

MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT
(LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL)
RETIREMENT.

13° Elizabeth II., No. LXXXI.

---

No. 81 of 1964.

---

AN ACT relating to the Allowances, Expenses and Pensions of Certain Members of the Legislative Council.

[Assented to 14th December, 1964.]

Preamble.

WHEREAS—

- (a) By virtue of the operation of section eight of the Constitution Acts Amendment Act, 1899-1963, five members of the Legislative Council are required to vacate their seats on the twenty-first day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-five instead of on the twenty-first day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-six;
- (b) the term of office of the five members has each been shortened by one year in order to facilitate the division of the State under the Electoral Districts Act, 1947-1963 into fifteen electoral provinces for the Legislative Council instead of ten electoral provinces; and

- (c) it is deemed just and equitable that provision be made with respect to the allowances and pensions of the five members as from the twenty-first day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-five and in respect of the expenses thereof until the twenty-first day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-five.

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Members of Parliament (Legislative Council) Retirement Act, 1964.

Short title.

2. In this Act unless the contrary intention appears—

Interpretation.

“dependant” in relation to a retiring member, has the same meaning as that term has in section three of the Parliamentary Superannuation Act, 1948;

“retiring member” means a member of the Legislative Council who by virtue of the operation of section eight of the Constitution Acts Amendment Act, 1899-1963, is required to vacate his seat on the twenty-first day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-five instead of on the twenty-first day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-six.

3. If during the period from the twenty-first day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-five until the twenty-first day of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-six a retiring member ceases to be a member of the Parliament the provisions of the—

Pension and allowances of retiring member after retirement.

(a) Parliamentary Superannuation Act, 1948; and

(b) Parliamentary Allowances Act, 1911,
