Guide for using this reprint

What the reprint includes

Endnotes, Compilation table, and Table of provisions that have not come into operation

1. Details about the original regulations and legislation that has amended its text are shown in the Compilation table in endnote 1, at the back of the reprint. The table also shows any previous reprint.
2. Transitional, savings, or other provisions identified in the Compilation table may be important. The table may refer to another endnote setting out the text of these provisions in full.
3. A table of provisions that have not come into operation, to be found in endnote 1a if it is needed, lists any provisions of the regulations being reprinted that have not come into operation and any amendments that have not come into operation. The full text is set out in another endnote that is referred to in the table.

Notes amongst text (italicised and within square brackets)

1. If the reprint includes a regulation that was inserted, or has been amended, since the regulations being reprinted were made, editorial notes at the foot of the regulation give some history of how the regulation came to be as it is. If the regulation replaced an earlier regulation, no history of the earlier regulation is given (the full history of the regulations is in the Compilation table).

Notes of this kind may also be at the foot of Schedules or headings.

2. The other kind of editorial note shows something has been —
 - removed (because it was repealed or deleted from the law); or
 - omitted under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(4) (because, although still technically part of the text, it no longer has any effect).

The text of anything removed or omitted can be found in an earlier reprint (if there is one) or one of the written laws identified in the Compilation table.

Reprint numbering and date

1. The reprint number (in the footer of each page of the document) shows how many times the regulations have been reprinted. For example, numbering a reprint as “Reprint 3” would mean that the reprint was the 3rd reprint since the regulations were published. Reprint numbering was implemented as from 1 January 2003.
2. The information in the reprint is current on the date shown as the date as at which the regulations are reprinted. That date is not the date when the reprint was published by the State Law Publisher and it is probably not the date when the most recent amendment had effect.

Royal Agricultural Society Act 1926

Royal Agricultural Society Regulations 1942

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Citation

These regulations may be cited as the *Royal Agricultural Society Regulations 1942*¹.

[2. Repealed in Gazette 6 Jan 1998 p. 33.]

3. Interpretation

In these regulations —

“The Act” means the Royal Agricultural Society Act 1926, and where any term which is defined in section 2 of the Act is used, such term shall have the same meaning as that given to it in the Act.

Part II — Conferences held under section 6

4. Convening of conferences

The Royal Agricultural Society shall, upon the request of a majority of registered Agricultural Societies, convene a meeting under section 6 of the Act, and such meeting shall be convened within 3 months from any such application being made.

Twenty-one days' notice at least shall be given to each Agricultural Society, such notice specifying the date, hour, and place of meeting, and the business to be conducted thereat. The chairman of the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society shall be the chairman of any such meeting, or, in his absence, such other person as is entitled under the by-laws of the Royal Agricultural Society to act as chairman shall preside. Voting at any such meeting shall take place by a show of hands, or in such manner as the chairman shall decide, and in the event of an equality of votes, the chairman shall have a casting vote.

5. Delegates to conferences

Every registered Agricultural Society shall at its annual general meeting elect one delegate to attend any conference convened from time to time by the Royal Agricultural Society, and one proxy delegate to attend any such meeting during the absence of the delegate. Notification in writing of such appointments of the delegate and proxy delegate shall be given by the secretary of every registered Agricultural Society to the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society. Such delegate, or, during his absence, his proxy, shall be empowered to vote at any such conference. Any such appointment shall be deemed to continue for one year from the date thereof, or for such other period as determined by uniform by-law made under section 6 of the Act.

Part III — Deregistration of Societies

6. Deregistration of Societies

The registration of any Agricultural Society may be cancelled by the Royal Agricultural Society upon the happening of any of the following events: —

- (a) If the Agricultural Society so registered shall fail to hold an Agricultural Show within its district for a period of 2 years or more without receiving permission under regulation 17.
- (b) Upon the breach by any Agricultural Society of any uniform by-law governing all registered Agricultural Societies.

Provided that, before cancellation of any such registration can be effected, the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society shall pass a resolution of such cancellation at a meeting, to be specially called for such purpose, and of which written notice has been given to the secretary of the Society, the registration of which is proposed to be cancelled, at least 14 days prior to consideration by the Council. The secretary, delegate, or any other person duly authorised by the Society in question shall be entitled to be present at any such meeting of the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society, and to be heard thereat.

Part IV — Appeals

7. Appeal against non-registration

In every case in which an appeal is made to the Minister under the last proviso to section 3 of the Act, the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society shall be furnished with a copy of the notice of appeal and the grounds of appeal at least 14 days before the appeal is dealt with by the Minister. The Royal Agricultural Society shall be entitled to lodge with the Minister a statement, signed by the secretary, setting out the grounds of refusal of registration. Such statement shall be lodged with the Minister at least 3 days before the expiration of the said 14 days.

8. Appeal against decision of any Agricultural Society

- (i) Within 14 days after any Agricultural Society shall have disqualified, fined, or otherwise imposed any penalty on any person for a breach of any local or uniform by-law, the secretary thereof shall give to such person, by prepaid registered post, notice in writing of such disqualification, fine, or other penalty, and shall with such notice enclose a copy of this regulation. The secretary of such Agricultural Society shall also, within the like period, give notice of such disqualification, fine, or other penalty to the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society, together with the date upon which such notice was given as aforesaid to the person concerned, with a copy of the minute of the meeting at which such disqualification, fine, or other penalty was imposed and with a copy of the notes of any evidence taken at any such meeting.
- (ii) Such person may appeal to the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society from any such disqualification, fine, or other penalty at any time within one calendar month of the receipt by him of such notice as aforesaid, by giving to the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society and also the secretary of the Society concerned, notice in writing of his intention to appeal, together with a statement of the grounds of appeal.

- (iii) The notice of appeal forwarded to the Royal Agricultural Society shall be accompanied by the sum of $6.30.
- (iv) The secretary of the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society shall fix a day for the hearing of the appeal and shall give to both the appellant and the secretary of the Agricultural Society concerned at least 7 days' written notice of the date so fixed.
- (v) On the hearing of the appeal, the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society may: —
 - (a) dismiss or allow either in whole or in part the appeal;
 - (b) confirm, reduce, or increase the penalty appealed against;
 - (c) impose a fine in lieu of disqualification or other penalty imposed on the appellant;
 - (d) remit the matter in dispute to be reopened or reheard by the Committee of the Agricultural Society concerned;
 - (e) make such other order as in its opinion ought to have been made by such Committee or as in its opinion may be necessary to ensure the determination of the merits of the real question in issue;
 - (f) make such order as it may think proper for payment of the costs and expenses of the appeal, and with reference to the disposal of the sum of $6.30 deposited by the appellant.
- (vi) Except by leave of the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society no fresh evidence shall be adduced on the hearing of any appeal.

[Regulation 8 amended by Act No. 113 of 1965 s. 8(1).]

9. Disqualifications

- (i) Within 14 days of the first meeting of the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society held after the expiration of one calendar month from the date of giving notice to the person concerned pursuant to the preceding regulation, or in the event of any

r. 10

appeal being made to the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society and such appeal not being upheld, then within 14 days after the decision of the said Council, the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society shall notify all registered Agricultural Societies of such disqualification, fine, or other penalty as the case may be, together with the reasons for same.

Provided, however, that if the said Council shall in any particular case be of the opinion that the circumstances do not warrant the giving of such notice to Agricultural Societies as aforesaid, it may direct the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society accordingly.

- (ii) Any person who shall have been disqualified by the Royal Agricultural Society or by any other Agricultural Society, and notice of whose disqualification shall have been given to all Agricultural Societies pursuant to this regulation, shall not be eligible to become a member of nor an exhibitor at the Show of any Agricultural Society, until the period of such disqualification shall have expired or the same shall have been annulled.
- (iii) The Council of the Royal Agricultural Society may at any time annul the disqualification of any person, either upon its own motion or upon application from the Agricultural Society originally concerned in the disqualification, and the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society shall thereupon notify all Agricultural Societies of such annulment.

10. Appeal to Minister against decision of Royal Agricultural Society

- (i) Any Agricultural Society whose decision was appealed against pursuant to regulations 8 and 9 may appeal to the Minister against any decision made by the Royal Agricultural Society following the submission of such appeal. Similar notice shall be given as provided in regulation 7.

- (ii) The Minister shall be entitled to deal with such appeal in accordance with the powers granted to the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society by regulation 8(v).

Part V — Show regulations

11. Date of Show

Each year, on or before a date to be fixed by the Royal Agricultural Society, application shall be made by, or on behalf of every Agricultural Society proposing to hold an Agricultural Show for a date or dates on which to hold its Show or Shows, and no Show shall be held by any such Society on any other date or dates than that or those notified in writing by the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society.

12. Show conditions

- (i) Every Show conducted by an Agricultural Society shall be held upon and subject to such conditions as shall in relation to such Show be from time to time prescribed or approved by the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society, and no Agricultural Society shall hold or conduct any Show otherwise than in strict accordance with such conditions.
- (ii) The Council of the Royal Agricultural Society may prescribe or approve of conditions under and for the purposes of this regulation by a resolution duly carried at a meeting of such Council convened for the purpose of prescribing or approving of such conditions.
- (iii) A proof schedule of prizes shall be submitted for approval to the Royal Agricultural Society before issue or publication by the Agricultural Society concerned.

13. Official list of judges

The Royal Agricultural Society shall compile, from time to time, a list of persons deemed to be competent to act as judges at Agricultural Shows, and may prohibit any person from acting as a judge at any Agricultural Show whose name does not appear on such official list.

14. Disqualification of stock

Livestock accepted at any Agricultural Show held contrary to the provisions of the Act may be disqualified by the Royal Agricultural Society from competing at any Agricultural Society's Show, and the exhibitor, and/or the owner may be disqualified. Such disqualification may continue during the pleasure of the Royal Agricultural Society.

Part VI — Miscellaneous

15. Balance sheet and by-laws

Within 3 months from the closing of each financial year, every Agricultural Society shall forward to the Royal Agricultural Society a report and balance sheet for the year so closed, and shall, with such report and balance sheet, forward a list of office bearers and a copy of all local by-laws passed during such year.

16. Fees payable

The undermentioned fees shall be payable to the Royal Agricultural Society in respect of the matters mentioned: —

On an application for registration under the Act as an Agricultural Society	1.05
On registration as an Agricultural Society	2.10
Annual affiliation fee, payable by every Agricultural Society on 1 July in every year	2.10

[Regulation 16 amended by Act No. 113 of 1965 s. 8(1).]

17. Societies in recess

- (i) Upon application in writing being received from any Agricultural Society, the Royal Agricultural Society may grant to such Society permission to postpone or cancel its annual Show or otherwise suspend its activities for any period which the Royal Agricultural Society may decide.
- (ii) Should any recession be granted any Agricultural Society, the Royal Agricultural Society may waive payment of the annual affiliation fee or any part thereof.

18. Winding up of Societies

Where an Agricultural Society winds up voluntarily or for any other reason, the funds of such Society shall, after the liabilities have been discharged, be devoted to the promotion of objects similar to those of such Agricultural Society and approved by the Royal Agricultural Society but no individual member of such Agricultural Society shall receive any monetary benefit therefrom.

19. Breach of regulations or uniform by-laws

A breach of any of these regulations, or of the uniform by-laws, may be reported in writing by any member of an Agricultural Society to the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society, who shall thereupon be empowered to inquire into such breach and make a report thereon to the Council of the Royal Agricultural Society. For the purpose of such inquiry the secretary of the Royal Agricultural Society may inspect the minute books and records of any Agricultural Society accused of committing such breach.
