ANNO TRIGESIMO NONO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

No. 7

An Act to make it lawful to close up certain Streets in the City of Perth.

[Assented to 21st December, 1875.]

Preamble

WHEREAS certain pieces of land in the City of Perth, more particularly described in the Schedule hereto, have been heretofore proclaimed public streets, and whereas it is expedient that the said pieces of land should cease to be public streets : Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows :—

All rights of the public to cease over certain streets

1. All rights-of-way in and over the pieces or parcels of land forming respectively the street extending from the street known in the official records as Lord-street to the street known as aforesaid as Moore-street, part of the street known as aforesaid as Brook-street, part of the street known as aforesaid as King-street, and part of the street known as aforesaid as Stokes-street, all in the City of Perth, and more particularly described in the Schedule hereto, shall henceforth cease and determine, and it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to deal with the said pieces or parcels of land as if they had never been proclaimed public streets.

WILLIAM C. F. ROBINSON,
GOVERNOR.
