- (5) The CEO must not amend a licence until he or she has received proof that the applicant has complied with regulation 16 in relation to the proposed supervising officer.

13. Application for person to act in place of licensee or supervising officer

- (1) A licensee must not appoint a person to act in place of the licensee or the supervising officer without the prior written approval of the CEO.
- (2) An application under subregulation (1) must be made by the licensee in a form approved by the CEO.
- (3) An application by an individual must be accompanied by the documents and information referred to in regulation 11(1)(a) as if a reference in that paragraph to an applicant were a reference to the proposed supervising officer.
- (4) An application by a corporate applicant or a public authority must be accompanied by the documents and information referred to in regulation 11(1)(c) as if a reference in that paragraph to the nominated supervising officer were a reference to the proposed supervising officer.
- (5) The CEO must not give approval unless the CEO is satisfied that the licence would have been granted —
- (a) under the Act section 207, if the person to act in the place of the licensee had been the applicant for the licence; or
  - (b) under the Act section 208 or 209, if the person to act in the place of the supervising officer had been the nominated supervising officer.
- (6) The CEO must not give approval until the CEO has received proof that the applicant has complied with regulation 16 in relation to the proposed supervising officer.

14. Referees

- (1) The referees named for a person in an application for a licence or under regulation 12 or 13 (the “subject”) must include —
  - (a) a referee to whom the subject is known, and who has had experience in children’s, educational, recreational or human services; and
  - (b) a referee who is a previous employer of the subject, or who has worked with him or her in a paid or unpaid capacity.
- (2) A person is not eligible to act as a referee for a subject if the person is —
  - (a) an employee of the subject;
  - (b) related, married, or related by marriage, to the subject;
  - (c) a de facto partner of the subject; or
  - (d) the applicant for the licence or under regulation 12 or 13, as the case may be.

15. Advertisement of application for licence or renewal of licence

- (1) An applicant for a licence, or the renewal of a licence, must arrange for notice of the application to be published in an edition of The West Australian newspaper.
- (2) The notice must be published within 28 days after the date on which the application was made.
- (3) The notice, in a form approved by the CEO, must include the following —
  - (a) if the applicant is an individual, the full name and residential address of the applicant;

- (b) if the applicant is a corporate applicant or public authority, the full name and business address of the applicant;
  - (c) if the applicant is a corporate applicant, the full name and residential address of the nominated supervising officer and each managerial officer of the applicant;
  - (d) if the applicant is a public authority, the full name of its chief executive officer and the full name and residential address of the nominated supervising officer;
  - (e) the address of the place at which the applicant proposes to operate or operates the outside school hours care service;
  - (f) a statement to the effect that an objection to the issue of the licence or renewal of the licence may be made in writing to the CEO, at the address specified in the advertisement, within 14 days after the date on which the advertisement is published.
- (4) The CEO must not grant a licence or renewal unless the CEO has received proof that the applicant has complied with this regulation.
- (5) Despite subregulation (3), the CEO may approve the publication of a notice that does not include the residential address of an individual applicant or of the managerial officer or nominated supervising officer if the CEO is satisfied that disclosure of that address might place the person or any other person who lives at the address at risk of harm.

16. Advertisement about proposed supervising officer

- (1) A licensee must arrange for notice of an application under regulation 12 or 13 to be published in an edition of The West Australian newspaper.
- (2) The notice must be published within 7 days after the date on which the application was made.

- (3) The notice, in a form approved by the CEO, must include —
- (a) the full name and business address of the applicant;
  - (b) the full name and residential address of the proposed supervising officer;
  - (c) the address of the place specified in the licence; and
  - (d) a statement to the effect that an objection to the appointment of the proposed supervising officer may be made in writing to the CEO, at the address specified in the advertisement, within 14 days after the date on which the advertisement is published.
- (4) Despite subregulation (3), the CEO may approve the publication of a notice that does not include the residential address of the proposed supervising officer if the CEO is satisfied that disclosure of that address might place the person or any other person who lives at the address at risk of harm.

17. Objections

- (1) Any person may —
- (a) object to the grant of a licence on the ground that the applicant or the applicant's nominated supervising officer is not a fit and proper person to provide or be involved in the provision of a child care service;
  - (b) object to the renewal of a licence on the ground that the applicant or the applicant's supervising officer is not a fit and proper person to provide or be involved in the provision of a child care service; or
  - (c) object to a proposed supervising officer on the ground that the person is not a fit and proper person to be involved in the provision of a child care service.
- (2) An objection must —
- (a) be made to the CEO in writing; and
  - (b) set out the grounds on which it is made.

19. Exemptions

- (1) The CEO may, in special circumstances in a particular case, exempt a licensee from a provision of these regulations for the period, and subject to the conditions, if any, specified in the exemption.
- (2) An exemption must —
  - (a) be in writing;
  - (b) identify the provision of the regulations to which the exemption relates; and
  - (c) specify the period for which it is to be in force.
- (3) An exemption may be expressed to be in force —
  - (a) for as long as the special circumstances set out in the exemption continue; or
  - (b) for as long as a condition specified in the exemption is complied with.
- (4) The CEO may renew or revoke an exemption.
- (5) An exemption stops being in force at the end of the period specified in it under subregulation (2)(c) unless it is sooner revoked.
- (6) During the period an exemption is in force, the licensee must ensure that the exemption is displayed in a prominent position at or near the main entrance to the place.
Penalty: a fine of $2 000.

20. Notification of change of circumstances

any remainder of fewer than 10 enrolled children present at the place;

- (c) at least one of the contact staff members on duty at the place has current first aid qualifications; and
- (d) the contact staff members who are on duty at the place adapt the activities of the children in a manner that ensures that the children's health and safety are not prejudiced by the reduction in the number of contact staff members.

64. Contact staff reduction during lunch periods

- (1) Despite regulation 62, if 27 or more enrolled children are present at the place during a lunch period, a licensee must ensure that during the lunch period —
  - (a) the number of contact staff members on duty at the place is at least the number specified in the second column of an item in Schedule 1 Table 3, relative to the number of contact staff required under regulation 62 to be on duty at the place, as specified in the first column of the item;
  - (b) one of the contact staff members on duty has reached 18 years of age and has current first aid qualifications; and
  - (c) the contact staff members on duty adapt the activities of the enrolled children in a manner that ensures the children's health and safety are not prejudiced by the variation permitted under paragraph (a).
- (2) If the number of contact staff members required under regulation 62 to be on duty at the place exceeds 12, a licensee must ensure that the number of contact staff members on duty during a lunch period is that arrived at by applying subregulation (1)(a) and adding to that number the number arrived at by applying subregulation (1)(a) to the remainder.
