Guide for using this reprint

What the reprint includes

Endnotes, Compilation table, and Table of provisions that have not come into operation

1. Details about the original Act and legislation that has amended its text are shown in the Compilation table in endnote 1, at the back of the reprint. The table also shows any previous reprint.
2. Validation, transitional, savings, or other provisions identified in the Compilation table may be important. The table may refer to another endnote setting out the text of these provisions in full.
3. A table of provisions that have not come into operation, to be found in endnote 1a if it is needed, lists any provisions of the Act being reprinted that have not come into operation and any amendments that have not come into operation. The full text is set out in another endnote that is referred to in the table.

Notes amongst text (italicised and within square brackets)

1. If the reprint includes a section that was inserted, or has been amended, since the Act being reprinted was passed, editorial notes at the foot of the section give some history of how the section came to be as it is. If the section replaced an earlier section, no history of the earlier section is given (the full history of the Act is in the Compilation table).

Notes of this kind may also be at the foot of Schedules or headings.

2. The other kind of editorial note shows something has been —
 - removed (because it was repealed or deleted from the law); or
 - omitted under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(4) (because, although still technically part of the text, it no longer has any effect).

The text of anything removed or omitted can be found in an earlier reprint (if there is one) or one of the written laws identified in the Compilation table.

Reprint numbering and date

1. The reprint number (in the footer of each page of the document) shows how many times the Act has been reprinted. For example, numbering a reprint as “Reprint 3” would mean that the reprint was the 3rd reprint since the Act was passed. Reprint numbering was implemented as from 1 January 2003.
2. The information in the reprint is current on the date shown as the date as at which the Act is reprinted. That date is not the date when the reprint was published by the State Law Publisher and it is probably not the date when the most recent amendment had effect.

10. Overpayments

- (1) When an amount paid to a person under this Act (including an amount paid by way of an advance) was not payable to the person or exceeded the amount that was payable to the person, that amount is an overpayment to the person by the State which the person is liable to repay to the State and the State may seek to recover that amount in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the State.

s. 14

Commonwealth Minister in relation to another State or the Northern Territory for the purposes of the Commonwealth Act or any vehicle used by such a distributor or person for the carriage of any liquefied petroleum gas and may inspect the accounts, books, documents and other records relating to the sale of liquefied petroleum gas, the production or sale of eligible reticulation gas or the purchase of liquefied petroleum gas or naphtha.

- (2) The authorised officer may make and retain copies of, or take extracts from, any accounts, books, documents or other records produced in pursuance of this section.
- (3) A person is not excused from answering a question or producing any accounts, books, documents, or other records when required so to do under this section on the ground that the answer to the question, or the production of the accounts, books, documents or other records, might tend to incriminate him or make him liable to a penalty: but his answer to any such question is not admissible in evidence against him in proceedings other than proceedings for an offence against section 16(1)(c) or (3).

15. Power to examine on oath

- (1) An authorised officer may examine, on oath or affirmation, a person attending before him in pursuance of section 14 and, for that purpose, may administer an oath or affirmation to that person.

- (3) A person shall not make to an authorised officer a statement that is false or misleading in a material particular.

Penalty: $1 000.

- (4) When a person is convicted of an offence against subsection (2), the court may, in addition to imposing a penalty under that subsection, order that person to refund to the State the amount of any payment under this Act wrongfully obtained.
- (5) When a court has made an order under subsection (4), a certificate signed by the appropriate officer of the court specifying the amount ordered to be refunded and the person by whom that amount is payable may be filed in a court having a civil jurisdiction to the extent of that amount and is thereupon enforceable in all respects as a final judgment of that court.
- (6) Proceedings in relation to an offence against this Act shall not be commenced later than one year after the commission of the offence.

17. Delegation

- (1) The Minister may, either generally or otherwise as provided in the instrument of delegation, by writing under his hand delegate all or any of his powers under this Act (except this power of delegation).
- (2) A power delegated under subsection (1) may be exercised by the delegate in accordance with the instrument of delegation.
- (3) A delegation under this section is revocable at will by the Minister and does not prevent the exercise of a power by him.
