No. VII.

AN ACT to amend "The Cattle Diseases Ordinance, 1865," and the Imported Stock Acts of 1876, 1877, and 1879.

[ Assented to, 18th September, 1885. ]

WHEREAS it has been deemed expedient to include Camels within the provisions of the Acts relating to the importation of cattle and stock into this Colony, and to make provision for the extension of the said Acts to other animals under certain circumstances: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

1. THE words "cattle" or "stock" in "The Cattle Diseases Ordinance, 1865," and in "The Imported Stock Act, 1876," and in "The Imported Stock Act, 1876, Amendment Act, 1877," and in the Act intituled "An Act for the Prevention of the Importation of Diseased Stock," being No. 23 of 1879, shall apply to and include camels in addition to the animals mentioned in the said Acts.

Camels to be within the words "cattle" or "stock."

2. THE Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, may from time to time, by notice in the Government Gazette, order

Any other animals may be included.

49° VICTORIÆ, No. 7.

that any other animals not included within the provisions of the aforesaid Acts shall be from the time mentioned in the said notice included therein, and from and after the time mentioned in the said notice the provisions of the said Acts shall apply to and include such other animals as aforesaid.

Government Gazette to be evidence. 3. THE production of a copy of the Government Gazette, purporting to be printed by the Government Printer, and including such a notice as aforesaid, shall be sufficient evidence at all times and in all places that the animals mentioned in the said notice are included within the provisions of the said Acts and from the time stated in the said notice.

Short title and commencement of Act. 4. THIS Act may be cited for all purposes as “The Imported Stock Amendment Act, 1885,” and shall come into operation on the first day of November, 1885.

In the name and on behalf of the Queen I hereby assent to this Act.

F. NAPIER BROOME, Governor.
