1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the *Limited Partnerships Act 1909*¹.

2. Commencement

This Act shall come into force on 1 May 1909.

3. Interpretation

In the construction of this Act the following words and expressions shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in this section, unless there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction —

“Firm”, “firm name”, and “business” have the same meanings as in The Partnership Act 1895.

“General partner” shall mean any partner who is not a limited partner as defined by this Act.

4. Definition and constitution of limited partnership

- (1) From and after the commencement of this Act, limited partnerships may be formed in the manner and subject to the conditions by this Act provided.
- (2) A limited partnership shall not consist, in the case of a partnership carrying on the business of banking, of more than 10 persons, and, in the case of any other partnership, of more than 20 persons, and, must consist of one or more persons called general partners, who shall be liable for all debts and obligations of the firm and one or more persons to be called limited partners, who shall at the time of entering into such partnership contribute thereto, or undertake to contribute thereto, a sum or sums as capital or property valued at a stated amount, which shall be chargeable with and applicable to the payment of the debts and obligations of the firm, and who shall not otherwise be liable for the debts or obligations of the firm.

- (3) A limited partner shall not, during the continuance of the partnership, either directly or indirectly, draw out or receive back any part of his contribution, and if he does so draw out or receive back any such part shall be liable for the debts and obligations of the firm up to the amount so drawn out or received back.
- (4) A body corporate may be a limited partner.

5. Registration of limited partnership required

Every limited partnership must be registered as such in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or in default thereof it shall be deemed to be a general partnership, and every limited partner shall be deemed to be a general partner.

6. Modifications of general law in the case of limited partnerships

- (1) A limited partner shall not take part in the management of the partnership business, and shall not have power to bind the firm:

Provided that the limited partner may, by himself or his agent, at any time inspect the books of the firm and examine into the state and prospects of the partnership business, and may advise with the partners thereon.

If a limited partner takes part in the management of the partnership business, he shall be liable for all debts and obligations of the firm incurred while he so takes part in the management as though he were a general partner.

- (2) A limited partnership shall not be dissolved by the death or bankruptcy of a limited partner, and the lunacy of a limited partner shall not be a ground for dissolution of the partnership by the court.
- (3) In the event of the dissolution of a limited partnership its affairs should be wound up by the general partners, unless the court otherwise orders.
- (4) The winding up of a limited partnership is declared to be an applied Corporations legislation matter for the purposes of Part 3 of the Corporations (Ancillary Provisions) Act 2001 in relation to Parts 5.4, 5.4A, 5.4B, 5.6, 5.7B and 5.8 (winding up) of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth.
- (4a) The following modifications to the text of Parts 5.4, 5.4A, 5.4B, 5.6, 5.7B and 5.8 of the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth apply for the purposes of subsection (4) —

 - (b) a reference to the directors of a company is to be read as a reference to the general partners of a limited partnership;
 - (c) a reference to ASIC is to be read as a reference to the Registrar;
 - (d) a reference to the Court is to be read as a reference to the Supreme Court.
- (5) Subject to any agreement expressed or implied between the partners —
 - (a) any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the general partners;
 - (b) a limited partner may, with the consent of the general partners, assign his share in the partnership, and upon such an assignment the assignee shall become a limited partner with all the rights of the assignor;

s. 7

- (d) a person may be introduced as a partner without the consent of the existing limited partners;
