

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO SECUNDO

GEORGII QUINTI REGIS,

XIV.

No. 6 of 1912.

AN ACT to consent to the construction by the Commonwealth of Australia of the Western Australian portion of a Railway from Kalgoorlie to Port Augusta; and to enable the Governor to grant to the Commonwealth such waste lands of the Crown in Western Australia as are required for the construction, maintenance, and working of such Railway.

[Assented to 9th January, 1912.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Trans-continental Railway Act, Short title. 1911.

2. The State of Western Australia hereby consents to the Parliament of the Commonwealth making laws with respect to the construction of a Railway from Kalgoorlie to Port Augusta; and the consent of the State of Western Australia is hereby given to the construction by the Commonwealth in Western Australian Territory of any portion of such Railway which shall be required or authorised to be constructed therein by or pursuant to any Act of the Parliament of the Commonwealth.

Consent to construction.

Power to grant land.

3. The Governor may grant to the Commonwealth, for an estate in fee simple, the surface and the land below the surface to a depth of one hundred and fifty feet of all such waste lands of the Crown in Western Australia as, in the opinion of the Minister of State for the Commonwealth for the time being administering any Act of the Parliament of the Commonwealth authorising any such Railway as aforesaid, are necessary for the construction, maintenance, and working of the railway intended to be constructed under the powers conferred by such Act.

Provided that no mining operations shall be carried on under the land so granted without the approval of the Executive Government of the Commonwealth.
