1968, s. 3;
No. 104 of
1969, s. 2.

36. (1) For the purposes of applying the provisions of sections eleven and twelve of the Town Planning Act to the provisions of the Scheme, the former provisions shall be read and construed as if—

- (a) the Authority were the “responsible authority or local authority” wherever referred to in the sections; and

- (c) those provisions included subsections (3), (3a), (4), (5) and (6) of this section.

(2) (a) The Scheme may provide that where compensation for injurious affection is claimed as a result of the operation of the provisions of subparagraph (i) or (ii) of paragraph (b) of subsection

(2a) of section twelve of the Town Planning Act, the Authority may at its option elect to acquire the land so affected instead of paying compensation.

(b) The Authority shall, within three months of the claim for injurious affection being made, or where such a claim is made before the date of the coming into operation of the Metropolitan Region Town Planning Scheme Act Amendment Act, 1968, within three months of that date, by notice in writing given to the claimant, either elect to acquire the land or advise that it does not intend to acquire the land.

(2a) Where the Authority elects to acquire the land as provided in subsection (2) of this section, if the Authority and the owner of the land are unable to agree as to the price to be paid for the land by the Authority, the price at which the land may be acquired by the Authority shall be the value of the land as determined in accordance with subsection (2b) of this section.

(2b) The value of the land referred to in subsection (2a) of this section shall be the value thereof on the date the Authority elects to acquire the land under that subsection, and that value shall be determined—

- (b) the responsible authority refuses an application made under the Scheme for permission to carry out development on the land or grants permission to carry out development on the land subject to conditions that are unacceptable to the applicant.

(3a) Compensation for injurious affection to any land is payable only once under paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section and is payable to the person who was the owner of the land at the date of reservation referred to in that paragraph, unless after the payment of that compensation further injurious affection to the land results thereafter from an alteration of the existing reservation on the land or the imposition of another reservation thereon.

(4) Before compensation is payable under subsection (3) of this section—

- (a) where the land is sold, the person lawfully appointed to determine the amount of the compensation shall be satisfied—
 - (i) that the owner of the land has sold the land at a lesser price than he might reasonably have expected to receive had there been no reservation of the land under the Scheme;

- (ii) that the owner before selling the land gave notice in writing to the responsible authority of his intention to sell the land; and
 - (iii) that the owner sold the land in good faith and took reasonable steps to obtain a fair and reasonable price for the land; or

(5) A claim for compensation under subsection (3) of this section shall be made at any time within six months after the land is sold or the application for permission to carry out development on the land is refused or the permission is granted subject to conditions that are unacceptable to the applicant.

(6) (a) Subject to this section, the compensation payable for injurious affection due to or arising out of the land being reserved under the Scheme for a public purpose, where no part of the land is purchased or acquired by the Authority, shall not exceed the difference between—

- (ii) the value of the land as not so affected.

(b) The value referred to in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be assessed as at the date the land is sold as referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section or the date on which the application for permission
