Criminal Law (Mentally Impaired Accused) Act 1996

An Act relating to criminal proceedings involving mentally impaired people who are charged with offences.

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the *Criminal Law (Mentally Impaired Accused) Act 1996*¹.

[Section 1 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

2. Commencement

This Act comes into operation on the same day as the Mental Health Act 1996 comes into operation¹.

3. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears —

“accused” means a person charged with an offence, whether a simple offence or an indictable offence;

“Board” means the Mentally Impaired Accused Review Board established under Part 6;

“custody order” means an order that an accused be kept in custody in accordance with Part 5;

“involuntary patient” has the same definition as in the Mental Health Act 1996;

“psychiatrist” has the same definition as in the Mental Health Act 1996;

“psychologist” has the same definition as in the Mental Health Act 1996;

“Schedule 1 offence” means an offence that is committed against an enactment referred to in column 1 of Schedule 1;

“statutory penalty”, in relation to an offence, means the penalty specified by a written law for the offence.

[Section 3 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141; No. 84 of 2004 s. 82 and 84.]

4. Application to all courts exercising criminal jurisdiction

This Act applies in respect of any accused before any court exercising criminal jurisdiction.

[Section 4 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Part 2 — General provisions about mentally ill accused

[Heading amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

5. Accused refused bail may be detained in authorised hospital

- (1) This section applies if under the Bail Act 1982 a judicial officer refuses to grant bail to an accused.
- (2) If the judicial officer suspects on reasonable grounds that —
 - (a) the accused has a mental illness (as defined in the Mental Health Act 1996) requiring treatment;
 - (b) the treatment is required in order —
 - (i) to protect the health or safety of the accused or any other person; or
 - (ii) to prevent the accused doing serious damage to any property;and
 - (c) the accused has refused or, due to the nature of the mental illness, is unable to consent to the treatment,the officer may make a hospital order.
- (3) A hospital order is an order that the accused is to be taken to and detained in an authorised hospital and examined by a psychiatrist and —
 - (a) if he or she is made an involuntary patient, detained in an authorised hospital; or
 - (b) in any other case kept in custody,until a date set by the judicial officer that is not more than 7 days after the date on which the order was made at which time the accused is to be brought before the court stated in the order.
- (4) Subject to this section, a hospital order has effect as if, under section 29 of the Mental Health Act 1996, the accused had been referred for examination by a psychiatrist and that Act applies accordingly.

- (5) A hospital order is not to be made if the accused is an involuntary patient.

[Section 5 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

6. Relationship to Mental Health Act 1996

- (1) Unless the contrary intention appears, the fact that under the Mental Health Act 1996 a person is made an involuntary patient or is detained as an involuntary patient does not affect the operation of this Act or the operation of the criminal law in respect of the person.
- (2) If at any time while an accused is remanded in custody the accused under the Mental Health Act 1996 —
- (a) becomes an involuntary patient; and
 - (b) is detained in an authorised hospital,

the accused is to be detained in the hospital subject to that Act; but if the accused is released from that detention while remanded in custody under this Act, the person is to be kept in custody in accordance with the remand warrant.

[Section 6 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

7. Reports to include report of treatment given

Whenever under this Act a person is required to make an assessment of or report on the mental state of an accused the person is to include a report of —

- (a) the nature of any treatment given to the person;
- (b) the reasons for the treatment; and
- (c) the person's response to it.

[Section 7 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Part 3 — Mental unfitnes to stand trial

Division 1 — General

8. Interpretation

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears —

“mental illness” means an underlying pathological infirmity of the mind, whether of short or long duration and whether permanent or temporary, but does not include a condition that results from the reaction of a healthy mind to extraordinary stimuli;

“mental impairment” means intellectual disability, mental illness, brain damage or senility;

“trial” means all court proceedings for an offence other than —

- (a) proceedings in relation to bail; and
- (b) sentencing proceedings.

9. Mental unfitnes to stand trial, definition

An accused is not mentally fit to stand trial for an offence if the accused, because of mental impairment, is —

- (a) unable to understand the nature of the charge;
- (b) unable to understand the requirement to plead to the charge or the effect of a plea;
- (c) unable to understand the purpose of a trial;
- (d) unable to understand or exercise the right to challenge jurors;
- (e) unable to follow the course of the trial;
- (f) unable to understand the substantial effect of evidence presented by the prosecution in the trial; or
- (g) unable to properly defend the charge.

[Section 9 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

10. Presumptions as to mental fitness to stand trial

- (1) An accused is presumed to be mentally fit to stand trial until the contrary is found under this Part.
- (2) An accused found under this Part to be not mentally fit to stand trial is presumed to remain not mentally fit until the contrary is found under this Part.

[Section 10 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

11. When the question of mental fitness may be raised

- (1) The question of whether an accused is not mentally fit to stand trial may be raised —
 - (a) in a court of summary jurisdiction, at any time before or during the trial of the accused;
 - (b) in the Supreme Court or the District Court, at any time —
 - (i) before an indictment is presented to the court against an accused committed to the court for trial;
 - (ii) after an indictment (including an ex officio indictment) is presented to the court against an accused and before a jury is sworn; or
 - (iii) at any time after a jury is sworn and during the trial of the accused.
- (2) The question of whether an accused is not mentally fit to stand trial may be raised by the prosecution or the defence or the presiding judicial officer on his or her own initiative.
- (3) This Part does not prevent the question of whether an accused is not mentally fit to stand trial being raised more than once in a trial.

[Section 11 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141; No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

12. Deciding the question of mental fitness

- (1) The question of whether an accused is not mentally fit to stand trial is to be decided by the presiding judicial officer on the balance of probabilities after inquiring into the question and informing himself or herself in any way the judicial officer thinks fit.
- (2) For the purpose of the inquiry the judicial officer may —
 - (a) order the accused to be examined by a psychiatrist or other appropriate expert;
 - (b) order a report by a psychiatrist or other appropriate expert about the accused to be submitted to the court;
 - (c) adjourn the proceedings and, if there is a jury, discharge it;
 - (d) make any other order the judicial officer thinks fit.
- (3) The judicial officer may make a report about the accused available to the prosecutor and to the accused, on such conditions as the officer thinks fit.
- (4) The prosecution or an accused may appeal against a judicial officer's decision that the accused is not mentally fit to stand trial.

[Section 12 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

13. Raising and deciding the question whether an accused has become mentally fit

Sections 11 and 12, with any necessary changes, apply to the question of whether an accused found to be not mentally fit to stand trial has become mentally fit to stand trial.

[Section 13 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

14. Adjourments, courts' powers on

If any proceedings are adjourned under this Part, the judicial officer may grant the accused bail, or remand the accused in custody, or make a hospital order under section 5.

[Section 14 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Division 2 — Proceedings in courts of summary jurisdiction

15. Application

This Division applies if an accused before a court of summary jurisdiction is found to be not mentally fit to stand trial.

[Section 15 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

16. Procedure for offences triable summarily

- (1) This section applies if the accused —
 - (a) is charged with a simple offence; or
 - (b) is charged with an indictable offence that can be tried summarily and that is to be tried by the court of summary jurisdiction.
- (2) If the court that decides that the accused is not mentally fit to stand trial —
 - (a) is satisfied that the accused will not become mentally fit to stand trial within 6 months after the finding that the accused is not mentally fit, the court must make an order under subsection (5); or
 - (b) is not so satisfied, the court must adjourn the proceedings in order to see whether the accused will become mentally fit to stand trial.
- (3) Proceedings may be adjourned under subsection (2)(b) for any period or periods the court thinks fit but the proceedings must not be adjourned for longer than a total period of 6 months after the finding that the accused is not mentally fit to stand trial.

Criminal Law (Mentally Impaired Accused) Act 1996

Part 3 Mental unfitnes to stand trial

Division 2 Proceedings in courts of summary jurisdiction

s. 16

- (4) If proceedings are adjourned under subsection (2)(b), the court must make an order under subsection (5) —
- (a) if at any time the court is satisfied that the accused will not become mentally fit to stand trial within 6 months after the finding that the accused is not mentally fit; or
 - (b) if at the end of 6 months after the finding that the accused is not mentally fit to stand trial the accused has not become mentally fit.
- (5) An order under this subsection is an order dismissing the charge without deciding the guilt or otherwise of the accused and either —
- (a) releasing the accused; or
 - (b) subject to subsection (6), making a custody order in respect of the accused.
- (6) A custody order must not be made in respect of an accused unless the statutory penalty for the alleged offence is or includes imprisonment and the court is satisfied that a custody order is appropriate having regard to —
- (a) the strength of the evidence against the accused;
 - (b) the nature of the alleged offence and the alleged circumstances of its commission;
 - (c) the accused's character, antecedents, age, health and mental condition; and
 - (d) the public interest.
- (7) The court may require a prosecutor to provide copies of documents relevant to the factors to be considered under subsection (6).
- (8) If an order is made under subsection (5), the accused cannot again be charged with or tried for the offence.

[Section 16 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141; No. 84 of 2004 s. 80 and 82.]

17. Procedure for indictable offences

- (1) This section applies if the accused is charged with an indictable offence —
- (a) that must be dealt with on indictment; or
 - (b) that, under section 5 of The Criminal Code or under another written law, the magistrate decides is to be dealt with on indictment.
- (1a) This section also applies if the accused is charged before the Children’s Court with an indictable offence and has elected to be tried by a judge of the Supreme Court or of the District Court (as the case may be) and a jury.
- (2) Despite the fact that the accused is mentally unfit to stand trial, the procedure in Part 3 Division 4 of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004 is to be followed and the accused, while not mentally fit, is presumed to plead not guilty to the charge.

[Section 17 inserted by No. 4 of 2004 s. 58; amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141; No. 84 of 2004 s. 78 and 82.]

Division 3 — Proceedings in the Supreme Court and District Court

[Heading amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141.]

18. Application

This Division applies if an accused before the Supreme Court or the District Court is found to be not mentally fit to stand trial.

[Section 18 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141; No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

19. Procedure

- (1) If the judge who decides that the accused is not mentally fit to stand trial —

Criminal Law (Mentally Impaired Accused) Act 1996

Part 3 Mental unfitness to stand trial

Division 3 Proceedings in the Supreme Court and District Court

s. 19

- (a) is satisfied that the accused will not become mentally fit to stand trial within 6 months after the finding that the accused is not mentally fit, the judge must make an order under subsection (4); or
 - (b) is not so satisfied, the judge must adjourn the proceedings in order to see whether the accused will become mentally fit to stand trial.
- (2) Proceedings may be adjourned under subsection (1)(b) for any period or periods a judge thinks fit but the proceedings must not be adjourned for longer than a total period of 6 months after the finding that the accused is not mentally fit to stand trial.
- (3) If proceedings are adjourned under subsection (1)(b), a judge must make an order under subsection (4) —
 - (a) if at any time the judge is satisfied that the accused will not become mentally fit to stand trial within 6 months after the finding that the accused is not mentally fit; or
 - (b) if at the end of 6 months after the finding that the accused is not mentally fit to stand trial the accused has not become mentally fit.
- (4) An order under this subsection is an order quashing the indictment or, if there is no indictment, dismissing the charge and quashing the committal, without deciding the guilt or otherwise of the accused and either —
 - (a) releasing the accused; or
 - (b) subject to subsection (5), making a custody order in respect of the accused.
- (5) A custody order must not be made in respect of an accused unless the statutory penalty for the alleged offence is or includes imprisonment and the judge is satisfied that a custody order is appropriate having regard to —
 - (a) the strength of the evidence against the accused;

- (b) the nature of the alleged offence and the alleged circumstances of its commission;
 - (c) the accused's character, antecedents, age, health and mental condition; and
 - (d) the public interest.
- (6) A judge may require a prosecutor to provide copies of documents relevant to the factors to be considered under subsection (5).
- (7) If an order is made under subsection (4), the accused may be indicted or again indicted and tried for the offence.

[Section 19 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 80 and 82.]

Part 4 — Accused acquitted on account of unsoundness of mind

[Heading amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

20. Powers of courts of summary jurisdiction

If a court of summary jurisdiction finds an accused not guilty of an offence on account of unsoundness of mind the court may make an order under section 22 in respect of the accused.

[Section 20 amended by No. 59 of 2004 s. 141; No. 84 of 2004 s. 78 and 82.]

21. Powers of superior courts

If an accused is acquitted by a superior court or on appeal of an offence on account of unsoundness of mind, the court —

- (a) if the offence is a Schedule 1 offence — must make a custody order in respect of the defendant;
- (b) if the offence is not a Schedule 1 offence — may make an order under section 22 in respect of the defendant.

[Section 21 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 78.]

22. Orders that may be made by courts

- (1) If a court may make an order under this section in respect of an accused, it may —
 - (a) release the accused unconditionally if it considers that it is just to do so having regard to —
 - (i) the nature of the offence and the circumstances of its commission;
 - (ii) the accused's character, antecedents, age, health and mental condition; and
 - (iii) the public interest;
 - (b) despite the fact that the accused is not an offender under the Sentencing Act 1995, make a conditional release

- order (CRO), a community based order (CBO), or an intensive supervision order (ISO) under that Act in respect of the accused; or
- (c) make a custody order in respect of the accused.
- (2) If an accused is found not guilty of an offence on account of unsoundness of mind, a court must not make a CRO, CBO or ISO in respect of the accused unless, under the Sentencing Act 1995, such an order could have been made in respect of the accused had he or she been found guilty of the offence.
- (3) If a court makes a CRO, CBO or ISO in respect of an accused —
- (a) Part 7, 9 or 10 of the Sentencing Act 1995, as the case requires, applies in respect of the order; and
 - (b) Part 18 of the Sentencing Act 1995 applies in respect of the order, but for the purposes of —
 - (i) sections 127(2)(b) of that Act;
 - (ii) section 130(1)(a)(iii) and (b) of that Act; and
 - (iii) section 133(1)(a)(iii) and (b) of that Act,if the court cancels the CRO, CBO or ISO the court must make a custody order in respect of the accused.

[Section 22 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Part 5 — Mentally impaired accused

[Heading amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Division 1 — Preliminary

23. Interpretation

In this Part, unless the contrary intention appears —

“authorised hospital” has the same definition as in the Mental Health Act 1996;

“declared place” means a place declared to be a place for the detention of mentally impaired accused by the Governor by an order published in the Gazette;

“detention centre” has the same definition as in the Young Offenders Act 1994;

“mental illness” has the same definition as in the Mental Health Act 1996;

“mentally impaired accused” means an accused in respect of whom a custody order has been made and who has not been discharged from the order;

“prison” has the same definition as in the Prisons Act 1981.

[Section 23 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Division 2 — Place of custody

24. General effect of custody order

- (1) A mentally impaired accused is to be detained in an authorised hospital, a declared place, a detention centre or a prison, as determined by the Board, until released by an order of the Governor.
- (2) A mentally impaired accused is not to be detained in an authorised hospital unless the accused has a mental illness that is capable of being treated.

- (3) A mentally impaired accused should be detained in an authorised hospital only if the Board is satisfied —
- (a) the accused has a mental illness requiring treatment;
 - (b) the treatment is required in order —
 - (i) to protect the health or safety of the accused or any other person; or
 - (ii) to prevent the accused doing serious damage to any property;
 - (c) the accused has refused or, due to the nature of the mental illness, is unable to consent to the treatment; and
 - (d) the treatment can only be provided satisfactorily in an authorised hospital.
- (4) Subsection (3) is a directory provision.
- (5) A mentally impaired accused is not to be detained in a detention centre unless the accused is under 18.

[Section 24 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

25. Place of custody to be determined within 5 days of order

- (1) Within 5 working days after the custody order in respect of a mentally impaired accused is made, the Board is to —
- (a) review the case of the accused; and
 - (b) subject to section 24, determine the place where the accused is to be detained.
- (2) Until the Board determines the place where the accused is to be detained, the accused is to be detained —
- (a) if when the custody order is made the accused is in an authorised hospital having been admitted, whether as an involuntary patient or otherwise — in an authorised hospital;
 - (b) in any other case — in a prison or a detention centre.

- (3) Where subsection (2)(a) applies the accused —
- (a) if admitted to the authorised hospital as an involuntary patient — is not entitled to be released from the hospital or granted leave of absence under Part 3 of the Mental Health Act 1996;
 - (b) if admitted to the authorised hospital in any other circumstances — is not entitled to be released from the hospital.

[Section 25 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

26. Place of custody may be changed

The Board may at any time amend its determination as to the place where a mentally impaired accused is to be detained.

[Section 26 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Division 3 — Leave of absence

27. Governor may permit Board to allow leave of absence

- (1) The Board may at any time recommend to the Minister that the Governor be advised to make an order allowing the Board to grant leave of absence to a mentally impaired accused.
- (2) The Governor may at any time —
 - (a) make an order allowing the Board to grant leave of absence to a mentally impaired accused;
 - (b) cancel an order made under paragraph (a).

[Section 27 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

28. If allowed, Board may grant leave of absence

- (1) If an order under section 27(2) is in effect, the Board may at any time make a leave of absence order in respect of a mentally impaired accused.

- (2) A leave of absence order is an order that the accused be given leave of absence for a period, not exceeding 14 days at any one time, determined by the Board —
- (a) unconditionally; or
 - (b) on conditions determined by the Board.
- (3) Before making a leave of absence order, the Board is to have regard to —
- (a) the degree of risk that the release of the accused appears to present to the personal safety of people in the community or of any individual in the community; and
 - (b) the likelihood that, if given leave of absence on conditions, the accused would comply with the conditions.
- (4) Without limiting the kinds of conditions that may be included in a leave of absence order, the order may include a condition that the mentally impaired accused —
- (a) undergoes specified treatment or training or other measures that alleviate or prevent the deterioration of the accused's condition;
 - (b) resides at a specified place;
 - (c) complies with the lawful directions of a supervising officer designated under section 45.

[Section 28 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

29. Board may cancel leave of absence

The Board may at any time cancel a leave of absence order.

30. Status of mentally impaired accused on leave of absence

A mentally impaired accused who is away from a place of detention on leave of absence is considered to continue to be detained at the place during the time while on leave, but this section does not limit the freedom of movement given by the leave of absence.

[Section 30 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

31. Absence without leave

- (1) A mentally impaired accused is absent without leave if the accused —
- (a) is away from a place of detention without having being given leave of absence; or
 - (b) having been away from a place of detention on leave of absence, fails to return to the place, or another place to which the person has been transferred, when the leave expires or is cancelled.
- (2) A mentally impaired accused who is absent without leave commits an offence.
Penalty: 12 months imprisonment or a fine of $12 000.
- (3) A mentally impaired accused who is absent without leave may be apprehended by —
- (a) a person qualified as prescribed by the regulations who is employed at the place from which the person is absent;
 - (b) a person qualified as prescribed by the regulations who, although not employed at the place, is authorised by a person qualified as prescribed who is employed at the place; or
 - (c) a police officer.
- (4) A person apprehending a mentally impaired accused under subsection (3) shall as soon as practicable take the accused to the place from which the accused is absent.

[Section 31 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

32. Other Acts do not apply

- (1) Part 3 of the Mental Health Act 1996 does not apply in relation to lawful or unlawful absences from an authorised hospital of a mentally impaired accused.
- (2) Part VIII of the Prisons Act 1981 does not apply in relation to absence from a prison of a mentally impaired accused.

[Section 32 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Division 4 — Reports about mentally impaired accused

[Heading amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

33. Reports to Minister

- (1) At any time the Minister, in writing, may request the Board to report about a mentally impaired accused.
- (2) The Board must give the Minister a written report about a mentally impaired accused —
 - (a) within 8 weeks after the custody order was made in respect of the accused;
 - (b) whenever it gets a written request to do so from the Minister;
 - (c) whenever it thinks there are special circumstances which justify doing so; and
 - (d) in any event at least once in every year.
- (3) A report made under subsection (2) must recommend whether or not the Governor should be advised to release the mentally impaired accused.
- (4) If the release of a mentally impaired accused is recommended, the report must —
 - (a) report on the factors in subsection (5); and
 - (b) recommend any conditions that should apply to the accused's release.

- (5) In deciding whether to recommend the release of a mentally impaired accused, the Board is to have regard to these factors —
- (a) the degree of risk that the release of the accused appears to present to the personal safety of people in the community or of any individual in the community;
 - (b) the likelihood that, if released on conditions, the accused would comply with the conditions;
 - (c) the extent to which the accused's mental impairment, if any, might benefit from treatment, training or any other measure;
 - (d) the likelihood that, if released, the accused would be able to take care of his or her day to day needs, obtain any appropriate treatment and resist serious exploitation;
 - (e) the objective of imposing the least restriction of the freedom of choice and movement of the accused that is consistent with the need to protect the health or safety of the accused or any other person.

[Section 33 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

34. Reports to be given to accused, Police and DPP

- (1) As soon as practicable the Board is to give a copy of any report made under section 33 to the mentally impaired accused concerned and on request to the accused's lawyer or guardian.
- (2) If in a report made under section 33 the Board recommends that the Governor should be advised to release a mentally impaired accused, the Board, as soon as practicable, is to give a copy of the report to —
 - (a) the Commissioner of Police; and
 - (b) the Director of Public Prosecutions.

[Section 34 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Division 5 — Releasing mentally impaired accused

[Heading amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

35. Governor may release mentally impaired accused

- (1) The Governor may at any time order that a mentally impaired accused be released by making a release order.
- (2) A release order is an order that on a release date specified in the order the accused is to be released —
 - (a) unconditionally; or
 - (b) on conditions determined by the Governor.
- (3) If a mentally impaired accused is released on conditions —
 - (a) the conditions may be ordered to apply indefinitely or for a set period determined by the Governor; and
 - (b) the Governor may by a subsequent order amend or cancel any or all of the conditions.
- (4) Without limiting the kinds of conditions that may be included in a release order, the order may include a condition that the mentally impaired accused —
 - (a) undergoes specified treatment or training or other measures that alleviate or prevent the deterioration of the accused's condition;
 - (b) resides at a specified place;
 - (c) complies with the lawful directions of a supervising officer designated under section 45.
- (5) An accused is to be released in accordance with a release order unless at the release date he or she is by law required to be kept in custody in respect of another matter.

[Section 35 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

36. Order to be given to accused, Police and DPP

As soon as practicable, the Board is to give a copy of a release order to —

- (a) the accused and on request the accused's lawyer or guardian;
- (b) the Commissioner of Police; and
- (c) the Director of Public Prosecutions.

[Section 36 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

37. Breach of conditions of release

- (1) If a mentally impaired accused breaches a condition in the release order made in respect of the accused, the Board may cancel the order.
- (2) If a release order is cancelled —
 - (a) the custody order that applied to the accused when the accused was released is again in force and the accused may be arrested and detained under the custody order; and
 - (b) despite paragraph (a) the Board may issue a warrant for the arrest of the accused.
- (3) On the arrest of a mentally impaired accused who has breached a condition of the accused's release, this Part has effect as if the custody order in respect of the accused had been made at the time of the arrest.

[Section 37 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

Division 6 — Miscellaneous

38. When discharge occurs

- (1) A mentally impaired accused remains subject to the custody order until discharged from it.

- (2) A mentally impaired accused is discharged from the custody order —
- (a) if released unconditionally under a release order — when released;
 - (b) if released on conditions under a release order — when the conditions cease to apply if they cease to apply.

[Section 38 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

39. Released mentally impaired accused may be made involuntary patient

This Part does not prevent a mentally impaired accused who has been released on conditions from being made an involuntary patient at any time or being detained as an involuntary patient at any time.

[Section 39 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

40. Board may require examination etc.
