Part 2 — Claims generally

6. Application of this Part

This Part applies to a claim except —

- (a) a claim to recover possession of real property; or
- (b) a consumer/trader claim.

7. Making a claim (including a counterclaim or third party claim)

- (1) If a party wants to make a claim the party must lodge the approved form.
- (2) An originating claim must be served as soon as practicable, and in any event within one year, after the day on which it is lodged.
- (3) A claim must be lodged and served together with an approved form that may be used for making a response under rule 9.
- (4) A counterclaim or third party claim must be lodged and served together with a statement of defence referred to in rule 10.
- (5) Unless these rules or an Act provides otherwise, a claim must be served personally.

8. Statement of claim

- (1) A party making a claim must lodge and serve a statement of claim in accordance with this rule.
- (2) The party may lodge and serve a statement of claim together with the claim but in any event must lodge and serve the statement of claim within 14 days after being served with a response that indicates an intention to defend the claim.
- (3) A statement of claim must be in the approved form.
- (4) The statement of claim must contain —
 - (a) a summary of the facts relevant to the claim;

- (b) the legal basis of the claim;
 - (c) the basic contentions of the party;
 - (d) a list of any documents that the party might tender in evidence at the trial in support of the claim;
 - (e) the remedy or relief claimed; and
 - (f) if the amount of the claim has been reduced in order to bring the claim within the jurisdictional limit, a statement to that effect.
- (5) The party making the claim must, together with the statement of claim, lodge and serve a statutory declaration certifying that any allegations of fact in the statement of claim are true.
- (6) The statutory declaration may be made by the party or the party's lawyer.

9. Response to a claim

- (1) A party against which a claim is made must complete the response served with the claim and lodge it with the Court within 14 days after the claim is served.
- (2) The Court must give a copy of the response to every other party.

10. Statement of defence

- (1) A party which has lodged a response to a claim made against the party must lodge and serve a statement of defence in accordance with this rule.
- (2) The party may lodge the statement of defence together with the response but in any event must lodge and serve the statement of defence within 14 days after the statement of claim has been served on the party.
- (3) A statement of defence must be in the approved form.
- (4) The statement of defence must contain —
- (a) a summary of the facts relevant to the defence;

r. 11

- (b) the legal basis of the defence;
 - (c) the basic contentions of the party;
 - (d) a list of any documents that the party might tender in evidence at the trial in support of the defence; and
 - (e) the details of anyone who the party alleges is liable for the party and the grounds upon which the party so alleges.
- (5) The party must, together with the statement of defence, lodge a statutory declaration certifying that any allegations of fact in the statement of defence are true.
- (6) The statutory declaration may be made by the party or the party's lawyer.

11. Objection to counterclaim (s. 9(4))

A claimant wanting to object under the Act section 9(4) to a counterclaim must lodge and serve the approved form.

12. Amending a case statement

- (1) If under the Act section 16(1)(m) the Court allows a party to amend its case statement, the party must, together with the amended case statement, lodge and serve a statutory declaration certifying that any new or amended allegations of fact are true and that —
- (a) the new allegations were unknown or unforeseen; or
 - (b) the amendments are needed because of facts or circumstances that have arisen, or been discovered, since the previous case statement was lodged,
- by the party at the time the previous case statement was lodged.
- (2) The statutory declaration may be made by the party or the party's lawyer.

Part 3 — Claims to recover possession of real property

13. Making a claim to recover possession of real property

- (1) If a party wants to make a claim to recover possession of real property the party must lodge the approved form.
- (2) If the party making the claim does not know the name of the person or persons in possession of the real property, the claim may be made against “the person or persons in possession of [description of the property]”.

14. Notice demanding possession

The claim must be lodged together with any written notice demanding possession of the property.

15. Service of the claim

- (1) The claim must be served as soon as practicable, and in any event within one year, after the day on which it is lodged.
- (2) The claim must be served personally or in accordance with subrule (3).
- (3) If the party making the claim does not know who is in possession of the real property, the party may serve the claim —
 - (a) by leaving the claim in a conspicuous position on the real property; or
 - (b) by serving the claim personally on a person allegedly in possession.

16. Registrar to list case for listing conference

As soon as practicable after the claim is lodged, a Registrar must list the case for a listing conference and endorse the date of that conference on the claim that is to be served.

Part 4 — Consumer/trader claims

17. Making a consumer/trader claim

If a party wants to make a consumer/trader claim the party must lodge the approved form.

18. Service of the claim

The Court must serve a consumer/trader claim by pre-paid post as soon as practicable after it is lodged.

19. Registrar to list case for listing conference

As soon as possible after a consumer/trader claim is lodged, a Registrar must list the case for a listing conference and endorse the date of that conference on the claim that is to be served.

Part 5 — Failure to defend a claim

20. Application of this Part

This Part applies if an application for default judgment is made against a defendant because the defendant has not —

- (a) lodged a response in accordance with rule 9(1); or
- (b) lodged a statement of defence in accordance with rule 10(1).

21. Default judgment for a specified amount

Except as provided in rule 24, a Registrar may, in the absence of the parties, give default judgment against the defendant for a specified amount if —

- (a) the claim is for a liquidated amount;
- (b) the claim is for an unliquidated amount of $500 or less; or
- (c) the claim is for an unliquidated amount of more than $500 but not more than the minor cases jurisdictional limit, if the Registrar is able to assess the amount from any supporting affidavit lodged with the application.

22. Default judgment for an unspecified amount

- (1) Except as provided in rule 24, a Registrar may, in the absence of the parties, give default judgment against the defendant for an unspecified amount if the claim is for an unliquidated amount to which rule 21 does not apply.
- (2) When the Registrar gives default judgment for an unspecified amount, the Registrar must —
 - (a) list the application for a hearing at which the amount is to be assessed by the Court; and
 - (b) notify the parties in writing at least 28 days before the hearing.

r. 23

- (3) An application for default judgment under this rule does not require a supporting affidavit unless a hearing is listed under subrule (2) or rule 25, and in that case a supporting affidavit must be lodged at least 14 days before the hearing.

23. Default judgment for claim to recover possession of personal property

Except as provided in rule 24, a Registrar may, in the absence of the parties, give default judgment for a claim to recover possession of personal property unless the claim is a consumer/trader claim.

24. Leave to give judgment in cases lasting one year or more

A Registrar must not give default judgment under this Part if one year or more has passed since the originating claim was served.

25. Registrar to list application

If the Registrar does not grant the application for default judgment, the Registrar must list the application for a hearing and notify the parties in writing at least 28 days before the hearing.

26. Registrar may order costs after giving judgment

When the Registrar gives default judgment under this Part the Registrar may also make an order for costs.

Part 6 — Admission and discontinuance

27. Party may admit fact or claim

- (1) If a party wants to admit —
 - (a) the whole or part of a claim made against the party; or
 - (b) a particular fact alleged in the claim, the case statement or in an invitation to admit under rule 28, the party must lodge and serve a notice of admission in the approved form.

- (2) If the party admits the whole of the claim, a Registrar may give judgment for the party making the claim except in the case of —
 - (a) a claim to recover possession of real property; or
 - (b) a consumer/trader claim.
- (3) When the Registrar gives judgment under this rule the Registrar may also make an order for costs.

28. Invitation to admit an alleged fact

- (1) If a party wants to invite another party to admit a particular alleged fact the party must lodge and serve an invitation to admit in the approved form at least 5 working days before the trial date.
- (2) If —
 - (a) a party does not admit a fact when invited to do so;
 - (b) the Court subsequently finds the fact to be proven; and
 - (c) the Court awards the costs of proving that fact against the party, the costs of proving the fact are to be assessed on a party and party basis.

29. Party may discontinue claim

If a party wants to discontinue the whole or part of a claim made by the party, it must lodge and serve a notice of discontinuance in the approved form.

Part 7 — Disclosure of documents

30. Party must disclose documents when ordered

- (1) Subject to any objection under rule 32, when the Court makes an order under the Act section 16(1)(n) that a party must provide additional information by disclosing documents relevant to the case, the party must lodge and serve an affidavit containing a list of the documents within the period ordered by the Court.
- (2) Subject to any objection under rule 32, if the party subsequently —
 - (a) comes into possession; or
 - (b) becomes aware that it is in possession,of further documents required to be disclosed under a Court order, the party must, as soon as practicable after that, lodge and serve a affidavit containing a list of those documents.

31. Affidavit of disclosure

- (1) An affidavit lodged under rule 30 must state that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge and belief, every document required to be disclosed under a Court order has either been disclosed or is the subject of an objection under rule 32.
- (2) If a party objects to the disclosure of a document, the party must raise the objection, and state the grounds for the objection, in the affidavit.
- (3) The affidavit may be made by the party or the party's lawyer.
- (4) If the affidavit is made by the party's lawyer, then it must also state that the lawyer has fully explained the obligations of disclosure under these rules to the party.

32. Objection to disclosure of documents

A party may object to the disclosure of a document if it —

- (a) is privileged from production; or
- (b) is inadmissible in evidence,

under these rules or any other law.

33. Inspection of documents

- (1) If a party wants to inspect documents disclosed by another party it must serve the other party with a written request to inspect.
- (2) A party receiving a request for inspection must make the documents available for inspection within 14 days after the service of the request.
- (3) If asked to do so by the party which requested inspection, a party making documents available for inspection must also —
 - (a) provide copies of the documents, at a reasonable cost, to the party which requested inspection; or
 - (b) permit the documents to be copied at another place by the party which requested inspection.

34. Production of documents at trial

If a party discloses a document, the party must have the document available at the trial.

Part 8 — Answers to interrogatories

35. Application for a Court order for answers to interrogatories

An application for an order under the Act section 16(1)(n) that a party must provide additional information by answering interrogatories must contain or be accompanied by a list of the interrogatories.

36. Party must answer interrogatories when ordered

Subject to any objection under rule 38, when the Court orders a party to answer interrogatories, the party must lodge and serve an affidavit containing the answers within the period ordered by the Court.

37. Affidavit of answers

- (1) An affidavit lodged under rule 36 must state that the answers are provided to the best of the deponent's knowledge and belief.
- (2) If a party objects to answering an interrogatory, the party must raise the objection, and state the grounds for the objection, in the affidavit.
- (3) The affidavit must be made by the party personally.

38. Objection to answering interrogatories

A party may object to answering an interrogatory if the answer —

- (a) is irrelevant to the case;
- (b) is inadmissible in evidence under these rules or any other law;
- (c) cannot practicably be disclosed;
- (d) is sought so as to harass or annoy, or to cause delay;
- (e) is frivolous, vexatious, scandalous or improper; or

- (f) is otherwise not genuinely required for the purposes of the case.

Part 9 — Pre-trial conferences

39. Listing a pre-trial conference

- (1) A claimant must —
 - (a) within 14 days after the defendant lodges and serves a statement of defence; or
 - (b) if the defendant has made a counterclaim, within 14 days after the claimant lodges and serves a statement of defence to the counterclaim,request a Registrar to list the case for a pre-trial conference.
- (2) When a Registrar receives the request the Registrar must list the case for a pre-trial conference and notify the parties in writing.

40. Pre-trial conference, purpose of

- (1) The purpose of a pre-trial conference is to give the parties an opportunity to settle the case.
- (2) The Registrar may assist the parties in any attempt to settle the case.

41. Attendance of parties at pre-trial conferences

- (1) Except as provided in subrule (2), a party must attend a pre-trial conference.
- (2) Unless the Court orders otherwise, a party is not required to attend a pre-trial conference in person if the party's lawyer attends the pre-trial conference.
- (3) If the Court orders a person to attend a pre-trial conference, a Registrar must notify the party in writing.
- (4) If a party fails to attend a pre-trial conference, the Registrar at the pre-trial conference may give default judgment against the party, and in that case Part 5, except rule 24, with any necessary modifications, applies in relation to the default judgment.

42. Listing the case for further pre-trial conference or trial

After a pre-trial conference the Registrar must either —

- (a) list the case for a further pre-trial conference; or
- (b) list the case for a listing conference, and notify the parties in writing.

43. Status of things said or done at a pre-trial conference

- (1) A pre-trial conference must be conducted before a Registrar, in private.
- (2) Anything said or done by a party for the purpose of attempting to settle a case at a pre-trial conference is to be taken to be said or done without prejudice to any evidence or submission that the party —
 - (a) has adduced or made; or
 - (b) may subsequently adduce or make,

in or in respect of the proceedings, and the saying or doing of that thing does not disqualify the Registrar who conducted the pre-trial conference from later dealing with the case.

Part 10 — Listing conferences

44. Parties to lodge and serve listing conference memoranda

(1) Except in the case of —

- (a) a claim to recover possession of real property; or
- (b) a consumer/trader claim,

each party must, at least 7 working days before the day of the first listing conference, lodge and serve a listing conference memorandum.

(2) The listing conference memorandum must be in the approved form and must —

- (a) include a concise statement of the issues of fact and law that the party contends will need to be determined at the trial;
- (b) state how each allegation of fact will be proved;
- (c) state the name, address, occupation and qualification of each witness the party will call to give oral evidence at the trial; and
- (d) annex a statement of the evidence of each witness who is not an expert witness.

45. Listing conference, purpose of

The purpose of a listing conference is to list the case for trial.

46. Attendance of parties at listing conferences

- (1) Except as provided in subrule (2), a party must attend a listing conference.
- (2) Unless the Court orders otherwise, a party is not required to attend a listing conference in person if the party's lawyer attends the listing conference.

- (3) If the Court orders a person to attend a listing conference, a Registrar must notify the party in writing.

47. Listing a case for trial

Unless the magistrate at a listing conference orders the parties to attend before a mediator, or to attend a pre-trial conference or listing conference, the magistrate must list the case for trial and a Registrar notify the parties in writing.

48. Listing conferences to be conducted in private

A listing conference must be conducted before a magistrate, in private.

Part 11 — Mediation

49. Mediation conference

- (1) If the Court orders the parties to attend before a mediator, each party must ensure that a mediation conference before the mediator is arranged.
- (2) A mediation conference must be conducted in private.

50. Attendance of parties at mediation conferences

Unless the mediator otherwise approves, a party must attend a mediation conference in person.

51. Outcome of mediation

- (1) The claimant must, within 14 days after the mediation conference, lodge a notice of the outcome of the mediation.
- (2) The notice must be in the approved form.

52. Further listing conference if case not settled

If the case is not settled at the mediation conference a Registrar must list the case for a further listing conference and notify the parties in writing.

Part 12 — Consent orders and settlement

Division 1 — Consent

53. Memorandum of consent

The parties may settle a case or consent to any other order by lodging a memorandum to that effect in the approved form, signed by each party.

54. Registrar may make consent orders or give judgment

- (1) When a memorandum of consent is lodged, a Registrar may, except as provided in subrule (2), make the orders or give the judgment consented to.
- (2) The Registrar must not make an order —
 - (a) adjourning the trial of a case; or
 - (b) extending the time for complying with any rule of court or practice direction, or any order made by the Court.

55. Notice of consent by one party

Where the Act or these rules require the consent of one party before something can be done, that consent may be given by the party lodging a notice of consent to that effect in the approved form and signed by the party.

56. Settling claims involving a person under a legal disability

- (1) An application for the approval of the settlement of a case in which there is a claim by or against a person under a legal disability may be dealt with in the absence of the respondent to the application.
- (2) Unless the Court orders otherwise, in addition to the supporting affidavit required under rule 110, the application must be supported by an affidavit of an independent lawyer verifying that the settlement is in the best interests of the person under a legal disability.

- (3) The settlement of a case in which there is a claim by or against a person under a legal disability has effect on and from the day the Court gives its approval to it.

Division 2 — Offers of settlement

57. Making an offer of settlement

- (1) If a party wants to make an offer of settlement to another party it must serve the offer on the other party.
- (2) The offer of settlement must be in the approved form.
- (3) The offer of settlement must specify —
- (a) whether it includes costs and interest up to the date of the offer; and
 - (b) if it includes the costs and interest, the amount offered in relation to those costs and that interest.
- (4) If an offer of settlement does not comply with subrule (3) the offer is to be taken to exclude costs and interest up to the date of the offer.

58. Offers are to be confidential and made without prejudice

- (1) An offer of settlement must not be lodged, nor otherwise disclosed to the Court, except in accordance with this Division.
- (2) Unless it specifies otherwise, an offer of settlement is to be taken to have been made without prejudice.

59. Acknowledging the receipt of an offer of settlement

- (1) A party receiving an offer of settlement must, within 3 working days after the offer is served, serve an acknowledgment of the receipt of the offer on the party making the offer.

- (2) The acknowledgment must be in the approved form.

60. Period within which an offer may be accepted

- (1) An offer of settlement may specify a period that is not less than 28 days as the period within which the offer may be accepted.
- (2) If an offer of settlement specifies a period within which it may be accepted, a party may accept the offer —
- (a) before the expiration of the period; or
 - (b) if the offer is made within 28 days before the trial date, before judgment.
- (3) If an offer of settlement does not specify a period within which it may be accepted, a party may accept the offer —
- (a) before the expiration of a period of 28 days after the day on which the offer is made; or
 - (b) if the offer is made within 28 days before the trial date, before judgment.

61. Accepting an offer of settlement

- (1) A party receiving an offer of settlement may accept the offer, or any part of the offer, by lodging and serving a notice of acceptance on the party making the offer.
- (2) The notice of acceptance must be in the approved form.

62. Period within which offered sums must be paid

If an offer of settlement provides for the payment of a sum of money to a party, the party making the offer must pay that sum to the party before the expiration of —

- (a) any period for payment specified in the offer; or
- (b) if no such period is specified, a period of 28 days after the day on which the offer is accepted.

63. Withdrawing an acceptance of offer of settlement

- (1) If a party accepts an offer, or part of an offer, of settlement, the party may withdraw an acceptance of an offer of settlement —
 - (a) if, on an application by the party, the Court has given the party leave to withdraw the acceptance; or
 - (b) otherwise, if —
 - (i) the offer provides for the payment of a sum of money to a party;
 - (ii) that sum was not paid in accordance with rule 62; and
 - (iii) the notice of withdrawal of acceptance is served on the party making the offer within 7 working days after the expiration of the period referred to in rule 62.
- (2) If a party wants to withdraw an acceptance of an offer, or part of an offer, of settlement, the party must serve a notice of withdrawal of acceptance on the party making the offer.

64. Registrar may give judgment

- (1) If a party accepts an offer of settlement, either party to the offer may lodge a request for judgment in terms of the offer.
- (2) The request for judgment must be in the approved form and must have annexed to it copies of the offer of settlement and the acceptance.
- (3) When the request for judgment is lodged, a Registrar may, except as provided in subrule (4), give the judgment in the absence of the parties.
- (4) The Registrar must not give judgment in relation to a party if —
 - (a) the party has withdrawn acceptance of the offer; or

- (b) the party has made an application for leave to withdraw acceptance of an offer and that application has not been dealt with by the Court.

65. Orders for post-offer costs

- (1) In this rule —

“claimant” means a party which makes a claim;

“defendant” means a party against which a claim is made;

“post-offer costs” means costs from and after the day when an offer is made.

- (2) If —

- (a) a claimant makes an offer of settlement that specifies an amount to be paid by the defendant;
- (b) the defendant does not accept the offer;
- (c) judgment is given for the claimant for an amount that is not less than the amount specified in the offer; and
- (d) under the Act section 25(1) the Court makes an order under which the claimant is entitled to, among any other costs, its post-offer costs, the post-offer costs are to be assessed on a party and party basis.

- (3) If —

- (a) a defendant makes an offer of settlement that specifies an amount to be paid by the defendant;
- (b) the claimant does not accept the offer;
- (c) judgment is given for the claimant for an amount that is not more than the amount specified in the offer; and
- (d) under the Act section 25(2) the Court, after considering that there is good reason not to make an order for the claimant for post-offer costs, makes an order for the defendant for post-offer costs, the post-offer costs are to be assessed on a party and party basis.

Part 13 — Trial

Division 1 — General

66. “First party” and “subsequent party”, meaning of

In this Part —

“first party” means the party which first presents its case at a trial;

“subsequent party” means any party except the first party.

67. Who is to be the first party

- (1) When the burden of proof on any question is on the claimant, the claimant is to be the first party.
- (2) When the burden of proof on every question is on the defendant, the defendant is to be the first party.

68. Order of opening addresses and evidence

- (1) The first party may make an opening address and adduce the party’s evidence.
- (2) A subsequent party may then make an opening address and adduce the party’s evidence.

69. Order of closing addresses

- (1) If a subsequent party —
 - (a) tenders exhibits into evidence while the first party is adducing evidence; or
 - (b) adduces evidence,

each subsequent party may, after all the evidence has been adduced, make a closing address after which the first party may make a closing address.

- (2) If a subsequent party —

- (a) does not tender any exhibits into evidence while the first party is adducing evidence; and
- (b) does not adduce evidence,

the first party may make a closing address after which each subsequent party may make a closing address.

70. Attendance of parties at trial

Unless the Court orders otherwise, a party must attend the trial in person.

Division 2 — Witnesses

71. Issuing a witness summons

- (1) If a party wants to require a person to give evidence or to produce evidentiary material at a trial the party must lodge a request for the Court to issue a witness summons.
- (2) The request must be in the approved form and must be accompanied by —
 - (a) a draft witness summons, in the approved form, that requires the witness to attend the Court to give oral evidence in the case; or
 - (b) a draft witness summons, in the approved form, that requires the witness to attend the Court and produce to the Court evidentiary material that is relevant to the case.
- (3) If the Court issues the requested witness summons, the party must lodge and serve the witness summons on the witness at least 14 days before the trial date.
- (4) The witness summons must be served personally.
- (5) At the time a witness is served with a witness summons, or at a reasonable time before the attendance date —

- (a) an amount that is likely to be sufficient to meet the reasonable expenses of attending the court must be tendered to the witness;
 - (b) arrangements to enable the witness to attend the court must be made with the witness; or
 - (c) the means to enable the witness to attend the court must be provided to the witness.
- (6) A party which issues a witness summons must ensure that subsection (5) is complied with.
- (7) The person who serves a witness with a witness summons must record how subsection (5) was complied with on a copy of the witness summons.
- (8) If a copy of a witness summons contains information recorded in accordance with subsection (7) it is to be presumed that the information is true, unless the contrary is proved.

72. Directions for expert witnesses

- (1) A party must not adduce expert evidence at a trial except in accordance with directions given by the Court.
- (2) If the Court directs a party to lodge and serve a statement of an expert witness, the statement must set out, or be accompanied by a document setting out —
 - (a) the full name of the expert;
 - (b) details of the expert's qualifications to give the evidence; and
 - (c) to the extent practicable, details of any material on which the expert has relied in reaching his or her opinion.

73. Directions for evidence of children and special witnesses

Any application for an order or direction under the Evidence Act 1906 section 106S must be made at least 14 days before the trial date.

74. Party may adduce affidavit evidence at trial if there is no objection

- (1) A party may, if the other parties do not object, adduce the evidence of a witness at a trial by tendering an affidavit of the witness.
- (2) A party wishing to adduce affidavit evidence under subrule (1) must lodge and serve the affidavit at least 14 days before the trial date.
- (3) If a party wants to object to the affidavit evidence the party must lodge and serve a notice of objection in the approved form as soon as practicable after the affidavit is served on the party.

Division 3 — Exhibits

75. Receiving records into evidence

If a record cannot be read without using another device, then the Court must not receive the record into evidence unless each party has had the opportunity to inspect the record using that device.

76. Return of exhibits after trial

- (1) If an exhibit tendered at a trial is retained by the Court without being received into evidence, a person who was lawfully entitled to the possession of the exhibit before it was tendered is not entitled to the return of that exhibit until the end of the trial.
- (2) If an exhibit is received into evidence at a trial, a person who was lawfully entitled to the possession of the exhibit before it was received is not entitled to the return of that exhibit —

- (a) if no appeal against the judgment is lodged, until 21 days after the day on which the judgment is given; or
 - (b) if an appeal against the judgment is lodged, until the appeal has been dealt with.
- (3) The Court must give written notice to a person of the person's entitlement to the return of an exhibit under subrule (1) or (2).
- (4) The notice must be given as soon as practicable after the entitlement arises.
- (5) If the person does not take possession of the exhibit within 28 days after the person receives the notice, the Registrar may dispose of the exhibit as the Registrar thinks fit.

Part 14 — Orders and judgments

77. Money paid to person under a legal disability

- (1) If, under a judgment, money is to be paid to a person under a legal disability, the money is to be paid to the Public Trustee to hold on trust for the person.
- (2) The Public Trustee must invest the money for the person and may, if the Court so orders, invest it outside the Common Fund referred to in the Public Trustee Act 1941 section 40.

78. Requests for certificate of judgment

If a party wants a certificate of a judgment, the party must lodge a request for the judgment in an approved form.

79. Setting aside summary judgment or default judgment

An application for judgment under the Act section 17(3), 18(6), or 19(3) must be made within 21 days after the date of the judgment.

80. Decisions of Registrars

If a Registrar exercises any jurisdiction of the Court, the decision of the Registrar is to be taken to be a decision of the Court unless it is set aside on an appeal.

Part 15 — Costs

Division 1 — Assessments

81. Bill of costs

- (1) When the court makes an order for costs to be assessed the successful party may lodge a bill of those costs.
- (2) Unless the bill of costs relates to a judgment given under Part 5, the successful party must serve the bill on each unsuccessful party as soon as practicable after it has been lodged.

82. Objection to bill of costs

- (1) An unsuccessful party may, within 21 days after being served with a bill of costs, object to any item in the bill by lodging and serving on the successful party a notice of objection.
- (2) The notice of objection must be in the approved form and must specify reasons for each objection.
- (3) If the party does not object to a particular item in a bill the party is to be taken to have admitted the item.

83. Assessment when objection made

If an objection is made in relation to a bill of costs, a Registrar must list the case for an assessment and notify the parties in writing.

84. Assessment when no objection made

If —

- (a) a bill of costs is lodged in relation to a judgment given under Part 5; or
- (b) in any other case, 21 days have passed from the service of a bill of costs and no objection to it has been made, the Registrar may assess the costs in the absence of the parties and give a certificate of the assessment to the successful party, otherwise the Registrar must list the case for an assessment and notify the parties in writing.

85. Form of bill

A bill of costs must be in the approved form and must be supported by —

- (a) receipts for each expense except court and ~~bailiff~~enforcement officer fees; and
- (b) any other documents required by the Registrar at the assessment.

[\[Rule 85 amended in Gazette 24 Aug 2007 p. 4328.\]](#)

86. Conduct of assessments

- (1) An assessment must be conducted before the Registrar, in private.
- (2) The Registrar must assess the costs and give a certificate of the assessment to the parties appearing before the Registrar.
- (3) The Registrar may assess the costs in the absence of any party.
- (4) The Registrar must allow the costs of the assessment in favour of the successful party unless subrule (5) applies.
- (5) If any disallowed costs represent 25% or more of the costs claimed in respect of the bill, the unsuccessful party's costs of attending the assessment are to be subtracted from the successful party's costs.

Division 2 — Determining value of claim

87. Determination under this Division

For the purposes of assessing a party's costs under the applicable costs determination, the value of a claim is the amount determined under this Division (the “determined value”).

88. Claim successful and no successful counterclaim

- (1) Except as provided in subrule (2), if an originating claim is successful and —
- (a) there is no counterclaim; or
 - (b) if there is a counterclaim, each counterclaim is unsuccessful, then the determined value of the originating claim is the amount of the judgment.

- (2) If an unsuccessful counterclaim was for an amount greater than the judgment sum, then the determined value of the originating claim made is the amount of the greatest counterclaim.

89. Claim and counterclaim successful

If an originating claim is successful and there is a successful counterclaim, then —

- (a) the determined value of the originating claim is the amount of the judgment given in relation to the originating claim; and
- (b) the determined value of the counterclaim is the amount of the judgment given in relation to the counterclaim.

90. Claim unsuccessful and counterclaim successful

If an originating claim is unsuccessful and there is a successful counterclaim, then the determined value of the counterclaim is —

- (a) the amount of the originating claim; or
- (b) the amount of the judgment given in relation to the counterclaim, whichever is the greater.

91. Claim and counterclaim unsuccessful

If the originating claim is unsuccessful and there is an unsuccessful counterclaim, then —

- (a) the determined value of the originating claim is the amount of the originating claim;
- (b) the determined value of the counterclaim is the amount of the counterclaim.

92. Claims by or against third parties

Rules 88 to 91, with the necessary modifications, apply to claims against or by third parties.

93. Claims to recover possession of real property

- (1) This rule does not apply to a claim arising from a residential tenancy agreement as defined in the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 section 3.
- (2) The determined value of a claim to recover possession of real property is the sum of —
 - (a) the determined value of any claim for damages or rent determined in accordance with rules 88 to 91; and
 - (b) the gross annual rental value of the property determined in accordance with the Act section 6(3).

94. Claims to recover possession of personal property

The determined value of a claim to recover possession of personal property is the sum of —

- (a) the determined value of any claim for damages determined in accordance with rules 88 to 91; and
- (b) the value of the personal property.

Part 16 — Lodging documents

95. “Lodge”, meaning of
