(3) The principal Act as amended by this Act may be cited as the Fisheries Act, 1905-1967.

Commencement.

2. This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by proclamation.

3. Subsection (2) of section thirty-five C of the principal Act is repealed and re-enacted with amendments, as follows—amended.

(2) The Director shall consider each application for the renewal or grant of a processor's license and where he is satisfied—

(a) in the case of an application for the renewal of a license, that the processing establishment the subject of the application is constructed, equipped and operated in an efficient and hygienic manner and in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the regulations; or

(b) in the case of an application for the grant of a license, that—

(i) the processing establishment the subject of the application is constructed, equipped and capable of being operated in an efficient and hygienic manner and in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the regulations; and

(ii) having regard to the number of processing establishments in respect of which licenses under this section are then in force, and to the sizes and natures of those establishments, it is in the better interests of the fishing industry that the application should be granted, he shall grant the application, and where he is not so satisfied he shall refuse the application and, by notice in writing, advise the applicant of the grounds of his refusal. .

4. Section thirty-five L of the principal Act is amended—

amended.
