Guide for using this reprint

What the reprint includes

Endnotes, Compilation table, and Table of provisions that have not come into operation

1. Details about the original Act and legislation that has amended its text are shown in the Compilation table in endnote 1, at the back of the reprint. The table also shows any previous reprint.
2. Validation, transitional, savings, or other provisions identified in the Compilation table may be important. The table may refer to another endnote setting out the text of these provisions in full.
3. A table of provisions that have not come into operation, to be found in endnote 1a if it is needed, lists any provisions of the Act being reprinted that have not come into operation and any amendments that have not come into operation. The full text is set out in another endnote that is referred to in the table.

Notes amongst text (italicised and within square brackets)

1. If the reprint includes a section that was inserted, or has been amended, since the Act being reprinted was passed, editorial notes at the foot of the section give some history of how the section came to be as it is. If the section replaced an earlier section, no history of the earlier section is given (the full history of the Act is in the Compilation table).

Notes of this kind may also be at the foot of Schedules or headings.

2. The other kind of editorial note shows something has been —
 - removed (because it was repealed or deleted from the law); or
 - omitted under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(4) (because, although still technically part of the text, it no longer has any effect).

The text of anything removed or omitted can be found in an earlier reprint (if there is one) or one of the written laws identified in the Compilation table.

Reprint numbering and date

1. The reprint number (in the footer of each page of the document) shows how many times the Act has been reprinted. For example, numbering a reprint as “Reprint 3” would mean that the reprint was the 3rd reprint since the Act was passed. Reprint numbering was implemented as from 1 January 2003.
2. The information in the reprint is current on the date shown as the date as at which the Act is reprinted. That date is not the date when the reprint was published by the State Law Publisher and it is probably not the date when the most recent amendment had effect.

Official Prosecutions (Accused's Costs) Act 1973

An Act to amend the law relating to the payment of costs to defendants in official prosecutions and for incidental purposes.

1. Short title

This Act may be cited as the *Official Prosecutions (Accused's Costs) Act 1973*¹.

[Section 1 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

2. Commencement

This Act shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by proclamation¹.

3. Application

- (1) Except as otherwise provided by this section, this Act applies notwithstanding the provisions of or under any other Act, or of or under any rule of court practice.
- (2) To the extent of any inconsistency between a provision of this Act and a provision of or under any other Act, or of or under any rule of court practice, the provision which is more favourable to the accused prevails.

- (3) This Act binds the Crown.

[Section 3 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

4. Interpretation

- (1) In this Act unless the contrary intention appears —

“accused” means a person charged with an offence in an official prosecution;

“appeal” means an appeal against a decision of a summary court given in an official prosecution;

“appeal court” means a court hearing an appeal against a decision of a summary court given in an official prosecution;

“costs” means any expenses that —

- (a) are properly incurred by an accused in an official prosecution; and
- (b) are due and payable, or paid, by the accused to another person or as court fees;

“court” includes a summary court and an appeal court;

“official prosecution” means proceedings in a summary court against a person charged with an offence by a public official acting or purporting to act by virtue of his office, and includes proceedings on appeal therefrom;

“public official” means a Minister of the Crown a person employed in the Public Service of the State, a member of the Police Force, or a person employed by a local government or any other statutory body and includes any person acting as agent of or under the instructions of such a person or body;

“section” means a section of this Act; and

“summary court” means the Magistrates Court or the Children’s Court.

- (2) An accused —
- (a) subject to paragraph (c), is successful if —
 - (i) he is acquitted of the charge, other than on account of unsoundness of mind;
 - (ii) he is discharged from the charge under section 128(2) or (3) of the Criminal Procedure Act 2004;
 - (iii) the charge is dismissed for want of prosecution; or
 - (iv) his conviction of the charge is set aside;
 - (b) is partly successful if —
 - (i) he is convicted of a lesser offence than that with which he was charged; or
 - (ii) he is charged with several offences in the one prosecution notice and is successful in respect of one or some of them;
 - (c) is not successful if the charge is of an indictable offence and is dismissed for want of prosecution by the summary court —
 - (i) if section 5 of The Criminal Code applies to the charge — before the summary court decides under that section that the charge is to be tried on indictment; or
 - (ii) otherwise — before the summary court commits him for trial or sentence on the charge.

[Section 4 amended by No. 49 of 1989 s. 55; No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 59 of 2004 s. 141; No. 84 of 2004 s. 56, 80, 82 and 86.]

5. Successful accused entitled to costs

- (1) Subject to this Act, a successful accused is entitled to his costs.

s. 6

- (2) Where an accused is successful by reason of a decision of the summary court only, the summary court shall make an order as to the amount of his costs therein but the accused is not entitled to those costs unless and until the time for appeal therefrom has expired or an appeal therefrom is resolved in his favour.
- (3) Where an accused is successful by reason of a decision of the appeal court, the appeal court shall make an order as to the amount of his costs in the appeal court.
- (4) Where an accused is successful by reason of the appeal court reversing a decision of the summary court, the appeal court shall make an order as to the amount of the costs in the appeal court and in the summary court.
- (5) The amount of costs ordered, other than court fees, shall be in accordance with the scale fixed from time to time by a legal costs determination (as defined in the Legal Practice Act 2003).

[Section 5 amended by No. 29 of 1997 s. 4; No. 65 of 2003 s. 54; No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

6. Court may revoke or reduce accused's entitlement to costs

The court may order that a successful accused is not entitled to his costs or part thereof if —

- (a) the court, having found the accused guilty, disposes of the charge without recording a conviction;
- (b) he has done or caused to be done or has omitted or caused to be omitted something (other than an act or omission the subject of the charge) which was unreasonable in the circumstances and which contributed to the institution or continuation of the proceedings; or

- (c) he has done or caused to be done or has omitted or caused to be omitted something during the course of proceedings or in the conduct of the defence or appeal calculated to prolong the proceedings unnecessarily or cause unnecessary expense.

[Section 6 amended by No. 7 of 1974 s. 3; No. 49 of 1988 s. 56; No. 15 of 1991 s. 21; No. 78 of 1995 s. 96; No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

7. Partly successful accused may be awarded costs

- (1) Subject to this Act, where a partly successful accused satisfies the court that he incurred additional costs by reason of being charged with an offence or offences in respect of which he was successful, the court may order that he is entitled to those costs.
- (2) Before exercising the discretion conferred by subsection (1), the court may have regard to any of the circumstances referred to in paragraphs (a) to (c) inclusive of section 6 that exist in the case of the partly successful accused.
- (3) Where the court makes an order pursuant to subsection (1), subsections (2) to (5) inclusive of section 5 apply to and in relation to the order with such modifications as are necessary.

[Section 7 amended by No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

8. Question of costs may be adjourned to chambers

The court may adjourn to chambers the question of costs, or the amount thereof, under this Act to enable the making of submissions and the tendering of evidence, including affidavit evidence, on that question.

9. Payment of costs ordered

Where costs are ordered under this Act —

- (a) if the public official a party to the proceedings is a Minister of the Crown, a person employed in the Public Service of the State, a member of the Police Force, or any other person acting as agent of or under the instructions of such a person, the Clerk or Registrar, as the case requires, of the court shall give to the accused a certificate signed by the Clerk or sealed with the Seal of the court, as the case requires, showing the amount of the costs ordered and on production of the certificate to the Treasurer, the accused shall be paid such costs out of the Consolidated Fund; or

- (b) if the public official a party to the proceedings is a person employed by a local government or any other statutory body, or is any other person acting as agent of or under the instructions of such a person or body, the costs shall be ordered against that body and shall be paid by it to the accused, and shall be recoverable as a civil debt.

[Section 9 amended by No. 6 of 1993 s. 13; No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 84 of 2004 s. 82.]

[10.] Repealed by No. 65 of 1987 s. 41.]
