The Company on demand shall pay to the State a sum sufficient to reimburse the State for the cost of resuming or taking any land required for the production site.

(2) Until the 31st day of December, 1977, subject to the provisions of subclauses (4) and (5) of this Clause the Company shall have options exercisable at any time and from time to time on notice to the State to have added to the area leased pursuant to subclause (1) of this clause the whole or such part of the area edged in blue in the Plan referred to in subclause (1) of this Clause (hereinafter referred to as "the optioned areas") as the Company specifies in any such notice.

(3) If at any time before the 31st day of December, 1977, the Company gives notice to the State that it desires an option over the whole or any specified part of the area edged in green on the plan referred to in subclause (1) of this clause then providing that it is satisfied that the area nominated by the Company is not important for the breeding or development of prawns the State shall extend to the said area the option referred to in subclause (2) of this clause. Any reference in this Agreement to "the optioned areas" shall include any such area to which the option is extended pursuant to the provisions of this sub-clause.

(4) If the State should ever require any part of the optioned areas either for its own use or for any other public purpose or for lease to any other business enterprise then it may notify the Company accordingly and thereafter in respect of the area notified the date by which the Company may exercise the options granted in subclause (2) of this clause will be two years from the date of the State's notice if the State's notice be given within five years of the date of the production site lease or otherwise one year.

4. (1) If the Company notifies the Minister that it wishes to construct a jetty with berthing and loading facilities in the vicinity of Dampier harbour then the State shall grant the Company an appropriate lease at a nominal rental of the area reasonably necessary for the Company's requirements and a licence therefor under the provisions of the Jetties Act, 1926, and the Company may thereupon construct such jetty and berthing and loading facilities provided that the Minister has approved of the specifications therefor and is satisfied that ships using the same would not be likely to unduly interfere with the traffic of ships to and from the service wharf and any other wharf constructed by Hamersley Iron Pty. Ltd. under the Iron Ore (Hamersley Range) Agreement Act 1963.

Lease for Shiploading Facilities.

(2) If the Company makes all necessary arrangements with Hamersley Iron Pty. Road Rail

Transport.

6. (1) If the Company notifies the Minister that it requests from the State appropriate rights to permit the Company to construct and operate between the production site and the stockpile site or jetty used by the Company for loading salt into ships, or, between the stockpile site and such jetty a railway, a private roadway or an apparatus for conveying salt by other mechanical means (including without limitation pumping in slurry or transferring by conveyor or aerial ropeway) and if the Company's notice—

(a) gives a general description of a proposed route and of the intended railway, roadway or apparatus, and

(b) bears the approval of Hamersley Iron Pty. Ltd. insofar as the proposed route traverses any lands owned or leased by that Company or to which it is entitled to a lease pursuant to the Iron Ore (Hamersley Range) Agreement Act of 1963; then subject to subclause 4 of this Clause the State after consulting with Hamersley Iron Pty. Ltd. and the Company will cause to be surveyed at the cost of the Company the route which the State considers would be most practicable and convenient.

Ltd. approved of the grant and thereafter the Company shall be entitled to construct and use the particular railway (with or without compliance with the requirements of section 96 of the Public Works Act, 1902) roadway or apparatus in accordance with the terms of the said lease easement or license.

(3) The lease easement or license will continue for so long as the Company is the lessee of the production site and will enable the Company to use the surveyed route for the purposes only of constructing, operating, repairing, renewing and, subject to Clause 19, removing the railway, private roadway or apparatus as the case may be.

(4) Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained the State shall have no obligations to cause a survey to be made or grant a lease, easement or license under this Clause insofar as to do so would be inconsistent with the obligations of the State and the rights of Hamersley Iron Pty. Ltd. pursuant to the Iron Ore (Hamersley Range) Agreement Act of 1963, or would unreasonably prejudice or interfere with the general requirements of the State in regard to the use of the area for public purposes or industrial development.

7. At the reasonable request of the Company from time to time the Minister shall recommend to the Governor in Executive Council that he make alter or repeal as may be desirable by-laws in respect of the management or use of any of the Company's facilities that have been constructed pursuant to this Agreement. By-laws.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing the State shall grant to the Company appropriate rights enabling the Company to take without royalty stone, gravel, sand, or earth, for the purpose of making improvements to the work sites.

(2) For the purposes of the preceding subclause the Land Act shall be deemed to be modified by—

(2) Upon the Governor signifying approval pursuant to subsection (1) of this section in respect of any such land the same may subject to this section be sold or leased;

(b) the deletion of the proviso to section 116;

(c) the deletion of section 135;

(d) the deletion of section 143;

(e) the inclusion of a power to offer for sale or leasing land within or in the vicinity of any townsite notwithstanding that the townsite has not been constituted a townsite under section 10; and

(f) the inclusion of a power to offer for sale or grant leases or licenses for terms or periods and on such terms and conditions (including renewal rights) and in forms consistent with the provisions of this Agreement in lieu of the terms or periods and the terms and conditions and the forms referred to in the Act.
