Betting Control.

“license” means a license issued by the Board to carry on the business under this Act of a bookmaker;

“licensing year” means the period of twelve months ending the thirty-first day of July in every year;

“money” includes bank notes, bank drafts, cheques and any other orders, warrants, authorities, or requests, for the payment of money;

“occupier” used in relation to a place includes a person by whom or on whose behalf, and a company or other corporation which or on behalf of which, the place is actually occupied, or who or which is the lessee or sub-lessee, not being the owner, and an attorney, agent, or manager, who has the control, supervision, or management of the place on behalf of the person, company or corporation;

Cf. No. 15 of 1942, s. 2 (b).

“owner” used in relation to a place includes a person who, or company or other corporation which, is, whether at law or in equity, entitled to the place and also includes the attorney, agent or manager having control or supervision of the place for that person, company, or corporation, or who, on his or its behalf, receives the rent or is authorised to issue receipts for the rent;

Cf. No. 15 of 1942, s. 2 (c).

“place” means a building, erection, structure, house, office, room, tent, vessel, vehicle, premises, land whether enclosed or otherwise or part of any of them, and includes any other place or part of a place whether of the same kind as, or a different kind from, places specified in this interpretation;

“possession” includes having under control in any place whatever whether for the use or benefit of the person of whom the term is used or of another person, and

notwithstanding that another person has the actual possession or custody of the thing in question;

“public place” means any place, used, or available for use, by the public, and includes a road, street, lane, footpath, thoroughfare, cul de sac, doorway, convenience, reserve, or part of any of them, and any other place or part of a place used, or available for use, by the public whether of the same kind as or a different kind from, those specified in this interpretation or the interpretation of the expression, place;

“race” means a race of any kind by horses whether ridden or driven or by greyhounds;

“registered premises” means a building or parcel of land or part of a building or parcel of land approved by the Board to be used for the purpose of betting and registered under this Act as such;

Cf. Crim
Code, s. 211.

“to bet” means to pay or deliver, or promise or agree to pay or deliver, or to receive or agree or promise to receive, any money or other property for the consideration for—

(a) an assurance, undertaking, promise, or agreement, express or implied, to pay or give thereafter any money or other property on any event or contingency of or relating to any race; or

(b) securing the paying or giving by some other person of any money or other property on any such event or contingency, and primitives, derivatives and inflections of the expression, to bet, have correlative meanings;

“vessel” means every description of vessel used in navigation;

“vehicle” means every description of vehicle whether stationary or in motion.

5. (1) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, persons may, in accordance with this Act, lawfully bet by way of wagering or gaming on races—

(a) on a race course during the holding at the race course of a race meeting; or

(b) at or in registered premises, and their so doing does not of itself constitute a contravention of the law, and is not a ground for the race course or any part of it or the registered premises being deemed or declared to be, or to be used as, a common betting house or a common gaming house, or to be a common nuisance and contrary to the law.

(1a) At the premises situate in the City of Perth and known as “Tattersalls Club”, and at such other premises as may be prescribed, subject to the Board after consultation with the Commissioner being satisfied that adequate provision is made and maintained for the supervision of the proceedings and that all bets there made are brought to account the Board may, by notice published in the Gazette, authorise—

(a) the settlement of bets; and

(b) the practice known as “the calling of the card”, and the making of bets in relation thereto, on such occasions and events as are specified in the notice, and notwithstanding any law to the contrary the activities authorised by such a notice when carried out in compliance with such conditions, if any, as are specified in that notice shall be lawful.

(2) No bet or transaction arising out of or in connection with a bet shall be enforceable at law.

Legalisation of betting with bookmakers.
Amended by No. 49 of 1960, s. 5; No. 28 of 1963, s. 2; No. 77 of 1976, s. 6; No. 78 of 1978, s. 3.
Cf. s.11 (4) (a) and s. 10 post.

Betting Control.

(2a) Subject to subsection (2b) of this section, no bet on a horse or greyhound in a race shall be made with or accepted by a bookmaker who holds a license to carry on the business of a bookmaker at registered premises, or with his employee, unless—

- (a) it is made and accepted at odds in respect of the horse or greyhound as determined after the race is run by the totalisator established on the race course where the race was run; or
- (b) where the bet is made on a horse or greyhound in a race on which the Board conducts a totalisator pool in accordance with the Totalisator Agency Board Betting Act, 1960, the bet is made and accepted at odds in respect of the horse or greyhound as determined after the race is run by the Board under that Act.

(2b) (a) If the odds in relation to a bet to which subsection (2a) of this section applies are, as determined in accordance with that subsection, in excess of the prescribed odds for that bet, the bookmaker who has made or accepted the bet is required to pay the bet at the prescribed odds only.

(b) For the purposes of this subsection, “prescribed odds” in relation to a bet means odds of—

- (i) fifty to one for a bet for a win and twelve to one for a bet for a place in respect of a horse or greyhound in a race run on a race course outside the State and on a race course in the Metropolitan Area of the State; and
- (ii) thirty-three to one for a bet for a win and eight to one for a bet for a place in respect of a horse or greyhound in a race run on a race course in the State but outside of the Metropolitan Area of the State.

(c) For the purposes of this subsection the “Metropolitan Area of the State” shall comprise such area as is prescribed.

(3) No person shall be prosecuted or convicted, or is liable to prosecution or conviction, or subject to penal consequences under the provisions of The Criminal Code, 1913, or of the Police Act, 1892, by reason of anything done by him under and in accordance with the provisions of this Act, but subject to this Act, the provisions of that Code and of that Act, relating to common gaming houses and common betting houses, or unlawful betting, are of full force and effect, and as affected by this Act, that Code and that Act are amended, and may be cited, in accordance with the Schedule to this Act.

Exclusion of provisions of Criminal Code and Police Act.

Schedule.

[Former s. 6 repealed by No. 49 of 1960, s. 6.]

6. (1) On and after the date fixed for the coming into operation of the Betting Control Act Amendment Act, 1976 there shall be a Betting Control Board established in accordance with the succeeding provisions of this Act in place of the Board existing immediately prior to that date.

Betting Control Board.
Added by No. 77 of 1976, s. 7.

(2) The Board shall consist of two ex officio members, namely—

- (a) the chairman for the time being of the Totalisator Agency Board who shall also be chairman of the Board; and
- (b) the person for the time being holding the office of manager of the Totalisator Agency Board who shall also be deputy chairman of the Board, and of three members appointed by the Minister, of whom—

- (c) one shall be a person nominated for appointment by The Western Australian Turf Club;
- (d) one shall be a person nominated for appointment by the Western Australian Trotting Association; and
- (e) one shall be a person nominated for appointment by the Greyhound Racing Control Board.

Betting Control.

(3) Subject to this Act, the appointed members of the Board shall hold office for such terms not exceeding three years as are specified in the respective instruments of their appointment, but shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(4) The Minister may—

- (a) appoint officers of the Totalisator Agency Board to be deputies of the members referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (2) of this section;
- (b) appoint a person nominated by The Western Australian Turf Club to be the deputy of the member referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section;
- (c) appoint a person nominated by the Western Australian Trotting Association to be the deputy of the member referred to in paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of this section; and
- (d) appoint a person nominated by the Greyhound Racing Control Board to be the deputy of the member referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (2) of this section, and at any meeting of the Board at which a member is not present, the deputy of the member may exercise all the powers and functions of the member.

(5) Prior to the first appointment of members and deputies of the Board and from time to time thereafter whenever the office of an appointed member or deputy becomes vacant, the Minister shall in writing request each of the bodies which is to nominate a member or deputy member for appointment to nominate a person or persons for appointment, and the body shall, within fourteen days of receiving the request from the Minister, nominate in writing the person it wishes to be appointed a member or deputy, as the case requires.

(6) Where a body fails to nominate a person for appointment as member or deputy of the Board within the time provided by subsection (5) of this section, the Minister may appoint such person as he thinks fit to be a member or deputy of the Board, as the case requires, and that appointment shall be as valid and effectual for the purposes of this Act as if the person appointed had been nominated for appointment in accordance with subsection (5) of this section.

(7) The appointed members of the Board and the deputies of those members may be paid such fees and allowances as are from time to time determined by the Governor.

6A. (1) The office of an appointed member of the Board shall become vacant if—

Vacancies, etc.
Added by No. 77
of 1976, s. 8.

- (a) he is absent, except with leave of the Minister, from four consecutive meetings of the Board;
- (b) he resigns his office by writing under his hand served on the Minister;
- (c) the body by which he was nominated for appointment requests the Minister in writing to terminate his appointment; or
- (d) he dies, and the Minister shall appoint another person nominated for appointment by the appropriate body to that office to hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the person in whose place he is appointed.

(2) The provisions of subsection (3) of section six, and paragraphs (b), (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section apply to and in relation to the deputies of appointed members of the Board as if they were appointed members of the Board.

6B. (1) The Board shall hold such meetings as are necessary for the purposes of discharging its functions under this Act.

Meetings of the Board.
Added by No. 77
of 1976, s. 9.

(2) The chairman may at any time convene a meeting of the Board.

(3) At any meeting of the Board—

- (a) the chairman shall preside, and if the chairman is not present the deputy chairman shall preside, but if neither the chairman nor the deputy chairman is present, the members present at the meeting shall appoint one of their number to preside thereat;
- (b) three members form a quorum;
- (c) all questions arising at the meeting shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present;
- (d) each member shall be entitled to one vote; and
- (e) in the event of an equality of votes the question shall be determined in the negative.

(4) Subject to this Act the Board may regulate its procedure in such manner as it thinks fit, but shall cause minutes to be kept of its proceedings and shall, when so requested by the Minister, furnish to the Minister minutes of its proceedings at any meeting.

(5) The powers of the Board are not affected by any vacancy in the membership of the Board, and if a quorum is present all acts and proceedings of the Board are valid and effectual, notwithstanding the vacancy.

(6) All acts and proceedings of the Board are, notwithstanding any defect in the appointment of any member of the Board or deputy thereof, or that any such member or deputy was disqualified or not entitled to act, as valid as if the member or the deputy had been duly appointed and was qualified to act, and had acted, as a member or deputy, and as if the Board has been duly and fully constituted.

Members of Board, etc. not personally liable. Added by No. 77 of 1976, s. 10.

6C. A person who is or has been a member of the Board, a deputy of such a member, or a Secretary of the Board shall not be personally liable for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith in or in connection with the exercise or purported exercise of any power conferred, or the carrying out of any duty imposed, by, or arising under this Act.

7. For the purposes of this Act, the Governor may appoint under the Public Service Act, 1978, such persons as officers of the Board as he considers necessary.

Officers of Board.
Amended by No. 49 of 1960, s. 7.

[Former s. 8. repealed by No. 49 of 1960, s. 8.]

8. The person for the time being holding or performing the duties of the office of Secretary of the Totalisator Agency Board shall be the Secretary to the Board established under this Act.

Secretary to Board.
Added by No. 77 of 1976, s. 11.

9. The expenses of the administration of this Act are payable out of such money as Parliament appropriates for the purpose.

Expenses of administration of this Act are payable out of money appropriated by Parliament.

10. The Board shall prepare and submit to the Minister, not later than the thirtieth day of September in each calendar year, a report on the exercise and performance by the Board of its powers, functions, and duties under this Act during the twelve months ended on the preceding thirty-first day of July. A copy of such report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Annual Report.

11. (1) Applications for licenses may be made to the Board, which may grant or refuse an application for a license.

Applications for, and discretion of Board to grant, licenses.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act, licenses are current and operative during the licensing year for which they are issued, or for the unexpired portion thereof, as the case may be, and expire on the thirty-first day of July in each year, but no license shall be transferable or pass to the personal representative of a deceased licensee.

Amended by No. 66 of 1960, s. 2; No. 77 of 1976, s. 12; No. 78 of 1978, s. 4.

(3) When the unexpired portion of the licensing year does not exceed six months, the Commissioner may, if he deems fit, charge for a license issued for that unexpired portion, one-half only of the prescribed fee for the whole licensing year.

Currency of licenses.

Effect of licenses.

Cf. s. 5 (1) (a)
ante and s. 10 post.

(4) A bookmaker's license, during the period of its currency, and subject to, and in accordance with, the provisions of this Act and the license, entitles the holder to carry on the business of a bookmaker either—

- (a) in person upon a race course if he holds a permit to do so from the committee or other authority controlling the race course;
- (b) in person or subject to subsection (8) of this section by his employee at registered premises specified in the license; or
- (c) in person at a place, upon an occasion and in respect of an event authorised pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1a) of section five of this Act.

Disqualification from obtaining license.

(5) The Board shall not grant a license—

- (a) to a person who holds, or to a person who is employed in any capacity by one who holds, a licence for the sale of liquor under the Liquor Act, 1970, except (in the case of a license under this Act entitling the holder to carry on the business of a bookmaker as mentioned in paragraph (a) of subsection (4) of this section) in the case of a wholesale licence or a store licence which is located in areas of the State other than the South-West Land Division;
- (b) to a person under the age of twenty-one years;
- (c) to a body corporate;
- (d) to an undischarged bankrupt.

(6) A person making application for a license on his own behalf shall state the fact in the application.

(7) (a) A person making application for a license on behalf of another person shall state the fact and such particulars relating to that other person as are prescribed by the regulations or required by the Board.

(b) In this subsection person means an individual person and does not include more persons than one in respect of one license or a body corporate.

(8) A bookmaker shall not be absent from the registered premises in respect of which he holds a license while the premises are open for business on more than twenty-eight days in any one year without written permission of the Board, nor permit the business of bookmaker to be carried out on the premises in the absence of the bookmaker unless by a licensed employee on his behalf.

12. (1) Nothing in this Act authorises a bookmaker, to bet or carry on business as such on a race course without first having obtained a permit to do so from the committee or other authority controlling it.

Permits required to bet on race courses, etc.
Amended by No. 77 of 1976, s. 13.

(2) Subject to this section, the committee or other authority may grant permits to do so subject to such conditions as the committee or other authority thinks fit, but to such persons only as are bookmakers holding current and operative licenses.

(2a) The committee or other authority controlling a race course at which a race meeting for ridden horses is being held shall not permit a bookmaker to bet on races of driven horses or of greyhounds being conducted at any other race course, except where the Board, being satisfied that special circumstances exist which warrant its so doing, has authorised the committee or other authority to permit bookmakers so to bet at that race meeting.

(2b) The committee or other authority controlling a race course at which a race meeting for driven horses is being held shall not permit a bookmaker to bet on races of ridden horses or of greyhounds being conducted at any other race course, except where the Board, being satisfied that special circumstances exist which warrant its so doing, has authorised the committee or other authority to permit bookmakers so to bet at that race meeting.

(2c) The committee or other authority controlling a race course at which a race meeting for greyhounds is being held shall not permit a bookmaker to bet on races of ridden or driven horses being conducted at any other race course, except where the Board, being satisfied that special circumstances exist which warrant its so doing, has authorised the committee or other authority to permit bookmakers so to bet at that race meeting.

Cf. s. 5 (1) (a)
and s. 11 (4) (a) ante.

(3) No bookmaker shall bet or carry on business as such on a race course, except on such parts of it as are specially set apart for that purpose by the committee or other authority controlling it, and then only during the holding of a race meeting at the race course.

Registration of premises.
Amended by No.
73 of 1960, s. 9;
No. 113 of 1965,
s. 8.

13. (1) The Board may, in accordance with the regulations register such number of suitable premises as the Board considers is commensurate with the reasonable requirements of the public and the general interest of the community, as premises in which betting may be carried on by bookmakers in accordance with this Act and their licenses.

(2) (a) In exercise, but without prejudicing the generality, of the power conferred by this section the Board—

- (i) may register premises in which a particular bookmaker may so carry on business;
- (ii) may register premises in which more bookmakers than one may so carry on business.

(b) Where premises are registered as premises in which a particular bookmaker may so carry on business, it is by virtue of this paragraph a condition of the registration and of his license, whether it is or is not expressly mentioned in the registration or license, that the bookmaker shall not directly or indirectly carry on business as a bookmaker elsewhere in the State than—

- (i) at or in those premises; or
- (ii) at or in premises registered as those in which more bookmakers than one may so carry on business.

(c) A bookmaker who is convicted of an offence against the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection is liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars, or imprisonment for six months, and the Board shall in any case permanently suspend the license of the bookmaker so convicted and shall permanently disqualify him from obtaining a license under this Act.

(d) The power to register premises in which more bookmakers than one may so carry on business, includes power to register portion of club premises if the portion is specially set apart to the satisfaction of the Board for the purpose of betting in accordance with this Act and the terms and conditions of the registration.

(e) Where portion of club premises is so registered, betting, or permitting betting, in accordance with this Act, at or in the portion so registered does not constitute an offence under this or any other Act.

(3) The registration of premises under this Act is not effective until the Board has published a notice of the registration in the Gazette.

(4) Upon and after the publication of the notice of the registration of the premises, a licensed bookmaker may lawfully carry on the business of bookmaking in the premises in accordance with this Act and the terms and conditions of the bookmaker's license so long as the registration remains in force, during such hours as are specified in the registration, but not on Good Friday, Christmas Day, or on any Sunday, or before the hour of one o'clock in the afternoon on Anzac Day.

(5) Members of the Board and the Commissioner, and persons authorised by the Board or the Commissioner, have at all times access to and authority to inspect race courses, and registered premises, and a person refusing to admit or otherwise hindering, delaying, or obstructing a member of the Board or a person so authorised, commits an offence.

Board and Commissioner to have access to race courses and registered
premises.

Penalty: One hundred dollars.

(6) If the Board is satisfied that any of the provisions of this Act relating to registered premises or a term or condition of registration of premises has not been observed, the Board may, as an administrative act, cancel the registration of the premises by notice in the Gazette, and upon the day of the publication, the registration ceases to be effective.

14. (1) In this section—

“off-course turnover” means the amounts of money paid or promised as the consideration for bets which are made by a bookmaker or his employee on his behalf, and which are referred to in section sixteen of this Act, whether the bets are made by or on behalf of the bookmaker as a party to the bet, or whether the bets are negotiated by or on behalf of the bookmaker as agent for any other person, but does not include any money promised or paid by the bookmaker as the consideration for a bet made by him on his own behalf in the capacity of a backer but not in the capacity of bookmaker:

Provided, however, that the Commissioner shall have an absolute discretion to decide what is and what is not a bet made by a bookmaker on his own behalf in the capacity of a backer but not in the capacity of bookmaker;

“on-course turnover” means the amounts of money paid or promised as the consideration for bets which are made by a bookmaker, and which are referred to in section fifteen of this Act, whether the bets are made by the bookmaker as a party to the bet, or whether the bets are negotiated by the bookmaker as agent for another person but does not include any money promised or paid by the bookmaker as the consideration for a bet made by him on his own behalf in the capacity of a backer but not in the capacity of bookmaker:

Provided however, that the Commissioner shall have an absolute discretion to decide what is and what is not a bet made by a bookmaker on his own behalf in the capacity of a backer but not in the capacity of bookmaker;

Bookmakers' liability to pay bookmakers betting tax. Substituted by No. 50 of 1956, s. 2.

Amended by No. 76 of 1959, s. 3; No. 113 of 1965, s. 8.

“proclaimed day” means a day to be fixed by proclamation for the purposes of this section;

“tax” means bookmakers’ betting tax imposed by the taxing Act;

“taxing Act” means the Bookmakers Betting Tax Act, 1954. Cf No. 30 of 1918, s. 14.

(2) A bookmaker shall, in accordance with the provisions of this Act—

(a) make true and full returns of his off-course turnover or on-course turnover;

(b) pay tax on the whole of that turnover, whether off-course or on-course, to but excluding the proclaimed day, at the rate imposed by paragraph (a) of section two of the taxing Act; Tax on all turnover to proclaimed day.

(3) The provisions of this section do not authorise a holder of any license under this Act to act as agent contrary to any condition of his license or to any provision of this Act.

Cf. s. 4 ante, "to bet".

15. (1) Where a bookmaker with permission of a racing club conducting a race meeting bets in person as a bookmaker at the meeting, the provisions of this section apply.

Payment of tax by bookmakers on bets made at race meetings. Amended by No. 50 of 1956, s. 3; No. 75 of 1970, s. 3; No. 77 of 1976, s. 14.

(2) The bookmaker shall cause to be recorded in duplicate in the form approved by the Commissioner signed by the bookmaker and in such manner that the original and duplicate are clearly legible and the duplicate is an exact copy of the original, particulars of his bets made at the meeting in respect of—

- (a) each race held or to be held at the meeting; and
- (b) each race held or to be held elsewhere.

(3) The bookmaker shall cause to be delivered to a person authorised by the racing club to receive it on behalf of the club conducting the race meeting, the duplicate record of the particulars of the bookmaker's bets in respect of—

Betting Control.

- (a) each race held at the meeting, at the conclusion of the race; and
  - (b) each race held or to be held elsewhere than at the meeting, at the conclusion of the meeting.
- (4) The bookmaker shall cause to be delivered to the racing club within seven days of the race meeting—
- (a) a return in the form approved by the Commissioner signed by the bookmaker and showing the amount of money paid or promised to the bookmaker as the consideration for bets made at the meeting by him in the capacity of bookmaker, and showing the sum payable on that amount as bookmakers' betting tax; and
  - (b) payment of that sum of bookmakers' betting tax.
- (5) The racing club receiving that sum of bookmakers' betting tax from the bookmaker—
- (a) shall, prior to a day' to be fixed by proclamation for the purposes of this section, retain twenty per centum of that sum, and after the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and seventy shall retain fifty per centum of that sum and apply one-half of the amount retained towards increasing stakes, and apply the remaining half to such purposes as the club thinks fit;
  - (b) shall within such time of receiving that sum from the bookmaker, as the Commissioner appoints and is hereby authorised to appoint from time to time, either generally or for a particular case, remit the balance of that sum to the Commissioner, and supply to the Commissioner such particulars as the Commissioner requisitions and is hereby authorised to requisition.

(6) If the racing club does not remit that balance to the Commissioner by the appointed time, the Commissioner may, without prejudicing the liability of the club to penalty under this Act, sue the club in a court of competent jurisdiction for recovery of the amount of that balance as a debt due.

(7) The racing club shall preserve and retain possession of returns and duplicates of records delivered under this section to it by bookmakers, until the Commissioner consents to destruction of the returns and duplicates.

16. (1) When in the capacity of bookmaker, a bookmaker or his employee on his behalf makes bets at registered premises, or in circumstances authorised pursuant to subsection (1a) of section five of this Act, on races wherever held or to be held, the provisions of this section apply.

Payment of tax by bookmakers on bets made at registered premises.

Amended by No. 50 of 1956, s. 4; No. 49 of 1960, s. 9; No. 77 of 1976, s. 15; No. 78 of 1978, s. 5.

(2) The bookmaker shall cause to be recorded in duplicate in form approved by the Commissioner signed by the bookmaker and in such manner that the original and duplicate are clearly legible and the duplicate is an exact copy of the original, particulars of bets made by the bookmaker himself or by his employee on his behalf in respect of—

- (a) races of ridden horses held or to be held in this State;
- (b) races of driven horses held or to be held in this State;
- (c) races of horses whether ridden or driven, held or to be held elsewhere than in this State;
- (d) races of greyhounds held or to be held within this State; and
- (e) races of greyhounds held or to be held elsewhere than in this State.

(3) The bookmaker shall cause to be delivered to the Commissioner at such times as the Commissioner appoints and is hereby authorised to appoint from time to time either generally or for a particular case—

Betting Control.

- (a) duplicate recordings of bets mentioned in subsection (2) of this section made during such period as the Commissioner determines and is hereby authorised to determine from time to time, either generally or for a particular case;

Effect on liability for payment of tax where racing authority declares bets off, etc.

17. Where a bookmaker or his employee on his behalf has made a bet on a race and has included the bet in a record or return as required under this Act, if it appears to the Commissioner that because of a decision of a competent authority controlling the race or betting in respect of the race, the bookmaker is not entitled to receive or retain the whole or part of the consideration for the bet, the Commissioner shall exempt the bookmaker from payment of bookmakers' betting tax on the whole or part as the case may be, of that consideration, and if the bookmaker has already paid the tax, the Commissioner shall refund it to the bookmaker on demand.

Omissions of bets from records or returns does not affect liability for tax or penalty.

18. The omission from a record required to be made or from a return required to be delivered under this Act by a bookmaker, of a bet made by the bookmaker or by his employee on his behalf, does not relieve the bookmaker from liability for bookmakers' betting tax payable on the consideration for the bet or from penalty under this Act.

19. Where a bookmaker does not pay bookmakers' betting tax payable under this Act by the bookmaker, whether payable to the Commissioner or to a racing club, the Commissioner may, without prejudicing the liability of the bookmaker to penalty under this Act, sue the bookmaker for the amount of the tax unpaid in a court of competent jurisdiction.

Commissioner may sue bookmakers for unpaid tax.

20. (1) Officers authorised in writing by the Commissioner to do so, whether generally or for a particular case, may on producing the written authorisation—

Penalty: For a first offence, ten dollars; for a subsequent offence, fifty dollars.

25. (1) Upon proof being given to the satisfaction of any two Justices of the Peace that any person by excessive betting is likely to impoverish himself to such a degree as to expose himself or his family to want, such justices may order that no bookmaker shall bet with such person for not exceeding the space of one year.

Bookmakers may be ordered not to bet.
Amended by No. 113 of 1965, s. 8; No. 78 of 1978, s. 6.

(2) Any two Justices of the Peace may in like manner renew such order from time to time as to all such persons as have not in their opinion reformed.

(3) No bookmaker after notice of such prohibition shall bet with the person named therein.

Penalty: Fifty dollars.

(4) No person so prohibited as aforesaid shall loiter about or enter any registered premises or race course for the purpose of betting.

Penalty: Ten dollars.

(5) An order made under this section may be revoked by any two Justices of the Peace.

(6) All proceedings under subsection (1) or subsection (2) of this section shall be heard in camera.

28. (1) A Court recording a conviction of a charge of an offence against this Act, shall order that betting material found and produced in evidence at the hearing of the charge be destroyed, and that money found on or in a place used for betting contrary to the provisions of this Act be forfeited to the Crown.

(2) Where money is found in the possession of an offender convicted of betting, contrary to this Act, and is proved to have been received in connection with that betting, the Court shall order that the money be forfeited to the Crown.

Search warrant. Added by No. 14 of 1961, s. 2.

28A. (1) If it appears to a justice on complaint made on oath before him that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that unlawful betting is or is about to be carried on in or upon any place or public place he may give to any member of the Police Force a warrant in the form of the Second Schedule to this Act.

Cf. s. 25 No. 30 of 1918.

(2) A warrant so given authorises the member of the Police Force therein named, with such assistance as may be necessary,—

- (a) to enter into and upon and search the place or public place named in the warrant at any time during the day or night and to open and break open if necessary and search all things found therein or thereupon;
- (b) to use force if necessary in making entry whether by breaking open doors or otherwise;
- (c) to search all persons found therein or thereupon;
- (d) to arrest and bring before a stipendiary magistrate or two justices all persons found therein or thereupon;
- (e) to seize all betting material and money found therein or thereupon or upon the persons referred to in paragraph (c) of this subsection that may reasonably be supposed to have been used or designed for use in connection with or in relation to such suspected unlawful betting; and
- (f) to detain all such betting material and money until it is dealt with in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-eight of this Act.

(3) In this section “unlawful betting” means any contravention of or failure to observe any provision of section twenty-three or twenty-seven of this Act.

“Unlawful betting”.

(4) No female person shall be searched under authority of a warrant given pursuant to this section, except by a female member of the Police Force and in the presence of female persons only.

Search of female persons.

28B. If, on the hearing of any complaint for an offence against section twenty-three or twenty-seven of this Act, the Court is of opinion that any betting material or money that has to its satisfaction been proved to have been found in any place or public place wherein it was suspected that unlawful betting was carried on and entered under a warrant given under section twenty-eight A of this Act and to have been so found in circumstances that in the mind of the Court raises a reasonable suspicion that the betting material or money was used or designed for use in contravention of the purposes and provisions of the first mentioned sections or either of them, such finding shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the commission by the accused person of the offence charged against him in the complaint.

Added by No. 14 of 1961, s. 2.

Minimum penalties.

29. Where by or under this Act a penalty is prescribed for an offence, but no minimum penalty is prescribed for the offence, the minimum penalty is one-fifth of that prescribed and is irreducible in mitigation, notwithstanding the provisions of section one hundred and sixty-six of the Justices Act, 1902, or those of sections nineteen and six hundred and sixty-nine of The Criminal Code, 1913, or another Act.

General penalty.
Amended by No. 113 of 1965, s. 8.

30. A person who omits to do anything directed to be done or does or attempts to do anything forbidden to be done by or under this Act commits an offence against this Act and is liable to the penalty expressly provided for the offence, but if no penalty is expressly provided for the offence, he is liable—

- (a) if the offence is a continuing offence, to a penalty of a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and in addition to a penalty of a sum not exceeding two dollars for each day the offence continues; or
- (b) if the offence is not a continuing offence, to a penalty not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Bookmaker liable for offences of agent.
Amended by No. 78 of 1978, s. 8.

31. (1) Where an employee of a bookmaker by act or omission related to the business of the bookmaker as such commits an offence against this Act, the bookmaker and the employee are severally liable in respect of the offence.

(2) That there is no proof—

- (a) that the bookmaker had knowledge of, or relating to, the act or omission of the employee; or

- (b) that it was the intention of the bookmaker that the employee should do the act or make the omission, is not a defence available to the bookmaker.

31A. (1) A member of the Police Force who, and a person who, at the request of such a member, makes a bet is deemed not to be an accomplice and is not guilty of an offence where a complaint arising out of the making of that bet is made against another person; and the evidence of the member of the Police Force or the person who made the bet at his request is deemed, on the hearing of the complaint, not to be the evidence of an accomplice.

Certain persons not accomplices and evidence of accomplices. Added by No. 66 of 1970, s. 4.

(2) In any proceedings against a person for an offence against this Act, an act, admission or statement of an employee or agent of that person is admissible as evidence, whether it is done, made or given in the presence of that person or not.

32. Where there is a question or dispute as to whether a bet has been made or as to the amount payable in respect of a bet, the Board may, as an administrative act, decide the question or dispute, and the decision of the Board is final.

Settlement of disputes relating to bets.

33. The Governor may make regulations for giving effect to the operation of this Act, and without affecting the generality of the foregoing may by the regulations—
