AND MATTERS

Transfer of actions and matters

71. Where an action or matter is commenced in the Court sitting at a place that should have been commenced in the Court sitting at another place, the Court or a District Court Judge may order its removal to be tried or heard by the Court sitting at that other place, or may so order that the action or matter be tried or heard in the Court sitting at the place in which it has been commenced.

Power of District Court Judge to change venue

72. Where a District Court Judge is satisfied that an action which is listed to be heard in the Court sitting at a place can be more conveniently or fairly tried in the Court sitting at another place, he may order, on such terms and conditions as he thinks fit, the action to be sent for trial to the Court sitting at that other place.

Remitting action to the Court

73. When an action or matter is brought in the Supreme Court that might have been brought in the Court without the consent of the defendant—

- (a) the defendant may, at any time, apply to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof for an order remitting the action or matter to the Court sitting at such place as the order specifies, and the Supreme Court or Judge thereof shall make an order accordingly, unless it or he considers that under the circumstances of the case it is advisable that the action or matter should be tried in the Supreme Court; or

- (b) the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, without any such application, may make such an order, if it or he thinks fit.

(2) When, in an action or matter brought in the Supreme Court—

- (a) the claim, though it originally exceeded $80 000, is reduced by payment into Court, an admitted set-off, or otherwise, to a sum not exceeding $80 000;
- (b) in which the claim exceeds $80 000, the plaintiff obtains judgment on part of the claim and the remainder of the claim does not exceed $80 000; or
- (c) there is an interlocutory judgment for damages to be assessed and the action or matter or a question or issue therein is otherwise within the jurisdiction of the District Court, any of the parties to the action or matter may, at any time, apply to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof for an order remitting the action or matter, or question or issue, as the case may be, to the Court sitting at such place as the order specifies, and the Supreme Court or Judge thereof shall make an order accordingly unless it or he considers that under the circumstances of the case it is advisable that the action, matter, question or issue should be tried in the Supreme Court.

(3) A sum of money referred to in subsection (2) does not include any interest which may be payable in the particular action.

(4) The Supreme Court or a Judge thereof may make an order referred to in subsection (2), if it or he thinks fit, without an application from any of the parties.

(5) The Chief Justice of Western Australia may make an order, at any time after hearing the parties concerned, remitting to the Court any action or matter that—

- (a) is commenced under the Supreme Court Act 1935;
- (b) is pending on the date of the coming into operation of any written law amending the jurisdiction of the Court; and
- (c) could have been commenced under this Act if the written law referred to in paragraph (b) had been in operation when the action was so commenced, unless the Chief Justice of Western Australia considers that under the circumstances of the case it is advisable that the action or matter should be tried in the Supreme Court.

[Section 73 amended by No. 122 of 1984 s. 11.]

Remitting of action to Local Court

74. (1) When an action is brought in the Court that might have been brought in a Local Court without the consent of the defendant—

- (a) the defendant may, at any time, apply to the Court or a Judge thereof, for an order remitting the action to the appropriate Local Court sitting at such place as is specified in the order, and the Court or Judge thereof shall make an order accordingly, unless it or he considers that under the circumstances of the case, it is advisable that the action should be tried in the Court, or

- (b) the Court or a Judge thereof may, without any such application, make such an order if it or he thinks fit.

(2) Notwithstanding section 78 (c) so far as it relates to costs, when an action is brought in the Court that might have been brought in a Local Court without the consent of the defendant, the plaintiff is not entitled to recover a greater sum by way of costs than he could have recovered had the action been brought in a Local Court, unless the District Court Judge hearing the action certifies—

- (a) in the case of an action founded in tort, that in his opinion it was proper to bring the action in the Court instead of the Local Court; and
- (b) in any other case, that by reason of some important principle of law being involved, or of the complexity of the issues, or of the facts, the action was, in his opinion, properly brought in the Court.

Remitting of action from Local Court

75. When an action is brought in a Local Court that might have been brought in the Court, or where any defence or counterclaim of the defendant in an action brought in a Local Court involves matter beyond the jurisdiction of that Court but such matter is within the jurisdiction of the Court, the defendant may, at any time, apply to the Court or a Judge thereof for an order remitting the action to the Court sitting at such place as is specified in the order and the Court or Judge thereof shall make an order accordingly, unless it or he considers that under the circumstances of the case, it is advisable that the action should be tried in the Local Court.

Remitting action or matter to Supreme Court

76. A Judge of the Supreme Court may, upon the application of any of the parties to an action or matter brought in the Court, if he thinks fit, order that the action or matter be tried or heard in the Supreme Court sitting at such place as is specified in the order.

Remitting of certain actions or matters to Supreme Court

77. Where it appears to a District Court Judge that any action or matter brought before the Court ought from its nature, or magnitude, or by reason of the question of law involved to be heard and determined by the Supreme Court, he may make an order, remitting the action or matter to the Supreme Court.

Proceedings after order to remit

78. Upon an order being made under this Act remitting any action or matter from one court to another court—

- (a) the action or matter shall be carried on, heard and taken in the court to which the action or matter is so remitted, at the place specified in the order, and as if the action or matter had been originally brought in that court;
- (b) the appropriate officer of the court from which the action or matter is remitted shall transmit to the appropriate officer of the court to which the action or matter is remitted, a copy of the order together with a copy of the writ or other document by which the matter was commenced and of the pleadings and all other documents filed in the firstmentioned court in the action or matter;
- (c) the order may include such terms and conditions, including the payment of costs by any party, as the court or the Judge making the order, thinks fit.

PART VII—APPEALS, CERTIORARI, PROHIBITION AND *MANDAMUS

Appeals to the Full Court from judgment of the Court

79. (1) A party to an action or matter who is dissatisfied with—

- (a) a final judgment, may appeal from that judgment to the Full Court constituted under the Supreme Court Act 1935;
- (b) a judgment that is not a final judgment or an order remitting any action or matter from one court to another, may by leave of the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, appeal to such Full Court, notwithstanding that the action or matter to which the final judgment or judgment relates may have been brought in the Court by consent as provided in this Act.

(1a) Notwithstanding anything in this section, an appeal to the Full Court constituted under the Supreme Court Act 1935 in respect of a judgment, order or determination in proceedings in the Court under the Commercial Arbitration Act 1985 may be made only by leave of the Supreme Court, or a Judge thereof.

(2) An appeal under this section shall be made in the same way as an appeal from a judgment or order of the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, may be made to the Full Court, and in all respects the practice and procedure of the Full Court in the appeal shall be the same as though the appeal were an appeal to the Full Court from a judgment or order of the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof.

(3) The Full Court has jurisdiction to hear and determine the appeal accordingly.

(4) Nothing in this section authorizes a party to appeal to the Full Court against a decision of the Court—

- (a) given upon a question as to the value of any real or personal property for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of the Court under this Act; or
- (b) on the ground that the proceedings might or should have been taken at any other place where the Court was sitting.

[Section 79 amended by No. 109 of 1985 Schedule 1.]

Removal of action only in manner provided by this Act

80. No judgment or order of a District Court Judge, nor any proceedings brought before him or pending in the Court, shall be removed by appeal, motion, certiorari or otherwise into any other court, except in the manner and according to the provisions of this Act.

Certiorari* when granted

81. (1) The Supreme Court, or a Judge thereof, may order the removal into the Supreme Court, by writ of certiorari, of any cause, matter or proceeding pending in the Court, if the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof thinks it desirable that the cause, matter or proceeding should be tried in the Supreme Court.

(2) When any cause, matter or proceeding is so removed into the Supreme Court, the provisions of section 78 apply, as if the cause had been remitted to the Supreme Court under section 76.

Proceedings in the Court to be stayed

82. (1) The granting by the Supreme Court, or a Judge thereof, of a rule or summons to show cause why a writ of certiorari or of prohibition should not issue to the Court shall, if the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof so directs, operate as a stay of proceedings in the cause or matter to which such writ relates, until—

- (a) the determination of the rule or summons; or
- (b) the Supreme Court or the Judge thereof otherwise orders, and the Judge of the Court concerned shall from time to time adjourn the hearing of the cause or matter to such day as he thinks fit, until the determination or such order is made.

(2) Where a copy of the rule or summons referred to in subsection (1) is not served by the party who obtained it on the other party or parties to the cause or matter and on the appropriate Registrar of the District Court, at least 3 days before the date fixed for the hearing of the cause or matter, the Judge of the District Court may order the party who obtained the rule or summons to pay the costs of the day, or so much thereof as he thinks fit, unless the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof has made some other order respecting the costs.

Prohibition

83. (1) When an application is made to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof for a writ of prohibition addressed to a District Court Judge or the Court, the District Court Judge—

- (a) shall not be served with notice;
- (b) shall not, except by order of a Judge of the Supreme Court, be required to appear or be heard on the application; and
- (c) shall not be liable to any order for the payment of costs thereof, but the application shall be proceeded with and heard in the same manner in all respects as a case of an appeal duly brought from a judgment of a District Court Judge.

(2) Notice of the application referred to in subsection (1) shall be given to or served upon the same parties as in the case of an appeal against a judgment or an order made or refused by a District Court Judge in a matter within his jurisdiction.

Rule or summons to take place of mandamus

84. (1) No writ of mandamus shall issue to a District Court Judge or any officer of the Court for refusing to do any act relating to the duties of his office; but a party requiring the act to be done may apply to the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof, upon an affidavit of the facts, for a rule or summons calling upon the District Court Judge or officer of the Court, and also the party to be affected by the act, to show cause why the act should not be done.

(2) If after the service of the rule or summons referred to in subsection (1), good cause is not shown, the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof may, by rule or order, direct the act to be done, and the District Court Judge or the officer of the District Court, upon being served with the rule or order, shall obey it under pain of attachment.

(3) In any event the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof may make such order with respect to costs as the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof thinks fit.

Notice to be given of writ of certiorari or prohibition on ex parte application

85. When a writ of certiorari or of prohibition addressed to the Court is granted by the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof on an ex parte application, and the party who obtained it does not lodge it with the appropriate Registrar of the Court, and give notice to the other party or parties to the cause or matter to which the writ relates that it has been issued, at least 3 days before the date fixed for the hearing of the cause or matter to which the writ relates, a District Court Judge or the Court may order the party who obtained the writ to pay the costs of the day, or so much thereof as he thinks fit, unless the Supreme Court or a Judge thereof has made some other order respecting the costs.

PART VIII—PRACTICE AND PROCEDURE AND
RULES OF COURT

Power to deal with action or matter at another place

86. When any action or matter has been heard at a sitting of the Court held at any place the Court may pronounce judgment or give further hearing or consideration to the action or matter at a sitting of the Court held at another place being a place at which the Court is empowered to sit.

Priority of Supreme Court, the Court and Local Courts executions

86A. (1) When a writ of execution against the land or goods of any person has issued out of the Supreme Court, and a writ or warrant of execution against the land or goods of the same person has issued out of the Court and out of a Local Court, or has issued out of either of those Courts, the right to the property seized shall be determined by the priority of the time of the delivery of the writ so issued out of the Supreme Court to the Sheriff to be executed, or the time of the application to the Registrar or the Clerk for the issue from the Court or the Local Court, of the writ or warrant of execution, whichever is the earlier or earliest as the case may be.

(2) For the purposes of determining the priority referred to in subsection (1), the Sheriff, the Registrar and the Clerk of the Local Court shall, on request the one to the other, give information to the one requesting it, as to the precise time of the delivery of the writ so issued out of the Supreme Court or the precise time of the application to the Registrar or the Clerk for the issue from the Court or the Local Court of the writ or warrant of execution, as the case may be.

[Section 86A inserted by No. 14 of 1970 s. 11.]

Procedure and practice

87. (1) Subject to this Act, the practice and procedure of the Court shall be governed by the Rules of Court, and until provision is made by Rules of Court or where no special provision is contained in the Rules of Court, the Rules of Court of the Supreme Court for the time being in force, so far as applicable, apply to the Court.

(2) A reference in any other provision of this Act to Rules of Court shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be read as including a reference to the Rules of the Supreme Court as applied by this section.

Rules of Court

88. (1) The District Court Judges, for the time being, or a majority of them, may make rules, not inconsistent with this Act, for regulating and prescribing the practice and procedure, including the method of pleading, to be followed in the Court (including the practice and procedure to be followed in the offices of the Court) and for regulating and prescribing all matters and things incidental to or relating to any such practice and procedure (including the manner in which and the time within which, any applications that under this Act or any other Act are to be made to the court, shall be made) or necessary or convenient to be prescribed for the conduct of any business of the Court.

(2) In particular the Rules of Court may provide—

- (b) for regulating any matters relating to the costs of proceedings in the Court;
- (c) for regulating the means by which particular facts may be proved, and the mode in which evidence thereof may be given, in any proceedings, or on any application in connection with, or at any stage of, any proceedings;
- (d) for the service and execution of the process of the Court including the manner in which and the extent to which the process of the Court may be served out of the jurisdiction of the Court;
- (e) for the execution of the judgments of the Court;
- (f) with the concurrence of the Treasurer, for the fees and percentages to be taken in the Court, or in any office connected with the Court, or in which any business connected with the Court is conducted, or by any officer attached to the Court, including the fees and poundages to be demanded, taken and received by the bailiff and his officers in the execution of any process delivered to the bailiff;
- (g) for the Registrar of the Court appointed under section 25, or any particular Deputy Registrar of the Court so appointed, to have power, either generally or in particular cases and under such conditions as are prescribed, to do such things, to transact such business, and to exercise such authority and jurisdiction as a Judge of the Court sitting in chambers may, by virtue of a statute, custom, or rule or practice of the Court, do, transact, or exercise, and to tax costs;
- (h) for prescribing matters relating to expert evidence, including the disclosure, by the furnishing of copies of reports or otherwise, of the nature and substance of the expert evidence to be given, and including the exclusion of expert evidence in case of non-compliance with the rules relating to expert evidence or with any order for the disclosure of the nature and substance of expert evidence, and in relation thereto—
  - (i) for the imposition of differing requirements depending on different classes of cases, different classes of matters, or other different circumstances; and
  - (ii) for the conferring of a discretionary authority.

(3) Subject to section 32 the fees and percentages referred to in subsection (2)(f) shall be paid into the Treasury, and carried to the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

[Section 88 amended by No. 40 of 1972 s. 14; No. 111 of 1976 s. 7.]

(2) If either House of Parliament passes a resolution, of which notice has been given at any time within 6 sitting days after the rules have been laid before it, disallowing any rule or part thereof, that rule or part thereof thereupon ceases to have effect, but without affecting the validity of any proceeding taken or of anything done thereunder in the meantime.

(3) Where a resolution to which subsection (2) refers has been passed, notice of the resolution shall be forthwith published in the Gazette.

Saving

(2) Nothing in this section—

- (a) shall prejudice the operation of any Rules of Court made in pursuance of the power conferred by this Act to make Rules of Court for regulating the means by which particular facts may be proved and the mode in which evidence thereof may be given; or
- (b) shall affect the powers of the Court for special reasons to allow depositions or affidavits to be read.
