This Act applies in relation to any Royal Commission appointed before the commencement of this Act as well as in relation to a Royal Commission appointed after its commencement, but this section shall not be construed to authorize the application of this Act to proceedings in respect of offences committed before its commencement.

Interpretation

4. In this Act unless the contrary intention appears —

“Chairman” means —

- (a) where there is one Commissioner, that Commissioner;
- (b) where there is more than one Commissioner and a Commissioner is acting separately from the other or others, that Commissioner so acting;
- (c) subject to paragraphs (a) and (b), a person appointed as Chairman under section 6;

“Commission” means a Royal Commission constituted pursuant to this Act or any other power and includes a person acting in the exercise of his duty as a Commissioner;

“Commissioner” means a person appointed to be a Commission or to be a member of a Commission;

“documents” includes things that are documents within the meaning of section 79B of the Evidence Act 1906.

[Section 4 amended by No. 72 of 1990 s.4; No. 3 of 1991 s.4.]

Power to appoint Commission

5. Without in any way prejudicing, limiting, or derogating from the power of the Governor to make or authorize any inquiry, or to issue any Commission to make any inquiry, the Governor may, under the Public Seal of the State, appoint any person or persons to be a Royal Commission, generally or upon such terms of appointment as the Governor thinks fit, to inquire into and report upon, and, where so required or authorized by terms of appointment, to make recommendations in respect of any matter specified in the appointment.

Chairman

6. Where more than one person is appointed as a Commission the Governor may appoint one of them to be Chairman of the Commission.

Powers of Commission

7. (1) Without in any way prejudicing, limiting or derogating from the power of a Commission in respect of the matter of its inquiry, a Commission may do all such things as are necessary or incidental to the exercise of its function as a Commission and to the performance of its terms of appointment, if any, and, where there is more than one Commissioner, may determine from time to time whether in any respect one or more of the Commissioners will act separately from the other or others.

(2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to section 8 and the terms of a Commission's appointment.

[Section 7 amended by No. 3 of 1991 s.5.]

Select Committee appointed as a Royal Commission

8. For the purposes of this Act, where the members of a Select Committee of either House of Parliament are appointed as the members of a Commission, a majority of the members shall form a quorum at any meeting and any decision of a majority of members shall be the decision of the Commission.

Power to summon witnesses and documents

9. A Commissioner may cause a summons in writing under his hand to be served upon any person requiring him to attend the

s. 10

Commission, at a time and place named in the summons, and then and there to give evidence and to produce any books, documents, or writings in his custody or control which he is required by the summons to produce.

[Section 9 amended by No. 3 of 1991 s.6.]

Duty of witness to continue in attendance

10. A person who has been served with a summons pursuant to section 9 shall, unless excused by a Commissioner, attend as required by the summons and report himself to the Commission from day to day until released from further attendance by a Commissioner.

[Section 10 amended by No. 3 of 1991 s.7.]

Power to examine on oath

11. A Commissioner may administer an oath to any person appearing as a witness before the Commission, whether the witness has been summoned or appears without being summoned, and may examine the witness on oath.

Affirmation in lieu of oath

12. (1) Where a witness to be examined before a Commission conscientiously objects to take an oath, he may make an affirmation that he so objects and that he will state the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, to all questions that may be asked him.

(2) An affirmation made pursuant to subsection (1) of this section is of the same force and effect and entails the same liabilities as an oath.

Penalty for failing to attend or produce documents

13. (1) If a person who has been served with a summons pursuant to section 9 fails without reasonable excuse to attend as required by the summons and section 10, or to produce any documents, books, or writings in his custody or control which he was required by the summons to produce, he may be dealt with on the motion of the Attorney General as if he were in contempt of the Supreme Court and the Supreme Court has jurisdiction accordingly.

(2) It is a defence to contempt proceedings pursuant to subsection (1) of this section for failing without reasonable excuse to produce any documents, books, or writings, if the defendant proves that the documents, books, or writings were not relevant to the inquiry.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), in this section “reasonable excuse”, in respect of an act or omission, means such an excuse as would excuse an act or omission of a similar nature by a witness or a person summoned as a witness before the Supreme Court.

(4) Notwithstanding section 31 (2), a person is not excused from producing any documents, books, or writings as required by a summons served pursuant to section 9 on the ground that the production of the documents, books, or writings might incriminate or tend to incriminate the person or render the person liable to a penalty.

Penalty for refusing to be sworn or to give evidence

14. (1) If a person who has been served with a summons pursuant to section 9 attends as required by the summons and section 10 but refuses to be sworn or to make an affirmation or refuses to answer any question relevant to the inquiry put to him by a Commissioner he may be dealt with on the motion of the Attorney General as if he were in contempt of the Supreme Court and the Supreme Court has jurisdiction accordingly.

s. 16

(2) Notwithstanding section 31 (2), when any question relevant to the inquiry is put to a person by the Commissioner the person is not entitled to refuse to answer the question on the ground that the answer might incriminate or tend to incriminate the person or render the person liable to a penalty.

[Section 14 amended by No. 72 of 1990 s.6.]

[15. Repealed by No. 72 of 1990 s.7.]

Arrest of witness failing to appear

16. (1) If a person who has been served with a summons pursuant to section 9 fails to attend as required by the summons and section 10, the Chairman may, on proof by statutory declaration of the service of the summons, issue a warrant for the apprehension of that person.

(2) Subject to section 17, a warrant issued pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall authorize the apprehension of the person and his being brought before the Commission and his detention in custody for that purpose until he is released by order of the Chairman or, on appeal, by order of a Judge or the Full Court of the Supreme Court, as the case may be.

(3) A warrant issued pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section may be executed by a member of the Police Force of the State, or by any person to whom it is addressed, and the person executing it has the power to break and enter any place, building or vessel for the purpose of executing it.

(4) The apprehension of a witness under this section does not prevent the witness from being dealt with for contempt pursuant to section 13 (1) by reason of his non-compliance with the summons.

[Section 16 amended by No. 72 of 1990 s.8.]

Appeal against apprehension

17. In respect of an apprehension pursuant to section 16, an appeal lies to a Judge or, where one of the Commissioners or the sole Commissioner is a Judge, to the Full Court of the Supreme Court.

Search warrants

18. (1) This section does not apply to a Commission unless by the terms of appointment or in an instrument made by the Governor the provisions of this section are expressly declared to so apply.

(2) Where a Judge of the Supreme Court is satisfied, on the application of a Commissioner or a person appointed by the Attorney General to assist the Commission, that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there may be relevant material in or on particular premises, the Judge may issue a search warrant authorizing a named person or named persons —

- (a) to enter and search the premises; and
- (b) where the premises comprise a vehicle, vessel, aircraft or the like, to stop and detain and give directions as to the movement of the same.

(3) A person or persons on whom authority is conferred by a warrant may be accompanied by such other persons as are necessary for the effective exercise of the powers conferred by this section and those other persons have those powers as if they were named in the warrant.

- (5) An authorized person acting under a warrant issued under subsection (2) may use such force as is necessary.
- (6) The Commission may —
- (a) retain possession of any relevant material in accordance with section 21;
  - (b) at any time release any relevant material, whether conditionally or unconditionally, to any person who appears to be entitled to possession of it.
- (7) A person shall not without reasonable excuse —
- (a) prevent or attempt to prevent an authorized person from exercising any power conferred by or under this section;
  - (b) hinder or obstruct an authorized person in the exercise of any such power; or
  - (c) fail to comply with a direction or request of an authorized person under subsection (2) (b) or (4) (d).
- (8) A person shall not furnish to an authorized person acting under a warrant information that is false in a material particular.

(9) A person is not excused from producing any relevant material under subsection (4) (d) on the ground that it contains information that might incriminate or tend to incriminate him or render him liable to a penalty.

(10) A person who, without reasonable excuse —

- (a) fails to comply with a condition imposed on the person under subsection (6) (b); or
- (b) contravenes or fails to comply with subsection (7) or (8),

[Section 18 inserted by No. 3 of 1991 s.8.]

Non disclosure of secret process — evidence in private

(2) If a witness before a Commission requests that his evidence relating to a particular subject be taken in private on the ground that the evidence relates to the profits or financial position of any person, and that the taking of the evidence in public would be unfairly prejudicial to the interests of that person, the Commission may, if it thinks proper, take that evidence in private, and, without limiting the operation of section 19A, a person who is not expressly authorized by the Commission to be present shall not be present during the taking of that evidence.

[(3) and (4) repealed]

(5) This section shall be read as in aid of and not as in derogation of the Commission's general powers to order that any evidence may be taken in private.

[Section 19 amended by No. 72 of 1990 s.10.]

General provisions as to private hearings

19A. If a Commission is taking evidence in private, or conducting the inquiry in private, a person who is not expressly authorized by the Commission to be present shall not be present and, notwithstanding any other law —
