

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

ANNO QUINTO

EDWARDI SEPTIMI REGIS,

XVII.

No. 17 of 1905.

AN ACT to amend the Bills of Sale Act, 1899.

[Assented to 23rd December, 1905.]

BE it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Bills of Sale Amendment Act, 1905, and shall be read as one with the Bills of Sale Act, 1899, hereinafter referred to as the principal Act. Short title.

2. Whenever, by a bill of sale executed before or after the passing of this Act, the grantor thereof shall purport or covenant to grant or assign to the grantee any chattels within the meaning of the principal Act not in existence at the time of the making of such bill of sale, or which the grantor may thereafter acquire, the property and legal interest in such future or after-acquired chattels shall, immediately upon the coming into existence of such chattels, or on Legal interest in future and after acquired chattels to be deemed to pass to grantee of bill of sale.

55 Vict., No. 7, s. 5.

their being acquired by the grantor, be deemed to pass at law to the grantee of the bill of sale, subject, nevertheless, to the provisions thereof.

This section shall take effect as if it had been a provision of the principal Act from the commencement thereof.

Amendment of 63
Vict., No. 45, s. 7.

3. Section seven of the principal Act is hereby amended by striking out the words, "The assignment of all other after-acquired property shall have the same effect as provided by the rules of common law or equity."
