COAL MINERS' WELFARE ACT, 1947.

Regulations.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Coal Miners' Welfare Regulations, 1948.

Amended
by G.G.
20/3/53,
p. 543.

2. The Coal Miners' Welfare Fund shall be established at the State Treasury and the Board may establish a current General Account at the Rural and Industries Bank of Western Australia, or any other Bank, and transfer such funds from the State Treasury as may be necessary for the purpose.

3. The owner of every coal mine shall forward to the Under Treasurer in the months of January and July of each year a statement showing the tonnage of coal produced during the preceding six months respectively ending on the last day of the preceding month of December or June, as the case may be, together with the amount payable to the Fund in relation to such tonnage as provided in section 6 of the aforesaid Act. The owner shall at the same time forward a copy of the statement to the secretary of the Board.

4. All payments made from the fund shall be made by cash order drawn on the fund and signed by the chairman or one member and the secretary of the Board.

5. No accounts are to be paid out of the fund unless payment has been previously authorised by the Board.

6. The secretary shall forward copies of minutes of all meetings of the Board to the Minister for his information.

7. The common seal of the Board shall be kept in the custody of the chairman or of such other member of the Board as the Board may determine, and shall not be affixed to any instrument or writing except in the presence of the Board.

Added
by G.G.
7/12/51,
p. 3370.

8. Whenever any member of the Board suffers any loss of wages as a result of carrying out any business of the Board or whilst travelling in connection therewith he shall be recouped to the extent thereof from the fund. In the event of any business of the Board necessitating travel by such member, the equivalent of a first class return rail fare together with travelling allowance at the rate of £1 5s. per day shall also be payable from the fund to such member.
