

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

No. 19

An Act to enforce the provisions for Arbitration contained in the Land Regulations of 1887.

[Assented to 7th December, 1888.]

WHEREAS by and under the One hundred and eighth and One hundred and ninth of the Land Regulations of the Second day of March, 1887, certain provisions are made for Arbitration in certain cases, and doubts have arisen as to whether such provisions have the force of law: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Confirmation of 108th and 109th
of the Land Regulations of 2nd March, 1887

1. That all the provisions of the One hundred and eighth and of the One hundred and ninth of the Land Regulations proclaimed on the second day of March, 1887, are hereby declared to have and shall have the same force, effect, and authority as if the same had been enacted in and by an Act of the Legislative Council of Western Australia.

Effect of arbitration

2. That the effect of an arbitration under the provisions of the One hundred and eighth of the Land Regulations proclaimed on the second day of March, 1887, shall be as if the parties thereto had voluntarily submitted to arbitration the question arbitrated, and had agreed to make any award given thereon a rule of the Supreme Court.

Costs

3. That if costs be awarded as provided in the said One hundred and eighth regulation the same may be sued for in the Supreme Court and recovered, together with full costs of suit, as between attorney and client.

Land Regulations of 1887—Arbitration

4. The expression 'The Land Regulations of 1872,' in 'The Crown Lessees Arbitration Act, 1887,' shall be taken to mean the Land Regulations of 1872 as amended and replaced by the Land Regulations proclaimed in 1873, and which are commonly known as the Land Regulations of 1873.

Interpretation of 'Land
Regulations,
1872,' in the
Crown Lessees
Arbitration Act

5. 'The Crown Lessees Arbitration Act, 1887,' shall be read and construed together with this Act.

Construction of Act

6. This Act may be cited as 'The Land Regulations Arbitration Act, 1888.'
