AN ACT to amend the Legal Practitioners Act, 1893-1957.

[Assented to 19th November, 1958.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Short title and citation.

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Legal Practitioners Act Amendment Act (No. 2), 1958.

(2) In this Act the Legal Practitioners Act, 1893-1955, is referred to as the principal Act.

(3) The principal Act as amended by this Act may be cited as the Legal Practitioners Act, 1893-1958.

2. Section thirteen of the principal Act is repealed and re-enacted as follows—

repealed and re-enacted.

13. No articed clerk shall, without the written consent of the practitioner to whom he is articed, which consent shall be filed with the Board by the articed clerk within fourteen days of its being granted, hold any office or engage in any employment other than as a bona fide articed clerk to the practitioner to whom he is articed for the time being or his partner. Such written consent of the practitioner shall not be given to an articed clerk unless the hours of such other office or employment are outside the hours of between nine o'clock in the morning and five o'clock in the afternoon on those week days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays) when the offices of legal practitioners are normally open to the public.

Provided that in the event of the practitioner refusing to give his consent, the articed clerk shall have the right of appeal to the Board.
