occurrence of a specified event;

and

(f) advising that the Commissioner will refer the matter to the State Administrative Tribunal within 14 days of the making of the notice, and the licence is, or licences are, suspended when the notice is received by the licensee.

(3) If a licence is revoked or suspended under subsection (1)(a) or (2), the Commissioner may also, in the notice of revocation, disqualify the licensee from holding —

(a) a licence, or a licence of a particular type or class; or

(b) a licence, or a licence of a particular type or class, that is endorsed under section 24 or 26, from when the notice is received by the licensee until such time as is specified in the notice, being a period not exceeding 3 years.

(4) Within 14 days of a notice being given under subsection (1)(a) or (2) the Commissioner must —

(a) refer the matter in respect of which the notice was given to the State Administrative Tribunal; and

(b) ensure that any other proceedings under this Division in respect of the matter commenced before the notice was given are discontinued.

- (5) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), if a notice is sent by post to the address for service provided by the person under section 47(2), it is to be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, to have been received by the person at the time when, in the ordinary course of events, it would have been delivered.

[Section 67A inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 47.]

67B. Return of revoked licence and identity card

A person whose licence has been revoked or suspended must comply with any directions given by a licensing officer in relation to delivering up the licence and the identity card issued to the person.

Penalty: a fine of $2 000.

[Section 67B inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 47.]

68. Cancellation of endorsement

- (1) A licensing officer may cancel an endorsement on a licence under section 24 or 26 if he or she considers that the licensee has —
- (a) contravened or failed to comply with —
 - (i) the terms of the endorsement; or
 - (ii) a condition or restriction attached to the endorsement;
 - or
 - (b) has failed a medical examination prescribed under section 24(5)(b).
- (2) Subject to subsection (2a), a cancellation of an endorsement is not effective unless a licensing officer —
- (a) has given to the licensee written notice of the intention to cancel the endorsement stating the grounds on which the cancellation is intended to be made and allowing the licensee 21 days within which to respond to the notice;

- (b) has had due regard to any response to the notice made within that time; and
 - (c) has given to the licensee written notice of cancellation of the endorsement at least 14 days before the cancellation is to take effect, stating the grounds on which the cancellation is made.
- (2a) If in the opinion of the licensing officer the safety or welfare of members of the public is or may be at risk from the continuance in force of an endorsement the licensing officer may give to the licensee written notice of the cancellation stating the grounds on which the cancellation is made, and the endorsement is cancelled when the notice is received or deemed to be received by the licensee.
- (2b) A person to whom notice of cancellation of an endorsement is given must comply with any directions of a licensing officer in relation to delivering up the licence and the identity card issued to the person.
- Penalty: a fine of $2 000.
- (3) A licence that is delivered up under subsection (2b) is to be amended to delete the endorsement and returned to the licensee.

[Section 68 amended: No. 55 of 2004 s. 1073; No. 4 of 2008 s. 80(1).]

68A. Consent to release information

- (1) In this section —
- relevant person, in relation to a licensee, means —
- (a) the licensee; or
 - (b) if the licensee holds the licence on behalf of a partnership, a partner in the partnership; or
 - (c) if the licensee holds the licence on behalf of a body corporate —
 - (i) an officer of the body corporate; or

- (ii) a person who would have a substantial holding in the body corporate under the definition of substantial holding in the Commonwealth Corporations Act 2001 section 9 if the reference in that definition to 5% were a reference to 25%.
- (2) If requested by a licensing officer to do so, a licensee must do everything that is, in the opinion of the licensing officer, within the licensee's power to procure or facilitate release to the licensing officer of all information held by a relevant body concerning relevant conduct by a relevant person.
- (3) A licensee must comply with a request made under subsection (2) within the period of time specified in writing by the licensing officer, being a period of time not less than 7 days.
[Section 68A inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 48.]

69. Courts may revoke licence

- (1) Where a finding of guilt has been made by a court in respect of an offence against this Act, or any other Act, committed by a licensee the court may, in addition to any penalty imposed or order made in respect of the matter —
 - (a) revoke the licence and order that it be delivered up to the court together with the identity card issued to the licensee; or
 - (aa) suspend the operation of the licence for any period specified in the order; or
 - (b) cancel an endorsement on the licence under section 24 or 26, and order that the licence be delivered up to the court for amendment; or
 - (c) attach any condition or restriction to the licence or to an endorsement for any period specified in the order.
- (1a) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a disqualifying offence.

- (2) When making any order under this section the court may, if it thinks fit, defer the operation of the order pending an appeal.
- (3) When making an order under subsection (1)(a) the court may, if it thinks fit, order that the licensee be disqualified from holding —
 - (a) a licence, or a licence of a particular type or class; or
 - (b) a licence, or a licence of a particular type or class, that is endorsed under section 24 or 26,

for a particular period not exceeding 3 years.

[Section 69 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 49.]

70. Returns by courts

Where a court has made an order under section 69(1) the registrar of the court is to send to the Commissioner —

- (a) notice of the findings, penalty imposed and order made; and
- (b) where a licence is revoked, the licence and identity card that is delivered up to the court.

[Section 70 amended: No. 59 of 2004 s. 141.]

[71. Deleted: No. 55 of 2004 s. 1075.]

72. Application for review

- (1) Any person aggrieved by a reviewable decision of a licensing officer may apply to State Administrative Tribunal for a review of the decision.
- (2) In subsection (1) —

person aggrieved means a person whose licence is affected by a reviewable decision or who applies for the grant or renewal of a licence;

reviewable decision means a decision —

- (a) to refuse to issue or renew a licence or refuse to grant an endorsement under section 24 or 26; or
- (b) as to the period for which a licence is issued or renewed; or
- (c) as to a condition or restriction which is attached to a licence, a permit under section 25 or an endorsement under section 24 or 26; or
- (ca) to refuse to issue a permit under section 25; or
- (cb) as to the period for which a permit under section 25 is issued; or
- (d) to revoke or suspend a licence; or
- (e) to cancel an endorsement under section 24 or 26.

[Section 72 inserted: No. 55 of 2004 s. 1076; amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 50.]

[73.] Deleted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 51.]

74. Suspension of licence by State Administrative Tribunal

- (1) Where the State Administrative Tribunal makes an order against a licensee and payment is not made in accordance with the order or the order is otherwise not complied with or is breached, the State Administrative Tribunal may suspend the person's licence until the payment is made, or for such period or upon such event occurring as the State Administrative Tribunal thinks fit.
- (2) The power conferred on the State Administrative Tribunal by subsection (1) is in addition to, and does not derogate from, the powers conferred on it by the State Administrative Tribunal Act 2004.

[Section 74 inserted: No. 55 of 2004 s. 1077.]

Part 8 — Further obligations of licensees

- (c) a security officer's licence and a permit under section 25.

[Section 79B inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 59.]

80. Licensee may be directed to provide blood or urine for analysis

- (1) The Commissioner may at any time direct a licensee to attend at a place and there give a sample of his or her blood or urine for analysis.
- (2) The purpose of an analysis is to determine the presence or level of any prescribed drug in any form in the blood or urine of the licensee.
- (3) A direction under this section must —
 - (a) be in writing given to the licensee;
 - (b) specify the day on which and time and place at which the licensee is to attend; and
 - (c) indicate what sample or samples are to be given.
- (4) Where a direction is given under this section, any sample is to be taken and dealt with in accordance with regulations referred to in section 83.

[Section 80 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 60.]

81. Licence may be revoked

- (1) The Commissioner may, by written notice to a licensee, revoke a licence if —
 - (a) the licensee fails without lawful excuse to comply with a direction under section 80; or
 - (b) a sample of blood or urine given by the licensee following a direction under section 80 is found on analysis to be a non-complying sample, within the meaning in the regulations, for the purposes of this section.
- (2) If a licence is revoked under subsection (1), the Commissioner may also, in the notice of revocation, disqualify the licensee from holding —
 - (a) a licence, or a licence of a particular type or class; or
 - (b) a licence, or a licence of a particular type or class, that is endorsed under section 24 or 26,for a period not exceeding 3 years.
- (2a) Before taking action under this section, the Commissioner must —
 - (a) give the licensee written notice of the intention to take the action, stating the grounds on which the action is intended to be made and allowing the licensee 21 days within which to respond to the notice; and
 - (b) give due regard to any response to the notice within that time.
- (2b) The Commissioner is to give to the licensee written notice of the revocation, and if relevant the disqualification, at least 14 days before the revocation is to take effect —
 - (a) stating the grounds on which the action is taken; and
 - (b) stating when the revocation is to take effect; and

s. 82

- (c) advising that the matter will be referred to the State Administrative Tribunal within 14 days of the making of the notice.
- (2c) Within 14 days of a notice of the revocation of a licence being given under this section the Commissioner must refer the matter in respect of which the notice was given to the State Administrative Tribunal.
- (3) Nothing in this section limits the power of the Commissioner to give to the licensee a written notice of revocation under section 67A(1).

[Section 81 amended: No. 55 of 2004 s. 1078; No. 4 of 2008 s. 61.]

82. Cost of test may be recovered

If a sample of blood or urine given by a licensee is found on analysis to be a non-complying sample for the purposes of section 81(1)(b), the Commissioner may —

- (a) determine the costs and expenses of carrying out the analysis; and
- (b) recover the amount so determined from the licensee as a debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

[Section 82 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 62.]

83. Regulations relating to drug tests

Regulations may be made under section 94 —

- (a) prescribing drugs for which a person may be required to be tested pursuant to a direction under section 80;
- (b) prescribing any test to be carried out for the purposes of section 81(1)(b);
- (c) prescribing the amount of a prescribed drug in any form in a given quantity of blood or urine in a sample that is to render the sample a non-complying sample for the purposes of section 81(1)(b);

- (d) regulating the manner of taking and dealing with samples of blood and urine and their analysis;
- (e) requiring a licensee to produce his or her identity card at the time when a sample is taken, and providing that a failure to do so —
 - (i) is taken to be a failure to comply with a direction under section 80; and
 - (ii) constitutes an offence punishable by a fine not exceeding $2 000;
- (f) providing for the authorisation of persons as analysts for the purposes of this Part;
- (g) providing for certificate evidence in any proceedings as to the taking and analysis of any sample and the authority of any analyst to carry out an analysis.

Part 10 — Miscellaneous

Division 1 — Records

[Heading inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 63.]

84. Records to be kept by person who engages crowd controller

A person for whom a licensed crowd controller is performing any services authorised by his or her licence —

- (a) must keep such records as may be prescribed containing such particulars as may be prescribed;
- (b) must not knowingly make any false or misleading entry in any record; and
- (c) must preserve any record made under this section for a period of 3 years after the last entry was made in it.

Penalty: a fine of $15 000.

[Section 84 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 64.]

85. Inspection of records

- (1) Records required to be kept for the purposes of sections 78 and 84 must be available for inspection at the premises at which they are required to be kept.
- (2) When required to do so by a compliance officer, a licensing officer or a member of the police force, the licensee, or an agent or employee of the licensee who is at the time in charge of the premises, or a person referred to in section 84, must produce for inspection —
 - (a) any relevant licence; and
 - (b) any record referred to in subsection (1).
- (3) Where the production of a record is required under this section and the record is not in a readable format, the requirement to produce the record is to be treated as a requirement to produce —
 - (a) the record itself; and

(b) the contents of the record in a readable format.

- (4) A person must not refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under this section and must not provide information that is false or misleading.

Penalty: a fine of $2 000.

[Section 85 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 65 and 80(1).]

86. Police may retain records for certain purposes

- (1) Where any record kept for the purposes of section 78 or 84 is produced for inspection under section 85 a compliance officer, a licensing officer or a member of the police force may retain the record for the purpose of making copies or notes of some or all of the record.
- (2) If a record is retained under this section a receipt is to be issued to the person from whom the record was taken as soon as is practicable.

[Section 86 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 66.]

87. Obstruction of police

A person must not delay, obstruct or otherwise hinder a compliance officer, a licensing officer or a member of the police force in the performance of his or her functions under section 85.

Penalty: a fine of $2 000.

[Section 87 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 67 and 80(1).]

Division 2 — Legal proceedings

[Heading inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 68.]

88. Designated persons

- (1) In sections 88A and 88B — designated person means a person appointed under subsection (2) to be a designated person for the purposes of the provision in which the term is used.

- (2) The Commissioner may, in writing, appoint persons or classes of persons to be designated persons for the purposes of section 88A(2), (4) or 88B or for the purposes of more than one of those provisions, but a member of the police force, or a compliance officer, who issues an infringement notice is not eligible to be a designated person for the purposes of any of those provisions in relation to that notice.

[Section 88 inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 68.]

88A. Infringement notices

- (1) A member of the police force, or a compliance officer, who has reason to believe that a person —
- (a) has committed a prescribed offence under this Act; or
 - (b) is to be treated as having committed such an offence by reason of section 89, ~~90~~ or 90A, may, within 6 months after the alleged offence is believed to have been committed, give an infringement notice to the alleged offender.

- (2) An infringement notice must —
- (a) be in the prescribed form; and
 - (b) contain a description of the alleged offence; and
 - (c) advise that if the alleged offender does not wish to be prosecuted for the alleged offence, the amount of money specified in the notice as the modified penalty for the offence may be paid to a designated person within 28 days after the date of the notice; and
 - (d) inform the alleged offender how and where the money may be paid.
- (3) In an infringement notice the amount specified as the modified penalty for the alleged offence must be the amount that was the prescribed modified penalty at the time the alleged offence is believed to have been committed.

- (4) A designated person may, in a particular case, extend the period of 28 days within which the modified penalty may be paid and the extension may be allowed whether or not the period of 28 days has elapsed.
- (5) The modified penalty that may be prescribed for an offence is not to exceed 20% of the maximum penalty that could be imposed for that offence by a court.

[Section 88A inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. ~~68~~68; amended: No. 9 of 2023 s. 138.]

88B. Withdrawal of infringement notice

- (1) A designated person may, whether or not the modified penalty has been paid, withdraw an infringement notice by giving to the alleged offender a notice in the prescribed form stating that the infringement notice has been withdrawn.
- (2) If an infringement notice is withdrawn after the modified penalty has been paid, the amount paid must be refunded.

[Section 88B inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 68.]

88C. Benefit of paying modified penalty

If the modified penalty specified in an infringement notice is paid within 28 days or any further time allowed, and the notice has not been withdrawn, the bringing of proceedings and the imposition of penalties are prevented to the same extent as they would be if the alleged offender had been convicted by a court of, and punished for, the alleged offence.

[Section 88C inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 68.]

88D. No admission implied by payment

The payment of a modified penalty is not to be regarded as an admission for the purposes of any proceedings, whether civil or criminal.

[Section 88D inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 68.]

88E. Application of penalties collected

An amount paid as a modified penalty is, subject to section 88B(2), to be dealt with as if it were a penalty imposed by a court as a penalty for an offence.

[Section 88E inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 68.]

89. Liability of partners and bodies corporate

- (1) Where a licence is held on behalf of a partnership or body corporate and the licensee commits an offence against this Act —

- (a) subject to subsection (2), each of the partners; or
- (b) the body corporate,

as the case may be, is to be treated as having committed an offence and is liable to the penalty prescribed for the offence committed by the licensee.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a partner who proves that —

- (a) the offence was committed without the partner's consent or connivance; and
- (b) the partner exercised all such due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as ought to have been exercised having regard to the nature of the partner's functions and to all the circumstances.

- (2a) A partner or a body corporate may be proceeded against and convicted of an offence against this Act by virtue of subsection (1) whether or not proceedings are taken against the licensee and whether or not the licensee was convicted of the offence.

- (3) The reference in subsection (2) to a partner does not include a reference to a partner who is also the licensee ~~and the defence available to an officer under section 90 is not available to an officer who is also the licensee.~~

[Section 89 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 69.]

~~90. — Liability; No. 9 of officers 2023 s. 139.~~

~~(1) — Where a body corporate is to be treated as having committed an offence against this Act, each of the body's officers is also to be treated as having committed the offence unless the officer proves that —~~

~~(a) — the offence was committed without the officer's consent or connivance; and~~

~~(b) — the officer exercised all such due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as ought to have been exercised having regard to the nature of the officer's functions and to all the circumstances.~~

~~(2) — An officer of a body corporate may be proceeded against and convicted of an offence against this Act by virtue of section 89 and subsection (1) whether or not proceedings are taken against the body corporate or the licensee and whether or not the body corporate or licensee was convicted of the offence.~~

~~[Section 90 amended. Deleted: No. 49 of 2008 2023 s. 70 140.]~~

90A. Liability of agent for licensee

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where a licensee commits an offence against this Act, a licensee's agent is to be treated as having committed an offence and is liable to the penalty prescribed for the offence committed by the licensee.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an agent who proves that —

(a) the offence was committed without the agent's consent or connivance; and

(b) the agent exercised all such due diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as ought to have been exercised in the circumstances.

(3) Proceedings under this section may be taken against an agent whether or not proceedings are taken against the licensee and whether or not the licensee was convicted of the offence.

(4) In this section —

agent, in relation to a licensee, means a person who —

- (a) holds an agent's licence; and
- (b) employed the licensee at the time the licensee committed the offence.

[Section 90A inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 71.]

91. Liability of employer of crowd controller for damages

(1) Without limiting an employer's vicarious liability at common law, a crowd controller and his or her employer are liable jointly and severally for damages in tort for any physical injury caused by the crowd controller to any person if —

- (a) the injury is caused while the crowd controller is performing any function referred to in section 35(1) as the employee of that employer; and
- (b) an action for damages in tort would, apart from this section, lie against the crowd controller for the injury.

(2) It is a defence to an action for damages under subsection (1) against an employer for the employer to show that in causing the physical injury the employee was pursuing a purpose of his or her own not related to the duties of his or her employment.

(3) Where an action for damages in tort lies against a crowd controller for physical injury in the circumstances referred to in subsection (1)(a), nothing in this section affects the liability of any other person as a joint tortfeasor with the crowd controller in respect of the same injury.

[Section 91 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 72.]

92. Evidentiary provisions

- (1) In any legal proceedings before a court or tribunal production of a certificate under subsection (2) purporting to be signed by or on behalf of the Commissioner is, without proof of any appointment or signature, evidence of the facts stated in the certificate.
- (2) A certificate may state any of the following —
 - (a) that a licence, an endorsement under section 24 or 26, or a permit under section 25 is or was or is not or was not held by or on behalf of any person;
 - (b) the conditions and restrictions to which a licence endorsement or permit is or was subject;
 - (c) the premises to which a licence or permit applies or applied;
 - (d) the day or days or period on or during which anything referred to in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) applied.

[Section 92 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 73.]

93. Onus of proof

Where in any proceedings for an offence against section 16, 17, 18, 18A, 30 or 37 it is proved that a person was engaged to do anything which it is an offence to do for remuneration without a licence, it is to be presumed, unless the contrary is shown, that the person was engaged to do that thing for remuneration.

[Section 93 amended: No. 4 of 2008 s. 74.]

Division 3 — General provisions

[Heading inserted: No. 4 of 2008 s. 75.]

93A. Licensee to provide name of agent

- (1) When required to do so by a compliance officer, a licensing officer or a member of the police force, a licensee who is, or was, acting under the authority of a licence is to provide the name and address of the agent who, in accordance with section 19, 31 or 38, is, or at the relevant time was, the employer of the licensee.

- (2) A licensee must not refuse or fail to comply with a requirement under this section and must not provide information that is false or misleading.

Penalty: a fine of $2 000.
