WESTERN AUSTRALIA

ANNO TRIGESIMO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ

No. 7

An Ordinance to vest in Her Majesty a certain piece of ground forming a portion of a public thoroughfare known by the name of Spencer Street in the Town of Albany. [Assented to 3rd August, 1868.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to extend the boundaries of a certain piece of land in the Town of Albany in order to afford sufficient room for new public offices and for that purpose to include within the said boundaries a part of a public thoroughfare in the said town known in the official records as Spencer-street: Be it enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Western Australia and its Dependencies, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, as follows:—

Preamble

1. That from and after the passing hereof, all right of property and title and all trusts which may have at any time been vested by Ordinance or otherwise in the trustees of the Town of Albany in any part of the area more particularly described in the Schedule hereunto annexed shall absolutely cease and determine, and the whole of the said area and the estate, right and title at Law and in Equity thereto shall be re-vested in Her most gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, her heirs and successors for ever, for the public uses of the said Colony.

Part of Spencer-street, Albany, re-vested in Her Majesty

J. S. HAMPTON,

GOVERNOR AND COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.
