- (3) A reference to a provision of the Corporations Act as applied, is a reference to that provision of the Corporations Act as applied because of section 71 of the Housing Societies Act 1976.

5. Purpose of this Part

The purpose of this Part is to ensure that —

- (a) each society is wound up; and

 - (i) each member (other than a contributing member) and each director receives no more than the refund of his or her membership share;
 - (ii) each contributing member receives no more than the refund of his or her membership share and the maximum distribution for that member; and
 - (iii) the remainder is transferred to the State.

6. Application of this Part

8. Societies to be wound up

- (1) The directors of each society are to cause the society to be wound up once the society has ceased to carry on business.
- (2) The winding up is to be in accordance with Part 5.5 of the Corporations Act as applied.

 - (a) resolved, by special resolution, that the society be wound up; and
 - (b) complied with section 491(2) of the Corporations Act as applied.

9. Minister may intervene

- (1) If a society has not appointed a liquidator to wind up the society before the end of the 60th day after commencement day, the Minister may appoint a liquidator to wind up the society.
- (2) The Minister may replace the liquidator or liquidators of a society (whether or not appointed by the Minister) if —
 - (a) the winding up of the society has not been completed within 12 months after commencement day or the Minister is satisfied that the winding up of the society is unlikely to be completed within that time;
 - (b) the Minister is satisfied that the circumstances that gave rise to the delay in winding up the society were within the control of the liquidator or liquidators; and
 - (c) the Minister is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so.

10. Distribution of property of societies on or after preservation day

- (1) The distribution of property of a society to its members or directors on or after preservation day, whether on or before the

s. 11

- winding up of the society and whether on one or more than one occasion, is limited to —
- (a) for a member (other than a contributing member) or director of the society — the amount the member or director paid for his or her membership share; and
 - (b) for a contributing member of the society — the sum of the amount the member paid for his or her membership share and the maximum distribution for that member.
- (2) On the winding up of a society, on or after preservation day, the property of the society must be distributed (subject to the limits set out in subsection (1)) in the following order —
- (a) first, in satisfaction of its liabilities;
 - (b) secondly, by paying to each person who was a member or director of the society at the time the winding up commenced the amount the person paid for his or her membership share;
 - (c) thirdly, by paying to each person who was a contributing member of the society on preservation day the maximum distribution for that person;
 - (d) fourthly, by paying the remainder to the Minister.
- (3) The maximum distribution for a contributing member of a society is the lesser of —
- (a) $4 000; and
 - (b) the amount of the advance of money made by the society to the member that is outstanding on preservation day.
- (4) An amount to be paid to the Minister under subsection (2)(d) is a debt due to the State and may be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction.

11. Application of certain distributions after commencement

A distribution to a contributing member referred to in section 10(1)(b) or (2)(c) must be applied as follows —

- (b) secondly, by paying any remaining amount to the person.

12. Recovery of distributions not in accordance with this Part

- (1) This section applies to and in relation to a society in existence on preservation day, whether or not the society is wound up or ceases to exist before commencement day.
- (2) If property of the society is distributed to its members or directors on or after preservation day other than in accordance with the limits set out in section 10(1), each member and each director who has received more than the member or director is entitled to under section 10(1) must pay to the Minister an amount equal to the value of the excess amount received by the member or director.
- (3) An amount to be paid to the Minister under subsection (2) is a debt due to the State and may be recovered in a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (4) If, because the property of the society has not been applied in accordance with section 10, a contributing member has not received the amount the member is entitled to under section 10(1), the Minister may pay to the member an amount worked out so that the member will be in the same position as he or she would have been had the property been applied in accordance with section 10.
- (5) Payments under subsection (4) are charged to the Social Housing Account.
