Administration of Act.

New section inserted
by No. 22 of 1918,
s. 4, in lieu of s. 8
of principal Act.

3. (1.) The Commissioner of Taxation, under the Colonial Treasurer, shall be charged with the administration of this Act.

(2.) The Commissioner of Taxation and all other persons appointed for carrying out the provisions of this Act shall keep secret and aid in preserving secrecy with regard to all matters which may come to their knowledge in their official capacity, and shall not, except as hereinafter provided, communicate any such matter to any other person unless in the performance of their duties.

Oath of fidelity and secrecy.

Amended by No. 22
of 1918, s. 5.

4. (1.) The Commissioner of Taxation and all persons appointed for carrying out the provisions of this Act shall, before entering upon his duties, take and subscribe the prescribed oath of fidelity and secrecy.

(2.) Any person who acts in his employment before he has taken the prescribed oath is liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty of not less than Ten pounds or more than One hundred pounds.

(3.) Any person who, in contravention of the true intent of such oath, reveals any matter or thing which comes to his knowledge in his official capacity, is guilty of a misdemeanour and liable to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two years, with or without hard labour.

Duties on dividends.

Amended by No. 22
of 1918, s. 3.

5. There shall be levied and paid to the Commissioner of Taxation, for the use of His Majesty, the duties hereinafter provided.

Dividend Duties.

6. (1.) On or before the first day of April, One thousand nine hundred and three, every company carrying on business in Western Australia, and on or before the first day of April in every succeeding year, every such company shall—

Returns by companies carrying on business in Western Australia.

Amended by No. 30 of 1906, s. 4; No. 24 of 1915, s. 3; No. 22 of 1918, ss. 3 and 6.

(a) forward to the Commissioner of Taxation a return, in the prescribed form, setting forth the amount and details of all profits made by such company in Western Australia during the year ending the thirty-first day of December immediately preceding the return, and verified by a statutory declaration; and

(b) forward to the Commissioner of Taxation a copy of the company's or firm's balance-sheets for the period during which the profits were earned.

(2.) The Commissioner of Taxation shall thereupon assess the profits made by such company in Western Australia, and upon such assessment the company shall, within fourteen days, pay to the Commissioner of Taxation a duty equal to One shilling and threepence for every Twenty shillings of profits so assessed.

(3.) This section shall not apply to any company which comes within the operation of section eight or section eight a.

(4.) Companies which balance their accounts on other days than the thirty-first day of December shall comply with the provisions of subsection one within three months after each balancing day, and the return shall set forth the profits made between the last balancing day and the balancing day immediately preceding the last balancing day.

(5.) The Governor may enter into agreements with companies carrying on any business to which the provisions of this section cannot be conveniently applied for the assessment of profits made by such companies in Western Australia, or for the satisfaction of the duty in such manner, or upon such basis or terms, as may be mutually agreed upon: Provided that no such agreement shall be entered into until after one month's notice of intention to do so has been published in the Government Gazette.

Inserted by No. 30 of 1906, s. 4.

(6.) Subject to any agreement under the last preceding subsection, the duty to be paid by shipping companies shall be as follows:—

Inserted by No. 30 of 1906, s. 4, and amended by No. 22 of 1918, s. 6.

(a) Six and one-fourth per centum of five per centum upon all inward and outward traffic, including passenger fares.

Dividend Duties.

- (b) Six and one-fourth per centum of the profits on sales of coal or other goods.
- (c) Six and one-fourth per centum of the profits of vessels trading exclusively within the State:

Provided that duty shall be payable under the several paragraphs of this subsection separately, and without regard to any loss incurred under either of the other paragraphs.

Inserted by No. 22 of 1918, s. 6.

(7.) The Commissioner of Taxation may disallow as expenditure any money paid by a company as salary, fees, or otherwise to any director, officer, or employee of the company in so far as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, such payment was not made bonâ fide as remuneration for services rendered, but as a means of avoiding taxation.

Inserted by No. 40 of 1918, s. 2.

(8.) The profits made in any year on and after the 1st day of July, 1917, by a mining company, shall be assessed, after allowing as a deduction the cost actually incurred during the year by the company for labour and materials employed in development work, as prescribed, including the cost incurred on and after the 1st day of July, 1918, in testing and working mines held under an option of purchase.

Balance sheet when no dividend declared.

Inserted by No. 30 of 1906, s. 5.
Amended by No. 22 of 1918, ss. 3 and 14.

7. If any company to which section six applies shall have declared no dividend or shall have made no profits in Western Australia, as the case may be, during any year or other period to which any balance sheet of the company relates, such company shall, within three months of its balancing day, forward to the Commissioner of Taxation a copy of its balance sheet, with a statutory declaration stating that no dividend has been declared or profit made, as the case may be.

Returns by insurance companies and duty payable.
Amended by No. 22 of 1918, ss. 3 and 7.

8. (1.) On or before the first day of March in every year, every company which carries on, within Western Australia, any insurance or assurance business exclusively (not being a life assurance company) shall—

- (a) forward to the Commissioner of Taxation a return, in the prescribed form, stating the amount of the premiums received, or in any manner charged in account, by such company, or by its agent in Western Australia, during the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December, and verified by statutory declaration;

Dividend Duties.

(b) pay to the Commissioner of Taxation a sum equal to Forty shillings for every One hundred pounds, and a proportionate sum for every part of One hundred pounds of such premiums.

(2.) Such premiums shall be the gross premiums, and shall exclude any portion of such premiums actually paid away by way of re-insurance effected in Western Australia with any other company.

(3.) Where any company not engaged in insurance business exclusively carries on within Western Australia, insurance business (not being life assurance) whether as principal or as agent for another company carrying on business outside Western Australia, or where any such first-mentioned company, under the authority of a general cover or floating policy issued by any company or person carrying on insurance business outside Western Australia, issues declaration of insurance or other documents in the nature thereof in Western Australia, such first-mentioned company shall be liable to forward returns and to pay duty in respect of such business in the manner and at the rate prescribed by this section.

Inserted by No. 22
of 1918, s. 7.

8a. (1.) Every life assurance company shall—

(a) on or before the first day of September in every year, or within three months after each of its annual balancing days, forward to the Commissioner of Taxation a return in the prescribed form stating the amount of interest on its investments received by the company during the year ending the thirtieth day of June next preceding, or ending on such other balancing day, verified by statutory declaration; and

(b) pay to the Commissioner of Taxation, as from the first day of July, One thousand nine hundred and seventeen, as duty a sum equal to One shilling and threepence for every Twenty shillings of interest so received, subject to such deductions as are permitted in calculating the profits of a company under this Act.

Life Assurance Companies.

Inserted by No. 22
of 1918, s. 8.

(2.) Notwithstanding paragraph (2) of Section 19 of the Land and Income Tax Assessment Act, 1907, a life assurance company shall be exempt from income tax under that Act, in respect of interest on investments received on and after the 1st day of July, 1917.

Dividend Duties.

Production of balance-sheets.

Amended by No. 22
of 1918, s. 3.

9. The Commissioner of Taxation may require any company to forward to him any further or other balance-sheets and documents which, in his opinion, are necessary to enable the amount of duty payable to be correctly assessed or ascertained, and may require such balance-sheets and documents to be verified by statutory declaration.

Case of companies carrying on business by trustees or agents.

10. (1.) Any person—

- (a) who carries on business in Western Australia as trustee or agent for a company shall, together with the company, be liable to pay the duties and discharge the obligations which the company would be liable under this Act to pay and discharge; and
- (b) all property in Western Australia held by the trustee or agent on behalf of the company shall be liable to be taken in execution or otherwise made available for the discharge and satisfaction of such obligation.

(2.) A company which solicits or obtains orders in Western Australia shall be deemed to be carrying on business in Western Australia.

(3.) Where any trustee or agent pays duty under this Act, the amount paid shall be a debt due to such trustee or agent by the company on whose behalf it was paid.

When payable.

11. The duties imposed by this Act are debts due to His Majesty from the companies by which such duties are respectively payable, and shall become due and payable at the times when the returns required by this Act to be made ought respectively to be made.

Duty to be paid before dividend paid.

12. No company, and no person acting on behalf of a company, shall distribute any dividend or profits chargeable with duty until the duty payable in respect thereof has been paid.

To be deducted from dividends.

13. Every officer, manager, trustee, or agent of any company who pays the duty upon any dividend may deduct and retain for the use of such company, from all moneys payable to any person entitled thereto, a sum bearing the same proportion to the total duty payable by the company upon the dividend as the amount payable to such person bears to the total dividend upon which such duty has been paid.

Dividend Duties.

14. If it is proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Taxation that any company carrying on business in Western Australia has, during the year One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, or in any subsequent year, distributed a dividend or dividends out of profits made by the company during such year, and has paid duty thereon, the company shall receive credit for the duty so paid as a payment on account of the duty payable by such company on its profits for that year.

Credit to be given for duty paid on dividends.

Inserted by No. 24 of 1915, s. 4, and No. 22 of 1918, s. 14.

Amended by No. 22 of 1918, s. 3.

15. When any undistributed profits standing on the first day of January, One thousand nine hundred and fourteen, to the credit of profit and loss account, or of any appropriation, reserve, or other like account, of any company, are at any time thereafter distributed, or otherwise applied as dividend, or converted into capital in any way, the amount of such profits shall, when so distributed, applied or converted, if duty has not already been paid thereon, be liable to duty under this Act as if such profits had been made during the year in which such distribution, application, or conversion is made:

Undistributed profits.

Inserted by No. 24 of 1915, s. 5, and No. 22 of 1918 s. 14. Amended by No. 22 of 1918, ss. 10 and 14.

Provided that profits earned before the eleventh day of July, 1899, shall not be liable to duty: Provided also that this section shall not apply to any company which comes within the operation of section eight or section eight a.

16. Where any company purchases or otherwise acquires its trading stock, or the main portion thereof, from or through some other company carrying on business either within or without Western Australia, and the share capital of the first-mentioned company, or the greater part of such share capital, is held by such other company or its nominees, or the greater part of the share capital of the first-mentioned company is held by shareholders of such other company, the Commissioner of Taxation may, in his discretion, assess the profits of the first-mentioned company either on a profit and loss basis, or at a sum equal to a percentage on the amount of its total sales actually made in Western Australia, the rate of such percentage being determined by the Commissioner of Taxation according to the nature of the company's business.

Subsidiary companies.

Inserted by No. 24 of 1915, s. 6. Amended by No. 22 of 1918, ss. 3 and 11.

For the purposes of this section any share capital held by a shareholder or nominee of or trustee for a company shall be deemed to be held by the company.

Dividend Duties.

In case of winding up.

Inserted by No. 24 of 1916, s. 7.

Amended by No. 22 of 1918, s. 3.

17. When a company is in process of winding up, or ceases to carry on business in Western Australia, it shall not be relieved from its liability for duty under this Act, and such company, or its liquidator, shall furnish returns and pay duty on demand by the Commissioner of Taxation on any profits assessed by him for the period up to the date when such company ceased to carry on business in Western Australia and until such duty is paid such company shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to carry on business in Western Australia.

Any money, or its equivalent, distributed among the shareholders in excess of the amount paid up or deemed to be paid up on their shares, shall be deemed profits for the purposes of this section, and be liable to duty, except such portion thereof (if any) as may consist of undistributed profits made before the eleventh day of July, 1899.

Remedy against persons receiving dividends when duty is unpaid.

18. When a dividend is distributed before the duty payable in respect thereof is deducted and paid, the duty shall be a debt due by the person receiving the dividend to His Majesty.

Indemnity to persons in a fiduciary capacity.

19. Every person who, as trustee, agent, receiver, guardian, committee, or otherwise in a fiduciary capacity, receives a dividend on which duty is imposed by this Act, is personally liable to pay such duty, and may, out of any moneys so coming into his hands, retain so much from time to time as shall amount to the duty so paid, and is hereby indemnified against all persons in respect of such payment.

Inspection of books.

Amended by No. 22 of 1918, s. 3.

20. Every company shall, when required in writing by the Commissioner of Taxation, permit any person named by the Commissioner of Taxation to inspect and take copies of its minute books, balance sheets, books of account, and all other books containing any entries or information relating to any dividends declared or profits made by the company, or relating to any other matter with respect to which the company is required by this Act to forward returns; and, in the case of a company which carries on insurance business, to inspect and take a copy of any of the books of the company containing any entries relating to premiums received or charged in account.

Dividend Duties.

21. If any company—

- (a) makes default in transmitting to the Commissioner of Taxation any return required by this Act; or
- (b) supports any return by a declaration false in any particular; or
- (c) contrary to this Act distributes any dividends or profits before the duty payable in respect thereof has been paid, the company shall be liable to pay to His Majesty a sum not exceeding treble the amount of duty payable under this Act in respect of the matters concerning which such return is required to be made, or in respect of dividends or profits distributed in contravention of this Act, or to a penalty not exceeding One hundred pounds.

Penalty for omission to make true returns.

Amended by No. 22 of 1918, ss. 3 and 9.

22. If any company makes default in complying with any other provisions of this Act—

- (a) the company, and
- (b) every officer, manager, trustee, or agent of the company who makes or knowingly and wilfully authorises or permits such default, is liable to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds for every day the default continues.

Penalty for default.

23. If any statement, declaration, or other document required by this Act is false in any particular, the person who signs the same is guilty of a misdemeanour, and is liable to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any term not exceeding two years, or to a penalty not exceeding Five hundred pounds.

Punishment for false declaration.

24. Every person who, as trustee of property, held in trust for the separate use of any married woman, or as trustee, receiver, guardian, or committee for any person under legal disability or of unsound mind, receives in Western Australia any dividend on behalf of such married woman or other person, whether such married woman or other person resides in Western Australia or not, is liable to pay the duties imposed by this Act in like manner and to the same amount as the married woman would be liable if she were a femme sole, or if the property were not held for her separate use, and as such other persons would be liable if not under disability.

Trustees, etc. receiving dividends for persons under disability to be personally liable for duty.

Dividend Duties.

The principal is also liable.

25. Every person, whether a married woman or not, and whether under disability or not, and whether residing in Western Australia or not, who, through a trustee, agent, receiver, guardian or committee, receives any dividend on which duty is imposed by this Act, is liable to pay the duty through the trustee or other person as aforesaid through whom the dividend is received.

Married women.

26. Every married woman having any separate property, or being entitled to any property or profits to her separate use, is chargeable with and liable to pay the like duties and in like manner as if she were unmarried.

Discovery to be given.

27. No company or person may refuse to make any discovery sought to be obtained in any action brought under this Act on the ground that the discovery would entail a forfeiture.

Evidence.

28. Any return made by or on behalf of a company under any other Act shall be admissible in evidence in any action brought against the company under this Act.

By whom declaration to be made.
Amended by No. 22 of 1918, s. 3.

29. (1.) Statutory declarations required by this Act shall be made by an officer of the company or by the manager or agent of the company resident in Western Australia.

(2.) The Commissioner of Taxation may require any officer, member, manager, or agent to make a statutory declaration as to his knowledge, information, or belief in reference to any matter or thing arising out of any return made or out of any inspection under section twenty.

Appeal to Judge of Supreme Court.

Amended by No. 22 of 1918, s. 3.

30. When a company is dissatisfied with any assessment made by the Commissioner of Taxation, it may, after payment of the duty, appeal. Such appeal shall be conducted as follows:—

- (1) Within thirty days of the assessment the Commissioner of Taxation shall be served with an originating summons under the Supreme Court Rules fixing a day for hearing the appeal, not being more than thirty or less than fourteen days after the date of service. Such summons shall be supported by affidavit setting forth the grounds and reasons upon which the assessment is objected to.

Dividend Duties.

(2.) Such summons shall be heard by a judge in chambers, who may decide the same on oral evidence or by affidavit, and may refer any questions of fact or any questions involving professional or technical knowledge to the determination of any other person.

(3) The judge may, in his discretion, award costs to either party.

31. The judge may state a case for the opinion of the Full Court on any question of law.

Judge may state case for opinion of Full Court.

The Full Court shall have power to deal with the costs of and incidental to the case.

The decision of the court shall be final.

32. The obligation to pay and the right to receive and recover duty shall not be suspended by an appeal; but if the appellant succeeds, the amount (if any) of the duty received by the Commissioner of Taxation in excess of the amount which, according to the decision on such appeal, was properly payable, shall forthwith be repaid.

Right to recover duty not suspended by appeal. Amended by No. 22 of 1918, s. 3.

33. The Governor may from time to time make such regulations as may be necessary for prescribing the particulars to be given in any returns required to be made under this Act, and generally for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

Regulations.

34. The Companies Duty Act, 1899, is continued until the thirty-first day of December, One thousand nine hundred and three, but only—

Continuation of 63 Vict., No. 6. See No. 9 of 1903, s. 2.

(a) for the recovery of duties accrued due thereunder at the commencement of this Act; and

(b) in relation to dividends declared before the commencement of this Act, and for the recovery of the duties thereon; and

(c) for the recovery of penalties in connection therewith.

35. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner of Taxation, and he is hereby authorised to communicate any matter which may come to his knowledge in the administration of this Act to the Commissioner or Deputy Commissioners of Taxation for the Commonwealth of Australia; or to the Commissioner of Income Tax for any other State of the Commonwealth or any other person occupying a corresponding position in any such State with reference to the collection of duties;

Exchange of information.

Inserted by No. 22 of 1918, s. 12.

Dividend Duties.

Provided that this section shall not come into operation unless or until reciprocal authority to afford similar information to the Commissioner of Taxation in Western Australia has been duly conferred on the Commonwealth Commissioner of Taxation and his Deputy in Western Australia, or such other Commissioner of Taxation as the case may be.

Interest on Western Australian stocks.

Inserted by No. 40 of 1918, s. 3.

36. Interest on Western Australian Government debentures, inscribed stock, and treasury bills or bonds received on and after the 1st day of July, 1917, by any company, shall be exempt from duty under this Act:

Provided that such exemption shall not affect the duty payable under section eight by insurance companies on the amount of premiums received.

By the Dividend Duties Act Amendment Act, 1918, it is enacted as follows:—

Increased duty to be payable on profits from 1st January, 1917.

13. (1.) Duty shall be payable on all profits made on and after the first day of July, One thousand nine hundred and seventeen, and in the case of insurance companies on all premiums received on and after that date at the increased rates as prescribed by the Act.

(2.) In the case of companies which balance their accounts on some other day than the thirtieth day of June, duty at the prescribed rate shall, in respect of the period from the first day of July, One thousand nine hundred and seventeen, to the next following balancing day, be payable on profits apportioned to that period in ratio to the whole of the profits made during the year ending with such balancing day.

By the Dividend Duties Act Amendment Act, 1920, it is enacted as follows:—

Duty increased by 15 per cent.

2. (1.) In addition to the duty payable under the principal Act and its amendments, by companies on the profits made or premiums received or charged in account by companies, on and after the 1st day of July, 1919, there shall be paid by every company to the Commissioner of Taxation, by way of increased duty, a sum equal to fifteen per centum of the amount of the duty imposed by the principal Act as amended prior to the commencement of this Act.

(2.) In the case of companies which are liable to duty on the profits made and which balance their accounts on some day other than the thirtieth day of June, the fifteen per centum increased duty shall, in respect of the period from the 1st day of July, 1919, to the next following balancing day, be payable on profits apportioned to that period in ratio to the whole of the profits made during the year ending with such balancing day:

Provided that the duty payable under an agreement made pursuant to subsection five of section seven* of the principal Act (inserted by the Act No. 30 of 1906, and amended by the Act No. 22 of 1918) shall be deemed duty payable on profits:

Provided also that this Act shall not apply to life assurance companies.

3. In assessing the profits made by a company on the returns forwarded under section seven* of the principal Act, the Minister shall allow as a deduction therefrom any payment made by the company to the board or trustees of any charitable institution, incorporated or otherwise, or of a public park or reserve, or of a university or public school, or of a library, art gallery, museum, or other institution for public education, recreation, or enjoyment subsidised by the Government: provided that such payment is applied solely to such charitable or other public purpose.

*Now numbered six.

Deduction allowed for payments to charitable institutions, etc.

*Now numbered six.
