Industrial Relations (General) Regulations 1997

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Citation

These regulations may be cited as the *Industrial Relations (General) Regulations 1997*¹.

2. Commencement

These regulations come into operation on the day on which section 34 of the Labour Relations Legislation Amendment Act 1997 comes into operation¹.

Part 2 — Time and wages records

[3. Deleted in Gazette 26 Jul 2002 p. 3460.]

4. Form of records

- (1) An employer is to ensure that the employment records of the employer are kept —
 - (a) by —
 - (i) making entries in the English language in or on a separate page of a bound or loose-leaf book kept specifically for that purpose; or
 - (ii) recording or storing the particulars required to be entered in the employment records by means of a mechanical, electronic or other device, but so that the particulars so recorded or stored will remain in the form in which they were originally recorded or stored and will be capable of being reproduced in written form in the English language;
 - (b) with only one employee's records appearing on any one page;
 - (c) so that the record for each pay period of each employee is identifiable; and
 - (d) in a manner that enables compliance with section 49D of the Act to be readily ascertained.
- (2) A person is not to alter employment records unless the alteration is annotated so as to identify —
 - (a) the nature of the alteration;
 - (b) the person making the alteration; and
 - (c) the date on which the alteration was made.

[Regulation 4 amended in Gazette 26 Jul 2002 p. 3460.]

Part 3 — Unfair dismissal and contractual benefit claims

[Heading inserted in Gazette 26 Jul 2002 p. 3460.]

5. Prescribed amount — section 29AA

- (1) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “prescribed amount” in section 29AA(5) of the Act the specified salary is $90 000, or that amount as affected by indexation in accordance with regulation 6.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “prescribed amount” in section 29AA(5) of the Act the salary provided for in an employee’s contract of employment is to be worked out as follows —
 - (a) for an employee who was continuously employed by an employer and was not on leave without full pay at any time during the period of 12 months immediately before the dismissal or claim — the greater of —
 - (i) the salary that the employee actually received in that period; and
 - (ii) the salary that the employee was entitled to receive in that period;
 - (b) for an employee who was continuously employed by an employer and was on leave without full pay at any time during the period of 12 months immediately before the dismissal or claim — the total of —
 - (i) the actual salary received by the employee for the days during that period that the employee was not on leave without full pay; and
 - (ii) for the days that the employee was on leave without full pay an amount worked out using the formula — $$\frac{\text{remuneration mentioned in subparagraph (i)} \times \text{days on leave without full pay}}{\text{days not on leave without full pay}}$$

or

- (c) for an employee who was continuously employed by an employer for a period less than 12 months immediately before the dismissal or claim — the amount worked out using the formula —

$$\frac{\text{remuneration received} \times 365}{\text{days employed}}$$

[Regulation 5 inserted in Gazette 26 Jul 2002 p. 3460-1.]

6. Annual indexation

- (1) This regulation prescribes a formula under which the amount mentioned in regulation 5(1) (the “indexable amount”) is to be varied annually by the indexation factor (if any).

- (2) In this regulation — base weekly earnings means the last amount published by the Australian Statistician before 1 July 2002 as an estimate (except a preliminary estimate) of the average total weekly earnings (seasonally adjusted) for full-time adult employees of all employees in Australia in a particular month;

current weekly earnings, in relation to an indexation day, means the last amount published by the Australian Statistician before that day as an estimate (except a preliminary estimate) of the average total weekly earnings (seasonally adjusted) for full-time adult employees of all employees in Australia in a particular month;

indexation day means 1 July 2003 or 1 July in a later year;

indexation factor, for an indexation day, means the number, worked out to 3 decimal places, resulting from the following formula —

$$\frac{\text{current weekly earnings average in relation to the indexation day}}{\text{base weekly earnings average}}$$

- (3) If at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this regulation) the Australian Statistician publishes an estimate of the average total weekly earnings (seasonally adjusted) for full-time adult employees in a particular month in substitution for such an estimate (except a preliminary estimate) previously published by the Australian Statistician for that month, the publication of the later estimate is to be disregarded for the purposes of this regulation.

- (4) Subject to subregulation (5), if, on any indexation day, the indexation factor is greater than 1, then, on and after that day, until a later application of this subregulation, an indexable amount is taken to be replaced by the amount worked out by multiplying the indexable amount by the indexation factor.
- (5) If an amount worked out under subregulation (4) is not $100, or a multiple of $100 —
 - (a) if the amount is not $50, or a multiple of $50 — it is to be rounded up or down to $100, or the nearest amount that is a multiple of $100 as appropriate; or
 - (b) if the amount is $50, or a multiple of $50 — it is to be rounded up to $100, or the next highest amount that is a multiple of $100 as appropriate.

[Regulation 6 inserted in Gazette 26 Jul 2002 p. 3461-2.]

[Part 4 deleted in Gazette 31 Jul 2009 p. 3026.]

INFORMATION FOR RECIPIENTS OF NOTICE TO INITIATE BARGAINING

The party who gave you this notice (the “initiating party”) is seeking to negotiate an industrial agreement which will bind you in respect of the employees in the employment identified in the particulars of the notice.

The initiating party is also seeking to negotiate the agreement within the requirements of the good faith bargain provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 1979. These provisions place certain procedural requirements on the negotiating parties to assist them to reach agreement. These procedural requirements can be enforced by the Western Australian Industrial Relations Commission.

If you wish to enter into negotiations for an industrial agreement, you should notify the initiating party within 21 days of receiving this notice.

Note: Documents served by post are deemed received 2 working days after they are posted. The response may be in the form of the attached GFB 2.

If there are other parties identified in the notice as intended parties to the agreement and you wish to negotiate separately with the initiating party, you may make an application to the Western Australian Industrial Relations Commission for a direction that you may negotiate separately.

Note: You must still respond to the initiating party within 21 days of receiving the notice if you wish to enter into negotiations for an industrial agreement.

If you do not wish to enter into negotiations for an industrial agreement, you do not need to take any action. Alternatively, you may notify the initiating party that you will not enter into negotiations for an industrial agreement. You may use GFB 2 for the notification.

If you do not enter into negotiations for an industrial agreement, the initiating party may apply to the Western Australian Industrial Relations Commission for an enterprise order which will determine the pay and conditions for employees who were proposed to be covered by the industrial agreement.
