No. 29 of 1904.

AN ACT to amend the Industrial Statistics Act, 1897.

[Assented to 13th October, 1904.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Industrial Statistics Amendment Act, 1904. Short title.

2. In section two of the Industrial Statistics Act, 1897, in the interpretation of the phrase "Industrial Establishment," the words "and any mine which has been worked at any time during the year, whatever be the number of persons employed," are repealed, and the words "but does not mean any mine" are substituted.

Amendment of 61 Vict., No 26,
s. 2.
