Guide for using this reprint

What the reprint includes

Endnotes, Compilation table, and Table of provisions that have not come into operation

1. Details about the original Act and legislation that has amended its text are shown in the Compilation table in endnote 1, at the back of the reprint. The table also shows any previous reprint.
2. Validation, transitional, savings, or other provisions identified in the Compilation table may be important. The table may refer to another endnote setting out the text of these provisions in full.
3. A table of provisions that have not come into operation, to be found in endnote 1a if it is needed, lists any provisions of the Act being reprinted that have not come into operation and any amendments that have not come into operation. The full text is set out in another endnote that is referred to in the table.

Notes amongst text (italicised and within square brackets)

1. If the reprint includes a section that was inserted, or has been amended, since the Act being reprinted was passed, editorial notes at the foot of the section give some history of how the section came to be as it is. If the section replaced an earlier section, no history of the earlier section is given (the full history of the Act is in the Compilation table).
Notes of this kind may also be at the foot of Schedules or headings.
2. The other kind of editorial note shows something has been —
  - removed (because it was repealed or deleted from the law); or
  - omitted under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(4) (because, although still technically part of the text, it no longer has any effect).

The text of anything removed or omitted can be found in an earlier reprint (if there is one) or one of the written laws identified in the Compilation table.

- (2) It is a defence to contempt proceedings pursuant to subsection (1) for failing without reasonable excuse to produce any documents, books, or writings, if the defendant proves that the documents, books, or writings were not relevant to the inquiry.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), in this section “reasonable excuse”, in respect of an act or omission, means such an excuse as would excuse an act or omission of a similar nature by a witness or a person summoned as a witness before the Supreme Court.

- (4) Notwithstanding section 31(2), a person is not excused from producing any documents, books, or writings as required by a summons served pursuant to section 9 on the ground that the production of the documents, books, or writings might incriminate or tend to incriminate the person or render the person liable to a penalty.

in custody for that purpose until he is released by order of the Chairman or, on appeal, by order of a Judge or the Full Court of the Supreme Court, as the case may be.

- (3) A warrant issued pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) may be executed by a member of the Police Force of the State, or by any person to whom it is addressed, and the person executing it has the power to break and enter any place, building or vessel for the purpose of executing it.

[Section 16 amended by No. 72 of 1990 s. 8.]

17. Appeal against apprehension
