Law Society Public Purposes Trust Act 1985

An Act to authorise The Law Society of Western Australia (Inc.) to receive certain moneys from banks upon the trusts declared by that Society in a Deed of Trust dated 22 August 1985.

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the *Law Society Public Purposes Trust Act 1985*¹.

2. Interpretation

(1) In this Act —

“Law Society” means The Law Society of Western Australia (Inc.) a body established under the *Associations Incorporation Act 1895*²;

“Trust Deed” means the Deed of Trust dated 22 August 1985 a copy of which is set out in the Schedule.

(2) A word or expression used in this Act has the same meaning as it has in the Legal Practice Act 2003 unless —

- (a) this Act gives it another meaning; or
- (b) the contrary intention appears in some other way.

[Section 2 amended by No. 65 of 2003 s. 46(2).]

3. The Law Society Public Purposes Trust

- (1) The Law Society may make arrangements with banks for the payment by the banks to the Law Society of amounts equivalent in amount to or representing interest on trust moneys held under the Legal Practice Act 2003, in trust accounts with the banks in this State.

s. 4

- (2) The Law Society may receive from banks any moneys that may be paid to the Law Society in accordance with arrangements made under subsection (1) and shall, subject to section 5, hold, stand possessed of, and apply all such moneys upon the trusts declared by the Trust Deed a copy of which is set out in the Schedule.

[Section 3 amended by No. 86 of 1990 s. 4; No. 65 of 2003 s. 46(3).]

4. Variation of Law Society Public Purposes Trust

If any of the trusts declared by the Trust Deed, or declared by that Deed as it may at any time be varied, is in any respect revoked, added to or otherwise varied in accordance with the terms of the Trust Deed, the Law Society shall within 14 days of the variation submit a copy of the instrument by which the variation was effected to the Attorney General who shall cause a copy of that instrument to be laid before each House of Parliament without delay.

Schedule

[Section 3]

THIS DEED is made the 22nd day of August 1985 BY THE LAW SOCIETY OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA (INC.) of 8th Floor, Exchange House, 68 St. George's Terrace, Perth ("the Trustee")

WHEREAS:

- A. Legal practitioners in Western Australia are obliged pursuant to the provisions of the Legal Practitioners Act 1893 to keep trust accounts with banks to which are paid all moneys held by the practitioner on behalf of persons other than the practitioner ("trust moneys").
- B. Legal practitioners are obliged pursuant to the provisions of the Legal Contribution Trust Act 1967 to pay a certain proportion of trust moneys to the Legal Contribution Trust.
- C. Banks have hitherto not paid interest on trust moneys (other than moneys paid to the Legal Contribution Trust) held in trust accounts.
- D. Certain banks have agreed with the Trustee that they will pay to the Trustee moneys equivalent in amount to interest on trust moneys held in trust accounts kept with the banks.
- E. The Trustee wishes to establish with the approval of the Attorney General a trust into which all such money and any other money received by the Trustee as the result of agreements with the said banks and further agreements with other Banks will be paid from time to time ("the Trust") and to hold as Trustee of the Trust all moneys comprising the Trust Fund for public charitable purposes upon the trusts hereinafter declared.

5. Variation of the effect of the Trust Deed

- (1) On and after the date of the coming into operation of section 5 of the Acts Amendment (Contributions to Legal Aid Funding) Act 1990 ¹ the Law Society, as trustee of the Trust Deed, shall hold, stand possessed of, and apply all moneys received from banks in accordance with arrangements made under section 3(1) —
- (a) without regard to the restriction as to expenditure in grants to persons whose primary object is the provision of legal aid, referred to in clause 4 of the Trust Deed; and
 - (b) as though the Allocations Committee had recommended, and the Attorney General had approved, that of the whole of the moneys received in any Accounting Period from banks, as representing interest on trust moneys held in trust accounts kept with the banks —
 - (i) in respect of the Accounting Period ending 30 June 1990, $400 000; and

(ii) subject to subsection (2), thereafter 60%, be paid and applied to the credit of the Legal Aid
Commission established under section 6 of the Legal Aid Commission Act 1976 at such time or times as the Attorney General may determine, but in all other respects upon the trusts declared by the Trust Deed.

- (2) To the intent that $1 000 000 of the aggregate of the amounts accruing to the Trust Fund from all sources in an Accounting Period shall not be subject to any deduction under subsection (1)(b)(ii) —
- (a) where in any Accounting Period that aggregate does not exceed $1 000 000, effect shall not be given to subsection (1)(b)(ii); and
 - (b) where in an Accounting Period that aggregate exceeds $1 000 000, effect shall be given to subsection (1)(b)(ii) only to the extent that after the deduction the balance of that aggregate remaining shall not be less than $1 000 000.
- (3) In this section, “Accounting Period”, “Allocations Committee” and “Trust Deed” have the meanings respectively ascribed to those terms in the Trust Deed.
- (4) This section expires on 30 June 1994.

[Section 5 inserted by No. 86 of 1990 s. 5.]
