

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO NONO

EDWARDI SEPTIMI REGIS,

IX.

*****

No. 13 of 1909.

AN ACT to further amend the Health Act, 1898.

[Assented to 6th February, 1909.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Health Amendment Act, 1909, Short title. and shall be read as one with the Health Act, 1898, hereinafter referred to as the principal Act.

2. (1.) Whenever the boundaries of a health district are conterminous with or within the boundaries of a road district, all rates authorised by the principal Act to be made and levied and heretofore made and levied, or hereafter to be made and levied by the local board of such health district, shall be deemed to have been lawfully made and levied, notwithstanding that such rates were made and levied under the provisions of the Roads Act, 1902. Application of Roads Act, 1902, to health rates levied in road districts.

(2.) For the purposes of this section, all the provisions of the Roads Act, 1902, shall, as regards the making, payment, and recovery of such health rates, be deemed to have been incorporated with the principal Act.

Amendment of sec
54.

3. Section fifty-four of the principal Act is amended by adding a paragraph as follows:--

The Central Board may make regulations for the inspection of articles of food, and prescribing marks which may be applied by the Board to articles of food deemed by the Board to be wholesome, and the fees to be paid for such inspection, and the persons by whom such fees shall be payable, and enabling such fees to be recovered in default of payment as penalties under this Act are recoverable.
