Impeaching Credit of Witnesses.

How far a party may discredit his own witness.
See 34 Vict., No. 5, s. 3.

20. A party producing a witness shall not be allowed to impeach his credit by general evidence of bad character, but may contradict him by other evidence, if in the opinion of the Judge he is hostile to the party producing him.

Cross-examination as to previous statement in writing or deposition.
Amended by No. 16 of 1913, s. 3.
See 34 Vict., No. 5, s. 5.

21. Every witness under cross-examination in any proceeding, civil or criminal, may be asked whether he has made any former statement relative to the subject-matter of the proceeding, and inconsistent with his present testimony, the circumstances of the supposed statement being referred to sufficiently to designate the particular occasion, and if he does not distinctly admit that he made such statement, proof may be given that he did in fact make it.

The same course may be taken with a witness upon his examination in chief or re-examination, if the Judge is of opinion that the witness is hostile to the party by whom he was called and permits the question.

Proof of contradictory statements of witness.
See 34 Vict., No. 5, ss. 3 and 4.

22. A witness under cross-examination, or a witness whom the Judge, under the provisions of the last preceding section, has permitted to be examined by the party who called him as to previous statements inconsistent with his present testimony, may be questioned as to—

- (a) a previous statement made or supposed to have been made by him in writing or reduced into writing, or
- (b) evidence given or supposed to have been given by him before any justice, without such writing or the deposition of such witness being shown to him :

But if it is intended to contradict him by such writing or deposition, his attention must, before such contradictory proof can be given, be called to those parts of the writing or deposition which are to be used for the purpose of so contradicting him :

Provided that the Judge may, at any time during the trial, require the writing or deposition to be produced for his inspection, and may thereupon make use of it for the purposes of the trial as he thinks fit.

23. (1) A witness may be questioned as to whether he has been convicted of any indictable offence, and, upon being so questioned, if he either denies or does not admit the fact, or refuses to answer, the cross-examining party may prove such conviction.

Proof of previous conviction of witness.

See 34 Vict., No. 5, s. 6.

(2) A certificate containing the substance and effect only (omitting formal parts) of the conviction for such offence, purporting to be signed by the clerk of the Court or other officer having the custody of the records of the Court where the offender was convicted, shall upon proof of the identity of the person, be sufficient evidence of such conviction without proof of the signature or official character of the person appearing to have signed the same.

(3) A fee of fifty cents, and no more, shall be payable for such certificate.

Protection of Witnesses.

24. Except as hereinbefore provided, nothing in this Act shall render any person compellable to answer any question tending to criminate himself.

Questions tending to criminate.
16 Vict., No. 9, s. 3.

25. (1) If any question put to a witness upon cross-examination relates to a matter not relevant to the proceeding, except in so far as it affects the credit of the witness by injuring his character, it shall be the duty of the Court to decide whether or not the witness shall be compelled to answer it, and the Court may, if it thinks fit, inform the witness that he is not obliged to answer it.

Cross examination as to credit.
Indian Ev. Act. (No. 1 of 1872), s. 148.

(2) In exercising this discretion, the Court shall have regard to the following considerations:—

- (a) Such questions are proper if they are of such a nature that the truth of the imputation conveyed by them would seriously affect the opinion of the Court as to the credibility of the witness on the matter to which he testifies.

- (b) Such questions are improper if the imputation they convey relates to matters so remote in time, or of such character that the truth of the imputation would not affect, or would affect in a slight degree only, the opinion of the Court as to the credibility of the witness on the matter to which he testifies.
- (c) Such questions are improper if there is a great disproportion between the importance of the imputation made against the witness's character and the importance of his evidence.

(3) Nothing herein shall be deemed to make any witness compellable to give evidence upon any matter he is now by law privileged from disclosing.

Indecent or scandalous questions.
See Indian Ev.
Act (No. 1 of 1872) ss. 151,

(2) On the trial of a person charged with any such offence, it shall not be necessary to prove the stealing by the accused person of any specific sum of money, if, on examination of the books of account or entries kept or made by him, or kept or made in, under, or subject to his charge or supervision, or by any other evidence, there is proof of a general deficiency and if the jury are satisfied that the accused person stole the deficient money or any part of it.
