AN ACT to Authorise, Regulate and Control, Betting and Bookmaking on Horse Racing; to Regulate the Assessment, Collection, and Allocation of a Tax on Money Paid or Promised to Bookmakers or the Totalisator Agency Board as Consideration for Bets, to Repeal certain Acts; to Amend certain Acts; and for Other Purposes.

Long title.
Amended
by No. 49 of 1960, s. 3.

[Assented to 30th December, 1954.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Betting Control Act, 1954-1961.

Short title.
Amended
by No. 14 of 1961, s. 1.

¹ Came into operation 1st August, 1955. See Gazette 29/7/55, p. 1767.

² "Proclaimed Day" for purposes of s. 14; and "Day fixed by proclamation" for purposes of s. 15 of the Act is the 24th December, 1956. See Gazette 21/12/56, p. 2975.

Commencement.

2. (1) This Act shall come into operation on a day to be fixed by proclamation.¹

(2) After the passing of this Act and notwithstanding that a day has not been fixed by proclamation as that of the coming into operation of this Act,

(a) the Governor may appoint the Board;

(b) persons may make applications for

(i) licenses under this Act; and

(ii) registration under this Act of premises;

(c) the Board may exercise all or any of the powers conferred upon it by this Act, including the power to accept, consider, and grant or refuse, applications mentioned in paragraph (b) of this subsection;

as validly as if this Act had been proclaimed to come into operation, but licenses granted before that day, and registrations effected and published in accordance with section eleven of this Act before that day, are not effective until that day.

(3) The provisions of subsection (2) of this section are in addition to and not in derogation of those of section eleven or any other provisions of the Interpretation Act, 1918.

Repeal.

3. (1) The Stamp Act Amendment Act (No. 2), 1952, Act No. 48 of 1952, and the Winning Bets Tax Act, 1952, Act No. 49 of 1952, are repealed.

Amendment.

(2) The Stamp Act, 1921-1954,² as affected by this section is amended and may be cited in accordance with Part I. of the Schedule to this Act.

of 1960, s. 5.
Cf. s. 11
(4) (a) and
s. 10 post.

5. (1) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, persons may, in accordance with this Act, lawfully bet by way of wagering or gaming on races—

(a) on a race course during the holding at the race course of a race meeting; or

(b) at or in registered premises, and their so doing does not of itself constitute a contravention of the law, and is not a ground for the race course or any part of it or the registered premises being deemed or declared to be, or to be used as, a common betting house or a common gaming house, or to be a common nuisance and contrary to law.

(2) No bet or transaction arising out of or in connection with a bet shall be enforceable at law.

(2a) No bet on a horse in a race shall be made with or accepted by a bookmaker who holds a license to carry on the business of a bookmaker at registered premises, or with his employee, unless—

(a) it is made and accepted at odds in respect of the horse, as determined after the race is run by the totalisator established on the race course where the race was run; or

(b) where the bet is made on a horse in a race on which the Board conducts a totalisator pool in accordance with the Totalisator Agency Board Betting Act, 1960, the bet is made and accepted at odds in respect of the horse as determined after the race is run by the Board under that Act.

Exclusion of provisions of Criminal Code and Police Act.

(3) No person shall be prosecuted or convicted, or is liable to prosecution or conviction, or subject to penal consequences under the provisions of the Criminal Code, 1913, or of the Police Act, 1892, by reason of anything done by him under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act, but subject to this Act, the provisions of that Code and of that Act, relating to common gaming houses and common betting houses, or unlawful betting, are of full force and effect, and as affected by this Act, that Code and that Act are amended, and may be cited, in accordance with the Schedule to this Act.

Schedule.

6. [Section 6 repealed by No. 49 of 1960, s. 6.]

7. For the purposes of this Act, the Governor may appoint under the Public Service Act, 1904, such persons as officers of the Board as he considers necessary.

Officers of Board.
Amended by No. 49 of 1960, s. 7.

8. [Section 8 repealed by No. 49 of 1960, s. 8.]

9. The expenses of the administration of this Act are payable out of such money as Parliament appropriates for the purpose.

Expenses of administration of this Act are payable out of money appropriated by Parliament.

10. The Board shall prepare and submit to the Minister, not later than the thirtieth day of September in each calendar year, a report on the exercise and performance by the Board of its powers, functions, and duties under this Act during the twelve months ended on the preceding thirty-first day of July. A copy of such report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

11. (1) Applications for licenses may be made to the Board, which may grant or refuse an application for a license.

Applications for, and discretion of Board to grant, licenses.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, licenses are current and operative during the licensing year for which they are issued, or for the unexpired portion thereof, as the case may be, and expire on the thirty-first day of July in each year, but no license shall be transferable or pass to the personal representative of a deceased licensee.

(3) When the unexpired portion of the licensing year does not exceed six months, the Commissioner may, if he deems fit, charge for a license issued for that unexpired portion, one-half only of the prescribed fee for the whole licensing year.

Effect of licenses.
Cf. s. 5 (1)
(a) ante and
s. 10 post.

(4) A bookmaker's license, during the period of its currency, and subject to, and in accordance with, the provisions of this Act and the license, entitles the holder to carry on the business of a bookmaker either—

- (a) in person upon a race course if he holds a permit to do so from the committee or other authority controlling the race course; or
- (b) in person or subject to subsection (8) of this section by his employee at registered premises specified in the license.

Disqualification from obtaining license.

(5) The Board shall not grant a license—

- (a) to a person who holds, or to a person who is employed in any capacity by one who holds, a license for the sale of liquor under the Licensing Act, 1911, except (in the case of a license under this Act entitling the holder to carry on the business of a bookmaker as mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section) in the case of a spirit merchant's license or a gallon license which is located in areas of the State other than the South-West Land Division;
- (b) to a person under the age of twenty-one years;
- (c) to a body corporate;
- (d) to an undischarged bankrupt.

(6) A person making application for a license on his own behalf shall state the fact in the application.

(7) (a) A person making application for a license on behalf of another person shall state the fact and such particulars relating to that other person as are prescribed by the regulations or required by the Board.

(b) In this subsection person means an individual person and does not include more persons than one in respect of one license or a body corporate.

(8) A bookmaker shall not be absent from the registered premises in respect of which he holds a license while the premises are open for business on more than twenty-eight days in any one year without written permission of the Board, nor permit the business of bookmaker to be carried out on the premises in the absence of the bookmaker unless by a licensed employee on his behalf.

12. (1) Nothing in this Act authorises a bookmaker, to bet or carry on business as such on a race course without first having obtained a permit to do so from the committee or other authority controlling it.

Permits required to bet on race courses, etc.

(2) The committee or other authority may grant permits to do so subject to such conditions as the committee or other authority thinks fit, but to such persons only as are bookmakers holding current and operative licenses.

(3) No bookmaker shall bet or carry on business as such on a race course, except on such parts of it as are specially set apart for that purpose by the committee or other authority controlling it, and then only during the holding of a race meeting at the race course.

Cf. s. 5 (1) (a) and s. 11 (4) (a) ante.

13. (1) The Board may, in accordance with the regulations register such number of suitable premises as the Board considers is commensurate with the reasonable requirements of the public and the general interests of the community, as premises in which betting may be carried on by bookmakers in accordance with this Act and their licenses.

Registration of premises. Amended by No. 73 of 1960, s. 9.

(2) (a) In exercise, but without prejudicing the generality, of the power conferred by this section the Board—

- (i) may register premises in which a particular bookmaker may so carry on business;
- (ii) may register premises in which more bookmakers than one may so carry on business.

(b) Where premises are registered as premises in which a particular bookmaker may so carry on business, it is by virtue of this paragraph a condition of the registration and of his license, whether it is or is not expressly mentioned in the registration or license, that the bookmaker shall not directly or indirectly carry on business as a bookmaker elsewhere in the State than

- (i) at or in those premises; or
- (ii) at or in premises registered as those in which more bookmakers than one may so carry on business.

(c) A bookmaker who is convicted of an offence against the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection is liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, or imprisonment for six months, and the Board shall in any case permanently suspend the license of the bookmaker so convicted and shall permanently disqualify him from obtaining a license under this Act.

(d) The power to register premises in which more bookmakers than one may so carry on business, includes power to register portion of club premises if the portion is specially set apart to the satisfaction of the Board for the purpose of betting in accordance with this Act and the terms and conditions of the registration.

(e) Where portion of club premises is so registered, betting, or permitting betting, in accordance with this Act, at or in the portion so registered does not constitute an offence under this or any other Act.

(3) The registration of premises under this Act is not effective until the Board has published a notice of the registration in the Gazette.

(4) Upon and after the publication of the notice of the registration of the premises, a licensed bookmaker may lawfully carry on the business of bookmaking in the premises in accordance with this Act and the terms and conditions of the bookmaker's license so long as the registration remains in force, during such hours as are specified in the registration, but not on Good Friday, Christmas Day, or on any Sunday, or before the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon on Anzac Day.

(5) Members of the Board and the Commissioner, and persons authorised by the Board or the Commissioner, have at all times access to and authority to inspect race courses, and registered premises, and a person refusing to admit or otherwise hindering, delaying, or obstructing a member of the Board or a person so authorised, commits an offence.

Board and Commissioner to have access to race courses and registered premises.

Penalty: Fifty pounds.

(6) If the Board is satisfied that any of the provisions of this Act relating to registered premises or a term or condition of registration of premises has not been observed, the Board may, as an administrative act, cancel the registration of the premises by notice in the Gazette, and upon the day of the publication, the registration ceases to be effective.

14. (1) In this section—

“off-course turnover” means the amounts of money paid or promised as the consideration for bets which are made by a bookmaker or Bookmakers' liability to pay bookmakers betting tax. S. 14 substituted by No. 50 of 1956, s. 2. Amended by No. 76 of 1959, s. 3 his employee on his behalf, and which are referred to in section sixteen of this Act, whether the bets are made by or on behalf of the bookmaker as a party to the bet, or whether the bets are negotiated by or on behalf of the bookmaker as agent for any other person, but does not include any money promised or paid by the bookmaker as the consideration for a bet made by him on his own behalf in the capacity of a backer but not in the capacity of bookmaker:

Provided, however, that the Commissioner shall have an absolute discretion to decide what is and what is not a bet made by a bookmaker on his own behalf in the capacity of a backer but not in the capacity of bookmaker;

“on-course turnover” means the amounts of money paid or promised as the consideration for bets which are made by a bookmaker, and which are referred to in section fifteen of this Act, whether the bets are made by the bookmaker as a party to the bet, or whether the bets are negotiated by the bookmaker as agent for another person but does not include any money promised or paid by the bookmaker as the consideration for a bet made by him on his own behalf in the capacity of a backer but not in the capacity of bookmaker:

Provided however, that the Commissioner shall have an absolute discretion to decide what is and what is not a bet made by a bookmaker on his own behalf in the capacity of a backer but not in the capacity of bookmaker;

“proclaimed day”¹ means a day to be fixed by proclamation for the purposes of this section;

“tax” means bookmakers’ betting tax imposed by the taxing Act;

“taxing Act” means the Bookmakers Betting Tax Act, 1954. Cf. No. 30 of 1918, s. 14.

(2) A bookmaker shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Act— No. 50 of 1956, s. 2.

- (a) make true and full returns of his off-course turnover or on-course turnover;
- (b) pay tax on the whole of that turnover, whether off-course or on-course, to but excluding the proclaimed day, at the rate imposed by paragraph (a) of section two of the taxing Act; 1½% on all turnover to proclaimed day.
- (c) pay tax on so much of his on-course turnover for the period commencing on the proclaimed day and ending on the thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven, and for each year commencing on the first day of August thereafter, as does not exceed fifty thousand pounds, at the rate imposed by paragraph (b) of section two of the taxing Act; 1½% on first £50,000 of on-course turnover after proclaimed day.
- (d) pay tax on so much of his on-course turnover for the period commencing on the proclaimed day and ending on the thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven, and for each year commencing on the first day of August thereafter, as exceeds fifty thousand pounds at the rate imposed by paragraph (c) of Section two of the taxing Act; 1½% on on-course turnover exceeding £50,000 after proclaimed day.
- (e) pay tax on all of his off-course turnover for the period commencing on the proclaimed day and ending on the thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven, and for each year commencing on the first day of August thereafter until the thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine, and for the period commencing on the first day of August, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine and ending on the day¹ prior to the coming into operation of the Betting Control Act Amendment Act, 1959, at the rate imposed by paragraph (d) of section two of the taxing Act;

- (f) pay tax on all of his off-course turnover for the period commencing on the day of the coming into operation of the Betting Control Act Amendment Act, 1959, and ending on the thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and sixty, and for each year commencing on the first day of August thereafter—
- (i) on so much of that turnover as does not exceed twenty-five thousand pounds at the rate imposed by subparagraph (i) of paragraph (e) of section two of the taxing Act;
 - (ii) on so much of that turnover as exceeds twenty-five thousand pounds but does not exceed fifty thousand pounds at the rate imposed by subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (e) of section two of the taxing Act;
 - (iii) on so much of that turnover as exceeds fifty thousand pounds but does not exceed seventy-five thousand pounds at the rate imposed by subparagraph (iii) of paragraph (e) of section two of the taxing Act;
 - (iv) on so much of that turnover as exceeds seventy-five thousand pounds but does not exceed one hundred thousand pounds at the rate imposed by subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (e) of section two of the taxing Act;

- (v) on so much of that turnover as exceeds one hundred thousand pounds but does not exceed one hundred and twenty-five thousand pounds at the rate imposed by subparagraph (v) of paragraph (e) of section two of the taxing Act;
- (vi) on so much of that turnover as exceeds one hundred and twenty-five thousand pounds but does not exceed one hundred and fifty thousand pounds at the rate imposed by subparagraph (vi) of paragraph (e) of section two of the taxing Act;
- (vii) on so much of that turnover as exceeds one hundred and fifty thousand pounds at the rate imposed by subparagraph (vii) of paragraph (e) of section two of the taxing Act.

(3) The provisions of this section do not authorise a holder of any license under this Act to act as agent contrary to any condition of his license or to any provision of this Act.

Cf. s. 4 ante, "to bet," [No. 50 of 1956, s. 2.]

15. (1) Where a bookmaker with permission of a racing club conducting a race meeting bets in person as a bookmaker at the meeting, the provisions of this section apply.

Payment of tax by bookmakers on bets made at race meetings. Amended by No. 50 of 1956, s. 3.

(2) The bookmaker shall cause to be recorded in duplicate in the prescribed form signed by the bookmaker and in such manner that the original and duplicate are clearly legible and the duplicate is an exact copy of the original, particulars of his bets made at the meeting in respect of—

- (a) each race held or to be held at the meeting;
and
- (b) each race held or to be held elsewhere.

(3) The bookmaker shall cause to be delivered to a person authorised by the racing club to receive it on behalf of the club conducting the race meeting, the duplicate record of the particulars of the bookmaker's bets in respect of—

- (a) each race held at the meeting, at the conclusion of the race; and
- (b) each race held or to be held elsewhere than at the meeting, at the conclusion of the meeting.

(4) The bookmaker shall cause to be delivered to the racing club within seven days of the race meeting,

- (a) a return in the prescribed form signed by the bookmaker and showing the amount of money paid or promised to the bookmaker as the consideration for bets made at the meeting by him in the capacity of bookmaker, and showing the sum payable on that amount as bookmakers' betting tax;
and
- (b) payment of that sum of bookmakers' betting tax.

(5) The racing club receiving that sum of bookmakers' betting tax from the bookmaker—

- (a) shall, prior to a day¹ to be fixed by proclamation for the purposes of this section, retain twenty per centum of that sum, and after that day shall retain sixty per centum of that sum and apply one-half of the amount retained towards increasing stakes, and apply the remaining half to such purposes as the club thinks fit;

[No. 50 of

- (b) shall within such time of receiving that sum from the bookmaker, as the Commissioner appoints and is hereby authorised to appoint from time to time, either generally or for a particular case, remit the balance of that sum to the Commissioner, and supply to the Commissioner such particulars as the Commissioner requisitions and is hereby authorised to requisition.

(6) If the racing club does not remit that balance to the Commissioner by the appointed time, the Commissioner may, without prejudicing the liability of the club to penalty under this Act, sue the club in a court of competent jurisdiction for recovery of the amount of that balance as a debt due.

(7) The racing club shall preserve and retain possession of returns and duplicates of records delivered under this section to it by bookmakers, until the Commissioner consents to destruction of the returns and duplicates.

16. (1) When in the capacity of bookmaker, a bookmaker or his employee on his behalf makes bets at registered premises on races wherever held or to be held, the provisions of this section apply.

Payment of tax by bookmakers on bets made at registered premises.
Amended by No. 50 of 1956, s. 4.
Amended by No. 49 of 1960, s. 9.

(2) The bookmaker shall cause to be recorded in duplicate in prescribed form signed by him and in such manner that the original and duplicate are clearly legible and the duplicate is an exact copy of the original, particulars of bets made by the bookmaker himself or by his employee on his behalf in respect of—

- (a) races of ridden horses held or to be held in this State;

- (b) races of driven horses held or to be held in this State; and
- (c) races of horses whether ridden or driven, held or to be held elsewhere than in this State.

(3) The bookmaker shall cause to be delivered to the Commissioner at such times as the Commissioner appoints and is hereby authorised to appoint from time to time, either generally or for a particular case,

- (a) duplicate recordings of bets mentioned in subsection (2) of this section made during such period as the Commissioner determines and is hereby authorised to determine from time to time, either generally or for a particular case;
- (b) a return in the prescribed form signed by the bookmaker showing the amount of money paid or promised to the bookmaker as consideration for those bets, and showing the sum payable on that amount as bookmakers' betting tax; and
- (c) payment for the use of Her Majesty, of that sum of betting tax.

(3A) [Subsection (3A) repealed by No. 49 of 1960, s. 9.]

(3B) [Subsection (3B) repealed by No. 49 of 1960, s. 9.]

(4) [Subsection (4) repealed by No. 49 of 1960, s. 9.]

16A. (1) In this section—

“investment tax” means the betting investment tax imposed by the Betting Investment Tax Act, 1959.

“off-course turnover” has the same meaning as that defined in section fourteen of this Act and includes the amounts of money received by the Board in respect of bets at totalisator agencies, in accordance with the Totalisator Agency Board Betting Act, 1960.

(2) A bookmaker and the Board shall in accordance with the provisions of this Act—

- (a) make true and full returns of his or its off-course turnover;
- (b) pay investment tax on the whole of that turnover at the rates specified by section three of the Betting Investment Tax Act, 1959.

(3) A bookmaker who at or in registered premises makes a bet with a person, whether the amount of money as consideration for the bet is paid or promised to the bookmaker, shall collect from the person placing the bet the amount of investment tax payable in respect of that bet.

(4) The Board shall in respect of every bet made through or with the Board collect from the person placing the bet, where the bet is made in cash, or debit the credit account on which the bet is made where the bet is not made in cash, the amount of investment tax payable in respect of that bet.

16B. [Section 16B repealed by No. 49 of 1960, s. 11.]

16C. [Section 16C repealed by No. 49 of 1960, s. 11.]

Effect on liability for payment of tax where racing authority declares bets off, etc.

17. Where a bookmaker or his employee on his behalf has made a bet on a race and has included the bet in a record or return as required under this Act, if it appears to the Commissioner that because of a decision of a competent authority controlling the race or betting in respect of the race, the bookmaker is not entitled to receive or retain the whole or part of the consideration for the bet, the Commissioner shall exempt the bookmaker from payment of bookmakers' betting tax on the whole or part, as the case may be, of that consideration, and if the bookmaker has already paid the tax, the Commissioner shall refund it to the bookmaker on demand.

Omissions of bets from records or returns does not affect liability for tax or penalty.

18. The omission from a record required to be made or from a return required to be delivered under this Act by a bookmaker, of a bet made by the bookmaker or by his employee on his behalf, does not relieve the bookmaker from liability for bookmakers' betting tax payable on the consideration for the bet or from penalty under this Act.

Commissioner may sue bookmakers for unpaid tax.

19. Where a bookmaker does not pay bookmakers' betting tax payable under this Act by the bookmaker, whether payable to the Commissioner or to a racing club, the Commissioner may, without prejudicing the liability of the bookmaker to penalty under this Act, sue the bookmaker for the amount of the tax unpaid in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Powers of inspection.

20. (1) Officers authorised in writing by the Commissioner to do so, whether generally or for a particular case, may, on producing the written authorisation, of such prohibition shall assist such prohibited person in laying, procuring or obtaining a bet with any bookmaker.

Penalty: Five pounds.

Penalty on owner or occupier of premises used for unlawful betting. Amended by No. 49 of 1960, s. 13.

27. No person being the owner or occupier of a place shall open, use, or permit the use of the place for betting by any means whether by persons present or their agents, or by post, telegraph, telephone or other manner, whether of the same kind as or a different kind from any manner specified in this section,

- (a) unless the place is registered as registered premises;
- (b) unless the place, not being registered as registered premises, is on a race course and then only where a race meeting or trotting meeting is being conducted under license issued under the Racing Restriction Act, 1917; or
- (c) unless in either of those cases the place is opened and used in accordance with the provisions of this Act; or
- (d) unless the betting is done with or through the Board in accordance with the provisions of the Totalisator Agency Board Betting Act, 1960.

Cf. No. 11 of 1917, as amended.

Penalty: For a first offence, one hundred pounds or imprisonment for three months; for a second offence, two hundred pounds or imprisonment for six months; for a third or subsequent offence, imprisonment for not less than six months and not more than twelve months without the option of a pecuniary penalty.

28. (1) A Court recording a conviction of a charge of an offence against this Act, shall order that betting material found and produced in evidence at the hearing of the charge be destroyed, and that money found on or in a place used for betting contrary to the provisions of this Act be forfeited to the Crown.

Forfeiture of betting material and money in certain cases.

(2) Where money is found in the possession of an offender convicted of betting, contrary to this Act, and is proved to have been received in connection with that betting, the Court shall order that the money be forfeited to the Crown.

28A. (1) If it appears to a justice on complaint made on oath before him that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that unlawful betting is or is about to be carried on in or upon any place or public place he may give to any member of the Police Force a warrant in the form of the Second Schedule to this Act.

Search warrant. Added by No. 14 of 1961, s. 2.

Cf. s. 25 No. 30 of 1918.

(2) A warrant so given authorises the member of the police force therein named, with such assistance as may be necessary,—

- (a) to enter into and upon and search the place or public place named in the warrant at any time during the day or night and to open and break open if necessary and search all things found therein or thereupon;
- (b) to use force if necessary in making entry whether by breaking open doors or otherwise;
- (c) to search all persons found therein or thereupon;
- (d) to arrest and bring before a stipendiary magistrate or two justices all persons found therein or thereupon;

- (e) to seize all betting material and money found therein or thereupon or upon the persons referred to in paragraph (c) of this subsection that may reasonably be supposed to have been used or designed for use in connection with or in relation to such suspected unlawful betting; and
- (f) to detain all such betting material and money until it is dealt with in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-eight of this Act.

"Unlawful betting".

(3) In this section "unlawful betting" means any contravention of or failure to observe any provision of section twenty-three or twenty-seven of this Act.

Search of female persons.

(4) No female person shall be searched under authority of a warrant given pursuant to this section, except by a female member of the Police Force and in the presence of female persons only.

Betting material prima facie evidence of offence. Added by No. 14 of 1961, s. 2.

28B. If, on the hearing of any complaint for an offence against section twenty-three or twenty-seven of this Act, the Court is of opinion that any betting material or money that has to its satisfaction been proved to have been found in any place or public place wherein it was suspected that unlawful betting was carried on and entered under a warrant given under section twenty-eight A of this Act and to have been so found in circumstances that in the mind of the Court raises a reasonable suspicion that the betting material or money was used or designed for use in contravention of the purposes and provisions of the first mentioned sections or either of them, such finding shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the commission by the accused person of the offence charged against him in the complaint.

Minimum penalties.

29. Where by or under this Act a penalty is prescribed for an offence, but no minimum penalty is prescribed for the offence, the minimum penalty is one-fifth of that prescribed and is irreducible in mitigation, notwithstanding the provisions of section one hundred and sixty-six of the Justices Act, 1902, or those of sections nineteen and six hundred and ninety-nine of the Criminal Code, 1913, or another Act.

30. A person who omits to do anything directed to be done or does or attempts to do anything forbidden to be done by or under this Act commits an offence against this Act and is liable to the penalty expressly provided for the offence, but if no penalty is expressly provided for the offence, he is liable, penalty.

- (a) if the offence is a continuing offence, to a penalty of a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds, and in addition to a penalty of a sum not exceeding one pound for each day the offence continues; or
- (b) if the offence is not a continuing offence, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

31. (1) Where an employee of a bookmaker by act or omission related to the business of the bookmaker as such commits an offence against this Act, the bookmaker and the employee are severally liable in respect of the offence.

Bookmaker liable for offences of agent.

(2) That there is no proof—

- (a) that the bookmaker had knowledge of, or relating to, the act or omission of the employee; or
- (b) that it was the intention of the bookmaker that the employee should do the act or make the omission, is not a defence to the bookmaker.

Settlement of disputes relating to bets.

32. Where there is a question or dispute as to whether a bet has been made or as to the amount payable in respect of a bet, the Board may, as an administrative act, decide the question or dispute, and the decision of the Board is final.

Regulations.

33. The Governor may make regulations for giving effect to the operation of this Act and without affecting the generality of the foregoing, may by the regulations—

- (a) provide for the payment of remuneration and allowances to the chairman and other members of the Board and their respective deputies; and
- (b) provide for—
 - (i) licensing of bookmakers;
 - (ii) licensing of bookmakers' employees;
 - (iii) classification of licenses;
 - (iv) terms and conditions upon which license or respective classes of licenses may be obtained and which shall be observed by the holders of licenses;
 - (v) payment to the Commissioner of, and amounts payable as, fees in respect of licenses and applications for licenses or respective classes of licenses, and for different amounts to be payable in respect of different classes of licenses;
 - (vi) variation, suspension, and cancellation of licenses, and the grounds upon which licenses may be varied, suspended, or cancelled;

- (vii) bookmakers being required to keep accounts and records and furnish particulars of their betting transactions, and prescribing the form of and all matters relevant to those accounts, records, and particulars;
- (viii) prohibiting or restricting of advertising by bookmakers and employees;
- (ix) the conduct of bookmakers and their employees;
- (x) regulation and control of betting by and with bookmakers, including without limiting the generality of this power, the determination of questions and disputes as to whether a bet has been made, or as to the amount payable in respect of a bet;
- (xi) bookmakers being required to give security for the due observance of this Act and the regulations, and of the terms and conditions of their licenses;
- (xii) registration of premises upon which licensed bookmakers personally or by their employees may bet;
- (xiii) classification of registered premises;
- (xiv) terms, conditions, and duration of the registration of registered premises, or respective classes of registered premises;
- (xv) suspension and cancellation of the registration of registered premises, and the transfer of registration from the registered premises to other premises;

- (xvi) payment to the Commissioner of, and amounts payable as, fees in respect of registration and applications for registration, or transfer of registration, of registered premises, or respective classes of registered premises, and for different amounts in respect of different classes of registered premises;
- (xvii) the general administration of this Act; and
- (xviii) imposing as the penalty for breach of a regulation so made, or the breach of a term or condition of a license issued or registration of premises effected under this Act, where the breach is a continuing breach, a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds and in addition a sum not exceeding one pound for each day the breach continues; or where the breach is other than a continuing breach, a sum not exceeding one hundred pounds.

Regulations
under this Act.

34. Where and to the extent that there is inconsistency between—

- (a) the provisions of regulations having effect under this Act; and
- (b) the provisions of by-laws having effect under the Western Australian Turf Club Act, 1892, or under the Western Australian Trotting Association Act, 1946, or by-laws, rules, or regulations, made by a racing club under the Associations Incorporation Act, 1895, or any other Act;

the provisions mentioned in paragraph (a) of this section prevail.

35. (1) The provisions of this Act other than sections fourteen, so far as it relates to on course turnover, fifteen, sixteen A, twenty-five and this section do not apply to any part of the State that is a proclaimed totalisator agency region under the Totalisator Agency Board Betting Act, 1960, but in relation to a person who is the holder of a license that entitles him to carry on the business of a bookmaker in person upon a race course, if he holds a permit to do so from the committee or other authority controlling the race course, the provisions of this Act continue to apply to and in respect of that person, whether or not the race course is or is not within a proclaimed totalisator agency region.

Amended
by No. 36 of 1957, s. 2.
Substituted
by No. 49 of 1960, s. 14.

(2) The provisions of section twenty-five of this Act apply in a proclaimed totalisator agency region as though the Board were a bookmaker within the meaning of this Act.
