

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO SEXTO

EDWARDI SEPTIMI REGIS,

XI.

No. 11 of 1906.

AN ACT to provide for the Disposal of the Funds of the Fremantle Jockey Club.

[Assented to 29th September, 1906.]

WHEREAS the Fremantle Jockey Club is now possessed of certain trust funds amounting to two hundred and eighty-eight pounds ten shillings and tenpence: And whereas the present trustees of the said club are Elias Solomon, John Joseph Higham, and Robert Hardy Holmes, all of Fremantle: And whereas the said club has for a considerable time past ceased to carry out the objects for which it was formed: And whereas the said trustees are desirous of applying the said funds for purposes other than those originally intended and as hereinafter set forth: Now be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by authority of the same, as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding any trust to the contrary to which the same are subject, it shall be lawful for the trustees of the Fremantle Jockey Club to use or expend all funds or moneys belonging to the said club now in their possession or control for the purpose of

Authorising
trustees to expend funds.

effecting improvements to the golf links of or land occupied by the Fremantle Golf Club at High Street, Fremantle, containing about one hundred and fifty-six acres, and being part of Permanent Reserve No. A6638; or for the purpose of further and better fitting the said land for recreation and for the promotion of athletic pastimes thereon.

Empowering payment to Mayor and Councillors of Fremantle.

2. It shall be lawful for the said trustees to pay over all such moneys to the Mayor and Councillors of the Municipality of Fremantle in execution or furtherance of such purpose, without being bound to see to the proper expenditure thereof, and without being liable for such payment or for the application, non-application, or misapplication of the said moneys.

Discretion of Mayor and Councillors.

3. The nature of the aforesaid improvements, and the time and mode of effecting the same, shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of the said Mayor and Councillors of the Municipality of Fremantle.

Costs of Act.

4. Prior to handing over the said moneys, the said trustees may deduct therefrom the costs, charges, and expenses incurred by them in connection with this Act, provided that such costs and expenses shall not exceed five pounds.
