- (a) remedy it within such reasonable time as is specified in the order; or

- (b) pay to the owner of the building or other structure such costs of remedying the painting as the Board considers reasonable, in which case any costs so ordered by the Board constitute a debt to the owner and are recoverable by him in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to and in relation to painting carried out by any person, whether a painter or not, and whether registered under this Act or not.

(3) Nothing in section 4 precludes a person who is not a registered painter from carrying out an order of the Board made pursuant to subsection (1) (a).

- (b) so made by the Board, and varied by a magistrate under section 18, has not been complied with, or has been complied with in part only, by the person on whom it was served, whether or not he has on that account been convicted of an offence under section 16G, the Board may—

- (c) revoke the order in relation to that painting or the part in question; and
- (d) make an order under subsection 16D (1) (b) in relation thereto.

(2) The revocation of an order under subsection (1) (c) shall not affect anything done under the order, or a punishment imposed under section 16G, before the revocation.

Saving of other remedies

16H. (1) The making of an order by the Board under section 16D or 16E in respect of any painting carried out by a registered painter does not, irrespective of whether an appeal under section 18 is brought against the making of the order or of the manner in which the appeal is disposed of, limit or affect in any way the power of the Board to deal with that or any other registered painter under section 16 in connection with that painting.

(2) Nothing in sections 16D to 16G (inclusive) has the effect of limiting or otherwise affecting any right or remedy available to a person, apart from this section, against another in respect of painting carried out by that other person; but in any proceedings in relation to such right or remedy a court may have regard to any order made by the Board under section 16D or 16E and any variation of such an order made by a magistrate under section 18.

[Section 16H inserted by No. 33 of 1983 s. 13.]

Board may recover costs of investigation of frivolous or vexatious complaints

16I. Where—

- (a) a person for whom painting has been carried out by a painter complains to the Board that the painting was not carried out in a proper and workmanlike manner; and
- (b) the Board is satisfied after investigating the matter (whether or not the Board also conducts a formal inquiry under section 16) that the complaint was frivolous or was not made in good faith, the Board may order the person who made the complaint to pay to it the Board's reasonable costs of investigating the matter; and the amount certified by the Board to be its reasonable costs of investigation may be recovered by the Board from that person as a debt due to the Board in any court of competent jurisdiction.

[Section 16I inserted by No. 33 of 1983 s. 13.]

Painter may request Board to investigate work

16J. Any registered painter may request the Board to examine any painting carried out by him, and the Board may, if it thinks fit, comply with such a request.

[Section 16J inserted by No. 33 of 1983 s. 13.]

[17. Section 17 repealed by No. 33 of 1983 s. 14.]

Appeal from decision of Board

18. (1) A person who feels aggrieved by—

- (a) a decision of the Board refusing, cancelling, or suspending his registration, or refusing to re-register him or to annul the suspension of his registration; or
- (b) an order of the Board under section 16D or 16E, may appeal therefrom to a stipendiary magistrate of the Local Court nearest to the place where he resides, by causing notice of appeal in the prescribed form to be lodged with the clerk of that Court and served on the Registrar within 28 days after he is notified of the decision or order.

(2) The appeal shall be by way of rehearing, and for that purpose the magistrate may take evidence on oath or affirmation in the same manner and to the same extent as he is empowered to do in the exercise of his ordinary jurisdiction.

(3) The magistrate may confirm, reverse or modify the decision or order appealed from and make such order as to the costs of the appeal as he thinks fit; and any amount payable by one person to another by virtue of the magistrate's order is recoverable as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) The decision of the magistrate on the appeal is final.

[Section 18 inserted by No. 33 of 1983 s. 15.]
