(2) Law and Equity

Law and equity to be concurrently administered

24. (1) Subject to the express provisions of any other Act, in every civil cause or matter commenced in the Supreme Court, law and equity shall be administered by the Court according to the rules following: —

- (1) If any plaintiff or petitioner claims to be entitled to any equitable estate or right, or to relief upon any equitable ground against any deed, instrument, or contract, or against any right, title, or claim whatsoever asserted by any defendant or respondent in such cause or matter, or to any relief founded upon a legal right, which before the commencement of the Supreme Court Act 1880, could only have been given by a court of equity, the Court, and every Judge thereof, shall give to such plaintiff or petitioner such and the same relief as ought to have been given by the Court in its equitable jurisdiction in a suit or proceeding for the same or the like purpose properly instituted before the commencement of the said Act.

- (2) If any defendant claims to be entitled to any equitable estate or right or to relief upon any equitable ground against any deed, instrument, or contract, or against any right, title or claim asserted by any plaintiff or petitioner in such cause or matter, or alleges any ground of equitable defence to any claim of the plaintiff or petitioner in such cause or matter, the Court, and every Judge thereof, shall give to every equitable estate, right, or ground of relief so claimed, and to every equitable defence so alleged, such and the same effect, by way of defence against the claim of such plaintiff or petitioner, as the Court in its equitable jurisdiction ought to have given if the same or the like matters had been relied on by way of defence in any suit or proceeding instituted by the Court for the same or the like purpose before the commencement of the Supreme Court Act 1880.
- (3) The Court, and every Judge thereof, shall have power to grant to any defendant in respect of any equitable estate or right, or other matter of equity, and also in respect of any legal estate, right, or title claimed or asserted by him —
 - (a) all such relief against any plaintiff or petitioner as such defendant shall have properly claimed, by his pleading, and as the Court, or any Judge thereof, might have granted in any suit instituted for that purpose by the same defendant against the same plaintiff or petitioner; and

- (b) all such relief relating to or connected with the original subject of the cause or matter, and in like manner claimed against any other person, whether already a party to the same cause or matter or not, who shall have been duly served with notice in writing of such claim pursuant to any rule of court or any order of the Court, as might properly have been granted against such person if he had been made a defendant to a cause duly instituted by the same defendant for the like purpose.

Every person served with any such notice as aforesaid shall thenceforth be deemed a party to such cause or matter, with the same rights in respect of his defence against such claim, as if he had been duly sued in the ordinary way by such defendant.

- (4) The Court, and every Judge thereof, shall recognize and take notice of all equitable estates, titles, and rights, and all equitable duties and liabilities appearing incidentally in the course of any cause or matter, in the same manner in which the Court in its equitable jurisdiction would have recognized and taken notice of the same in any suit or proceeding duly instituted therein before the commencement of the Supreme Court Act 1880.
- (5) No cause or proceeding at any time pending in the Supreme Court shall be restrained by prohibition or injunction; but every matter of equity on which an injunction against the prosecution of any such cause or proceeding might have been obtained, if the Supreme Court Act 1880, had not been passed, either unconditionally or on any terms or conditions, may be relied on by way of defence thereto:

Supreme Court Act 1935

s. 24

Provided that

- (a) nothing in this Act shall disable the Court, if it thinks fit, from directing a stay of proceedings in any cause or matter pending before it; and
 - (b) any person, whether a party or not to any such cause or matter, who would have been entitled, if the Supreme Court Act 1880, had not been passed, to apply to any court to restrain the prosecution thereof, or who may be entitled to enforce, by attachment or otherwise, any judgment, decree, rule, or order, contrary to which all or any part of the proceedings in such cause or matter may have been taken, may apply to the Court, by motion in a summary way, for a stay of proceedings in such cause or matter, either generally or so far as may be necessary for the purposes of justice; and the Court shall thereupon make such order as shall be just.
- (6) Subject to the foregoing provisions for giving effect to equitable rights and other matters of equity, and to the other express provisions of this Act, the Court, and every Judge thereof, shall recognize and give effect to all legal claims and demands, and all estates, titles, rights, duties, obligations, and liabilities existing by the common law or by any custom, or created by any statute, in the same manner as the same would have been recognized and given effect to if the Supreme Court Act 1880, had not been passed in any branch of its jurisdiction, or by the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes.
- (7) The Court, in the exercise of the jurisdiction vested in it by this Act, in every cause or matter pending before it, shall have power to grant, and shall grant, either absolutely or on such reasonable terms and conditions as shall seem just, all such remedies whatsoever as any of the parties thereto may appear to be entitled to in respect of any and every legal or equitable claim properly brought forward by them in such cause or matter; so that, as far as possible, all matters so in controversy between the parties may be completely and finally determined, and all multiplicity of legal proceedings concerning any of such matters avoided.

(3) Miscellaneous Rules of Law

Rules of law upon certain points

25. The law to be administered as to the matters in this section mentioned shall, unless the contrary is expressly provided by some other enactment, be as follows: —

[(1) deleted]

[(3) deleted]

[(4) deleted]

[(5) deleted]

(6) No action shall be open to objection on the ground that a merely declaratory judgment is sought thereby, and it shall be lawful for the Court to make binding declarations of right without granting consequential relief.

[(7) deleted]

[(8) deleted]

(9) A mandamus or an injunction may be granted, or a receiver appointed, by an interlocutory order of the Court or a Judge in all cases in which it shall appear to the Court or a Judge to be just or convenient that such order should be made; and any such order may be made either unconditionally or upon such terms and conditions as the Court or Judge shall think just; and if an injunction is asked, either before or at, or after the hearing of any cause or matter, to prevent any threatened or apprehended waste or trespass, such injunction may be granted, if the Court or a Judge shall think fit, whether the person against whom such injunction is sought is, or is not, in possession under any claim of title or otherwise, or (if out of possession) does or does not claim a right to do the act sought to be restrained under any colour of title; and whether the estates claimed by both or by either of the parties are legal or equitable.

(10) In all cases in which the Court entertains an application for an injunction against a breach of any covenant contract or agreement, or against the commission or continuance of any wrongful act, or for the specific performance of any covenant contract or agreement, the Court may, if it thinks fit, award damages to the party injured, either in addition to or in substitution for such injunction or specific performance, and such damages may be assessed in such manner as the Court directs:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall limit or affect the jurisdiction or powers which the Court has apart from this subsection.

(11) Subject to the express provisions of any other Act, in questions relating to the custody and education of infants, the rules of equity shall prevail.

- (12) Generally (subject to the express provision of any other Act), in all matters not hereinbefore particularly mentioned, in which there was, before the passing of the Supreme Court Act 1880, any conflict or variance between the rules of equity and the rules of the common law with reference to the same matter, the rules of equity shall prevail.

[Section 25 amended by No. 32 of 1969 s.4; No. 10 of 1982 s.28; No. 72 of 1984 s.10⁹.]

Rules as to division of loss on collision of ships

26. (1) Where by fault of 2 or more vessels, damage or loss is caused to one or more vessels, to their cargoes or freight, or to any property on board, the liability to make good the damage or loss shall be in proportion to the degree in which each vessel was in fault:

Provided that if, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, it is not possible to establish different degrees of fault, the liability shall be apportioned equally.

(2) Nothing in this section shall operate so as to render any vessel liable to any loss or damage to which her fault has not contributed.

(3) Nothing in this section shall affect the liability of any person under a contract of carriage or any contract, or shall be construed as imposing any liability upon any person from which he is exempted by any contract, or by any provision of law, or as affecting the right of any person to limit his liability in manner provided by law.

(4) For the purposes of this section the expression “freight” includes passage money and hire, and references to damage or loss caused by the fault of a vessel shall be construed as including references to any salvage or other expenses consequent upon that fault recoverable at law by way of damages.

(5) In this section, and the 3 next succeeding sections, “vessel” includes any ship, boat, or any other description of vessel used for any purpose on the sea or in navigation.

(6) Nothing in this section and the next succeeding sections shall affect the right of an owner of a vessel not itself in fault which has suffered damage or loss by reason of the fault of 2 or more other vessels, to recover his damage or loss from the owners of the vessels in fault jointly or severally.

Damages for loss of life or personal injury as the result of collision between vessels

27. (1) Where loss of life is or personal injuries are suffered by any person on board a vessel, owing to the fault of that vessel and of any other vessel or vessels, the liability of the owners of the vessels shall be joint and several.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as depriving any person of any right of defence on which, independently of this section, he might have relied in an action brought against him by the person injured or any person or persons entitled to sue in respect of such loss of life, or shall affect the right of any person to limit his liability in cases to which this section relates in the manner provided by law.

Right of contribution in case of collision between vessels

28. (1) Where loss of life is or personal injuries are suffered by any person on board a vessel owing to the fault of that vessel and any vessel or vessels, and a proportion of the damage is recovered against the owner of one of the vessels which exceeds the proportion in which she was in fault, he may recover by way of contribution the amount of the excess from the owners of the other vessels to the extent to which those vessels were respectively in fault:

Provided that no amount shall be recovered which could not by reason of any statutory or contractual limitation of or exemption from liability, or which could not for any other reason, have been recovered in the first instance as damages by the persons entitled to sue therefor.

(2) In addition to any other remedy provided by law, the persons entitled to any contribution as provided by subsection (1) shall, for the purposes of recovering the contributions, have, subject to the provisions of this Act, the same rights and powers as the persons entitled to sue for damages in the first instance.

Limitation of actions in case of collision between vessels

29. No action or other proceeding shall be maintainable to enforce any claim against the owner of a vessel in respect of any damage or loss to another vessel, her cargo or freight, or any property on board her, or damages for loss of life or personal injuries suffered by any person on board her, caused by the fault of the former vessel, whether such vessel is wholly or partly in fault, unless proceedings are commenced within 2 years from the date when the damage or loss or injury was caused; and an action shall not be maintainable to enforce any contribution in respect of an overpaid proportion of any damage for loss of life or personal injuries unless proceedings therein are commenced within one year from the date of payment:

Provided that the Court or a Judge may, in accordance with the Rules of the Court, extend any such period to such extent and on such conditions as it or he thinks fit, and shall, if satisfied that there has not during such period been any reasonable opportunity of enforcing the claim, extend such period to an extent sufficient to give such reasonable opportunity.

Provisions to be read subject to the Navigation Act 1912 (Commonwealth)

30. The provisions of the last preceding 4 sections shall be read and construed subject to the Navigation Act 1912.

(2) In all cases where interest for the loan of money, or upon any other contract, may be lawfully recovered or allowed in any action, suit, or other proceeding in the Supreme Court, or any other court of law or equity, but where the rate of such interest has not been previously agreed upon by or between the parties, it shall not be lawful for the party entitled to interest to recover or be allowed in any such action, suit, or other proceedings above the rate of $6 for interest or forbearance of $100 for a year, and so after that rate for a greater or lesser sum or for a longer or shorter time.

may enter judgment for the party for whom the verdict should have been given at the trial, and for that purpose may exercise any of its powers under subsection (4).

s. 60

(6) Except as may be otherwise provided by the Rules of Court every application —

- (i) for a new trial; or
- (ii) to set aside a verdict, finding, or judgment

- (f) without the leave of the Judge or the Master or of the Full Court, from any interlocutory order or interlocutory judgment made or given by a Judge or a Master, except in the following cases, namely —

 - (v) in the case of an order on a special case stated under the *Arbitration Act 1895*¹²; and
 - (vi) in such other cases to be prescribed as are in the opinion of the authority having power to make Rules of Court in the nature of final decisions.

(2) An order refusing unconditional leave to defend an action shall not be deemed to be an interlocutory order within the meaning of this section.

(3) An application for leave to appeal may be made ex parte, unless the Judge or the Master or the Full Court otherwise directs.

[Section 60 amended by No. 3 of 1982 s.6; No. 47 of 1983 ss.10 and 13.]

(2) Every order made by a Judge in pursuance of this section may be discharged or varied by the Full Court.

Decision in case of difference of opinion

62. (1) When the Judges sitting as a Full Court are divided in opinion as to the decision to be given on any question, the question shall be decided according to the decision of the majority, if there is a majority.

(2) Subject as hereinafter provided, if an appeal is heard before a Full Court constituted by 2 Judges and they differ in opinion, either party to the appeal may within one month after the delivery of the judgments of the said 2 Judges serve upon the Principal Registrar and also upon the other party to the appeal notice in writing that he requires the appeal to be reheard before a Full Court consisting of not less than 3 Judges, and thereafter the appeal shall be reheard accordingly: Provided that (i) if neither party to the appeal gives notice as aforesaid within the said period of one month, then the appeal shall not be reheard and the judgment or order against which the appeal was taken shall remain unaltered; and (ii) where the appeal has been taken against the judgment or order of a court, other than the Supreme Court, and the 2 Judges hearing the appeal differ in opinion as aforesaid, they may, of their own motion, direct that the appeal shall be reheard before a Full Court consisting of not less than 3 Judges, and thereafter the appeal shall be reheard accordingly.

(3) If an appeal is heard before the Full Court consisting of more than 3 Judges and the Court is equally divided in opinion, the opinion of the Chief Justice, or if he is absent the opinion of the senior Judge present, shall prevail.

PART V — ARREST IN PENDING ACTIONS

Power under certain circumstances to arrest a person about to remove out of jurisdiction of the Court

63. (1) All actions in the Supreme Court shall be commenced by writ of summons, or in such other manner as may be prescribed by Rules of Court, and not by arrest of the person.

(2) Where the plaintiff in any action in the Supreme Court proves at any time before final judgment by the affidavit of himself or some other person, to the satisfaction of a Judge —

- (a) that such plaintiff has a cause of action against the defendant to the amount of $100 or upwards, or has sustained damage to that amount, and
- (b) that there is probable cause for believing that the defendant is about to remove out of the jurisdiction of the Court unless he is apprehended, and
- (c) that the absence of the defendant will materially prejudice the plaintiff in the prosecution of his action, the Judge may order such defendant to be arrested and imprisoned until further order of the Court or a Judge, unless and until he has sooner given security not exceeding the amount claimed in the action that he will not remove out of the jurisdiction of the Court without the leave of the Court or a Judge:

Provided that the plaintiff claiming such order of arrest shall prosecute his action with reasonable diligence, otherwise a Judge may discharge the defendant from custody:

Provided also that where the action is for a penalty or sum in the nature of a penalty other than a penalty in the nature of any contract, it shall not be necessary to prove that the absence of the defendant will materially prejudice the plaintiff in the prosecution of the action; and the security given shall be to the effect that any sum recovered against the defendant in the action shall be paid.

(3) The order to arrest (which shall be in the prescribed form, with such variations as the circumstances may require), may be made on affidavit and ex parte, but the defendant may at any time apply to the Court or a Judge to rescind or vary the order, or to be discharged from custody, or for such other relief as may be just.

(4) An order to arrest shall, before delivery to the sheriff, be indorsed with the address for service of the plaintiff, and of his solicitor (if any), as required by Rules of Court in relation to writs of summons.

[Section 63 amended by No. 113 of 1965 s.8.]

Security

64. (1) The security to be given by a defendant may be a deposit in Court of the amount mentioned in the order not exceeding the amount claimed in the action, or a bond to the plaintiff by the defendant and 2 sufficient sureties (or with the leave of a Judge, one surety), or with the plaintiff's consent any other form of security.

(2) The plaintiff may, after receiving particulars of the names and addresses of the proposed sureties, give notice that he objects thereto, stating in the notice the particulars of his objections.

(3) In such case the sufficiency of the security shall be determined by a Master or a Registrar, who shall have power to award costs to either party, and such order may be enforced as if it were an order of a Judge.

(4) It shall be the duty of the plaintiff to obtain an appointment for the purpose of determining the sufficiency of the security, and unless he does so within 4 days after giving notice of objection, the security shall be deemed sufficient.

[Section 64 amended by No. 67 of 1979 s.15; No. 47 of 1983 s.13.]

Control of the Court

65. The money deposited and the security and all proceedings thereon shall be subject to the order and control of the Court or a Judge.

Costs

66. Unless otherwise ordered, the costs of and incidental to an order for arrest shall be costs in the cause, and in all proceedings under this Part the Court or Judge may make such orders as to costs as it or he thinks fit.

Discharge of defendants

67. (1) Upon payment into Court of the amount mentioned in the order, a receipt shall be given; and upon receiving the bond or other security, a certificate to that effect shall be given, signed by the plaintiff's solicitor if he has one, or by the plaintiff, if he sues in person.

(2) The delivery of such receipt or certificate to the sheriff or officer executing the order shall, on payment of the sheriff's fees and allowances, entitle the defendant to be discharged out of custody.

Date of arrest

68. The sheriff or other officer named in the order shall, within 2 days after the arrest, indorse on the order the true date of such arrest.

[PART VI Repealed by No. 73 of 1948 s.3.]

and where the judgment or order is for payment to any person of money and the time for payment is limited by the judgment or order or by a subsequent order, such judgment or order after being duly served may also, by leave of the Court or a Judge, be enforced —

- (f) by writ of sequestration; or
- (g) by attachment in case of —
 - (i) default in payment of a penalty, or sum in the nature of a penalty;

Provided also that no person shall be imprisoned in any case within this paragraph for a longer period than one year.

(2) Subject to subsection (1) (e) and (g), all process of execution on a judgment or order of the Court for recovery by or payment to any person of money shall be directed against property real as well as personal and not against the person, except when otherwise provided by a law in force in this State.

Seizure of land unnecessary before sale under execution

120. (1) It shall not be necessary for the sheriff or other officer having the execution of a writ of fieri facias or other like process to make any actual seizure of land, or of the right, title and interest of any person to or in any land, under any writ of execution before the sale of such land, right, title or interest, any law to the contrary hereof notwithstanding.

(1a) (a) The sale of any land, or right, title or interest of a person in the land under a writ of feri facias or other like process shall be made by public auction, of which at least 7 days' notice of the auction, the time when and the place where it is to be held, has been published in a newspaper circulating in the neighbourhood where the land is situated.

(b) Where the land or any part of it or any right, title or interest in the land remains unsold at the auction, it may, by leave of a Judge, be sold by public tender and on such conditions, if any, as the Judge deems fit.

s. 122

Sheriff may seize money, notes, etc.

122. (1) By virtue of any writ of fieri facias or other like process, the sheriff or other officer having the execution thereof —

- (b) may seize and retain for not exceeding 48 hours the books and accounts of such person relating to the trade, business, calling, or occupation of such person; and

- (e) may sue in the name of the sheriff for the recovery of the sum or sums secured thereby if and when the time of payment thereof has arrived.

(2) The payment to the sheriff or other officer by the party liable on any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, specialty, or other security, with or without suit, or the recovery on levying execution against the party so liable, shall discharge him to the extent of such payment or of such recovery and levy in execution as aforesaid, as the case may be, from his liability on such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, specialty, or other security.

(3) The sheriff shall pay over to the party suing out such writ the money so to be recovered, or so much thereof as is sufficient to discharge the amount of such writ directed to be levied, and if after satisfaction of the amount so to be levied, together with the sheriff's poundage fees and expenses, any surplus remains in the hands of the sheriff, the same shall be paid to the party against whom the writ is so issued.

(4) The sheriff or other officer shall not be bound to sue any party liable upon any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, bond, specialty, or other security, unless the party suing out of such execution enters into a bond with a sufficient surety for indemnifying the sheriff from all costs and expenses to be incurred in the prosecution of such action, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof, the expense of such bond to be deducted out of any money to be recovered in such action.

Parties indebted not to pay debt except to sheriff

123. A written notice signed by the sheriff, addressed to any person who appears by any such books of account as aforesaid to be indebted to any person against whom any such writ of execution is issued, warning the person served with the notice not to pay such debt to any other person than the sheriff, shall, after service thereof, have the effect of restraining the party served therewith from paying such debt otherwise than to the sheriff until a written countermand of such notice is signed and served by the sheriff.

If any person served with such notice, after service thereof and before service of such countermand, pays such debt otherwise than to the sheriff, such person shall be liable to the execution creditor for the amount so paid.

125. (1) A writ of fiery facias, or other like process of execution against goods, shall bind the property in the goods of the execution debtor as from the time when the writ is delivered to the sheriff to be executed; and, for the better manifestation of such time, it shall be the duty of the sheriff upon the receipt of such writ to indorse upon the back thereof the hour, day, month, and year when he received the same:

Provided that no such writ shall prejudice the title to such goods acquired by any person in good faith and for valuable consideration, unless such person had at the time when he acquired his title notice that such writ or any other writ by virtue of which the goods of the execution debtor might be seized or attached, had been delivered to and remained unexecuted in the hands of the sheriff.

(2) In this section the term “sheriff” includes any officer charged with the enforcement of a writ of execution, and the term “goods” includes all chattels personal other than things in action and money.

(3) A writ of venditioni exponas and any other writ in aid of a writ of fiery facias may be issued and executed in the same cases as heretofore.

(3) Attachment of Debts

Attachment of debts

126. (1) Debts, legal or equitable, owing or accruing from any third person within the jurisdiction of the Court to a defendant against whom any person has obtained a judgment or order for the recovery or payment of money may, subject to Rules of Court, by order of the Court or a Judge, be attached to answer the judgment or order together with the cost of the proceedings:

Provided that no order shall be made for the attachment —

- (a) of any weekly payment under the Workers' Compensation and Assistance Act 1981, or a sum payable in redemption thereof;
- (b) of the wages of any servant, labourer or workman; or of any seaman or apprentice to the sea service:

Provided also that nothing herein shall affect the provisions of section 6 of the Workmen's Wages Act 1898.

(2) The party entitled to enforce any such judgment or order may apply to the Court or a Judge for an order that the debtor liable under such judgment or order, or in the case of a corporation that any officer thereof, be orally examined as to whether any and what debts are owing to the debtor, and whether the debtor has any and what other property or means of satisfying the judgment or order, before a Judge or an officer of the Court as the Court or Judge shall appoint; and the Court or Judge may make an order for the attendance and the examination of such debtor, or of any other person, and for the production of any books or documents.

(3) An order may be made under subsection (1) upon the ex parte application of any person who has obtained a judgment or order, for the recovery or payment of money, either before or after any oral examination of the debtor liable under such judgment or order, and upon affidavit by himself or his solicitor stating that judgment has been recovered or the order made and that it is still unsatisfied, and to what amount, and that any other person (hereinafter called the garnishee) is indebted to such debtor and is within the jurisdiction of the Court; and by the same or any subsequent order it may be ordered that the garnishee shall appear before the Court or a Judge or any officer of the Court as the Court or Judge shall appoint, to show cause why he should not pay to the person who has obtained such judgment or order the debt due from him to such debtor, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment or order, together with the costs of the garnishee proceedings.

(4) Service of an order that debts, due or accruing to a debtor liable under a judgment or order, shall be attached, or notice thereof to the garnishee, in such manner as the Court or Judge may direct, shall bind such debts in his hands.

(5) If the garnishee does not forthwith pay into Court the amount due from him to the debtor liable under a judgment or order, or an amount equal to the judgment or order, and does not dispute the debt due or claimed to be due from him to such debtor, or if he does not appear upon summons, then the Court or Judge may order execution to issue, and it may issue accordingly, without any previous writ or process, to levy the amount due from such garnishee, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the judgment or order, together with the costs of the garnishee proceedings.

(6) If the garnishee disputes his liability, the Court or a Judge, instead of making an order that execution shall issue, may order that any issue or question necessary for determining his liability be tried or determined in any manner in which any issue or question in an action may be tried or determined, or may refer the matter to a Master.

(7) Whenever in any proceedings to obtain an attachment of debts it is suggested by the garnishee that the debt sought to be attached belongs to some third person, or that any third person has a lien or charge upon it, the Court or a Judge may order such third person to appear, and state the nature and particulars of his claim upon such debt.

(8) After hearing the allegations of any third person under such order, as in subsection (7) mentioned, and of any other person who by the same or any subsequent order the Court or a Judge may order to appear, or in case of such third person not appearing when ordered, the Court or Judge may order execution to issue to levy the amount due from such garnishee, together with the costs of the garnishee proceedings, or any issue or question to be tried or determined according to the preceding subsections, and may bar the claim of such third person, or make such other order as the Court or Judge shall think fit, upon such terms, in all cases, with respect to the lien or charge (if any) of such third person, and to costs, as the Court or Judge shall think fit and reasonable.

(9) Payment made by or execution levied upon the garnishee under any such proceeding as aforesaid shall be a valid discharge to him as against the debtor, liable under a judgment or order, to the amount paid or levied, although such proceeding may be set aside, or the judgment or order reversed.

(10) There shall be kept in the Central Office of the Supreme Court a debt attachment book in which entries shall be made of the attachment and proceedings thereon, with names, dates, and statements of the amount recovered and otherwise; and copies of any entries therein may be taken by any person upon application to the proper officer.

(11) The costs of any application for an attachment of debts and of any proceedings arising from or incidental to such application, shall be in the discretion of the Court or a Judge, and as regards the costs of the judgment creditor shall, unless otherwise directed, be retained out of the money recovered by him under the garnishee order, and in priority to the amount of the judgment debt.

(12) Debts owing from a firm carrying on business within the jurisdiction of the Court may be attached, although one or more members of such firm may not be resident within Western Australia: Provided that any person having the control or management of the partnership business or any member of the firm within the jurisdiction is served with the garnishee order.

[Section 126 amended by No. 47 of 1983 s.13.]

(4) Charging Stocks and Shares

Stocks and shares may be charged

127. If any person against whom any judgment has been entered up in the Supreme Court has any Government stock, funds, or annuities, or any stock or shares of or in any company in Western Australia (whether incorporated or not), standing in his name in his own right, or in the name of any person in trust for him, a Judge, on the application of any judgment creditor, may order that such stock, funds, annuities, or shares, or such of them or such part thereof respectively as he thinks fit, shall stand charged with the payment of the amount for which such judgment has been so recovered and interest thereon, and such order shall entitle the judgment creditor to use such remedies as he would have been entitled to if such charge had been made in his favour by the judgment debtor:

Provided that no proceeding shall be taken to have the benefit of such charge until after the expiration of 6 months from the date of such order.

Order to charge

128. (1) In order to prevent any person against whom judgment has been obtained from transferring, receiving, or disposing of any stock, funds, annuities, or shares, hereby authorized to be charged —

- (a) every order of a Judge charging any Government stock, funds, or annuities, or any stock or shares in any company, shall be made in the first instance ex parte, and without any notice to the judgment debtor, and shall be an order to show cause only; and
- (b) such order, if any Government stock, funds, or annuities standing in the name of the judgment debtor in his own right, or in the name of any person in trust for him, is to be affected by such order, shall restrain the officer or person having the registry, control, or management of such stock, funds or annuities, or of the transfers thereof, from permitting a transfer thereof in the meantime and until such order is made absolute or discharged; and

- (c) such order, if any stock or shares of or in any company, standing in the name of the judgment debtor in his own right, or in the name of any person in trust for him, is or are to be affected by any such order, shall in like manner restrain such company from permitting a transfer thereof.

(2) If after notice of such order to the person or persons to be restrained thereby, or in the case of corporations to any authorized agent of such corporation, and before the same order is discharged or made absolute, such corporation or person or persons shall permit any such transfer to be made, then and in such case the corporation or person or persons so permitting such transfer shall be liable to the judgment creditor for the value or amount of the property so charged and so transferred, or such part thereof as is sufficient to satisfy the judgment; and no disposition of the judgment debtor in the meantime shall be valid or effectual as against the judgment creditor.

(3) Unless the judgment debtor shall within a time to be mentioned in such order show to a Judge sufficient cause to the contrary, the said order shall, after proof of notice thereof to the judgment debtor, his attorney or agent, be made absolute:

Provided that any Judge shall upon the application of the judgment debtor or any person interested have full power to discharge or vary such order, and to award such costs upon such application as he thinks fit.

Power of charging stock defined

129. (1) The last 2 preceding sections shall be deemed and taken to extend to the interest of any judgment debtor, whether in possession, remainder, or reversion, and whether vested or contingent, as well in any such stocks, funds, annuities, or shares as in the said sections mentioned, as also in the dividends, interest, or annual produce of any such stocks, funds, annuities, or shares.

(2) Whenever any such judgment debtor has any estate, right, title, or interest, vested or contingent in possession, remainder, or reversion, in, to, or out of any such stocks, funds, annuities, or shares as aforesaid, which now are or shall hereafter be standing in the name of any officer of the Court, or in, to, or out of the dividends, interest, or annual produce thereof, a Judge may make an order as to such stock, funds, annuities, or shares, or the interest, dividends, or annual produce thereof, in the same way as if the same had been standing in the name of a trustee of such judgment debtor:

Provided always that no order of a Judge as to any stock, funds, annuities, or shares standing in the name of any such officer as aforesaid, or the interest, dividends, or annual produce thereof, shall prevent the Treasurer, or any company, from permitting any transfer of such stocks, funds, annuities, or shares, or payment of the interest, dividends, or annual produce thereof in such manner as a Judge may direct, or shall have any greater effect than if such debtor had charged such stock, funds, annuities, or shares, or the interest, dividends, or annual produce thereof, in favour of the judgment creditor, with the amount of the sum to be mentioned in any such order.

(5) Recovery of Land and other Property

Enforcement of judgment or order for possession

130. A judgment or order for possession of land, and the payment of any money adjudged or ordered to be paid by the judgment or order, may be enforced in such manner as the Rules of Court prescribe.

[Section 130 inserted by No. 56 of 1974 s.4.]

Writ of delivery

131. (1) A judgment or order for the recovery of any property other than land or money may be enforced, —

- (a) subject to subsection (2), by writ for delivery of the property; or if the judgment or order is in a form which orders the defendant to deliver up the property within a given time, —

- (b) by order of the Court or a Judge, on proof of personal service on the defendant of the judgment or order and of his neglect to obey, by writ of attachment; or
- (c) by writ of sequestration.

(2) Where it is sought to enforce a judgment or order for the recovery of any property other than land or money by writ of delivery, the Court or a Judge may, upon the ex parte application of the plaintiff, order —

- (a) that execution shall issue for the delivery of the property, without giving the defendant the option of retaining the property upon paying the value assessed (if any); and that if the property cannot be found, and unless the Court or a Judge shall otherwise order, the sheriff shall distrain the defendant by all his lands and chattels till the defendant delivers the property; or
- (b) at the option of the plaintiff, that the sheriff cause to be made of the defendant's land and goods the assessed value, if any, of the property.

(3) It shall be lawful for the sheriff in the execution of a writ of delivery, to enforce the actual delivery of the property without the issue of a writ of assistance.

(4) A writ of delivery shall be in the prescribed form, and when such writ is issued, the plaintiff shall, either by the same or a separate writ of execution, be entitled to have made of the defendant's land and goods the damages (if any) and costs awarded, and interest.

(5) After the assessment of the value of the property and damages (if any) the plaintiff may either issue, by leave of the Court or a Judge, a writ of delivery, or, without leave a writ of fieri facias for the recovery of the assessed value, damages, and costs.

(6) Sequestration

Writ of sequestration

132. (1) Subject to subsection (3), where a person is by any judgment or order directed to do any act in a limited time (including the payment of money to a person within a limited time or from time to time, or for payment of costs) and after due service of such judgment or order refuses or neglects to obey the same according to the exigency thereof, the person prosecuting such judgment or order shall, at the expiration of the time limited for the performance thereof, be entitled by leave of the Court or a Judge to issue a writ of sequestration against the estate and effects of such disobedient person.

(2) Such writ of sequestration shall have the same effect as a writ of sequestration issued out of the Court in its equitable jurisdiction has heretofore had, and the proceeds of such sequestration may be dealt with in the same manner as the proceeds of writs of sequestration were heretofore dealt with.

(3) Where a judgment or order adjudges or orders payment of a sum of money into Court, it is not necessary to issue a writ of sequestration to enforce obedience to the order but the party entitled to enforce the order may issue a writ of fieri facias to recover the amount of the judgment or order and the sheriff after deducting the costs, fees and expenses of seizure and sale, shall pay into court all sums of money recovered under the writ to answer the judgment or order.

(7) Attachment

Effect of writ of attachment

133. Subject to the provisions of section 117 (1) (g), a writ of attachment shall have the same effect as a writ of attachment issued out of the Court in its equitable jurisdiction has heretofore had.

Application for leave to issue writ

134. No writ of attachment shall be issued without the leave of the Court or a Judge, to be applied for on notice to the party against whom the attachment is to be issued.

Enforcement of judgment to do or abstain from any act

135. (1) A judgment or order requiring any person to do any act other than the payment of money, or to abstain from doing anything, may be enforced by writ of attachment, or by committal:

Provided that every judgment or order requiring any person to do an act thereby ordered shall state the time, or the time after service of the judgment or order, within which the act is to be done, and the copy of the judgment or order which shall be served upon the person required to obey the same shall be indorsed with a memorandum in the prescribed form of the consequences of disobedience.

(2) A judgment or order for the payment of money to a person or into Court may be enforced by writ of attachment or by committal in cases when attachment is authorized by section 117 (1) (g).

(8) Miscellaneous

Joint property

138. Where property belongs to a judgment debtor jointly or in common with some other persons such property may be seized under a writ of fiery facias, and the interest of the debtor therein may be sold, unless a co-owner of property held jointly has become solely entitled by survival upon the death of the judgment debtor before delivery of the writ.

140. If a mandamus, granted in an action or otherwise, or a mandatory order, injunction, or judgment for the specific performance of any contract is not complied with, the Court or a Judge, besides or instead of proceedings against the disobedient party for contempt, may direct that the act required to be done may be done so far as practicable by the party by whom the judgment or order has been obtained, or some other person appointed by the Court or Judge, at the cost of the disobedient party, and upon the act being done, the expenses incurred may be ascertained in such manner as the Court or a Judge may direct, and execution may issue for the amount so ascertained, and costs.

Execution to issue within 6 years

141. (1) As between the original parties to a judgment or order, execution may issue at any time within 6 years from the recovery of the judgment or the date of the order.

- (a) where 6 years have elapsed since the judgment or date of the order, or any change has taken place by death or otherwise in the parties entitled or liable to execution;

- (d) where a party is entitled to execution against any of the shareholders of a joint-stock company upon a judgment recorded against such company, or against a public officer or other person representing such company;

the party alleging himself to be entitled to execution may apply to the Court or a Judge for leave to issue execution accordingly; and the Court or Judge may, if satisfied that the party so applying is entitled to issue execution, make an order to that effect, or may order that any issue or question necessary to determine the rights of the parties shall be tried in any of the ways in which any question in an action may be tried. In either case such Court or Judge may impose such terms as to costs or otherwise as shall be just.

(3) The leave of the Court or a Judge shall be obtained before execution is issued where a judgment or order is subject to a condition or contingency, and where the property to be seized is in the possession of a receiver acting under the authority of the Court.

Interest on judgment

142. (1) Every judgment debt shall carry interest at such rate for every $100 by the year as the Treasurer from time to time by notice published in the *Government Gazette*¹³ determines from the time of entering up the judgment until the judgment is satisfied, and the interest may be levied under a writ or warrant of execution on the judgment.

(2) This section applies to a judgment in a Local Court, except where the amount of the debt, claim or demand allowed by the judgment does not exceed $750.
