17. Consents under section 13

A consent under section 13 is, unless the parent who gave the consent has revoked his consent or the child has revoked his agreement under section 14, sufficient authority for a medical practitioner, other than a medical practitioner by whom the medical advice referred to in that section was furnished, to remove from the body of the child the regenerative tissue referred to in the consent for the purpose of the transplantation of the tissue to the body of another member of the family of the child or of a relative of the child.

may consent to the removal of blood from his body for transfusion to another person or for use of the blood or of any of its constituents for other therapeutic purposes or for medical or scientific purposes.

19. Parent may consent to removal of blood from child

The parent of a child may consent to a removal of blood from the body of the child for a use referred to in section 18 if —

- (a) a medical practitioner advises that the removal should not be prejudicial to the health of the child; and
- (b) the child agrees to the removal.

20. Consent is sufficient authority for removal of blood

A consent under this Division is sufficient authority for the removal of blood from the body of the person who has given the consent, or from the body of the child of the person who has given the consent, as the case requires.

21. Blood transfusions upon children without parental consent

- (1) A medical practitioner may perform a blood transfusion upon a child without the consent of any person who is legally entitled to authorise the blood transfusion if —
  - (a) such person —
    - (i) fails or refuses to so authorise the blood transfusion when requested to do so; or

- (ii) cannot be found after such search and enquiry as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances of the case;
  - and
  - (b) the medical practitioner and another medical practitioner agree —
    - (i) as to the condition from which the child is suffering;
    - (ii) that the blood transfusion is a reasonable and proper treatment for that condition; and
    - (iii) that without a blood transfusion the child is likely to die;
  - and
  - (c) the medical practitioner who performs the blood transfusion on the child —
    - (i) has had previous experience in performing blood transfusions; and
    - (ii) has, before commencing the transfusion, assured himself that the blood to be transfused is suitable for the child.
- (2) When a medical practitioner has performed a blood transfusion on a child without the consent of any person legally entitled to authorise it and in respect of that transfusion the requirements and conditions of this section have been complied with, the transfusion shall be deemed for all purposes to have been performed with the authority of a person legally entitled to authorise it.
- (3) Where a medical practitioner other than the medical practitioner who is to perform the blood transfusion on the child cannot be found after search or enquiry for such time as the last-mentioned medical practitioner considers reasonable in the circumstances of the case, having regard to the emergency arising from the condition of the child, it is sufficient compliance with subsection (1)(b) if that last-mentioned practitioner satisfies himself —

- (a) as to the condition from which the child is suffering;
- (b) that a blood transfusion is a reasonable and proper treatment for that condition;
- (c) that to delay the blood transfusion until that other medical practitioner can be found and be available for consultation would cause a serious deterioration in the child's condition; and
- (d) that without a blood transfusion the child is likely to die.

(4) In this section —

blood transfusion means the transfusion of human blood, any constituent of human blood or saline solution or other liquid, into a child and includes the exchange of the whole or any part of the blood of a child and all medical and surgical procedures necessary to perform the transfusion or exchange; and child means a person who is or appears to be under the age of 18 years.

(5) Nothing in this section relieves a medical practitioner from liability in respect of the administration of a blood transfusion to a child being a liability to which he would have been subject if the transfusion had been administered with the consent of a parent of the child or a person having authority to consent to the administration of the transfusion.

Part III — Donations of tissue after death

22. Designated officer may authorise removal of tissue from bodies in hospital

- (1) A designated officer for a hospital may, subject to and in accordance with this Part, authorise the removal of tissue from the body of a person who has died in hospital or whose dead body has been brought into the hospital —

- (2) A designated officer for a hospital may authorise the removal of tissue from the body of a person who has died in the hospital or whose dead body has been brought into the hospital —
  - (a) where, after making inquiries, the designated officer is satisfied that the deceased person during his lifetime expressed the wish for, or consented to, the removal after his death of tissue from his body for the purpose or a use referred to in subsection (1) and had not withdrawn the wish or revoked the consent; or
  - (b) where, after making inquiries, the designated officer has no reason to believe that the deceased person had expressed an objection to the removal after his death of tissue from his body for the purpose or a use referred to in subsection (1) and the designated officer is satisfied that the senior available next of kin consents to the removal of tissue from the body of the deceased person for the purpose or a use referred to in subsection (1).

- (3) The authority of a designated officer to authorise the removal of tissue from the body of a deceased person under this section is restricted —
- (a) in the case of the circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(a), by the expressed terms of the wishes or consent of the deceased person;
  - (b) in the case of the circumstances referred to in subsection (2)(b), by the consent of the senior available next of kin,
- both as to the tissue which may be removed and as to the purpose or use of the tissue.
- (4) The senior available next of kin of a person may make it known to a designated officer at any time when the person is unconscious before death that he consents to the removal, after the death of the person, of tissue from the body of the person for the purpose or a use referred to in subsection (1), but the designated officer shall not act on such an indication if the person recovers consciousness.
- (5) Where there are 2 or more persons having a description referred to in a subparagraph of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of “senior available next of kin” in section 3, an objection by any one of those persons has effect for the purposes of this section notwithstanding any indication to the contrary by the other or any other of those persons.

[Section 22 amended by No. 25 of 1997 s. 6.]

23. Coroner’s consent to removal of tissue required in some cases

- (1) If the designated officer for a hospital has reason to believe that the death of a person is or may be a reportable death, the designated officer shall not, under and in accordance with section 22, authorise the removal of tissue from the body of the deceased person unless the coroner has given his consent to the removal.

- (2) A coroner may give a direction either before or after the death of a person that his consent to the removal of tissue from the body of the person after the death of the person is not required and, in that event, subsection (1) does not apply to or in relation to the removal of tissue from the body of the person.
- (3) A consent or direction by a coroner under this section may be expressed to be subject to such conditions as are specified in the consent or the direction.
- (4) A consent or direction may be given orally by a coroner, and if so given, shall be confirmed in writing.

[Section 23 amended by No. 2 of 1996 s. 61.]

24. Effect of authority under this Part

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an authority under this Part is sufficient authority for —
  - (a) a medical practitioner other than —
    - (i) a medical practitioner referred to in subsection (2); and
    - (ii) the designated officer for the hospital or a person who has lawfully exercised his powers under section 22;
  - or
  - (b) where the tissue is to be removed for the purpose of corneal transplantation — an authorised person or a medical practitioner entitled under paragraph (a) to carry out the removal, to remove tissue from the body of the deceased person referred to in the authority —

  - (c) for the purpose of the transplantation of the tissue to the body of the living person; or

- (d) for use for other therapeutic purposes or for medical or scientific purposes, but subject in every case to any limitations or restrictions that may be expressed in the authority given under section 22(3).

- (2) Where the respiration and the circulation of the blood of a person are being maintained by artificial means, tissue shall not be removed from the body of the person for the purpose or a use specified in subsection (1) unless 2 medical practitioners (each of whom has carried out a clinical examination of the person, each of whom has been for a period of not less than 5 years a medical practitioner and one of whom holds specialist qualifications in general medicine, neurology or neurosurgery or has such other qualifications as are accepted by the Executive Director) have declared that irreversible cessation of all function of the brain of the person has occurred.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), any period during which a person who is a medical practitioner practised as a medical practitioner, however described, under the law in force in a country outside Australia shall be taken into account in calculating the period of 5 years referred to in that subsection.
- (4) In subsection (1) —
authorised person means a person, not being a medical practitioner, appointed by the Minister to be an authorised person for the purposes of this section.

[Section 24 amended by No. 28 of 1984 s. 59; No. 5 of 1987 s. 3.]

  - (b) ascertaining whether the health of that person was affected by any condition of health that is prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
  - (c) teaching pathology.
- (2) Where the designated officer, after making such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances, has reason to believe that the deceased person had, during his lifetime, expressed the wish for, or consented to, a post-mortem examination of his body and had not withdrawn the wish or revoked the consent, the designated officer may authorise under subsection (1) a post-mortem examination of the body.
- (3) Where the designated officer, after making such inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances, has no reason to believe that the deceased person during his lifetime —
  - (a) had expressed the wish for, or consented to, a post-mortem examination of his body; or
  - (b) had expressed an objection to the post-mortem examination of his body, and after making those inquiries and such further inquiries as are reasonable in the circumstances, the designated officer — the designated officer may authorise under subsection (1) a post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased person for the purpose referred to in that subsection.

- (4) The senior available next of kin of a person may make it known to a designated officer at any time when the person is unconscious before death that he has no objection to a post-mortem examination of the body of the person, but the designated officer shall not act on such an indication if the person recovers consciousness.
- (5) Where there are 2 or more persons having a description referred to in a subparagraph of paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of “senior available next of kin” in section 3, an objection by any one of those persons has effect for the purposes of this section notwithstanding any indication to the contrary by the other or any other of those persons.

[Section 25 amended by No. 25 of 1997 s. 7.]

26. Next of kin may authorise post-mortem of body not in hospital

- (a) ascertaining the cause or extent of disease or any pathological condition that may be present in that person;

- (b) ascertaining whether the health of that person was affected by any condition of health that is prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph; or
  - (c) teaching pathology.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the senior available next of kin of the deceased person has reason to believe that —

  - (b) another next of kin of the same or a higher order of the classes in paragraph (a) or (b) of the definition of “senior available next of kin” in section 3 has an objection to the post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased person.
- (3) Where a deceased person, during his lifetime, expressed the wish for, or consented to, a post-mortem examination of his body and the wish had not been withdrawn or the consent revoked, a post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased person in accordance with the wish or consent is, by force of this subsection, authorised.

[Section 26 amended by No. 25 of 1997 s. 8.]

27. Coroner’s consent to post-mortem required in some cases

- (1) If the designated officer for a hospital or, in a case to which section 26 applies, the senior available next of kin, has reason to believe that the death of a person is or may be a reportable death, the designated officer or the senior available next of kin, as the case may be, shall not authorise a post-mortem examination of the body of the deceased person unless the coroner has given his consent to the examination.
- (2) Section 26(3) does not operate in a case where the death of a person is or may be a reportable death unless a coroner has given his consent to the post-mortem examination.
