PART VII — PROVISIONS AS TO OFFENCES APPLICABLE ONLY WHERE NOT THE SUBJECT OF MUNICIPAL OR OTHER BY-LAW, ETC., ss.95-121.

PART VIII — MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS. ss.122-142.

[PART IX. Repealed by No. 15 of 1952 s.6.]

[Section 3 amended by No. 11 of 1928 s.2; No. 15 of 1952 s.5; No. 28 of 1953 s.3; No. 25 of 1954 s.3; No. 28 of 1964 s.3; No. 18 of 1975 s.2; No. 146 of 1976 s.3; No. 57 of 1981 s.23; No. 108 of 1982 s.3; No. 21 of 1983 s.4.]

PART I — AS TO THE APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS AND CONSTABLES OF THE POLICE FORCE

[4. Omitted under the Reprints Act 1984 s.7 (4) (e).]

Governor may appoint Commissioner of Police

5. The Governor may from time to time appoint a fit and proper person to be Commissioner of Police throughout the said State, and as occasion shall require may remove any Commissioner of Police and appoint another in his stead; and every Commissioner of Police shall be charged and vested with the general control and management of the Police Force of the said State, and also of any special constables who may be appointed as hereinafter provided.

Governor may appoint officers holding commissions

6. The Governor may appoint such officers of police as may be found necessary, who shall hold commissions under the hand of the Governor for such appointments; and such commissioned officers shall be subject to the control and discipline of the Commissioner of Police, and shall be respectively charged with the government and superintendence of such portion of the Police Force as such Commissioner may from time to time direct.

[Section 6 amended by No. 24 of 1969 s.2; No. 6 of 1978 s.2.]

Commissioner may appoint non-commissioned officers

7. (1) The Commissioner of Police may appoint so many non-commissioned officers and constables of different grades as he shall deem necessary for preservation of peace and order throughout the said State, subject, however, to the approval of the Governor; and such non-commissioned officers and constables shall have all such powers and privileges, and be liable to all such duties and obligations as any constable duly appointed now or hereafter may have, or be liable to, either by the common law, or by virtue of any statute law now or hereafter to be in force in the said State.

(2) The Minister, or a person authorized by him, may appoint persons to be police cadets who shall have such powers and privileges and be liable to such duties and obligations as may be prescribed, but shall not be members of the Police Force.

[Section 7 amended by No.6 of 1978 s.3.]

Removal of commissioned and non-commissioned officers

8. The Governor may, from time to time as he shall see fit, remove any commissioned officer of police, and upon any vacancy for a commissioned officer, by death, removal, disability, or otherwise, the Governor may appoint some other fit person to fill the same; and the Commissioner of Police may, from time to time, as he shall think fit, suspend and, subject to the approval of the Minister, remove any non-commissioned officer or constable; and in case of any vacancy in the Police Force by reason of the death, removal, disability or otherwise of any non-commissioned officer or constable, the Commissioner of Police may appoint another person to fill such vacancy.

[Section 8 amended by No. 24 of 1969 s.3.]

PART II — AS TO THE REGULATIONS, DUTIES AND DISCIPLINE OF THE POLICE FORCE

Commissioner may make regulations for general management and discipline of Police Force and of police cadets

9. The Commissioner of Police may, from time to time, with the approval of the Minister, frame rules, orders, and regulations for the general government of the members of the Police Force and of police cadets, as well with respect to their places of residence, their classification, grade, distribution, particular service, and inspection, as to the description of the arms, accoutrements, and other necessities to be furnished to them and all such other rules, orders, and regulations relative to the Police Force and cadets, and the control, management, and discipline thereof as may be necessary for rendering the same efficient for the discharge of the several duties thereof, and for the purpose of preventing neglect or abuse; and as the Minister considers necessary or desirable for establishing and conducting a Police Force Canteen.

[Section 9 amended by No. 40 of 1958 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.3; No. 6 of 1978 s.4.]

Engagement to be subscribed by officers and constables

10. No person shall be capable of holding any office, or appointment in the Police Force, or of acting in any way therein, until he shall have subscribed the following engagement, namely —

I, A.B., engage and promise that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lady the Queen, in the office of [Commissioner of Police, inspector, sub-inspector, or other officer, or constable, as the case may be], without favour or affection, malice, or illwill, until I am legally discharged; that I will see and cause Her Majesty's peace to be kept and preserved, and that I will prevent, to the best of my power, all offences against the same; and that, while I shall continue to hold the said office, I will, to the best of my skill and knowledge, discharge all the duties thereof faithfully according to law.

And the said engagement shall be subscribed in the presence of and attested by a Justice or commissioned officer of the force.

[Section 10 amended by No. 91 of 1975 s.4.]

Person subscribing engagement bound to serve as member of the Police Force

11. Every person, on subscribing such engagement, shall be thereby bound to serve Her Majesty as a member of the Police Force, at the current rate of pay for such member, and until legally discharged, from the day on which such engagement shall have been subscribed: Provided that no such engagement shall be set aside for the want of reciprocity: Provided further, that such engagement may be cancelled at any time by the lawful discharge, dismissal, or removal from office of any such person, or by the resignation of any such person being accepted by the Commissioner of Police.

Non-commissioned officer and constable not to resign without leave or notice

12. No non-commissioned officer or constable shall be at liberty to resign his office, or to withdraw himself from the duties thereof, notwithstanding the period of his engagement shall have expired, unless expressly authorized in writing to do so by the Commissioner of Police, or unless he shall have given to such Commissioner 3 calendar months' notice of his intention so to resign or withdraw, if stationed north of the 18th parallel of south latitude or one calendar month's notice if stationed elsewhere, and every member who shall so resign or withdraw himself without such leave or notice shall, upon conviction thereof by any 2 or more Justices, be liable to forfeit all arrears of pay then due to him, and to a penalty of not more than $50, or may be committed to prison for a period not exceeding 14 days.

[Section 12 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.4; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.5.]

Members of the force dismissed or ceasing to hold office to deliver up accoutrements, etc.

13. Every member of the Police Force, whether special or ordinary, having been dismissed from, or having ceased to hold his office, shall forthwith deliver to the Commissioner of Police, or to such person, and at such time and place, as the said Commissioner or a commissioned officer of the force may direct, all and every the clothing, arms, ammunition, and accoutrements, horses, saddles, bridles, appointments, and other property which have been supplied to him for the execution of his duty, or which may be in his custody by virtue of his office; and in default of such delivery shall, on conviction thereof by 2 or more Justices, be liable to a penalty not exceeding $100, in addition to the value of the property not so delivered, or to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for any time not exceeding one month; and any Justice may issue his warrant to search for and seize all and every the clothing, arms, ammunition, and accoutrements, horses, saddles, bridles, appointments, and property not so delivered, wherever the same may be found.

[Section 13 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.5; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.6.]

Officers and constables subject to duty in any part of the State, as if no Police District had been established

14. Notwithstanding the establishment of any Police District, all officers and constables belonging to the Police Force who may be stationed in any such district shall continue as part of such force and be subject to the same authority, and be liable, if required, to perform the same duty in any part of the said State or elsewhere, as if no such Police District had been established; and if any members of the Police Force be employed beyond the limits of the said State every member so employed shall be amenable to and obey in all respects the lawful commands of his superior officers, and shall be liable to the same penalties, forfeitures, and punishments, in all respects, for any offence against the discipline of the Police Force, in any service in which he may be so employed beyond the limits of the said State, in the same manner as if such offence against the discipline of the Police Force had been committed within the said State.

[Section 14 amended by No. 6 of 1978 s.5.]

Punishment for taking bribe

15. Any member of the Police Force who shall take any bribe, pecuniary, or otherwise, either directly or indirectly, to forego his duty, or who shall in any manner aid, abet, assist, or connive at the escape, or any attempt or preparation to escape, of any prisoner from lawful custody, or who shall desert his post, or assault his superior officer, shall for every such offence, without prejudice to any other penalties or punishment to which he shall by law be liable, upon conviction thereof before any 2 or more Justices, forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding $500, or may, either instead of or in addition to such forfeiture and payment, be imprisoned for a term not exceeding 6 months.

[Section 15 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.6; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.7.]

Penalty for personating or attempting to bribe etc., members of the force

16. (1) If any person, not being a member of the Police Force, shall have in his possession any arms or ammunition, or any article of clothing, accoutrements, or appointments supplied to any member of the Police Force and shall not be able satisfactorily to account for his possession thereof, or shall put on or assume the dress, name, designation, or description of any member of the Police Force, or shall pretend or assert that he is a member of such force, or shall give, or offer, or promise to give any bribe, recompense, or reward, or shall make any collusive agreement with any member of the Police Force to induce him to neglect his duty, or to conceal or connive at any act whereby any rule, order, or regulation relating to the Police Force in operation in the said State may be evaded, every person so offending shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable for such offence, forfeit for every such offence, on conviction thereof before any 2 or more Justices, a sum not exceeding $500 or may, either instead of or in addition to such forfeiture, be imprisoned for a term not exceeding 6 months.

(2) On the trial of a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) the averment in the complaint that he was not at some particular time a member of the Police Force is sufficient evidence of the fact until the contrary is proved.

(3) A person who, with the consent of the Commissioner, puts on or assumes the dress of any member of the Police Force in the course of his duties as a supervisor of a Police and Citizens' Youth Club or as a member of the Police Band does not thereby commit an offence against subsection (1).

[Section 16 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.7; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 24 of 1969 s.4; No. 91 of 1975 s.8; No. 71 of 1980 s.3.]

Penalty for unauthorized use of the word "detective."

16A. (1) Any person, not being either a member of the Police of this State or a member of the Police Force of the Commonwealth or of any other State of the Commonwealth temporarily residing in this State, who uses in any manner whatsoever the word "detective" as descriptive of the nature of his business, vocation, calling, or means of livelihood with a view to soliciting, procuring or obtaining the engagement or employment by other persons of his service as an inquiry agent or investigator in respect of matters in relation to which such other persons require information or evidence shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $500, or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.

(2) On the trial of a person charged with an offence under subsection (1) the averment in the complaint that he was not at some particular time either a member of the Police Force of this State or a member of the Police Force of the Commonwealth or any other State of the Commonwealth is sufficient evidence of the fact until the contrary is proved.

[Section 16A inserted by No. 5 of 1945 s.2; amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.8; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 24 of 1969 s.5; No. 91 of 1975 s.9.]

Repute to be evidence of appointment

17. If any question shall arise as to the right of the Commissioner of Police, or any other officer or member of the Police Force, to hold or execute his office, common reputation shall to all intents and purposes be deemed sufficient evidence of such right, and it shall not be necessary to have or produce any written appointment, or any oath, or other document or matter whatsoever, in proof of such right.

Penalty on persons harbouring constables during the hours of duty

18. Any person whosoever, who shall, by himself or his servant, permit any constable to be supplied with fermented or spirituous liquors when on duty, except during such time as such constable is travelling on duty, or who shall permit any constable to become drunk on his premises, and knowing him in every such case to be a member of the Police Force and any person who shall knowingly harbour or entertain any constable, or permit such constable to abide or remain in his premises during any part of the time appointed for such constable to be on duty elsewhere, on conviction thereof by any 2 or more Justices, shall, for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $100.

[Section 18 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.9; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.10.]

Interference with police

20. If any person shall disturb, hinder, or resist any member of the Police Force in the execution of his duty, or shall aid or incite any person thereto, every such offender, being convicted thereof before any 2 or more Justices, shall for every such offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $500; and also such further sum of money as shall appear to the convicting Justices to be a reasonable compensation for any damage or injury caused by such offender to the uniform, clothing, accoutrements, horse or vehicle of such member of the force, or of any medicine or other expenses incurred in consequence of personal injury sustained by him thereby, or may either instead of or in addition to such forfeiture and payment, be imprisoned for a term not exceeding 6 months.

[Section 20 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.10; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.12.]

Non-commissioned officers and constables to execute process for levying fines, forfeitures, etc.

21. Every non-commissioned officer and constable of the Police Force shall execute all process to him directed for levying the amount of any recognizance forfeited to Her Majesty, or of any fine imposed on any jurors, witnesses, parties, or persons, at any Court of Judicature, or any other fine imposed under any Act in force in the said State, and any process, or any other warrant or command of any Justice directed, delivered, or given to any such non-commissioned officer or constable, shall or may be executed and enforced by any other such officer or constable, or his assistants; and every such lastmentioned officer, constable, and his assistants, shall have all and every the same rights, powers, and authorities for and in the execution of such process, order, warrant, or command, as if the same had originally been directed to him or them expressly by name. And the amount of any recognizance so forfeited may, in addition to the manner prescribed by the 25th Vic., No. 5,² be levied by distress and sale of goods and chattels of the person bound thereby, and may be otherwise recovered and enforced as in case of an ordinary fine or penalty imposed by a Justice. And a breach of the condition of a recognizance may be proved before a Justice upon ex parte proof on oath thereof.

Police Constables to attend magistrates

22. The Commissioner or other commissioned officer of police in each magisterial district shall take care that a sufficient number of Police Constables shall be in attendance upon every Justice sitting as a court of petty sessions in the district for the purpose of executing such summonses and warrants as may be directed to them, and returning the same.

[Section 22 amended by No. 30 of 1983 s.3.]

Inquiries into misconduct and penalties

Disciplinary measures

23. (1) The Commissioner, or an officer appointed by the Commissioner for the purpose, may examine on oath any member of the Police Force and any police cadet upon a charge of an offence against the discipline of the Police Force being made against any member of the Force or cadet.

(2) Where the member of the Force against whom the charge is alleged is an officer, an examination under this section shall be conducted by an officer of the rank of Chief Superintendent or above.

(3) The Commissioner or officer conducting an examination under this section shall have the same power to summon and examine witnesses and to administer oaths as a Justice.

(4) Where the Commissioner or officer conducting an examination under this section determines as a result of that examination that any other member of the Police Force or any police cadet has committed an offence against the discipline of the

Police Act 1892

s. 23

Police Force, he shall record that determination in writing and, subject to the provisions of subsection (5), may thereupon caution such member or cadet or by order in writing impose on him one or more of the following punishments —

- (a) a reprimand;
- (b) a fine not exceeding $200;
- (c) reduction to a lower rank;
- (d) reduction in salary to a specified rate within the limits of salary fixed in relation to the rank held by him;
- (e) suspension from duty;
- (f) discharge or dismissal from the Force.

(5) An order made under subsection (4) for reduction in rank or salary, suspension from duty, discharge or for dismissal, shall not have effect unless or until —

- (a) in the case of a member who is not an officer, or of a cadet, it is imposed or confirmed by the Commissioner; or
- (b) in the case of an officer, it is confirmed by the Governor.

(6) An order made under subsection (4) which is subject to confirmation by the Governor shall not be submitted to the Governor for such confirmation unless or until —

- (a) the time within which an appeal to the Board against the punishment, decision or finding to which the order relates may be made under this Act has elapsed and no such appeal has been instituted; or

- (b) such an appeal to the Board has been instituted and has been determined by the Board in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(7) A fine imposed pursuant to this section may be recovered —

- (a) by deduction from the salary of the member or cadet on whom it is imposed; or
- (b) in like manner to a fine imposed by a Justice under this Act; or partly in the one way and partly in the other.

[26. Repealed by No. 25 of 1954 s.6.]

As to disposal of effects of non-commissioned officers or constables dying intestate

27. In case any non-commissioned officer or constable shall die intestate, the Commissioner of Police, or such other officer as the Governor may appoint, may cause the personal effects of the deceased to be disposed of by public auction, in such manner as to the Commissioner or other officer shall seem fit; and the proceeds of such sale, together with any balance of pay or other moneys due to the deceased, shall be applied in the first instance to defray the funeral expenses and debts of the deceased; and if after defraying such expenses and debts the sum remaining shall not exceed $100, it may be handled over by the said Commissioner or other officer to the widow or next of kin of the deceased resident in Western

s. 29

Australia, and the receipt of the person so entitled shall be sufficient discharge, although no letters of administration shall have been taken out; but if the widow or next of kin entitled as aforesaid be not resident in Western Australia or if the sum so remaining shall exceed $100, it shall be paid to the Public Trustee.

[Section 27 amended by No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.15.]

[28. Repealed by No.6 of 1978 s.8.]

Bankruptcy

29. If any member of the force becomes bankrupt, or by any deed or other writing compound with his creditors, or make an assignment of his salary or wages for their benefit, he shall be deemed to have forfeited his office.

Bankrupt may be reinstated

30. When any such member of the force has so forfeited his office, if he prove to the satisfaction of the Governor that such embarrassment has not been caused or attended by any fraud, extravagance, or dishonourable conduct, the Governor may reinstate such member of the force in his former position in the service.

Penalty on persons wrongfully obtaining admission into the force

31. Any person having been dismissed from the force who shall, by concealing the fact of such dismissal, or any person who shall by any false or forged certificates or any false representations, obtain admission into the force, or who by any such means shall receive any pay, gratuity, or pension, shall be liable, on conviction thereof before any 2 or more Justices, to a fine not exceeding $500, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or both.

[Section 31 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.11; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.16.]

Members of the force not to influence voters at elections

32. No member of the force shall in any manner influence any elector in giving his vote for the choice of any person to be a member to serve in the Legislative Council or Legislative Assembly; and if any person being a member of the force shall offend herein he shall forfeit a sum not less than 10 nor exceeding 200 dollars, to be recovered by any person who shall first sue for the same by action in a Local Court to be commenced within 6 months after commission of the offence; but nothing herein contained shall subject any member of the force to any penalty for any act done by him at or concerning any of the said elections in the discharge of his duty.

[Section 32 amended by No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Fines and penalties for misconduct payable to Treasurer

33. (1) All fines and penalties imposed on any member of the Police Force by virtue of this part of this Act shall be received, collected and recovered by the Commissioner of Police or other officer appointed by the Governor and, when so received, collected, and recovered shall be paid to the Treasurer of the State for the public uses of the State.

(2) This section shall have effect and operate and shall be deemed to have had effect and to have been in operation as from and after the 29 June 1939.

[Section 33 inserted by No. 19 of 1940 s.2.]

s. 33A

PART IIA — POLICE APPEAL BOARD

[PART IIA inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7.]

Interpretation

33A. In this Part unless the context requires otherwise —

“Board” means the Police Appeal Board constituted under this Part;

“Chairman” means the Chairman of the Board;

“Commissioner” means the person for the time being holding the office of Commissioner of Police;

“member” means a member of the Board.

[Section 33A inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7.]

Constitution of Board

33B. (1) A Police Appeal Board is constituted in accordance with this Part.

(2) The Board consists of 3 members —

- (a) a stipendiary magistrate appointed by the Governor and who shall be Chairman;
- (b) a person appointed by the Commissioner; and
- (c) a member of the Police Force elected by the members of the Police Force in manner prescribed.

(3) Each member of the Board is entitled to such allowances for out of pocket expenses as the Minister may determine.

[Section 33 inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7.]

Tenure of office

33C. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), every member shall hold office until 30 June in the second year after the year in which he was appointed or elected and at the expiration of his term is eligible for reappointment.

(2) If any member —

- (a) dies or resigns his office;
- (b) becomes incapable of continuing as a member;
- (c) is guilty of misbehaviour or of incapacity;
- (d) ceases to hold the required qualifications to be a member;
- (e) is required to carry out duties the location or nature of which in the opinion of the Minister make it inconvenient or undesirable that he continue as a member,

his office on the Board becomes vacant and a successor shall be appointed who shall hold office for the residue of the term for which his predecessor was appointed.

(3) (a) Where the office of the elective member becomes vacant or the person holding that office is for any reason temporarily unable to act in his office, the member of the Police Force who received the second highest number of votes at the last previous election held under this Part, shall be appointed by the executive of the Police Union of Workers of Western Australia to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term for which his predecessor was elected, or shall be so appointed to be acting member during the period of inability as the case may be.

(b) Where there is only one candidate at the election or if for any reason the person who received the second highest number of votes at the election is unable to act the executive of the union may appoint a member of the Police Force to fill the vacancy or be the acting member.

(4) Where the office of the Chairman or the member appointed by the Commissioner becomes vacant or the person holding the office is temporarily unable to act in his office, the Governor may appoint a stipendiary magistrate or the Commissioner may appoint a person as the case may require, to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term for which his predecessor was appointed or to be acting Chairman or member during the period of inability as the case may be.

[Section 33C inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7.]

Appointment of secretary

33D. The Minister shall appoint a person to be secretary to the Board, who shall convene all meetings of the Board, keep a record of all its proceedings and decisions and carry out such other duties as may be prescribed.

[Section 33D inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7.]

Right of appeal

33E. Where under the provisions of this Act a member of the Police Force or a police cadet has been convicted upon a summary investigation by the Commissioner or other officer appointed by the Commissioner, of an offence against the discipline of the Police Force, if that member or cadet is punished by the Commissioner or other officer as the case may be, by being discharged or dismissed from the Police Force, suspended from duty, reduced in rank, fined or transferred by way of punishment, he may appeal to the Board in accordance with the provisions of this Act against the punishment and against any decision or finding on which the punishment was based.

*[Section 33E inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7;
amended by No. 6 of 1978 s.9.]*

Institution of appeal

33F. (1) An appeal shall be instituted by a notice of appeal containing the matters prescribed given by the appellant to the secretary of the Board within 14 days from the date the punishment, decision or finding appealed against is given and the Board shall hear the appeal within 30 days from the date the notice of appeal is so lodged.

(2) The Chairman shall fix a time and place for the appeal and the secretary shall give the appellant and the Commissioner at least 7 days' notice of the time and place so fixed.

(3) Where the hearing of the appeal is not commenced within the period of 30 days as prescribed by subsection (1), the punishment, decision or finding appealed against is rescinded and the appellant shall be reimbursed from moneys appropriated by Parliament for the administration of this Act, any loss of salary or expenses he has incurred as a result of the punishment, decision or finding, but if the hearing of the appeal is commenced within the period of 30 days the Board may allow any adjournment it thinks fit.

[Section 33F inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7.]

Witnesses at and evidence taken on appeal

33G. (1) Upon the hearing of the appeal the Board may —

- (a) take evidence on oath or affirmation;
- (b) admit evidence taken at any summary investigation held under the provisions of sections 23 and 24 and at which the appellant was present and had an opportunity of hearing the evidence and of giving evidence;
- (c) admit as evidence any statement or document which in its opinion is relevant to the subject matter of the appeal.

s. 33G

(2) The Board may —

- (a) issue summonses under the hand of the Chairman or the secretary of the Board requiring any witnesses to attend before the Board and give evidence, or to produce to the Board any books, documents or writings in his possession or under his control, which are relevant to the subject matter of the appeal;
- (b) require any person before the Board to take an oath or affirmation and answer questions put to him by the Board or by or on behalf of any party to the appeal.

(3) A person who —

- (a) refuses or fails to comply with any requirement of a summons issued by the Board under this section and served on him;
- (b) refuses to take an oath or affirmation when required by the Board;
- (c) without lawful excuse refuses to answer a question which the Board requires him to answer;
- (d) wilfully interrupts the proceedings of the Board or in the course of the proceedings behaves offensively to the Chairman or a member,

is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $100.

(4) In any proceedings before the Board any party to the appeal may respectively be represented by his counsel, solicitor or agent duly appointed in writing for the purpose, who may examine and cross examine witnesses and address the Board.

*[Section 33G inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7;
amended by No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]*

Determination of appeal

33H. (1) (a) Upon an appeal the Board may confirm, modify or reverse any decision, finding or punishment appealed against or make such other order thereon which the Board deems just and the decision of the Board is final.

(b) The Board may fix the costs of any appeal and direct by whom and the proportions in which they are payable but in every case the Board shall award costs against an appellant whose appeal is considered by the Board to be trivial, frivolous or vexatious.

(c) Costs awarded against an appellant are recoverable in a court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the Crown.

(d) Costs awarded to an appellant shall be paid from moneys appropriated by Parliament for the purpose of the administration of this Act.

(2) The decision of any 2 members is the decision of the Board; but the deliberations of the Board and the individual views of a member except of his own volition shall not be disclosed or published.

[Section 33H inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7.]

Transmission of decision

33I. The Chairman shall forward to the Commissioner a copy, certified by the Chairman as correct, of the decision of the Board and the Commissioner shall give effect to the decision of the Board.

[Section 33I inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7.]

s. 33J

Regulations

33J. The Governor may make regulations prescribing any matters necessary or convenient to be prescribed for giving effect to this Part and without limiting the generality of this power, with respect to —

- (a) the nomination and election of members;
- (b) the mode of appealing and the practice and procedure on appeal; and
- (c) the duties to be performed by the secretary of the Board.

[Section 33J inserted by No. 25 of 1954 s.7.]

PART III — AS TO THE APPOINTMENT AND REGULATION OF SPECIAL CONSTABLES

Justices upon information on oath, or otherwise, that disturbances exist, or are apprehended, may appoint special constables

34. (1) In all cases where it shall be made to appear to any stipendiary magistrate or any 2 or more Justices, upon the oath of any credible person, that any tumult, riot, felony or civil emergency has taken place, or may be reasonably apprehended in any place in the said State, and any such magistrate or Justices shall be of opinion that the ordinary constables or officers appointed for preserving the peace are not sufficient for the preservation thereof, and for the protection of the inhabitants, and the security of the property of such place, or where, without such oath or evidence as aforesaid, any such magistrate or Justices shall be of opinion that the constables or officers aforesaid are not sufficient for the preservation, protection, or security as aforesaid, or for the apprehension of any offenders, it shall be lawful for any such magistrate or Justices to appoint, by precept in writing under his or their hand or hands so many as they may think fit of the persons (not legally exempt from serving the office of constable), residing in such place as aforesaid, to act as special constables for such time and in such manner as to the said magistrate or Justices shall seem fit and necessary for the public peace, and for the protection of the inhabitants, and the security of property in such place; and any Justice of the Peace is hereby authorized to cause every person so appointed to subscribe the following engagement —

I, A.B., engage and promise that I will well and truly serve Her Majesty The Queen in the office of special constable for the (city, town, or district of) _____ without favour or affection, malice, or ill-will, and that I will to the best of my power cause the peace to be kept and preserved, and prevent all offences against the persons and properties of Her Majesty's subjects, and that while I continue to hold the said office I will, to the best of my skill and knowledge, discharge all the duties thereof faithfully according to law.

s. 35

Provided always, that whenever it shall be deemed necessary to appoint such special constables as aforesaid, the notice of such appointments, and of the circumstances which have rendered such appointment necessary, shall be forthwith transmitted by the magistrate or Justices making such appointment to the Minister.

(2) In this section, “civil emergency” means a natural or man-made disaster which causes or threatens to cause loss of life or property or injury to persons or property or distress to persons.

[Section 34 amended by No. 71 of 1980 s.4.]

Persons may act as special constables in any district although not resident

35. All persons willing to act as special constables under the provisions of this Act, shall be capable of being appointed and acting, and may be appointed and act, as such special constables, notwithstanding they may not be resident in such place as aforesaid, or in the neighbourhood thereof; and any person appointed and acting as special constable under the provisions of this section, shall have all the same powers, and be entitled to and enjoy all the same privileges and benefits, and be subject to all the same duties and obligations, as any constable duly appointed under the other provisions of this Act.

Appointment of special constables

35A. (1) The Commissioner of Police may appoint special constables.

(2) Any person appointed a special constable shall have all the same powers and be entitled to and enjoy all the same privileges and be subject to the same duties and obligations as any constable duly appointed under this Act.

(3) Any special constable may receive such payment for his services, and may be provided with such equipment and necessities as may be allowed and provided to a special constable appointed under the provisions of this Act.

[(4) omitted under the Reprints Act 1984 s.7 (4) (e).]

[Section 35A amended by No. 13 of 1915 s.2 (as amended by No. 15 of 1952 s.7).]

Penalty for refusing to subscribe the engagement

36. If any person residing within any place in the said State, being appointed a special constable, shall refuse to subscribe the engagement aforesaid when thereunto required by the magistrate or Justices so appointing him, he shall, on conviction thereof, before any 2 or more Justices, forfeit and pay any sum of money not exceeding $40 and if any person being appointed a special constable shall neglect or refuse to appear at the time and place for which he shall be summoned for the purpose of subscribing such engagement or having been appointed as special constable and called upon to serve, shall neglect or refuse to serve as such special constable or to obey such lawful orders and directions as may be given to him for the performance of the duties of his office every person so offending shall on conviction thereof before any 2 or more Justices, forfeit and pay for any such neglect or refusal any sum of money not exceeding $40, unless such person shall prove, to the satisfaction of the said Justices, that he was prevented by sickness, or other such unavoidable cause as shall in the judgment of the said Justices be a sufficient cause.

[Section 36 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.12; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Power to discontinue service of special constables

37. The Commissioner of Police may suspend or determine the services of all or any of the said special constables, as to the Commissioner of Police shall seem meet, and notice of such suspension or determination shall be forthwith transmitted to the Minister, and to the magistrate or Justice appointing them.

Minister may direct reasonable allowances to be paid to and for special constables

38. The Minister may, upon the recommendation of the Commissioner of Police, order from time to time such reasonable allowances for their trouble, loss of time, and expenses, to be paid to such special constables who shall have served or be then serving as he may deem proper; and he may further order the payment of such expenses as may have been incurred in providing arms, equipment, and necessaries for such special constables.

PART IIIA — ABORIGINAL AIDES

[Heading inserted by No. 18 of 1975 s.3.]

Aboriginal aides

38A. (1) The Commissioner of Police and any commissioned officer of police authorized in that behalf by the Commissioner may, in writing —

- (a) appoint aboriginal persons to be aboriginal aides; and
- (b) revoke any appointment made under this subsection.

(2) Any aboriginal aide appointed under subsection (1) —

- (a) shall, except as specified to the contrary in his instrument of appointment, have all of the powers, privileges, duties and obligations as has any constable duly appointed under this Act; and
- (b) shall receive such remuneration and allowances as are determined by the Minister.

(3) A reference in any other law of the State (not being a law relating to condition of service of members of the Police Force) to a member of the Police Force shall be read as including an aboriginal aide appointed under this section.

[Section 38A inserted by No. 18 of 1975 s.3.]

PART IV — AS TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF POLICE DISTRICTS

Police districts

39. (1) The city, towns, and places in the said State which have already been established or proclaimed as Police Districts, shall continue to be Police Districts within the meaning and for the purposes of this Act; and the Governor may, by notice in the Government Gazette, vary the same and establish other Police Districts wherein portions of the Police Force may be stationed; and in every notice establishing any Police District in any part of the said State, the limits of such Police District shall be defined.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), the Commissioner may for the purposes of the administration of the Police Force by order in writing divide the State, or any part of the State, into regions, divisions, sub-divisions, sections, branches, or sub-branches wherein portions of the Police Force may be stationed or carry out duties.

[Section 39 amended by No. 6 of 1978 s.10.]

PART V — AS TO THE POWERS OF THE POLICE FORCE AND THE APPREHENSION OF OFFENDERS

Officers of Police Force, etc., may board vessels

40. Any officer of the Police Force or senior constable in charge of a Police Station shall, by virtue of his office, be an Officer of Customs within the meaning of the law relating to the Customs for the time being and shall have power, by virtue of his office, to enter at all times, with such constables as he shall think necessary, as well by night as by day, into or upon every ship, boat, or other vessel (not being then actually employed in Her Majesty's service, and not being a vessel of war, the commanding officer whereof shall hold a commission from any foreign Government or Power) lying or being in any of the waters of the said State, or any dock thereto adjacent, and into every part of such vessel, for the purpose of searching and inspecting the same, and of inspecting and observing the conduct of all persons who shall be employed on board any such ship or vessel in or about the lading or unlading thereof, as the case may be, and for the purpose of taking all such measures as may be necessary for providing against fire and other accidents, and for preserving peace and good order on board of any such ship or vessel and for the effectual prevention or detection of any felonies or misdemeanours.

[Section 40 amended by No. 24 of 1969 s.6.]

Officers of Police Force etc., to apprehend and seize stolen property on board ship

41. (1) Any officer of the Police Force, or senior constable in charge of a Police Station, having reasonable or probable cause to suspect that any offence has been, or is about to be committed on board of any ship, boat, or other vessel (not being then actually employed in Her Majesty's service, and not being a vessel of war, the commanding officer whereof shall hold a commission from any foreign Government or Power), lying or being in any of the waters of the said State, or that any person who has committed an offence rendering him liable to apprehension, either with or without warrant, or that any person against whom any warrant shall have been issued by any Justice is harboured, secreted, or concealed on board of any such ship, boat, or vessel, may stop and detain such ship, boat, or vessel, and may enter at all times, with such constables as he shall think necessary, as well by night as by day, into and upon every such ship, boat, or other vessel, and into every part thereof, and may search and inspect the same, and therein take all necessary measures for the effectual prevention and detection of all such suspected offences, and for the apprehension of all such suspected persons as aforesaid, and may and shall take into custody all persons suspected or being concerned in such offences, or liable to apprehension as aforesaid, and shall also take charge of all property suspected to be stolen; and if the master of any such ship or vessel, or any other person, shall resist or wilfully prevent or obstruct any officer or constable of the Police Force whilst stopping, detaining, entering, or endeavouring to stop, detain, or enter upon such ship, boat or vessel, or whilst searching and inspecting the same as and for the purposes aforesaid, or shall harbour or conceal, or rescue or attempt to rescue, or assist any such suspected persons, such master and every other person so offending shall be deemed to have committed a misdemeanour, and shall suffer such punishment by fine, not exceeding $500, and such imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding 6 months, as any 2 or more Justices before whom such offender shall be convicted, shall determine.

(2) Any officer or constable of the Police Force who has reasonable cause to believe that any ship, boat or other vessel is being, or is likely to be, used for a voyage the purpose of which is to do or attempt to do any act which if done in the State would constitute an offence may, without warrant other than this Act, enter at all times into and upon and take charge of or secure any such ship, boat or vessel or may otherwise take such steps in relation thereto as may be expedient for the purpose of preventing that voyage, using for that purpose such assistance and reasonable force as he may think necessary, and, subject to subsection (3), may detain the vessel for so long as he has reasonable cause to suspect that any such voyage may be undertaken.

(3) An officer or constable of the Police Force who has detained any vessel pursuant to the provisions of subsection (2), or any person who is aggrieved by any exercise of the power conferred by that subsection, may apply to a stipendiary magistrate for an order in the matter, and that magistrate may thereupon —

- (a) order the release of the vessel unconditionally;
- (b) order the release of the vessel subject to such conditions as that magistrate may impose;
- (c) order that the vessel be detained for a specified period;
- (d) make an order as to the expenses incurred or to be incurred in relation to the seizure, detention or safe keeping of that vessel; and
- (e) make such order as to costs, as he may think fit and effect shall be given thereto.

(4) The terms of any conditions imposed on an order made pursuant to subsection (3) may relate not only to the release of the vessel but also as to the use to which the vessel may be put within the period specified in the order, and the order may also be made subject to the requirement that a person enters into a recognisance with or without sureties conditioned upon the observance of the terms imposed in relation to the release and use of the vessel.

(5) An amount ordered in payment of expenses or costs under subsection (3) may be recovered in the same manner as moneys ordered to be paid by Justices upon a conviction for a simple offence.

(6) The detention of any vessel, or the exercise of any other power conferred by subsection (2), shall not be taken to be unlawful only by reason that it subsequently appears or is found that the vessel was not to be used in the manner, or the circumstances were not such as, the member of the Police Force believed.

(7) Any person who resists, or wilfully obstructs, any member of the Police Force or other person lawfully assisting such a member of the Police Force in the exercise of the powers conferred by subsection (2), or who endeavours by any unlawful means to prevent any such power from being exercised shall be deemed to have committed a misdemeanour, and shall suffer such punishment by fine, not exceeding $500, and such imprisonment, not exceeding 6 months, as any 2 or more Justices before whom such offender shall be convicted may determine.

[Section 41 amended by No. 24 of 1969 s.7; No. 91 of 1975 s.17; No. 6 of 1978 s.11.]

Police may enter entertainment areas, theatres, etc.

42. Any officer or constable of the Police Force may enter into any house, room, premises, or place where any public table, board, or ground is kept for playing billiards, bagatelle, bowls, fives, rackets quoits, skittles, or ninepins, or any game of the like kind, when and so often as any such member shall think proper; and may enter into any house, room or place kept or used in the said State for any theatrical or any public entertainments, or exhibitions, or for any show of any kind whatsoever, whether admission thereto is obtained by payment of money or not, at any time when the same shall be open for the reception of persons resorting thereto and may remove from such house, room, or place any common prostitute, or reputed thief, or other loose, idle, or disorderly person who shall be found therein, and may order any such common prostitute, reputed thief, or disorderly person to leave the said house, room or place, and in case such person shall refuse to leave the same, may take such person into custody, and every such person remaining in such house, room, or place after having been so ordered to leave, shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding $100, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

[Section 42 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.13; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.18.]

Power of apprehending offenders

43. (1) Any officer or constable of the Police Force, without any warrant other than this Act, at any hour of the day or night may apprehend any person whom he may find conducting himself in a disorderly manner, or using profane, indecent, or obscene language, or who shall use any threatening, abusive, or insulting words or behaviour, with intent or calculated to provoke a breach of the peace, in any street, public vehicle, or passenger boat; and also any person who shall ride or drive on or through any street, so negligently, carelessly, or furiously that the safety of any person may thereby be endangered; and also any person who shall cruelly or wantonly beat, ill-treat, overdrive, overload, abuse or torture any living thing, or cause the same to be done, and also any person who shall convey or carry any living thing in any street, in such a manner or position as to cause unnecessary pain or suffering, and all persons whom he shall have just cause to suspect of having committed or being about to commit any offence, or of any evil designs, and all persons whom he shall find or who shall have been lying or loitering in any street, yard, or other place, and not giving a satisfactory account of themselves, and shall detain any person so apprehended in custody, until he can be brought before a Justice, to be dealt with for such offence.

(2) Any officer or constable of the Police Force, without any warrant other than this Act, at any hour of the day or night, may apprehend any person whom he shall have just cause to suspect of having committed an offence in any place other than the State which, if committed in the State, would be an indictable offence (including an indictable offence that may be dealt with summarily) and shall detain any person so apprehended in custody, until he can be brought before a Justice to be dealt with according to law, and the apprehension of a person pursuant to this subsection shall not be taken to be unlawful only by reason that it subsequently appears or is found that the person apprehended did not commit the offence alleged.

Power to apprehend persons disturbing the peace on board ships or vessels, and in houses licensed for the sale of fermented and spirituous liquors

44. Any constable, when so ordered by any officer of police, and any officer or constable of the force whenever called upon by the master or any officer of any ship or vessel (not being then actually employed in Her Majesty's service and not being a vessel of war, the commanding officer whereof shall hold a commission from any foreign Government or Power), lying in any of the waters of the State or any dock thereto adjacent, may enter into and upon such ship or vessel, and without any warrant other than this Act, apprehend any person whom he may find behaving himself in an indecent or disorderly manner, or using profane, indecent, or obscene language, or using any threatening, abusive, or insulting words or behaviour, with intent or calculated to provoke a breach of the peace; and any officer or constable of the force may enter at any hour of the day or night into any house licensed for the sale of fermented or spirituous liquors, or any licensed boarding, eating, or lodging house, and without any warrant other than this Act, apprehend any person whom he may find behaving himself in an indecent or disorderly manner, or using any such language as aforesaid or words or behaviour as aforesaid, with intent or calculated to provoke a breach of the peace; and to search therein for offenders and otherwise perform his duty, using as little annoyance to the inmates as possible; and any person so apprehended shall be detained in custody until he can be brought before a Justice to be dealt with for such offence; and every such person so apprehended shall unless a different penalty for his offence be prescribed by this Act be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $100, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

[Section 44 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.14; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.19; No. 87 of 1982 s.44; No. 35 of 1989 s.5.]

Any person against whom a warrant has been issued and persons charged with recent offences may be apprehended without warrant

45. Any officer or constable of the Police Force may, without a warrant, take into custody any person whom he may have reasonable and probable cause for believing or suspecting to be a person for whose apprehension a warrant shall have been issued and any person who shall be charged by any other person with having committed, or whom he shall have reasonable and probable cause for believing has committed any felony or misdemeanour, punishable on information by the Supreme Court, or The District Court of Western Australia, in cases when by reason of the recent commission of the offence a warrant could not have been obtained for the arrest of the offender. And any warrant of arrest under this or any other Act may be executed by any police officer or constable on any Sunday, Good Friday, or Christmas Day.

Police may apprehend any offender whose name and residence are not known

46. Any officer or constable of the Police Force, and all persons whom he shall call to his assistance may take into custody, without a warrant, any person who, within view of such officer or constable, shall offend in any manner against this Act, and whose name and residence shall be unknown to, and cannot readily be ascertained, by him.

Apprehension of known offenders

47. Any person whosoever, with or without a warrant, may apprehend any reputed common prostitute, thief, loose, idle or disorderly person, who, within view of such person apprehending, shall offend against this Act, and shall forthwith deliver him to any constable or police officer of the place where he shall have been apprehended, to be taken and conveyed before a Justice, to be dealt with according to law, and any constable who shall refuse or wilfully neglect to take such offender into custody, or to take and convey him before a Justice, or who shall not use his best endeavours to apprehend and to convey him before a Justice, shall be deemed guilty of neglect of duty and shall, on conviction, be punished in such manner as herein directed.

[Section 47 amended by No. 91 of 1975 s.20.]

[48. Repealed by No. 87 of 1982 s.45.]

Power to police and persons aggrieved to apprehend certain offenders

49. Any person found committing any offence punishable in a summary manner may be taken into custody without a warrant by any officer or constable of the Police Force, or may be apprehended by the owner of the property on or with respect to which the offence shall be committed, or by his servant, or any person authorized by him, and may be detained until he can be delivered into the custody of a constable, to be dealt with according to law; and every police officer or constable may also stop, search, and detain any cart, carriage, or vehicle, in or upon which there shall be reason to suspect that anything stolen or unlawfully obtained may be found, and also any person who may be reasonably suspected of having or conveying in any manner anything stolen or unlawfully obtained; and any person to whom any property or liquor shall be offered to be sold, pawned, or delivered (if he shall have reasonable cause to suspect that any offence has been committed with respect to such property or liquor, or that the same, or any part thereof, has been stolen, or otherwise unlawfully obtained, or is intended to be used for an unlawful purpose), may apprehend and detain the person offering any such property or liquor as aforesaid, and as soon as may be deliver him into the custody of a constable, together with such property or liquor, to be dealt with according to law; and every person taken into custody without warrant for any offence against the provisions of this Act, or for any offence punishable in a summary manner, shall be detained in custody until he can be brought before a Justice to be dealt with according to law or until he shall have given bail for his appearance before a Justice in manner hereinbefore provided.

Police may demand name and address, and apprehend

50. Any officer or constable of the Police Force may demand from and require of any individual his name and address, and may apprehend without warrant any such person who shall neglect or refuse to give his name and address or either of them when required so to do, or who furnishes information which that officer or constable has reasonable cause to believe to be false, and every such person so neglecting, or refusing, or who shall give a false name or address when applied to as aforesaid, shall upon conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding $100, or at the discretion of the convicting Justice be committed to any gaol or lock-up there to be kept to hard labour for any term not exceeding 3 calendar months.

[Section 50 amended by No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 108 of 1982 s.4.]

Power to prosecute for breach of by-laws

50A. Every member of the Police Force may prosecute for any breach of or offence against any by-law or regulation made by any municipality, council of a shire, or board of health.

[Section 50A inserted by 62 Vict., No. 21 s.3 as amended by No. 15 of 1952 s.7.]

Particulars of identity

50AA. (1) Where any person is in lawful custody for any offence punishable on indictment or summary conviction, any officer or constable of the Police Force may take or cause to be taken all such particulars as he may think necessary or desirable for the identification of that person, including his photograph, measurements, fingerprints, and palmprints.

(2) Where the photographs, fingerprints, palmprints or other identification particulars of a person are taken under subsection (1) and that person is found not to be guilty of any offence arising out of the circumstances leading to the taking of those particulars, the original negatives and all other copies available of the photograph, fingerprints, palmprints and other particulars taken shall, if so requested by that person, be destroyed in his presence but not until the time for an appeal from the finding has expired or an appeal from the finding has been resolved in favour of the accused person.

s. 51

[Section 50 inserted by No. 41 of 1974 s.2.]

Mad dogs, etc.

51. Any officer or constable of the Police Force may destroy any dog or other animal reasonably suspected to be in a rabid state, or which has been bitten by any dog or animal reasonably suspected to be in a rabid state, and the owner of any such dog or animal who shall permit the same to go at large after having information or reasonable ground for believing it to be in a rabid state or to have been bitten by any dog or other animal in a rabid state, shall on conviction be liable to a penalty of not more than $20.

[Section 51 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.15; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Regulations for preventing obstructions in the streets during public processions, etc.

52. (1) The Commissioner of Police, from time to time, and as occasion shall require, may give instructions to members of the Police Force for the purpose of regulating the route and pace to be observed by all vehicles, horses, and persons, and for preventing obstruction of the streets and thoroughfares by processions, meetings, or assemblies or in case of fires, and to provide for keeping order and for preventing any obstructions of the thoroughfares in the immediate neighbourhood of all public buildings and offices, theatres, and other places of public resort, and in any case where the streets or thoroughfares may be thronged or may be liable to be obstructed, and to prevent any interference with or annoyance of any congregation, or meeting engaged in divine worship in any building consecrated or otherwise, and for keeping order and preventing obstructions on and near the water on which any sporting event or other assembly is held, but no such instruction shall be given for the purpose of frustrating —

- (a) the holding of a meeting or the conduct of a procession authorized pursuant to a permit or order granted under the Public Meetings and Processions Act 1984; or
- (b) the holding or conduct of an event on a road closed pursuant to an order granted under Part VA of the Road Traffic Act 1974.

(2) A member of the Police Force acting in accordance with instructions given under subsection (1) may give such directions as may seem expedient to him to give effect to those instructions.

(3) Every person who, after being acquainted with the same, fails to observe or contravenes any directions given under subsection (2) commits an offence.

Penalty: $100.

(4) The power vested in the Commissioner of Police by subsection (1) may be exercised by any member of the Police Force of or above the rank of sergeant duly authorized by the Commissioner of Police for the purpose.

[Section 52 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.16; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.21; No. 146 of 1976 s.4; No. 29 of 1979 s.3; No. 23 of 1984 s.12; No. 64 of 1988 s.7.]

Detention to be subject to the Bail Act 1982

52A. Nothing in this Act shall be read as limiting or affecting —

- (a) the right conferred by section 5 of the Bail Act 1982 on every person taken into the custody of a police officer or constable for an offence, as provided by this Act, to have his case for bail considered under and in accordance with the Bail Act 1982 or to be brought before a court as soon as is practicable;

- (b) the duties imposed on police officers by section 6 of that Act.

[Section 52A inserted by No. 87 of 1982 s.46.]

PART VA — APPREHENSION AND DETENTION WITHOUT ARREST

[Heading inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Interpretation

53. In this Part unless the contrary intention appears —

“approved hospital” means —

- (a) any private hospital or public hospital to which the Hospitals Act 1927 applies; or
- (b) an approved hospital within the meaning of and subject to the Mental Health Act 1962;

“intoxicated” means seriously affected apparently by alcohol;

“police officer” means a person appointed —

- (a) under Part 1 to be a member of the Police Force of Western Australia;
- (b) under Part III to be a special constable; or
- (c) under Part 111A to be an aboriginal aide;

“register” means the record maintained by a police officer of —

- (a) the dates and times a person is taken into and released from detention under this Part; and
- (b) the inventory of property taken from and returned to the detained person or to a person into whose care the detained person is released.

[Section 53 inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

s. 53A

Circumstances in which a person may be apprehended

53A. (1) Subject to section 33A of the Child Welfare Act 1947 where a police officer has reasonable grounds for believing that a person is intoxicated and the person is in a public place or trespassing on private property, the police officer may, without warrant, apprehend and detain the person.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) a police officer may, without warrant, enter upon private property.

[Section 53A inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Power to search the person and remove personal property

53B. (1) Where a person is detained under section 53A a police officer may, subject to this section —

- (a) search the person or cause the person to be searched;
- and
- (b) remove or cause to be removed from the person for safe keeping, until the person is released from detention, any personal property found on or about the person including any item that is likely to cause harm to the person or any other person or that could be used by the person or any other person to cause harm to himself or herself or to another.

(2) Where a female person is detained under section 53A and there is no female police officer available to exercise the powers conferred by subsection (1) a police officer who wishes to exercise those powers shall for that purpose authorize another female person to do so.

(3) A police officer, or other person authorized under subsection (2), may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purposes of subsection (1).

[Section 53B inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Inventory to be kept

53C. An inventory of personal property taken from a person under section 53B shall be recorded in the register and the personal property shall be returned —

- (a) to the person when the register is signed or marked under section 53E (1) (a);
- (b) to the person in whose care the detained person is released under section 53G (1) when the register is signed or marked under section 53E (1) (c); or
- (c) to a responsible person at an approved hospital to which the detained person is admitted under section 53H when the register is signed under section 53E (1) (d).

[Section 53C inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Period of detention

53D. (1) Subject to this Part, a person who has been apprehended under section 53A shall be detained by a police officer for as long as it reasonably appears to a police officer that the person remains intoxicated.

(2) Subject to this Part, where a police officer by whom the person is detained considers that the person is no longer intoxicated, the police officer shall release the person or cause the person to be released without the person entering into any recognizance or bail.

[Section 53D inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

s. 53E

Release from detention

53E. (1) A person who is being detained under this Part shall not be released unless —

- (a) the person signs or otherwise marks the register acknowledging his or her release and the receipt of the property (if any) taken from him or her under section 53B;
- (b) the person refuses or fails to sign or mark the register under paragraph (a) and a police officer records that refusal or failure in the register and signs the register;
- (c) the person into whose care the detained person is to be released under section 53G signs or otherwise marks the register acknowledging the release of the person into his or her care and the receipt of the property (if any) taken from the detained person under section 53B; or
- (d) a responsible person at an approved hospital to which the detained person is to be admitted under section 53H signs the register acknowledging the admission of the detained person and the receipt of the property (if any) taken from the detained person under section 53B.

(2) Subsection (1) has effect notwithstanding any order made by a Justice under section 53I.

(3) A person apprehended under section 53A shall be deemed to be released from detention at the time and on the date recorded in the register as the time at which and the date on which the register was signed or marked under subsection (1) (a), (b), (c) or (d) as the case may be.

[Section 53E inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Protection of detained person

53F. (1) A person detained under this Part —

- (a) shall not be charged with an offence;
- (b) shall not be questioned in relation to an offence;
and
- (c) shall not be photographed or have his or her measurements, palm prints or fingerprints taken, while he or she is detained under this Part.

(2) Where a person is questioned in contravention of subsection (1) (b) any answer that the person may give to any question shall be inadmissible in evidence against the person in any proceedings.

[Section 53F inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Release of detained person into care of another person

53G. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and to the applicant signing the register under section 53E (1) (c) a police officer by whom a person is detained under this Part may, at any time release the person or cause the person to be released without the person entering into a recognizance or bail, into the care of a person who applies for his or her release, where the police officer reasonably believes the applicant is capable of taking adequate care of the person who has been detained.

(2) A person shall not be released under subsection (1) if he or she objects to being released into the care of the applicant.

(3) Where a police officer refuses an application under subsection (1) on the grounds that the applicant is not capable of taking adequate care of the detained person the applicant may apply to a Justice to review the police officer's decision.

s. 53H

(4) Subject to section 53J where an application is made to a Justice under subsection (3), the police officer and the applicant may, unless the detained person is sooner released under this Part, as soon as practicable, appear before a Justice who may —

- (a) order the release of the person into the care of the applicant;
- (b) where it appears to the Justice that the applicant is not capable of taking adequate care of the person, order the person to be detained for as long as it appears to a police officer that the person remains intoxicated; or
- (c) give any other order or direction for the safety and welfare of the detained person which the Justice thinks fit.

[Section 53G inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Release of detained person into the care of an approved hospital

53H. Subject to section 53E (1) (d) a police officer by whom a person is detained under this Part may, at any time release the person or cause the person to be released without the person entering into a recognizance or bail, into the care of an approved hospital.

[Section 53H inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Review of detention of person

53I. Subject to section 53J —

- (a) a person detained under this Part may, at any time, request a police officer to take him or her before a Justice, in order that the detained person may make an application to the Justice for his or her release;

- (b) where a request is made to a police officer under paragraph (a), the police officer shall as soon as practicable, bring the person before a Justice, or cause the person to be brought before a Justice unless the person is released under this Part before appearing before a Justice;
- (c) if, 8 hours after a person has been apprehended under section 53A, it reasonably appears to a police officer by whom the person is detained that the person is still intoxicated, the police officer shall bring the person before a Justice as soon as practicable, unless the person is released under this Part before appearing before a Justice;
- (d) where a person is brought before a Justice under paragraph (b) or (c) the Justice —
 - (i) shall order the release of the person where the Justice considers that the person is no longer intoxicated; or
 - (ii) may give directions to the police officer for the safety and welfare of the person including, if the Justice thinks fit —
 - (A) for the detention of the person by a police officer for as long as it appears to a police officer that the person remains intoxicated; or
 - (B) subject to paragraph (e) releasing the detained person into the care of a person capable of taking adequate care of the detained person;

s. 53J

- (e) a Justice shall not order the release of a person brought before him under paragraph (b) or (c) into the care of another person if the person in detention objects to being released into the care of that person.

[Section 53I inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

When release or review of detained person may be deferred

53J. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a police officer shall not defer —

- (a) releasing the detained person under this Part; or
- (b) bringing the detained person before a Justice except for the minimum time necessary to meet reasonable organisational requirements of the police station concerned.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) (a), a police officer may defer releasing a detained person under this Part between the hours of midnight and 7.30 am if release during those hours is not in the best interests of the detained person.

(3) Where a police officer exercises a power in subsection (1) (b) or (2) the reason for the deferral shall be recorded in the register.

[Section 53J inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Indemnity

53K. (1) A Justice, police officer or any person who performs any function under this Part is not civilly liable for any thing done or omitted to be done by him or her in good faith or in connection with the performance or purported performance of his or her functions under this Part.

(2) Subsection (1) does not limit the operation of section 138.

[Section 53K inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Application for Declaration

53L. (1) A person may, before the expiration of 30 days from the date of his discharge from detention or, from an approved hospital, apply to a court of summary jurisdiction for a declaration that at the time he was taken into detention under section 53A, he was not intoxicated.

(2) Where in proceedings under this section the court is satisfied that the applicant was not intoxicated at the time he was taken into detention it shall make a declaration accordingly.

(3) In any proceedings under this section, the person by whom the applicant was taken into detention and the person by whom the applicant was apprehended, shall be entitled to appear.

(4) A declaration made under this section in relation to the detention of the applicant does not establish that the detention was unlawful.

[Section 53L inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

Escape of detained person

53M. A person who is detained under this Part shall not be regarded as being in legal custody for the purposes of any law relating to escape from legal custody.

[Section 53M inserted by No. 35 of 1989 s.6.]

[Section 67A inserted by No. 91 of 1975 s.34.]

Seizure of property and searching

68. Any constable or other person apprehending any person charged with an offence against section 65, 66 or 67 may seize any horse or other cattle, or any money, goods, or vehicle in the possession or use of the person so apprehended and charged, and may take and convey the same as well as such persons before a Justice or Justices, and the Justice or Justices by whom any person is convicted of an offence against section 65, 66 or 67 may order that such offender be searched, and that his trunks, boxes, bundles, parcels, or packages, and any cart or other vehicle which may have been found in his possession or use, or under his control, shall be inspected and searched; and the said Justice or Justices may order that any money which may then be found with or upon such offender shall be paid and applied to defray the expense of apprehending and conveying to gaol and maintaining such offender

s. 69

during the time for which he shall have been committed, and the expense of the keep of any horse or other cattle so seized, during the time such horse or cattle shall be detained; and if, upon such search, money sufficient for the purposes aforesaid be not found, such Justice of Justices may order that such horse, cattle, and so much as is necessary of such other effects then found shall be sold, and that the produce of such sale shall be paid and applied as aforesaid, and also that the surplus of such money or effects, after deducting the charges for such sale, shall be returned to the said offender. And when any person shall be taken into custody on a charge of felony, his premises and property may be inspected and searched by any officer or constable of the Police Force.

[Section 68 amended by No. 91 of 1975 s.35.]

Persons suspected of having or conveying stolen goods

69. Every person who shall be brought before any Justice charged with having on his person or in any place, or conveying, in any manner any thing which may be reasonably suspected of being stolen or unlawfully obtained, and who shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such Justice how he came by the same, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $2 000, or in the discretion of the Justice may be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding 2 years.

[Section 69 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.23; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 85 of 1970 s.6; No. 91 of 1975 s.36.]

In case of information given that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that any goods have been unlawfully obtained and are concealed

70. If information shall be given on oath to any Justice that there is reasonable cause for suspecting that any thing stolen or unlawfully obtained is concealed or lodged in any place or in any vehicle or package, it shall be lawful for such Justice, by special warrant under his hand directed to any police constable, to cause every such place to be entered, and the same and every such vehicle or package to be searched at any time of the day or by night, and on any Sunday or other day; and the said Justice, if it shall appear to him necessary, may empower such police constable with such assistance as may be found necessary, such police constable having previously made known such his authority, to use force for the effecting of such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise, and if upon search thereupon made any such thing shall be found, then to convey the same before a Justice or to guard the same on the spot until the offenders are taken before a Justice, or otherwise dispose thereof in some place of safety, and moreover to take into custody and carry before a Justice every person found in such house or place, or whom he shall have reasonable cause to suspect to have been privy to the deposit of any such thing knowing or having reasonable cause to suspect the same to have been stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained.

Unlawfully taking or branding animals

79A. Whosoever takes and works or otherwise uses or takes for the purpose of working or using any cattle or dog the property of another person, without the consent of the owner or person in lawful possession thereof, or who takes any such cattle or dog for the purpose of secreting the same or obtaining a reward for the restoration or pretended finding thereof or for any other fraudulent purpose, shall be guilty of a misdemeanour, and on conviction before 2 Justices shall be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months, or to pay a fine not exceeding $1 000.

The term “cattle” mentioned in this section shall include any camel, horse, mare, gelding, colt, foal, filly, ass, mule, bull, cow, ox, steer, heifer, calf, wether, ram, ewesheep, lamb, pig, goat, deer, alpaca, llama, or vicuna, and every hybrid or cross thereof.

[Section 79A inserted by 56 Vict., No. 10 s.14 (as amended by No. 15 of 1952 s.7); amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.26; No. 91 of 1975 s.43.]

Wilful damage to property

80. (1) Every person who destroys or damages any real or personal property of any kind, whether owned by the Crown or any public or local authority or by any other person, is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: A fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment for any term not exceeding 6 months or both.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply —

- (a) where the alleged offender acted under a fair and reasonable supposition that he had a right to do the act complained of; or

s. 81

- (b) where the act complained of was done in the course of hunting or fishing, or in the pursuit of game and was not done with an intention to destroy or damage the property.

(3) On the conviction of a person for an offence against this section, the Justices may, in addition to any penalty imposed under subsection (1), order him to pay to any person such sum as they think fit by way of compensation for any damage to, or loss of, property suffered by that person through or by means of the offence.

(4) An order for payment under this section does not affect the right of any person to recover by civil proceedings any sum in excess of the amount paid pursuant to the order.

[Section 80 inserted by No. 85 of 1970 s.7; amended by No. 91 of 1975 s.44; No. 71 of 1980 s.5.]

Removing boat or boat furniture

81. A person who takes, uses, or assumes control of any boat, flat, or barge or any fitting or equipment, including any motor, thereon without previously obtaining the consent of the owner or person in charge thereof is liable to a fine of $2 000 or imprisonment for 2 years and in addition, on conviction, shall forfeit and pay to the party aggrieved such a reasonable sum as shall appear to the convicting Justice to be compensation for any loss of work, or loss of time, or damage sustained by the owner or person in charge of such vessel or fitting or equipment, by reason of such unauthorized removal or use thereof.

[Section 81 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.27; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 1 of 1970 s.4; No. 91 of 1975 s.45.]

Penalty on persons destroying property with intent to steal, or retaining or disposing of property

82. Every person who shall commit any of the next following offences as to any articles of property in this section mentioned (or who shall receive any of the same knowing them to have been stolen or unlawfully come by), shall on conviction for the first offence be liable to the punishment, and for any second or subsequent offence to double the amount of punishment hereinafter specified in each case —

- (1) Every person who shall steal, or damage with intent to steal any part of any live or dead fence, or any post, pale, or rail, set up or used as a fence, or any stile or gate, or any part thereof respectively, shall pay to the party aggrieved the value of the property stolen, or the amount of the damage done, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding $100, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one calendar month:
- (2) Every person who shall steal or shall cut, break, root up, or otherwise destroy or damage, with intent to steal the whole or any part of any growing tree, sapling, shrub, or underwood, or any growing fruit, mushroom or other fungus or vegetable production, or any growing cultivated root or plant, shall (in case the value of the property stolen, or the amount of the damage done, shall not exceed $10) pay to the party aggrieved the value of the property stolen, or the amount of the injury done, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $100, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding one calendar month:
- (3) Every artificer, workman, journeyman, apprentice, or other person who shall unlawfully dispose of or retain in his possession without the consent of the person by whom he shall be hired, retained, or employed, any goods, wares, work or materials committed to his care or charge (the value of such goods, wares, work, or materials, not exceeding the sum of $20), shall pay to the party aggrieved such compensation as the convicting Justice shall think reasonable, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding $250, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding 3 calendar months; and any person to whom any such property shall be offered to be sold, pawned, or delivered, if he shall have reasonable cause to suspect that any such offence has been committed with respect to such property, is hereby authorized to arrest without a warrant, and with all convenient speed, cause to be delivered into the custody of a constable, the person offering the same, together with such property to be dealt with according to law; and in every such case any such stolen property shall by order of the Justice by whom such case shall be heard and determined, be delivered over to the rightful owner, if known, or if the rightful owner shall not be known, the same shall be retained and sold, and the proceeds thereof applied in like manner as any penalties awarded under this Act.

[Section 82 amended by No. 42 of 1963 s.2; No. 28 of 1964 s.28; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.46.]

Penalty on person trespassing on enclosed land

82A. (1) Every person who shall, without lawful excuse, enter into the enclosed land of another person, without the consent of the owner, occupier or person in charge thereof, and shall cause damage or injury to any property such as is mentioned in section 82 shall pay to the party aggrieved the amount of any damage or injury done and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $100.

(2) The owner, occupier or person in charge of enclosed land who shall find a person on the land whom he has just cause to suspect of having entered into the land without consent may demand and require of that person his name and address, and any such person who shall neglect or refuse to give his name and address or who shall give a false name and address when applied to as aforesaid shall upon conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding $20.

(3) The provisions of this section shall be read and construed as in aid of, and not in derogation from, the provisions of section 82 and not in derogation from the rights of a person at law.

The term “enclosed land” mentioned in this section means any land, either public or private, that is enclosed or surrounded by a fence, wall or other erection, or partly by a fence, wall or other erection, and partly by some natural feature, such as a river or cliff, by which the boundaries thereof may be known or recognized; but does not include any road enclosed with the land.

[Section 82A inserted by No. 42 of 1963 s.3; amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.29; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.47.]

Unlawfully remaining on premises

82B. (1) A person shall not, without lawful authority, remain on any premises after being warned to leave those premises —

- (a) in the case of premises occupied by the Crown or a public authority, by a person in charge of the premises or by a member of the Police Force;
- (b) in the case of premises other than premises occupied by the Crown or a public authority, by the owner or a person in charge or occupation of the said premises or by a member of the Police Force.

Penalty: $500 or 6 months' imprisonment.

s. 83

(2) A person who for the purposes of and in accordance with subsection (1) warns some other person to leave premises may, at the same time as he gives the warning, indicate to such person that part of the premises which the person concerned is required to leave and in any such circumstances the part of the premises so indicated shall constitute the premises for the purposes of that subsection.

(3) A person shall not, without lawful authority, prevent, obstruct, or hinder any lawful activity which is being, or is about to be, carried on upon any premises.

Penalty: $500 or 6 months' imprisonment.

(4) In this section —

“premises” includes any land, building, structure, or any part thereof;

“public authority” means an authority or body (not being an incorporated company or association) constituted by or under a law of the State or the Commonwealth.

[Section 82B inserted by No. 71 of 1980 s.6.]

Penalty on persons selling adulterated or unwholesome articles of food

83. Every person who shall commit any of the next following offences shall, on conviction before any 2 Justices, be liable to the punishments hereafter specified in each case —

- (1) Every person who shall sell, or offer for sale, as food for human consumption, any grain, flour, meat, fish, fruit, or vegetable, which shall, in the whole or in part be unfit for human consumption, or in any manner adulterated, shall forfeit the same, to be disposed of as such Justices shall direct, and shall also be liable to a fine not exceeding $200, or be imprisoned for a term not exceeding 2 calendar months with or without hard labour.

- (2) Every person who shall exhibit for sale any unwholesome or fraudulently prepared provisions, meat or other food of any kind for man or beast, or shall practise any deceit or fraud in respect to the quality of any such provisions or food, shall forfeit all such provisions, to be disposed of as such Justices shall direct, and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding $200 or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding 2 calendar months; and any Justice may seize, or cause to be seized, any of the articles hereinbefore lastmentioned as to which any such offence shall have been committed.

[Section 83 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.30; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.48.]

[83A. Repealed by No. 108 of 1982 s.8.]

Regulation of houses of public resort

84. (1) Every person who shall have or keep any house, shop, or room, or any place of public resort, and who shall wilfully and knowingly permit drunkenness or other disorderly conduct in such house, shop, room, or place, or knowingly permit or suffer prostitutes or persons of notoriously bad character to meet together and remain therein, shall, on conviction for every such offence, be liable to a fine not exceeding $250, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months: Provided always, that if the offender be a person licensed under the *Liquor Act 1970*³, this enactment shall not be construed to exempt him from the penalties or penal consequences to which he may be liable for committing an offence against that Act or the regulations made thereunder.

s. 84A

(2) Every person who, being the occupier, keeper or person having the charge or control of a shop or other place of public resort, shall knowingly permit or suffer a child apparently under the age of 16 years to enter and remain therein, under such circumstances as shall indicate that the mental, physical or moral welfare of such child is likely to be in jeopardy, shall on conviction for every such offence, be liable to a fine not exceeding $100, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding one month.

and forfeiture

[Heading inserted by No. 108 of 1982 s.5.]

Penalty for obstructing police

90. Any person who shall wilfully prevent any constable or officer authorized under the provisions of this Act to enter any premises or place from entering the same, or any part thereof, or who shall obstruct or delay any such constable or officer in so entering, and any person who by any bolt, bar, chain, or other contrivance shall secure any external or internal door of or means of access to any premises or place so authorized to be entered, or shall use any means or contrivance whatsoever, for the purposes of preventing, obstructing, or delaying the entry of any constable or officer authorized as aforesaid into any such premises or place or any part thereof, shall be liable on conviction to a penalty of not more than $2 000 or in the discretion of the Justices before whom he shall be convicted of the offence to be committed to the nearest gaol with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding 2 years.

[Section 90 amended by No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.55; No. 108 of 1982 s.22.]

False reports

90A. (1) Every person who, by a written or oral statement made to a member of the Police Force, represents, contrary to the fact and without a genuine belief in the truth of his statement, the existence of a circumstance reasonably calling for police investigation or inquiry commits an offence.

(2) Every person who does any act, with the intention of creating the belief or suspicion that —

- (a) an offence has been committed; or
- (b) human life has, or may have, been lost; or

- (c) a person's safety is, or may be, endangered, knowing, at the time of doing that act, that the circumstance with respect to which he intends to create the belief or suspicion does not exist, commits an offence.

(3) A court convicting a person of an offence under this section may, in addition to, or without, imposing any penalty, order that person to pay the amount of any wages attributable to, or expenses reasonably incurred with respect to, any investigation, inquiry or search made, whether by a member of the Police Force or otherwise, as a result of the statement or act by reason of which the person is convicted.

- (4) An order made under subsection (3) —

- (a) shall specify to whom and in what manner the amount is to be paid; and
- (b) may be enforced as though the amount so ordered to be paid were a penalty imposed under this section.

(5) A person guilty of an offence against this section is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $500 and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or both.

*[Section 90A inserted by No. 29 of 1962 s.4;

s.8; No. 41 of 1974 s.4; No. 91 of 1975 s.56.]*

Forfeiture

90B. (1) A court shall not order any thing to be forfeited, under this Part, where a person claiming to be the owner of or otherwise interested in it applies to be heard by the court, unless an opportunity has been given to him to show cause why the order should not be made.

Police Act 1892

s. 90B

(2) Where anything liable to be seized under this Part cannot, or cannot readily, be so seized and detained, a Justice, on the application of a police officer or constable and if the Justice is satisfied that there is reasonable cause to believe that the thing may be required as evidence for the purposes of proceedings under this Act or is liable to forfeiture under this Act, may grant to that officer or constable an embargo notice and that officer or constable —

- (a) shall, if it is practicable to do so, forthwith serve, or cause to be served, a copy of the embargo notice on —
 - (i) the possessor of the thing to which the embargo notice relates; and
 - (ii) on any other person on whose behalf or for whose benefit he has reason to believe that thing is possessed by the possessor; and
- (b) may serve or cause to be served a copy of the embargo notice on a person other than a person referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) Subject to subsections (6) and (7), a possessor of any thing to which an embargo notice relates who sells, leases, moves, transfers or otherwise deals with that thing or any part of it within a period of 21 days from the date of the embargo notice or, if an application in respect of that thing is made to the District Court under section 90C within that period, before that application is finally disposed of is guilty of an offence.

Penalty: $2 000.

(4) The possessor of any thing to which an embargo notice relates may apply to the District Court for leave to sell, lease, move, transfer or otherwise deal with that thing or any part of it.

(5) The District Court may, on receiving an application under subsection (4), give the applicant leave in writing to sell, lease, move, transfer or otherwise deal with the thing or any part of the thing to which the embargo notice concerned relates on such conditions, if any, as the District Court thinks fit to attach to that leave.

(6) A person to whom leave has been given under subsection (5) may sell, lease, move, transfer or otherwise deal with the thing or any part of the thing to which that leave relates in accordance with any conditions attached to that leave.

(7) A person who is the possessor of the thing to which an embargo notice relates may move that thing or any part of that thing for the purpose of protecting and preserving the same within the period referred to in subsection (3) or before the application referred to in that subsection is finally disposed of, as the case requires, with the prior consent of the officer or constable to whom the embargo notice was granted in accordance with any conditions attached to that consent.

(8) Notwithstanding anything in any other Act, a sale, lease, movement, transfer or other dealing with any thing which constitutes an offence under subsection (3) is null and void.

[Section 90B inserted by No. 108 of 1982 s.23.]

Proceedings before District Court in respect of things seized

90C. (1) A police officer or constable to whom an embargo notice has been granted may at any time, and a person aggrieved by the embargo notice may within a period of 21 days from the date of the embargo notice, apply on notice of motion to the District Court for an order in respect of the thing to which the embargo notice concerned relates.

(2) On receiving an application made under subsection (1), the District Court may —

- (a) before, during or after the consideration of that application adjourn the proceedings on that application for such period or periods as it thinks fit;

s. 90C

- (b) before making any order on that application, require notice to be given to, and hear, a person claiming to have a financial or other interest in the thing to which that application relates or any part of that thing; and
- (c) after considering that application —
 - (i) if it is satisfied that the thing to which that application relates or any part of that thing is likely to be required as evidence for the purposes of proceedings under this Act or to be liable to forfeiture under this Act, order that that thing or part of that thing continue to be subject to the embargo notice until the proceedings concerned are finally disposed of;
 - (ii) if it is not so satisfied, order that that thing or part of that thing be released to the person named in that order or cancel the embargo notice concerned, as the case requires; or
 - (iii) if it is satisfied that the thing or any part of the thing has been ordered to be forfeited to the Crown under this Act, make such order as may be necessary to give effect thereto, and in any such case make such other order in respect of the thing to which that application relates or any part of that thing as the justice of the case requires, and may make such ancillary orders, including orders as to costs, as it considers necessary or desirable.

(3) For the purposes of section 90B, an application under this section is finally disposed of when an appeal or further appeal, as the case requires, cannot be made unless an extension of time is granted —

- (a) where the District Court makes an order under subsection (2) (c) (i), in the proceedings in relation to which the embargo notice was granted; and
- (b) in any other case, under this section.

APPLY WHERE SIMILAR PROVISIONS MADE BY BY-LAW
OF MUNICIPAL OR OTHER PUBLIC AND AUTHORIZED BODY

This part of Act subject to powers of any Municipality, etc., to make by-laws, etc.

95. This Part shall cease to have any force or effect wherever any by-law or regulations for effecting the same or a similar object are lawfully made by any Municipality, Council of a Shire, or Board of Health.

Prohibition of nuisances by persons in thoroughfares

96. Every person shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty of not more than $40 who shall in any street commit any of the following offences —

- (1) Every person who shall, to the annoyance of the inhabitants or passengers, expose for show or sale (except in a market lawfully appointed for that purpose), or feed or fodder any horse or other animal (horses in vehicles on any public stand excepted), or shall shoe, bleed, or farry any horse or other animal (except in case of accident), or clean, dress, exercise, train, or break any horse or animal, or clean, make, or repair any part of any carriage or cart (except in cases of accident where repair on the spot is necessary).
- (2) Every person who shall turn loose any horse or cattle, or suffer to be at large any unmuzzled ferocious dog, or set on or urge or permit any dog or other animal to attack, worry or put in fear any person, horse, or other animal.
- (3) Every person who shall drive any horses or cattle (except milch cows, or horses or oxen attached to any vehicle for the purpose of draught), excepting between the hours of 10 at night and 8 in the morning; and the local authority is hereby empowered to define, by notice to be published in the Government Gazette, the route by which any horses, cattle, and sheep, with the exception as aforesaid, shall be driven, and after such publication no cattle, horses, or sheep shall be driven by other route.

- (4) Every person who, by negligence or ill usage in driving any such stock, shall cause any mischief to be done by such stock, or who shall in any wise misbehave himself in the driving, care, or management thereof; and also every person not being hired or employed to drive such stock who shall wantonly pelt, hunt or drive the same.
- (5) Every driver of any wagon, wain, cart, or dray of any kind who shall ride upon any such carriage, not having some person on foot to guide the same (such as are drawn by horses and properly driven with reins only excepted); and the driver of any carriage whatsoever who shall wilfully be at such a distance from such carriage, or in such a situation whilst it shall be passing upon any street, road, thoroughfare or public place that he cannot have the direction and government of the horses or cattle drawing the same; and every person who shall ride upon the shafts of any wagon, cart, dray, or other carriage whatsoever; and every person riding on horseback, or the driver or propeller of any carriage, machine, or vehicle whatsoever, who on meeting any person riding on horseback, or driving or propelling any other carriage, machine, or vehicle aforesaid, shall not keep his horse, carriage, machine or vehicle aforesaid on the left or near side of the road except in the case of a led horse or horses, and every person who shall in any manner wilfully prevent any other person from passing him or any carriage, machine, or vehicle under his care upon any street, road, thoroughfare, or public place, or by negligence or misbehaviour prevent, hinder, or interrupt the free passage of any carriage, machine, vehicle, or person so in or upon the same.

- (6) Every person who shall cause any cart, hackney carriage, truck, or barrow, with or without horses, to stand longer than may be necessary for loading or unloading, or for taking up or setting down passengers (except hackney carriages standing for hire in any place not forbidden by law), or who by means of any cart, carriage, truck, vehicle, or barrow, or any horse or other animal, shall wilfully interrupt any public crossing, or wilfully cause any obstruction.
- (7) Every person who, without the consent of the owner or occupier, shall affix any posting bill, placard, or other paper, against or upon any building, wall, fence, tree, or pale, or write upon, soil, deface, or mark any such building, wall, fence, tree, or pale, with chalk or paint or in any other way whatsoever.
- (8) Every person who shall wantonly discharge any firearm, or burn or set alight to anything or throw or discharge any stone or other missile to the damage, annoyance, or danger of any person, or property, or throw or set fire to any firework, without having the consent, in writing, of the chairman of the local authority, or of the Council of a Shire having jurisdiction in the locality.
- (9) Every person who shall wilfully or wantonly disturb any inhabitant by pulling or ringing any door-bell, or knocking at any house without lawful excuse, or who shall wilfully and unlawfully extinguish the light or break the glass of any lamp.

- (10) Every person who shall fly any kite, or play any game or use any shanghai or other sling or instrument to the annoyance of the inhabitants or passengers, or to the common danger of the passengers.
- (11) Every person who shall turn loose, or suffer any kind of animals, belonging to him or under his charge, to stray or go about, or to be tethered or depastured in any street.
- (12) Every person who shall stand or loiter about, to the annoyance of the passers by, or who shall interfere with or impede the free passage of foot passengers.
- (13) Every person who shall lead or ride any horse or other animal, or draw, drive, or propel any carriage, cart, sledge, truck, barrow, or other vehicle or machine (not being a bath chair or perambulator), upon any footway or kerbstone, or fasten any horse or animal so that it can stand across or upon any footway.
- (14) Every person who shall roll or carry any cask, tub, hoop, or wheel, or any ladder plank, pole, showboard, or placard upon any footway except for the purpose of loading or unloading any cart or carriage or of crossing the footway.
- (15) Every person who in any street shall burn, dress, or cleanse any cork, or hoop, cleanse, fire, wash, or scald any cask or tub, or hew, saw, bore, or cut any timber or stone, or slack, sift, or screen any lime.
- (16) Every person who shall throw or lay in any street, any coals, stones, slates, shells, lime, bricks, timber, iron, or other materials (except building materials or rubbish thereby occasioned, which shall be placed or enclosed as hereinafter provided so as to prevent any mischief happening to passengers).

- (17) Every person who in any street shall beat or shake any carpet, rug or mat (except door mats before the hour of 8 in the morning), or throw or lay any dirt, litter, or ashes, or any carrion, fish, offal, bottles, broken glass, or rubbish, or throw or cause any such thing to fall into any sewer, pipe, or drain, or into any well, stream, or watercourse, pond or reservoir for water, or cause any offensive matter to run from any manufactory, brewery, slaughter house, butcher's shop, or dung-hill into any street, or any uncovered place whether or not surrounded by a wall or fence.
- (18) Every person who shall pick, take, or injure any flowers, fruit, shrubs, or trees in any public or private garden, unless with the consent of the owner, caretaker or other person authorized to give such consent, or throw any missile at any tree growing in any street or public place.
- (19) Every person who shall expose anything for sale upon or so as to hang over any carriageway or footway, or on the outside of any house, or shop, or who shall set up or continue any pole, blind, awning, line, or any other projection from any window, parapet, or other part of any house, shop or other building, so as to cause any annoyance or obstruction in any street.
- (20) Any driver or guard of a public vehicle for the conveyance of passengers wilfully delaying on the road, using any abusive or insulting language to any passenger or by reason of intoxication, negligence or other misconduct, endangering the safety or property of any passenger or other person, or demanding or exacting more than the proper fare due from any passenger.

And it shall be lawful for any constable to take into custody, without warrant, any person who shall commit any such offence within view of such constable.

[Section 96 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.33; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Penalty for destruction of acclimatised animals or birds

97. Every person who shall wilfully injure or destroy, or attempt to injure or destroy, any native or acclimatised animals or birds which may be on any park or public road or reserve, without the authority of the person having the care and management of such park, public road, or reserve, as the case may be, shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty not exceeding $500 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

[Section 97 amended by No. 6 of 1954 s.6; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.63.]

Street musicians to depart when desired to do so

98. Every householder personally, or by his servant, or by any police constable, may require any street musicians to depart from the neighbourhood of the house of such householder, on account of the illness of any inmate of such house, or for any reasonable cause; and every person who shall sound or play upon any musical instrument in any street, near to, and so as to be heard at such house, after being so required to depart, shall, on conviction, be liable to a penalty of not more than $20; and every person who shall play or sound upon any musical instrument in any street, and against whom any information may be laid by any inhabitant (who may be annoyed by the playing or sounding of such musical instrument), or by any constable, upon the written complaint of such inhabitant, shall be liable, on conviction, to a penalty of not more than $20.

[Section 98 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.34; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

s. 99

Cannon, etc. not to be fired near dwelling houses

99. Every person other than persons acting in obedience to lawful authority, who shall discharge any cannon or other firearm of greater calibre than a common fowling piece within 300 metres of any dwelling house within any city or town to the annoyance of any inhabitant thereof, after being warned of the annoyance by any inhabitant, shall on conviction be liable to a penalty of not more than $40.

[Section 99 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.35; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 94 of 1972 s.4.]

Hog-sties and nuisances not removed on complaint

100. In case any privy, pig-sty, or any other place, matter, or thing, shall be or become a nuisance to any of the inhabitants in any city or town, any 2 or more Justices, upon complaint, on oath, thereof to them made by any such inhabitant, and after due investigation into such complaint, may order that every or any such privy, pig-sty, or other place, matter, or thing being a nuisance, shall be remedied or removed within 7 days after notice shall have been given to the owner or occupier of the premises wherein such nuisance shall exist, to remedy or remove the same, and any such notice may be left for such owner or occupier at his or her last or usual place of abode, or on the said premises; and every such occupier neglecting to remedy or remove such nuisance pursuant to such notice, and to the satisfaction of such Justices shall forfeit, and pay, on conviction before such Justices a sum not exceeding $40 for every such neglect and disobedience; and such Justices may order at the same time such nuisance to be removed, taken down, and abated, at the expense of the person in default, and payment thereof may be enforced as a penalty on summary conviction.

[Section 100 amended by No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Butchers' shambles and slaughter houses

101. It shall be lawful for any Justice and for any constable authorized and deputed by any writing under the hand of a Justice, from time to time, and when and as often as he or either of them shall see occasion, to visit and inspect any butchers' shambles and slaughter houses and slaughter house yards, and to give such directions concerning the cleansing the said shambles, slaughter houses, and slaughter house yards, both within and without, as to him shall seem needful; and any butcher and the owner or occupier of any such shambles, slaughter house, or slaughter house yard who shall obstruct or molest any such Justice or constable in the inspection thereof, or who shall refuse or neglect to comply with such directions within a reasonable time, shall on conviction on the complaint of any such Justice, or constable, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $40.

Inspection of meat

102. Any constable may at any time enter into any slaughter house, shambles, shop, or other premises where meat is prepared or exposed for sale, and inspect and examine any meat there found, and if in his opinion any such meat shall be unfit for human consumption, he shall at once summon the person who has prepared or exposed for sale such meat before a Justice, who, on being satisfied that the meat so complained of is unfit for human consumption, may order it to be destroyed; and such person shall also be deemed guilty of an offence, and, upon conviction, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding $100, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month. Any meat which shall be blown for the purpose of improving its appearance shall be deemed unfit for human consumption.

As to private avenues

103. Any owner or occupier of any house or place who shall neglect to keep clean all private avenues, passages, yards, and ways, within the said premises, so as by such neglect to cause a nuisance by offensive smell or otherwise, shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $40, for every such offence.

s. 104

[Section 103 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.38; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Bathing prohibited within certain limits

104. No person shall bathe, unless in proper bathing costume, near to or within view of any public wharf, quay, jetty, bridge, street, road, or other place of public resort, between the hours of 6 in the morning and 8 in the evening; and any person who shall offend against this regulation shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $40; and any constable may take into custody any person who shall commit any such offence within view of such constable.

[Section 104 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.39; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

As to damaging public buildings

105. Every person who shall damage any public building, wall, parapet, sluice, bridge, road, street, sewer, watercourse, or other public property, shall pay the cost of repairing the same; and if the same be wilfully done shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a further sum not exceeding $40.

[Section 105 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.40; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

As to watercourses

106. Every person who shall cast any bottles, earthenware, filth, rubbish, or any noxious substance into any watercourse, drain, river, ornamental water, canal, or reservoir, or shall obstruct or divert from its channel any public sewer, watercourse, drain or canal, shall, on conviction, forfeit a sum not exceeding $40, and shall pay the cost of removing such filth or obstruction, or of restoring such sewer, watercourse, drain, or canal to its proper channel.

[Section 106 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.41; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

As to injuring public fountains

107. Every person who shall injure any public fountain, pump, cock, or water-pipe, or any pipe thereof, shall pay the cost of repairing the same; and if the injury be wilfully done, shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a further sum not exceeding $500 or be liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months; and every person who shall have in his possession any private key for the purpose of opening any cock, or who shall in any matter clandestinely or unlawfully appropriate to his use any water from any public fountain or pipe, shall, on conviction, forfeit a sum not exceeding $40; and every person who shall open, or leave open any cock or any public fountain or pump, so that the water shall or may run to waste, shall, on conviction, forfeit a sum not exceeding $20; and every person who shall wash any clothes or animal at any public fountain or pump shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $10.

[Section 107 amended by No. 6 of 1954 s.7; No. 28 of 1964 s.42; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.65.]

Slops, night-soil, etc., to be conveyed away only at certain hours

108. If any person shall drive or cause to be driven any cart or other carriage with any night-soil or ammoniacal liquor or other such offensive matter therein through or in any street, between the hours of 5 o'clock in the morning and half past 11 o'clock at night, or who shall at any time use for any such purpose any cask, tank, cart, or carriage not having a proper covering, or shall fill any cart or other carriage so as to turn over or cast any night-soil, ammoniacal liquor, or such other offensive matter, in or upon any of such streets, public places, or thoroughfares, it shall and may be lawful for any person whomsoever to seize and apprehend, and to assist in seizing and apprehending, the offender, and to hand him over to the custody of any constable until he can be brought before a Justice, and every such person so offending and his employer and also the owner of any such cart or carriage shall, on conviction of such offence, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding $40.

s. 109

[Section 108 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.43; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Hours of removing night-soil, etc.

109. If any person shall empty, or begin to empty, any privy, or take away any night-soil, or shall go with carts or carriages for that purpose, except between the hours of half-past 11 at night and 5 in the morning; and if any person shall put in or cast out of any cart, or tub, or otherwise, any offensive matter, in or near any street, every such offender shall, upon conviction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding $100 or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one calendar month; and the owner of any carts, carriages, horses, or beasts employed in and about emptying and removing such night-soil, or going for that purpose (save and except within the hours hereby allowed), and the employers of any person who shall so put or cast out any such night-soil, shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $40 for every such offence.

[Section 109 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.44; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.66.]

Persons in charge of stock to remove such as may die on public road or highway, or bury the same

110. The person in charge of any animal travelling along any public road or highway shall remove the bodies of any that may die on such road or highway to a distance of 100 metres from such road or highway, or bury the same one metre beneath the surface of the ground; and in default of so doing such person shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding $40. And if any person shall throw, or cause to be thrown, any dead animal into any harbour, river, creek, water hole, or cove, in, near, or adjacent to any city or town, or leave or cause the same to be left upon the shores thereof, or in any manner pollute or render useless any well in any city or town, or any well or spring or pool on any unfenced or unenclosed land in the said State, he shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding $40; and it shall be lawful for any police constable, without warrant, to seize any person whom he shall find committing the said offence, and to take him before any Justice, or cause him to be detained in any police station, or lock-up, or other place of security, until he can be brought before a Justice, to be dealt with according to law, and every such offender shall in addition to such fine pay the expense of cleaning, restoring, and purifying such well, pool, or spring.

[Section 110 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.45; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 94 of 1972 s.4.]

No turf, gravel, etc., to be removed from streets without permission

111. Every person who shall form, dig or open any drain or sewer, or remove, or cause to be removed, any turf, clay, sand, soil, gravel, or stone, or other material used in the formation of the streets, roads, or other public highways in or from any part of the carriage or foot ways within any city, town, or suburb without the leave first had and obtained of the chairman of the local authority or who shall wantonly break up or otherwise damage the said streets, roads, carriage or foot ways shall, on conviction forfeit and pay for every such offence any sum not exceeding $40.

[Section 111 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.46; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Drawing or trailing timber, etc.

112. If any person shall haul or draw, or cause to be hauled or drawn, upon any road, street, thoroughfare, bridge, causeway, or public place, any timber, stone, or other material or thing, otherwise than upon wheeled carriages, or shall suffer any timber, stone, or other material or thing, which shall be carried principally or in part upon wheeled carriages, to drag or trail upon any part of such road, street, thoroughfare, bridge, causeway, or public place to the injury thereof, or to hang over and beyond any part of any such carriage, so as to occupy or obstruct the road beyond the breadth of the said carriage, every such person so offending shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding $40 together with the damages occasioned thereby: Provided that nothing herein contained shall apply to vehicles loaded with hay, wool, or rushes.

s. 113

[Section 112 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.47; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Entrances to cellars, coal-holes, etc., to be covered and secured

113. If the owner or occupier of any house, building, or premises, having any iron or wooden rails or bars over the areas, or openings to any kitchens or cellars, or other part or parts of the said house, building, or premises beneath the level of the footway of any street, or public places, or having any doorway or entrance into the basement or cellar story thereof, shall not either keep the same, and the rails of such kitchens or cellars, in sufficient and good repair, or safely and securely guard, and constantly keep the same securely guarded by rail, or cover the same over with a strong flap or trap-door according to the nature of the case, and so as to prevent danger to any persons passing and repassing; or if any such owner or occupier do or shall leave open, or not sufficiently and substantially cover, and keep covered and secured, any hole, funnel, trap-door, or cellar-flap belonging to or connected with his house, building, or premises (save and except only during such reasonable times as any coal, wood, casks, or other things shall be putting down or taking up out of any such vault or basement story, or during such reasonable times as the flap, trap-door, or covering thereof shall be altering, repairing, or amending); or if such owner or occupier shall not repair, and from time to time keep in good and substantial repair, all and every, or any such iron or wooden rails, guard-rails, flaps, trap-doors, and other covering, then, and in every such case, the persons neglecting so to do, for every such offence, shall on conviction, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding $40.

[Section 113 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.48; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Cellars or openings beneath the surface of footways prohibited

114. No person shall make any cellar, or any opening, door, or window, in or beneath the surface of the footway of any street or public place, and if any person shall offend in the premises he shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $40 and also the expense of remedying or removing any such cellar, opening, door, or window made contrary to the provisions hereof.

[Section 114 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.49; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Wells to be covered over

115. Every person having a well situated between his dwelling house, or the appurtenances thereof, and in any street or footway, or at the side thereof, or in any yard or place, open and exposed to such street or footway, who shall not cause such well to be securely and permanently covered over or otherwise secured shall, upon conviction, for every such offence, forfeit and pay the sum of $2 for every day that such well shall remain open or uncovered contrary to the provisions of this Act.

[Section 115 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.50; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Holes made for vaults, etc., to be enclosed

116. Any person who, being the owner or occupier of any vacant ground, or any house, tenement, or building erected, or being erected, or about to be erected, before, adjoining, or at the side of which, and adjoining to any road, street, or public place, or thoroughfare formed, or to be formed, or in course of formation, shall dig or make, or cause to be dug or made, any hole, or cause to be left any hole, for the purpose of making any vault, or the foundation to such house or other buildings, or for any other purposes whatsoever, and shall not forthwith enclose the same in a good and sufficient manner, or who shall keep up, or cause to be kept up and continued, any such enclosure for any time which shall be longer than shall be absolutely necessary, or shall not, when thereunto required by any Justice, well and sufficiently fence or enclose any such hole, or area, or space, opened, or left open, and intended for an area, foundation, or for any other purpose whatsoever, in the front of, or behind, or on the site of any such vacant ground, house, or other tenement or building, 24 hours after he shall be required to do so by any Justice, and in the manner, and with such materials, as he shall direct, and to his satisfaction, and shall not place a light upon the said enclosure, and keep the same constantly burning from sunset to sunrise, during the continuance of such enclosure; then every person so offending shall on conviction forfeit and pay for every such offence, and for every such refusal or neglect, any sum not exceeding $40.

Stalls, etc., not to be set on foot or carriage ways

117. If any person shall set or place, or cause or permit to be set or placed any stall, board, chopping blocks, showboard (on hinges or otherwise), basket wares, merchandise, casks, or goods of any kind whatsoever, or shall hoop, place, wash or cleanse, or cause to be hooped, placed, washed or cleansed any pipe, barrel, cask, or vessel in or upon or over any of the carriage or footways in any such streets or public places of any city or town; or if any person shall set or place or cause to be set or placed in or upon or over any of the said carriage or footways, any timber, stones, bricks, lime, or other materials, or things for building whatsoever (unless with the permission in writing of the chairman of the local authority), or any other matters or things whatsoever, or shall hang out or expose, or shall cause or permit to be hung out or exposed any meat or offal or other thing or matter whatsoever from any house or houses or other buildings or premises over any part of either or any part of such footways or carriageways, or over any area or areas of any house or other buildings or premises, or any other matter or thing from and on the outside of the front or any other part of any house or houses or other buildings or premises over or next unto any such street or public place, and shall not immediately remove all or any such matters or things, being thereto required by any Justice, or chairman of the local authority, or by any police constable, and shall not continue and keep the same so removed; or if any person having in pursuance of any such requisition as aforesaid removed or caused to be removed any such stall, board, showboard, chopping blocks, basket wares, merchandise, timber, stone, bricks, lime, meat, offal, or other matters or things, shall at any time thereafter again set, lay, place or expose, or put, or cause, procure, permit, or suffer to be laid, placed, exposed, or put out the same or any of them, or any other stall, board, showboard, chopping block, basket wares, merchandise, goods, timber, stones, bricks, lime, meat, offal, or other things or matters whatsoever (save and except as aforesaid), in, upon, or over any of the carriage or footways of or next unto any street or public places as aforesaid, then and in every such case every person so offending shall upon conviction, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $40.

Not to prevent awnings being erected in front of shops

118. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to prevent any person from placing an awning in front of his shop or house: Provided, however, that such awning be at least 2 metres above the height of the footway in front of such house or shop and that the posts be placed close up to the kerbstone or outer edge of such footway and subject to the approval of the chairman of the local authority.

[Section 118 amended by No. 94 of 1972 s.4.]

Rain not to be allowed from eaves of houses on footways

119. If at any time any house or buildings in any city or town shall not be provided with gutters or otherwise so constructed as to prevent rain from dropping from the eaves thereof upon any of the footways of any street or public place within such city or town, the owner or occupier of such house or building shall on conviction forfeit and pay the sum of $2 and a like sum for every day that the same may not be prevented or remedied by gutters or otherwise.

[Section 119 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.53; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Boards to be erected, but not without licence

120. No person or persons whatsoever shall erect, place, set up, or build in any street or public place within any city or town, any board or scaffolding, or place or erect any posts, bars, rails, boards, or other things by way of enclosure for the purpose of making mortar, or of depositing, sifting, screening, or slacking any brick, stone, lime, sand, or any other materials for building or repairing any house or other tenement or erection or for other works, or for any other purpose without leave or licence first had and obtained under the hand of the chairman of the local authority, who is hereby required to grant the same forthwith for the purpose of making mortar and depositing or sifting, screening, or slacking any bricks, stone, lime, sand, or any other materials for building or repairing any house or other tenement or erection, specifying therein the length of time for which the same when so erected and set up may be continued, and giving such other directions respecting the same as he may think necessary, on being paid by every person so applying for such licence the sum of 25 cents; and if any person or persons shall place, set up, erect, or build, or cause or permit to be erected, placed, set up, or built any such board or scaffolding, or any enclosure post, bars, or rails, or any other matter or thing, for the purposes aforesaid or for any other purpose, without the leave or licence signed as aforesaid of the said chairman so had and obtained, or shall erect, set up, or build, or cause or permit the same to be erected, set up, or built, in any other manner, or be continued for any longer time than shall be allowed or expressed in such licence, then and in either of the said cases such person, or the persons, or the person or persons by whom he or they shall or may be employed, shall forfeit and pay the sum of $2 for every day that the same shall have been or shall be set up and continued; and also it shall and may be lawful for the said chairman to cause the same to be pulled down and removed and the same and all the materials thereof and of every part thereof to be kept and detained until such person or persons shall and do pay the said chairman, or to the person or persons in whose custody the same shall be, all the penalties incurred by such person or persons, together with the charges of pulling down, removing, and keeping the same, to be ascertained and determined by the said chairman; and in case the same shall not be claimed, and the said penalties and charges aforesaid shall not be paid within the space of 5 days next after the pulling down and removing thereof, then it shall and maybe lawful to and for the said chairman to order or cause the same to be appraised and sold, and the money arising therefrom, after deducting the said charges, shall be appropriated to the uses of the said local authority.

No rock to be blasted without notice

121. Every person who shall be desirous of blasting any stone, rock, tree, or other matter within the limits of any city or town shall first give notice in writing 24 hours previously, to the chairman of the local authority, or to the stipendiary magistrate of any city or town, who shall appoint a time when the same may take place, and give such other directions in writing as he may deem necessary for the public safety; and if any person shall blast or cause to be blasted any rock or other matter within the limits aforesaid without giving such notice and obtaining such directions, or shall not conform to the directions given to him, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding $40.

[Section 121 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.55; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

PART VIII — MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Lodging houses, etc., may be searched

122. Any Justice, upon information on oath that any person who has been convicted of an offence against section 65, 66 or 67, is, or is suspected to be, in any place, kept or purporting to be kept for the reception, lodging, or entertainment of travellers or others or that any place is a disorderly house, house of ill-fame, brothel, or bawdy-house, or place where liquor is reasonably suspected of being illegally sold may enter the same at any time by day or night, or issue his warrant authorizing any constable or other person in like manner to enter the same, from time to time and to apprehend and bring before him, or any other Justice, every such convicted person, and to seize any liquor found therein, to be dealt with according to law.

[Section 122 amended by No. 91 of 1975 s.67.]

Horses, carriages, etc., of offenders may be detained

123. Whenever any person having charge of any horse, cart, carriage, or boat, or any other animal or thing, shall be taken into custody of any police constable under the provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for any police constable to take charge of such horse, cart, carriage, or boat, or such other animal or thing, and to deposit the same in some place of safe custody as a security for payment of any penalty to which the person having had charge thereof may become liable, and for payment of any expenses which may have been necessarily incurred for taking charge of and keeping the same; and it shall be lawful for any Justice before whom the case shall have been heard, to order such horse, cart, carriage, or boat, or such other animal or thing to be sold, for the purpose of satisfying such penalty and reasonable expenses in default of payment thereof, in like manner as if the same had been subject to be distrained and had been distrained for the payment of such penalty and reasonable expenses.

Penalty for offences where no special penalty is appointed

124. Every offence against this Act for which no special penalty is appointed shall render the offender liable, on conviction before a Justice, to a penalty of not more than $100 or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one calendar month in any gaol of the said State, either with or without hard labour.

[Section 124 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.56; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.68.]

Penalty for compounding informations

125. In case any person shall lodge any information before any Justice for any offence alleged to have been committed, by which he was not personally aggrieved, and shall afterwards directly or indirectly receive, without the permission of such Justice, any sum of money or other reward for compounding, delaying, or withdrawing the information, he shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding $500, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

[Section 125 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.57; No. 113 of 1965 s.8; No. 91 of 1975 s.69.]

This Act not to prevent the indictment of offenders, or liability for higher penalties

126. Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to save any person from being indicted or prosecuted for any indictable offence made punishable on summary conviction by this Act, or to prevent any person from being liable to any higher or other penalty or punishment than is provided for such offence by this Act, so nevertheless that no person be punished twice for the same offence.

s. 127

Certain offenders may be committed to court of superior jurisdiction

127. Where any person is charged before any Justice with an offence cognisable by a court of superior jurisdiction, and in the opinion of such Justice the case is proper to be disposed of by such court, the Justice before whom such person is so charged may commit such person for trial to any court of competent jurisdiction, and shall at the same time forward the depositions taken in the case to the proper officer of such court.

Amends for frivolous informations

128. In every case in which any information or complaint of any offence shall be laid or made before any Justice, and shall not be further prosecuted, or in which if further prosecuted it shall appear to the Justice by whom the case shall be heard that there was no sufficient ground for making the charge, such Justice shall have power to award, in addition to costs, such amends, not more than the sum of $100, to be paid by the informer to the party informed or complained against, for his loss of time and expenses in the matter, as to such Justice shall seem fit, or to order that the informer be imprisoned for a term not exceeding 6 months: Provided that this section shall not apply to any information or charge preferred by any police officer or constable.

[Section 128 amended by No. 28 of 1964 s.58; No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Police moiety of fines, etc., to be paid to the Treasurer

129. When any person employed in the said Police Force shall be entitled to the whole or any portion of any forfeiture, penalty or seizure under this or any other Act in force within the said State, the amount of the proceeds thereof shall go to the Treasurer to the use of Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, for the public use of the said State.

[Section 129 amended by No. 8 of 1925 s.2.]

[130, 131, 132. Repealed by 2 Edwardi VII., No. 11, s.2.]

Proceedings may be taken against master for offences committed by servant under his order or sanction

133. In any case where under this Act any offence is created and it appears to the Justice before whom the complaint or information against any person for the commission of any such offence may be heard that the person committing the same has acted only under the orders or by the sanction of any master or employer of any such person, and that such master or employer is in fact the offending party, either solely or as well as such person so rendered liable, such Justice may summon and proceed against such master or employer as if the information or complaint had originally been laid or made against any such master or employer, and may either discharge such person so first informed or complained against, or may otherwise proceed against both as such Justice may see fit.

Offence punishable summarily

134. All offences against this Act shall, except where otherwise provided, be summarily punishable on conviction before any Justice in petty sessions, and so much of every pecuniary penalty as shall not be awarded to the informer or party prosecuting shall be appropriated to the use of the Crown for the public uses of the State.

Amends, etc., to be assessed by Justice

135. In every case where, under the provisions of this Act, any person may be liable to pay any sum of money by way of amends, compensation, or damages, or for the value of or the costs or expenses of repairing, reinstating, or making good any injury or damage done or occasioned by him to any property, article, or thing, the Justice before whom the charge against such person shall be heard shall assess and determine the sum of money payable as aforesaid, and order the payment of the same to such person or persons and at such time or times and either in one sum or by

s. 137

instalments as such Justice may think fit, and every such sum of money shall be enforced and recoverable in like manner as any pecuniary penalty under this Act.

[136. Repealed by 2 Edwardi VII., No. 11, s.2.]

Justice not bound to convict in certain cases

137. A Justice or Justices shall not be bound to convict if the offence proved shall, in the opinion of such Justice or Justices, be of so trivial a nature as not to merit punishment.

Shortening Ordinance, incorporation

138. Sections A, D, G, and H of "The Shortening Ordinance 1853",⁴ shall be incorporated with and taken to form part of this Act to all intents and purposes, and in as full and ample a manner as if the said section had been introduced and fully set forth in this Act.

Regulations

138A. (1) The Governor may make regulations, not inconsistent with this Act, prescribing all matters that by this Act, are required or permitted to be prescribed, or that are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to this Act.

(2) The regulations may impose penalties not exceeding in any case $100, in respect of the contravention of any provision thereof.

(3) The regulations may prescribe fees that may be charged for the issue of certificates or the provision of services, including the services of escorts or guards.

[Section 138A inserted by No. 85 of 1970 s.13;
amended by No. 71 of 1980 s.7.]

[139, 140, 141. Repealed by 2 Edwardi VII., No. 11, s.2.]

Commencement of Act

142. This Act shall come into force on 1 April 1892.
