

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO SEXTO

GEORGII QUINTI REGIS, XXVIII.

No. 61 of 1915.

AN ACT to further amend the Fremantle Municipal Tramways and Electric Lighting Act, 1903.

[Assented to 7th December, 1915.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Fremantle Municipal Tramways and Electric Lighting Act, 1915, and shall be read as one with the Fremantle Municipal Tramways and Electric Lighting Act, 1903.

Short title.

2. (1) It shall be within the powers of the Fremantle Municipal Tramways and Electric Lighting Board to enter into contracts with any person or Government Department or agency for the supply to the Board of electric current on such terms and conditions as the Board may think fit, and to construct and maintain all necessary works connected therewith.

Power to contract for current.

(2) All current so supplied to and taken by the Board may be used by the Board in the management and carrying on of its undertaking and works, and for the supply by the Board of electricity for motive power and lighting purposes, and for the purposes of this section moneys may be lawfully expended, and liabilities may be lawfully incurred by the Board.
