2. Section thirty-seven AF of the principal Act is amended by adding after subsection (3), the following subsection—

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section—

- (a) a teacher may not appeal to the Tribunal as referred to in subsection (3) of this section unless that teacher is one appointed permanently to the teaching staff of the Education Department except that where the recommended applicant is not a permanent member of that teaching staff, teachers engaged in continuous full-time employment in that department may appeal in respect of that recommendation;
 - (b) a teacher who has applied for more than one position as prescribed by the regulations shall on his appealing in respect of any of the positions applied for be bound by the order of preference submitted in his application, unless he satisfies the Tribunal that change of circumstances since lodging his application warrant a variation of that order of preference, and the Tribunal shall in hearing and determining the appeal have regard to such order of preference as submitted or varied, as the case may be. .
