

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO TERTIO

GEORGII QUINTI REGIS,

XLV.

No. 64 of 1912.

AN ACT to amend the Employment Brokers Act, 1909.

[Assented to 30th December, 1912.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Employment Brokers Act Short title.
Amendment Act, 1912.

2. Section three of the Employment Brokers Act, 1909 (herein- Amendment of after called the principal Act) is hereby amended as follows:— Section 3.

The definitions of "Licensing Magistrates" and "Licensing Meeting" are struck out, and the following definitions substituted:—

"Licensing Magistrates" means a Licensing Court under the Licensing Act, 1911;

"Licensing Meeting" means a sitting of a Licensing Court under the Licensing Act, 1911, and

"Quarterly Licensing Meeting" means a quarterly sitting of such a Court;

Amendment of
Sec. 4.

3. Section four of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition of the following subsections:—

- (4.) Every such clerk shall with all convenient speed notify the Chief Inspector of Factories of every entry made in the register kept by him, and the said Inspector shall cause the information supplied to him to be entered in a general register of employment brokers to be kept by such Inspector in Perth.
- (5.) Such general register shall be open to public inspection without fee at all times during ordinary office hours.

Amendment of
Sec. 5.

4. Section five of the principal Act is hereby amended by the addition of the following subsection:—

- (2.) A license under this Act shall operate only within the district in which it was granted, and any person being the holder of a license for any district under this Act who carries on business as an employment broker in any other district for which he has not obtained a license shall be deemed to be carrying on business without holding a license and punishable accordingly.

Amendment of
Sec. 7.

5. Section seven of the principal Act is hereby amended:—

- (i.) By the substitution of the word “quadruplicate” for the word “triplicate” in subsection (1), and by the addition at the end of subsection (2) of the words “and shall send one of such notices to the Chief Inspector of Factories in Perth or to the Inspector of Factories stationed nearest to the office of such clerk”; and
- (ii.) By the insertion of a subsection as follows:
 - (3.) The Governor shall from time to time by proclamation declare what Licensing Court shall deal with applications and exercise jurisdiction as Licensing Magistrates under this Act in each district, and may at any time revoke or vary any such proclamation, and the Court having authority for the time being under any such proclamation in respect of any district shall be deemed to be the “Licensing Magistrates,” and every member or deputy member, whilst acting as a member thereof, a Licensing Magistrate for that district.

Amendment of
