DECIMAL CURRENCY.

No. 113 of 1965.

AN ACT to amend the Law of the State in consequence of the adoption in Australia of Decimal Currency; and for incidental and other purposes.

[Assented to 21st December, 1965.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the Legislative Assembly of Western Australia, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Decimal Currency Act, 1965. Short title.

Commencement.

2. (1) The provisions of this Act, except sections four to nine, both inclusive, shall come into operation on the day on which this Act receives the Royal Assent.

(2) Sections four to nine, both inclusive, of this Act shall come into operation on the fourteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six.

Interpretation.

3. In this Act unless the contrary intention appears—

“appointed day” means the fourteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six;

“Commonwealth Currency Act” means the Currency Act 1965 of the Commonwealth, as amended from time to time, or any Act enacted in substitution for that Act;

“law of the State” means—

- (a) an Act;
- (b) any regulation, rule or by-law made under or having effect by virtue of an Act; and
- (c) any statutory instrument;

“new currency” means the currency of Australia provided for by the Commonwealth Currency Act;

“old currency” means the currency provided for by the Coinage Act 1909-1947 of the Commonwealth repealed by the Commonwealth Currency Act;

“statutory instrument” includes any proclamation, order in council, determination, award, fixation, order, or other instrument made under the authority, or having effect by virtue, of an Act or of any regulation, rule or by-law made under an Act; but does not include—

- (a) a judgment or order given or made by a court, judge, magistrate or justice in any civil or criminal proceedings; or
- (b) any instrument that the Governor by Order in Council declares, either specifically or by reference to the class to which the instrument belongs, is not a statutory instrument.

4. (1) Each of the Acts specified in the First Schedule to this Act is amended to the extent to which the Act so specified is expressed in that Schedule to be amended, and subject thereto by substituting for every reference in that Act to an amount of money in terms of the old currency the reference that in accordance with the provisions of section five of this Act would be read and construed as the reference to a corresponding amount of money in terms of the new currency.

Amendments
to Acts specified in First Schedule.

(2) An Act as and when amended pursuant to this section may be cited showing the figures representing the year of its passing followed by the passage “-1965”.

5. (1) Subject to section four of this Act and to subsections (2), (3) and (4) of this section, a reference in a law of the State to an amount of money in terms of the old currency shall, unless the context is such that it would be inappropriate or the contrary intention appears, be read and construed as a reference to a corresponding amount of money in terms of the new currency calculated on the basis of the equivalents specified in subsection (4) of section eight of the Commonwealth Currency Act.

References
to old currency
to be construed as references
to new currency.

(2) Where such a reference as is referred to in subsection (1) of this section is to a percentage or other proportion expressed in terms of money, that reference however expressed shall be read and construed as a reference to an equivalent percentage or other proportion expressed in terms of money in the new currency.

(3) A provision in any law of the State that an amount of money shall be calculated to the nearest pound, to the nearest shilling, or to the nearest penny shall be read and construed as a provision that such amount shall be calculated—

- (a) to the nearest dollar, in the case of a reference to the nearest pound;
- (b) to the amount of ten cents or the nearest multiple of ten cents, in the case of a reference to the nearest shilling; and
- (c) to the nearest cent, in the case of a reference to the nearest penny.

(4) For the purposes of this section a guinea is one pound one shilling in denominations of money in the old currency.

Second
Schedule.

(5) For facilitating the construction of this section—

- (a) the equivalents that are specified in subsection (4) of section eight of the Commonwealth Currency Act are set out in Part A of the Second Schedule to this Act;
- (b) examples of the manner of expression, where applicable, of equivalent percentages and other proportions of money in the new currency to which percentages and other proportions expressed in terms of money in the old currency are construed to refer by reason of subsection (2) of this section, are set out in Part B of the Second Schedule to this Act.

6. Where a law of the State contains a form that refers to an amount of money in terms of the old currency or provides for an amount of money to be specified in that currency, a person using the form may complete it in such a manner as to set forth the equivalent of that amount in terms of the new currency.

Completion of forms.

7. (1) Where in any provision of a law of the State an amount of money in terms of the old currency is expressed in tabular, columnar or other similar form under or in relation to all or any of the words, "pounds, shillings and pence" or to all or any of the symbols "£ s d", or any word or symbols of like import, the word "dollars" or a symbol denoting that denomination of money in the new currency shall be substituted for that word or words or symbol or symbols in the appropriate position, and that provision shall, if necessary, be amended to the necessary extent accordingly.

Provisions
as to amounts shown in
form.

(2) Where after the appointed day a reference to an amount of money in terms of the new currency is expressed in figures in a law of the State, that reference shall denote the amount of money by a symbol denoting the dollar followed by such figures expressing that amount of money as are appropriate to the particular case, and any such reference may be so denoted in accordance with the recommendations as to notation in the new currency set out in the Third Schedule to this Act.

Third
Schedule.

8. (1) Where a reference in any Act or regulation to an amount of money in terms of the old currency is by force of this Act read and construed as a reference to a corresponding amount of money in terms of the new currency, that construction shall, on any reprint of that Act pursuant to the Amendments Incorporation Act, 1938, or on any reprint of the regulations containing that regulation pursuant to the Reprinting of Regulations Act,

amendments
to Acts and regulations
on reprints.

1954, be and be deemed to be for the purposes of that reprint an amendment to that Act, or as the case may be, that regulation.

(2) The amendments effected to any regulation as referred to in this section are not, and shall not be deemed to be, regulations to which the provisions of section thirty-six of the Interpretation Act, 1918, apply and are not subject to those provisions.

(3) In this section the term "regulation" includes rule and by-law.

Provisions of this Act not to apply in certain cases.

9. The provisions of section four and five of this Act do not apply to any reference in a law of the State to an amount of money expressed in terms of a currency other than the currency of Australia, or in respect of any law of the State or any provision of any such law that has expired or ceased to have effect, or is spent or has become exhausted, but which law or provision has not been repealed or revoked.

Transactions in old currency after the appointed day.

10. (1) Where after the appointed day any matter or thing relating to money is by virtue of the provisions of Part V of the Commonwealth Currency Act made, executed, entered into or done according to the old currency, any amount payable under or for the purposes of any law of the State in respect of that matter or thing shall be the amount in terms of the new currency that would be payable if the references in the old currency in that matter or thing were expressed in the new currency on the basis of the equivalents specified in subsection (4) of section eight of the Commonwealth Currency Act.

(2) In and for the purposes of this section, the expression "matter or thing" includes payment, sale, security for money, contract, agreement, deed, instrument, transaction and dealing.

11. (1) The Governor may by Order in Council give such directions and take such actions, not inconsistent with this Act, as in his opinion are necessary or convenient for the administration of this Act or for carrying out its objects and purposes.

Power to Governor to resolve doubts, etc.

(2) Without in any way limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, Orders in Council may be made for or with respect to—

- (a) resolving doubts or difficulties arising, or which in the opinion of the Governor may arise, in respect of the correspondence (calculated on the basis of the equivalents specified in subsection (4) of section eight of the Commonwealth Currency Act) of amounts of money, or percentages or other proportions expressed in terms of money, in the old currency referred to in a law of the State to which section five of this Act applies, to amounts of money or percentages or other proportions expressed in terms of the new currency;
- (b) correcting any errors or anomalies that in the opinion of the Governor have arisen in the substitution of references to amounts of money, or percentages or other proportions affecting money, in respect of the old currency to amounts of money, percentages or other proportions in respect of the new currency;
- (c) declaring that any reference to an amount of money in the old currency, including any reference to a percentage or other proportion affecting money, that has been amended or substituted pursuant to the provisions of this Act be not amended or substituted;
- (d) amending the First Schedule to this Act by adding thereto any Act or any provision of any Act requiring amendment in consequence of this Act or the adoption of the new currency and specifying particulars of the amendments to be made to the Act or provision so added.

Amendment of statutory instruments.

12. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Act or law the Governor, on the recommendation of the Minister administering the law of the State under which a regulation or statutory instrument has been made, may, if he considers it necessary in order to give effect to the objects of this Act, by Order in Council amend that regulation or statutory instrument—

- (a) for the purpose of substituting a reference to an amount of money in terms of the new currency for any reference in that regulation or statutory instrument to an amount of money in terms of the old currency; and
- (b) for any purpose ancillary to or consequent upon any such substitution, and every such amendment shall take effect on the day specified in the Order, not being a day earlier than the appointed day, but if no such day is so specified shall take effect on the date of the publication of that Order in the Government Gazette, or if that date is earlier than the appointed day, then on and after the appointed day.

(2) An Order made pursuant to this section may be made without regard to any method prescribed by law for the amendment of a regulation or statutory instrument of the kind in question or to the fact that any such regulation or statutory instrument may be incapable of amendment apart from this section.

(3) An amendment made by an Order under this section shall not affect the scope or period of operation of the regulation or statutory instrument amended thereby or be the subject of any appeal or disallowance or similar procedure, but every regulation or statutory instrument so amended shall in all other respects take effect subject to the amendment from the day on which under this section it becomes effective.

(4) In this section the term "regulation" includes rule and by-law.

13. (1) Subject to section twelve of this Act, an Order in Council made under this Act takes effect according to its tenor on the day specified in the Order as that on which it takes effect, but if a day is not so specified, takes effect on the day of the publication of that Order in the Government Gazette.

Orders in Council.

(2) An Order in Council made under this Act may be varied or cancelled, or an error in an Order may be rectified, by the Governor by a subsequent Order in Council.

14. Where in any law of the State passed or made before the appointed day there is a reference to the date of the commencement of Part II of the Currency Act 1963 of the Commonwealth, that reference shall be read and construed as a reference to the appointed day.

Construction of references to the Currency Act, 1963, of the Commonwealth.

15. (1) For the purpose of enabling The Rural and Industries Bank of Western Australia established under the Rural and Industries Bank Act, 1944, to facilitate the transition of its banking business from the system of the old currency to the system of the new currency, the Minister by notice in the Government Gazette may appoint a day or days, being days earlier than the appointed day, during which that Bank and its branches may be closed to the public.

Minister may appoint days for closure of The Rural and Industries Bank.

(2) A notice under this section shall have effect according to its tenor, notwithstanding the provisions of any other Act.
