PART II — RIGHTS OF DEFENDANT IN RELATION TO BAIL

Right of defendant to have bail considered under this Act

5. (1) A defendant who is in custody for an offence awaiting his initial appearance in court therefor is entitled —

- (a) subject to sections 9, 10, 12 and 16 (2), to have his case for bail for that appearance considered under and in accordance with this Act as soon as is practicable;
- (b) if his case is not so considered, or if he is refused bail or is not released on bail, to be brought before a court as soon as is practicable.

(2) A defendant who is in custody awaiting any appearance in court for an offence, other than an initial appearance, is entitled, subject to sections 7 (3), 9 and 10, to have his case for bail for that appearance considered under and in accordance with this Act.

[Section 5 amended by No. 74 of 1984 s.4.]

Duty imposed on arresting officer or person

6. (1) The police officer or other person who arrests a person for an offence has a duty —

- (a) if he is empowered by this Act to grant bail; and
- (b) unless, as soon as is practicable, he brings the person or causes him to be brought before a court, to consider that person's case for bail as soon as is practicable, whether or not an application for bail is made by the person or on his behalf.

s. 6

(2) If that police officer or that other person is not so empowered he shall, subject to subsection (3) and unless he brings the person or causes him to be brought before a court as soon as is practicable, bring or cause the defendant to be brought before an authorized police officer or a justice or, in the case of a child, any authorized officer or a justice, as soon as is practicable, and thereupon —

- (a) such officer is subject to the duty described in subsection (1); or
- (b) if the defendant is brought before a justice, the justice is under a duty to consider the person's case for bail as soon as is practicable, whether or not an application for bail is made by the person or on his behalf.

(2a) A police officer or other person who arrests a person for an offence may, notwithstanding that he is empowered by this Act to grant bail, instead of complying with subsection (1) comply with subsection (2) as if he were not so empowered.

(3) Where under section 15 or 16 only a Judge of the Supreme Court, a Judge of the Children's Court or a justice has power to grant bail for an offence, the police officer or other person who arrests a person for an offence shall —

- (a) unless, as soon as is practicable, he brings the person or causes him to be brought before a court; and
- (b) whether or not an application for bail is made by the person or on his behalf, bring or cause the defendant to be brought as soon as is practicable —

- (c) where section 15 applies, before a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Judge of the Children's Court, as the case may require; or

(d) where section 16 applies, before a justice, for the purpose of having the defendant's case for bail considered by the Judge, or the justice acting in terms of subsection (2) (b), as the case may be.

(4) The operation of this section is subject to the exercise of the power conferred by section 9 and to the provisions of sections 10, 12 and 16 (2) and clause 3A of Part C of Schedule 1.

[Section 6 amended by No. 15 of 1988 s.5; No. 49 of 1988 s.79; No. 45 of 1993 s.5.]

Duty imposed on judicial officers in respect of unconvicted defendants

7. (1) Upon and following a defendant's initial appearance in court for an offence every judicial officer who may thereafter order his detention or continued detention in custody before conviction for the offence (including detention during the period of his trial) is under a duty, unless subsection (2) applies, to consider the defendant's case for bail, whether or not an application for bail is made by the defendant or on his behalf.

(2) Where under section 15 only a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Judge of the Children's Court has power to grant bail for an offence, the judicial officer referred to in subsection (1), other than a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Judge of the Children's Court, shall, whether or not an application for bail is made by the person or on his behalf, cause the defendant to be taken as soon as is practicable before a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Judge of the Children's Court, as the case may require for the purpose of having the defendant's case for bail considered by the Judge.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where —

- (a) the duty described in that subsection or in section 6 (3) has been discharged once in relation to a defendant's case for bail; and
- (b) bail has on that occasion been refused by a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Judge of the Children's Court, the defendant's case for bail need not be considered on any subsequent occasion in the same case when the defendant's continued detention may be ordered unless the defendant satisfies the judicial officer who may order his detention that —

- (c) new facts have been discovered, new circumstances have arisen or the circumstances have changed since bail was refused on the occasion mentioned in paragraph (b); or
- (d) he failed to adequately present his case for bail on that occasion, but if the judicial officer is so satisfied he shall cause the defendant to be taken as soon as is practicable before a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Judge of the Children's Court as the case may require for the purpose of having the defendant's case for bail considered by the Judge.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1), after the duty described in that subsection has been discharged once in relation to a defendant's case for bail or after a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Judge of the Children's Court has considered the case under section 15, it is sufficient on any subsequent consideration of bail in the same case for a judicial officer, including a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Judge of the Children's Court acting under section 15 —

- (a) to inquire whether any new fact has been discovered or new circumstance has arisen, or whether the circumstances have changed, since bail was previously granted or refused and whether the defendant considers that he failed to adequately present his case for bail on a previous occasion; and

- (b) unless he is satisfied that there is any reason of the kind mentioned in paragraph (a) for not doing so, to adopt the decision previously made in the case, but with power to make such variations of the terms and conditions of bail as he thinks fit.

(5) The operation of this section is subject to the exercise of the power conferred by section 9 and to the provisions of sections 10, 12 and 16 (2) and clause 3A of Part C of Schedule 1.

[Section 7 amended by No. 74 of 1984 s.5; No. 49 of 1988 s.80; No. 45 of 1993 s.6.]

Bail for appeal under Justices Act 1902

7A. (1) A person who is in custody may apply for bail —

- (a) to a Judge of the Supreme Court, where an application for leave to appeal has been made to, or has been granted by, a Judge; or
- (b) to the Full Court of the Supreme Court, where an appeal is made to, or an application for leave to appeal has been made to, or has been granted by, that Court, under Part VIII of the Justices Act 1902 and the appeal is in connection with the decision by virtue of which the person is in custody.

(2) Bail shall not be granted to an applicant for bail under subsection (1) until he has given notice of his application for bail to —

- (a) the State Crown Solicitor; or

- (b) the Deputy Director of Public Prosecutions (Commonwealth) in Perth, as the case may require, and that official has been given an opportunity to be heard on the application.

[Section 7A inserted by No. 33 of 1989 s.18.]

Defendant to be given prescribed forms

8. (1) Subject to subsection (4), a judicial officer or authorized officer who is called upon to consider a defendant's case for bail, on the first occasion when it arises in relation to an offence or group of offences for which a defendant is required to appear, shall ensure that the defendant is, or has been, given —

- (a) such information in writing as to the effect of this Act as is prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph;
- (b) a prescribed form for completion, designed to disclose to the judicial officer or authorized officer all information relevant to the decision; and
- (c) where the defendant is unable or insufficiently able, to read, speak or write English, such assistance as he may reasonably require in order to have communicated to him the information mentioned in paragraph (a) and complete the form referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) After a defendant's case for bail has been considered once, a judicial officer or authorized officer on any subsequent consideration of bail in the same case shall —

- (a) comply with paragraph (a) of subsection (1); and

- (b) either comply with paragraph (b) of subsection (1) or obtain the form previously completed for the purposes of that paragraph, if any, and ensure that —
 - (i) the form is revised in order to show any changes which he is informed have occurred since it was completed; and
 - (ii) any assistance, of the kind referred to in subsection (1) (c) is given to the defendant for the purpose of completing or revising the form, as the case may be.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be read as limiting section 23.

(3a) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of subsection (1) or (2) a judicial officer or authorized officer need not comply with that paragraph if it appears to him that the defendant's case for bail is such that bail is likely to be granted to him in accordance with this Act; but if it subsequently appears to him that bail will not be granted or that the defendant is dissatisfied with any condition imposed on the grant of bail he shall then comply with that paragraph.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of subsection (1) or (2), a judicial officer or an authorized officer may dispense with completion or revision of the form referred to in those paragraphs if it appears to him that —

- (a) the defendant's case for bail is such that bail is likely to be granted to him in accordance with this Act; and
- (b) the information in the possession of the judicial officer or authorized officer is sufficient for his consideration of the case.

s. 9

(5) Where a person has applied for bail for an appeal as mentioned in section 7A (1), this section applies as if the consideration of bail for the appeal were a first consideration of bail for an offence.

[Section 8 amended by No. 74 of 1984 s.6; No. 15 of 1988 s.6; No. 33 of 1989 s.18.]

Bail decision may be deferred until further information obtained

9. (1) Subject to section 73 (6) of the *Child Welfare Act 1947*², a judicial officer or authorized officer who is called upon to consider a case for bail may defer consideration of the case for a period not exceeding 30 days if he thinks it is necessary —

- (a) to obtain more information for the purpose of making a decision in accordance with this Act; or
- (b) to take any step authorized by section 24 (1).

(2) Nothing in this section shall be taken to limit the right of a defendant to be brought before a court as soon as is practicable if he is not released on bail.

Sections 5, 6 and 7 do not apply where defendant imprisoned for other cause

10. Notwithstanding sections 5, 6 and 7, the rights conferred on a defendant and the duties imposed on police officers, authorized officers and judicial officers by those sections in respect of an appearance in court for an offence do not arise where —

- (a) the defendant is in custody for some other offence or reason (including the non-payment of a sum of money); and
- (b) the police officer, authorized officer or judicial officer is satisfied that the defendant is likely to remain in custody for that other offence or reason until or beyond the time for the appearance for the first-mentioned offence.

Rights following grant of bail

11. (1) When —

- (a) bail has been granted to a defendant for an appearance in court;
- (b) all conditions which are to be complied with before the release of the defendant have been complied with; and
- (c) he has entered into a bail undertaking for that appearance or his bail undertaking is deemed to be amended under section 31 (3), the defendant has a right to be at liberty until he is required to appear, or to next appear, before a court, but subject to —

- (d) any requirement that he be in custody for some other reason;
- (e) the exercise of the powers in sections 14 (3), 17A, 46, 54 and 55; and
- (f) the limitation mentioned in section 12.

(2) As soon as is practicable after a defendant becomes entitled to be at liberty as provided in subsection (1) —

- (a) an authorized officer, where bail was granted by an authorized officer;
- (b) a justice who has granted bail otherwise than while sitting as a court;
- (c) a Judge's associate, where bail was granted by a Judge of the District Court or the Supreme Court or the Children's Court; and

s. 12

- (d) in any other case, the clerk or registrar of the court where the judicial officer who granted bail exercises jurisdiction or a justice, shall, where the defendant is in custody in a lock-up or prison, forthwith deliver or cause to be delivered a certificate to that effect in the prescribed form to the officer in charge of the lock-up or prison, and that officer shall release the defendant from custody as soon as is practicable after he receives the certificate.

(3) In subsection (2) (a) “authorized officer” does not include an authorized officer who is also the officer in charge of the lock-up in which the defendant is in custody.

[Section 11 amended by No. 74 of 1984 s.7; No. 15 of 1988 s.7; No. 49 of 1988 s.81; No. 45 of 1993 s.7.]

Further limitation on rights in sections 5 and 11

12. The right of a defendant to have his case for bail considered as soon as is practicable, his right to be at liberty as mentioned in section 11 (1), and the corresponding duties created by this Part, are limited so far as is reasonably necessary for the exercise or performance by a person of any statutory power or function vested in him which requires the continued custody of the defendant, including the exercise of the powers set out in section 236 of The Criminal Code and section 50AA of the Police Act 1892.

(2) An applicant who is refused approval as a surety may re-apply for approval to the officer who made that decision, or if he is absent or unavailable to another officer acting in his position, on the ground that —

- (a) new facts have been discovered, new circumstances have arisen or the circumstances have changed since he was refused approval; or

and the provisions of this Act, except section 37, shall, with necessary modifications, apply to any such further application and the decision thereon.

(b) where applicable, pursuant to subsection (2), he has received notice as mentioned in that subsection.

(2) A surety undertaking may, at the option of the surety, also contain a provision that, where a different time or a different time and place for the defendant's appearance is substituted pursuant to section 31, the surety's liability shall only arise if he is given notice, as soon as is practicable, of the different time or the different time and place.

(ii) is, or has been, in breach of any condition of his bail undertaking mentioned in section 28 (2) (c); or

(iii) is, or has been, in breach of a home detention condition mentioned in section 28 (2) (d);

and

(b) it is not expedient to invoke the assistance of a police officer under section 54 (1) because the delay occasioned by doing so would defeat the purpose of that section.

(2) A surety who arrests a defendant under subsection (1) shall, as soon as is practicable, deliver him into the custody of a police officer and thereafter he shall be dealt with under section 54 (4) and section 55, and those provisions shall apply, as if he had been arrested by a police officer under section 54 (2).

[Section 46 amended by No. 74 of 1984 s.16; No. 61 of 1990 s.10.]

- (c) upon its being cancelled under section 48 (4) (and as from the time fixed therefor) by an appropriate judicial officer;
- (d) upon the death of the surety, but only if no order under section 49 (1) has been made before then;
- (e) subject to sections 31 and 44, upon the appearance in court by the defendant as required by his bail undertaking;
- (f) upon the discharge of the defendant according to law from any further proceedings for the offence, or all of the offences, to which the surety undertaking relates; or

48. (1) A surety may apply to an appropriate judicial officer for cancellation of his undertaking.

Forfeiture of money under surety's undertaking

49. (1) Where a defendant has failed to comply with any requirement of his bail undertaking mentioned in section 28 (2) (a) or (b) (ii) the following provisions of this section apply for the purpose of enforcing payment to the Crown of any sum thereupon payable by a surety in terms of his surety undertaking —

- (a) the clerk or registrar of the court before which the defendant failed to appear may make application for payment by way of complaint to an appropriate judicial officer;
- (b) that judicial officer shall summon the surety to appear before the court in which the judicial officer exercises jurisdiction to show cause why an order of forfeiture should not be made under this section;

- (c) on the hearing of the application and upon proof of the surety's liability in terms of his undertaking, the judicial officer shall order forfeiture of the full amount specified in the undertaking unless the surety attends at the hearing and shows to the satisfaction of the judicial officer that there was reasonable cause for the failure of the defendant to comply with the requirement to which the complaint relates;
- (d) notwithstanding paragraph (c), the judicial officer may decline to make an order under that paragraph or may order forfeiture in part only where the surety attends and shows to the satisfaction of the judicial officer —
 - (i) that, by reason of a change of circumstances since the undertaking was entered into, an order for forfeiture, or for forfeiture in full (as the case may be), would cause excessive hardship to the surety or his dependants; and
 - (ii) that such hardship would not be relieved by the exercise of one or more of the powers conferred by section 59;
- (e) an order may be made under this section whether or not the defendant has been convicted of an offence against section 51 (1) or (2) but if, after an order has been made, the surety satisfies the Governor that new facts have been discovered or new circumstances have arisen which show that there was reasonable cause for the failure of the defendant as mentioned in paragraph (c) (i), the Governor may exercise the power in section 139 of the Sentencing Act 1995 as if the forfeiture were one to which that section applied.

(2) The Justices Act 1902, except section 51 and Part VIII, applies, with all necessary modifications, to a complaint and summons under this section, and any order thereon, as if they were made or issued under that Act.

(3) Without prejudice to the recovery of such an amount as a civil debt due to the Crown, any amount to be paid under an order made under this section is to be paid, and its payment may be enforced under Part 5 of the Fines, Penalties and Infringement Notices Enforcement Act 1994, unless an order has been made under subsection (4).

(4) If under this section the Supreme Court or the District Court makes an order requiring the payment of money, the court may make an order under section 59 of the Sentencing Act 1995 in respect of the amount payable and for that purpose that section, with any necessary changes, applies as if the amount were a fine imposed on the surety.

[Section 49 amended by No. 74 of 1984 s.17; No. 92 of 1994 s.5; No. 78 of 1995 s.8.]

Upon decision by judicial officer, his power and that of his peers ceases

2. Upon refusal by justice power of authorized officer or justice ceases

3. After a justice or a member of the Children's Court has refused bail for an initial appearance by a defendant, the power to grant bail for that appearance ceases to be vested in an authorized officer or another justice or another member of the Children's Court, but an authorized officer or a justice or another member of the Children's Court may grant bail for an initial appearance notwithstanding that one or more other authorized officers have previously refused bail for that appearance.

Judicial officer's powers where defendant proves new facts or changed circumstances

4. Notwithstanding clause 2, where a defendant has been refused bail for an appearance or has been granted bail therefor on terms or conditions with which he is unable or unwilling to comply, the judicial officer who granted or refused bail or another judicial officer whose jurisdiction is co-extensive with his has power to grant bail for that appearance or to vary the terms or conditions of bail previously granted therefor if the defendant makes application and satisfies him that —

- (a) new facts have been discovered, new circumstances have arisen or the circumstances have changed since bail was previously granted or refused for that appearance;

- (b) he failed to adequately present his case for bail on the previous occasion when it was considered; or
- (c) where bail was granted subject to a home detention condition, he has, since the previous occasion when his case for bail was considered, complied with the home detention condition for a period of one month or more.

PART C — MANNER IN WHICH JURISDICTION TO BE EXERCISED

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING GRANT OR REFUSAL OF BAIL

Bail before conviction to be at discretion of bail authority, except for a child

1. Subject to clause 3A, the grant or refusal of bail to a defendant, other than a child, who is in custody awaiting an appearance in court before conviction for an offence shall be at the discretion of the judicial officer or authorized officer in whom jurisdiction is vested, and that discretion shall be exercised having regard to the following questions as well as to any others which he considers relevant —

- (a) whether, if the defendant is not kept in custody, he may —
 - (i) fail to appear in court in accordance with his bail undertaking;
 - (ii) commit an offence;
 - (iii) endanger the safety, welfare, or property of any person; or
 - (iv) interfere with witnesses or otherwise obstruct the course of justice, whether in relation to himself or any other person;
- (b) whether the defendant needs to be held in custody for his own protection;
- (c) whether the prosecutor has put forward grounds for opposing the grant of bail;
- (d) whether, as regards the period when the defendant is on trial, there are grounds for believing that, if he is not kept in custody, the proper conduct of the trial may be prejudiced;

Sch. 1

- (e) whether there is any condition which could reasonably be imposed under Part D of this Schedule which would —
 - (i) sufficiently remove the possibility referred to in paragraphs (a) and (d);
 - (ii) obviate the need referred to in paragraph (b); or
 - (iii) remove the grounds for opposition referred to in paragraph (c);
- (f) where the defendant is charged with an offence that is alleged to have been committed in respect of a child, whether a condition should be imposed under Part D requiring the defendant to reside at a place other than the place where the child resides.

Child to have qualified right to bail

2. (1) In this clause —

“responsible person” means a parent, relative, employer or other person who, in the opinion of the judicial officer or authorized officer, is in a position to both influence the conduct of the child and provide the child with support and direction.

(2) Subject to subclause (3), a child defendant who is in custody awaiting an appearance in court before conviction for an offence has a right to be granted bail unless —

- (a) in the opinion of the judicial officer or authorized officer in whom jurisdiction is vested —
 - (i) one or more of the questions set out in clause 1 (a), (b) and (d) must be answered in the affirmative; and
 - (ii) there is no condition which he could reasonably impose under Part D of this Schedule which would satisfy the relevant provision of clause 1 (e);
- or
- (b) there is no responsible person willing to enter into an undertaking of the kind described in subclause (3) (c), and if the child is refused bail he shall be dealt with in accordance with section 33 (3) of the *Child Welfare Act 1947*³.

(3) The right of a child defendant under subclause (2) is subject to —

- (a) clause 3A;
- (b) section 28 (2) of the Child Welfare Act 1947; and
- (c) there being imposed as a condition on the grant of bail a requirement that before the release of the child on bail a responsible person undertakes in writing in the prescribed form to ensure that the child complies with any requirement of his bail undertaking mentioned in section 28 (2) (a), (b), (c) and (d).

(4) Subclauses (2) (b) and (3) (c) do not apply to a child defendant if it appears to the judicial officer or authorized officer that the defendant —

- (a) is over the age of 17 years; and
- (b) has sufficient maturity to live independently without the guidance or control of a parent or guardian.

(5) For the purposes of this clause, the provisions of sections 46, 47, 48, 54, 55 (2), 60 and 67 (2) (a) (iv) apply with all necessary changes as if —

- (a) references in those provisions to a surety and a surety undertaking were references to a responsible person and to an undertaking referred to in subclause (3) (c) respectively; and
- (b) section 54 (1) (b) (i) read as follows —

“ (i) a person who has entered into an undertaking referred to in subclause (3) (c) of clause 2 of Part C of Schedule 1 should no longer be regarded as a responsible person for the purposes of that clause, or is dead; ”.

(6) Where a child defendant is released on bail his right to be at liberty is subject to the exercise of the powers in section 17A.

Matters relevant to consideration of clause 1 (a)

3. In considering whether a defendant may do any of the things mentioned in clause 1 (a), the judicial officer or authorized officer shall have regard to the following matters, as well as to any others which he considers relevant —

- (a) the nature and seriousness of the offence or offences (including any other offence or offences for which he is awaiting trial) and the probable method of dealing with the defendant for it or them, if he is convicted;

- (b) the character, previous convictions, antecedents, associations, home environment, background, place of residence, and financial position of the defendant;
- (c) the history of any previous grants of bail to him; and
- (d) the strength of the evidence against him.

Bail where serious offence committed while defendant on bail for another serious offence

3A. (1) Notwithstanding clause 1 or 2 or any other provision of this Act, where —

- (a) a defendant is in custody awaiting an appearance in court before conviction for a serious offence; and
- (b) the serious offence is alleged to have been committed while the defendant was on bail for another serious offence or for a group of offences which includes a serious offence, the judicial officer or authorized officer in whom jurisdiction is vested shall refuse to grant bail for the serious offence referred to in paragraph (a) unless he is satisfied that —

- (c) there are exceptional reasons why the defendant should not be kept in custody; and
- (d) he may properly grant bail having regard to the provisions of clauses 1 and 3 or, in the case of a child defendant, clauses 2 and 3.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of section 7, where a defendant is refused bail under subclause (1) for an appearance for a serious offence his case for bail need not be considered again under that subsection for an appearance for that offence unless he satisfies the judicial officer who may order his detention that —

- (a) new facts have been discovered, new circumstances have arisen or the circumstances have changed since bail was refused; or
- (b) he failed to adequately present his case for bail on the occasion of that refusal.

(3) Where a child defendant is refused bail under subclause (1) he shall be dealt with in accordance with section 33 (3) of the *Child Welfare Act 1947*³.

When bail to be granted after conviction

4. In deciding whether or not to grant bail to a defendant who is in custody waiting to be sentenced or otherwise dealt with for an offence of which he has been convicted or awaiting the disposal of appeal proceedings, the judicial officer shall, subject to clauses 5 and 6, consider whether —

- (a) in the case of a defendant waiting to be sentenced, there is a strong likelihood that he will impose a non-custodial sentence; or
- (b) in either case, there are exceptional reasons why the defendant should not be kept in custody, and shall only grant bail to him if he is satisfied that —

- (c) in the case of a defendant waiting to be sentenced, at least one of those reasons exists and, in the case of an appellant, the reason mentioned in paragraph (b) exists; and
- (d) he may properly do so having regard to the provisions of clauses 1 and 3 or, in the case of a child, clauses 2 and 3.

Exception for bail for an appeal under the Justices Act 1902

5. Clause 4 does not apply to the bail of a person who is awaiting the disposal of appeal proceedings under Part VIII of the Justices Act 1902; such a person shall be deemed for the purposes of this Part to be awaiting an appearance in court before conviction for an offence.

Bail of people on community orders, etc.

6. For the purpose of determining whether clause 4 applies, a person in custody —

- (a) under section 50, 79, 128, 129 or 132 of the Sentencing Act 1995 in connection with a possible breach of a conditional release order, a sentence of suspended imprisonment or a community order imposed under that Act; or
- (b) under section 43 of the Young Offenders Act 1994 in respect of an alleged breach of a youth community based order, an intensive youth supervision order or a conditional release order made under that Act,
