143. Joinder

A warden may, at any time during proceedings, make an order that a person be joined as a party if the warden is satisfied that the person has a sufficient interest in the outcome of the proceedings.

144. Particulars

- (1) A person lodging and serving an application under regulation 140 or a response under regulation 141 shall lodge and serve a written statement of particulars of the application or response —
  - (a) at the same time as the person lodges and serves the application or response; or
  - (b) as directed by the warden at a mention hearing.
- (2) The statement of particulars shall contain —
  - (a) a summary of the facts relevant to the application or response; and
  - (b) the legal basis of the application or response; and
  - (c) the basic contentions of the person making the application or response; and
  - (d) a list of any documents that the applicant or respondent might tender in evidence at the substantive hearing of the proceedings.
- (3) The warden at a mention hearing may order that a party shall provide further particulars of an application or response in addition to those provided under subregulation (1).

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007*r. 30

145. Disclosure of documents by applicant

- (1) The warden may, at any time during proceedings, order that an applicant shall provide additional information by disclosing documents relevant to the proceedings.
- (2) For the purposes of subregulation (1) the Magistrates Court (Civil Proceedings) Rules 2005 Part 7 applies so that —
  - (a) a reference to an order under section 16(1)(n) is to be read as a reference to an order under subregulation (1); and
  - (b) a reference to a party ordered to provide additional information by disclosing documents is a reference to an applicant who is subject to an order under subregulation (1); and
  - (c) a reference to the Court is to be read as a reference to the warden; and
  - (d) a reference to a case is to be read as a reference to proceedings under this Division; and
  - (e) a reference to the trial is to be read as a reference to a substantive hearing of the proceedings.
- (3) An order under subregulation (1) cannot be made against a respondent.

Division 3 — Objections under the Act Part IV*146. Making an objection

- (1) An objection shall be in the form No. 16 in the First Schedule.

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007

r. 30

---

- (2) An objection shall be made within —
- (a) where the application being objected to is for a mining tenement relating to private land —
    - (i) 21 days of the day on which the person was served with a copy of notice required to be given under section 33(1); or
    - (ii) 35 days after the day on which the application is lodged,whichever period ends later; or
  - (b) in any other case — 35 days after the day the application being objected to is lodged,
- or such further period as the warden considers reasonable.
- (3) The objector shall serve a copy of the objection on the applicant as soon as practicable after the objection is made.

147. Procedure when objection heard together with proceedings under Division 2

When proceedings for an objection are heard together with proceedings under Division 2 then, even if the proceedings are not joined, regulations 144 and 145 apply so that —

- (a) a reference to a response under regulation 141 is to be read as a reference to an objection; and
- (b) a reference to a respondent is a reference to the person making the objection; and
- (c) a reference to a party includes the person making the objection; and
- (d) a reference to proceedings includes the proceedings relating to the objection.

Division 4 — Service*148. Meaning of “serve”

If under this Part a party is required to serve a document —

- (a) the party shall serve a copy of the document returned after lodgment; and
- (b) unless these regulations provide otherwise or the warden otherwise directs, the party shall serve it on each other party within 14 days after the document is lodged.

149. Residential, business or postal address for service

A document lodged in relation to proceedings before the warden shall contain a residential, business or postal address for service.

150. Documents served by other persons

- (1) If a document is served by a party to proceedings before the warden, or on behalf of a party by another person, the party shall lodge at the office of the mining registrar an affidavit of service completed by the person who served the document.
- (2) The affidavit of service shall be in the form No. 35 in the First Schedule.
- (3) If the document is served by a bailiff of the warden's court, any written certificate of service of the bailiff lodged by the party —
  - (a) is to be taken to be an affidavit of service for the purposes of this regulation; and
  - (b) is admissible as evidence and, in the absence of proof to the contrary, is proof that the document was served by the bailiff.

151. Substituted service

- (1) If for any reason it is impractical to serve a document in the manner set out in this Division, the warden may, on an application in the form No. 36A in the First Schedule by the person required to serve that document, order that, instead of using such a manner, such steps be taken as are specified in the order for the purpose of bringing the document to the notice of the person to be served with or given the document.
- (2) If the warden makes an order under subregulation (1), the warden may order that the document is to be taken to have been served or given on the happening of any specified event, or on the expiry of any specified time.

Division 5 — Interlocutory orders and directions by the warden*152. General powers of the warden in relation to interlocutory orders and directions

- (1) In addition to any other power of the warden to make an interlocutory order or give a direction in this Part, a warden may, at any stage of proceedings, do all or any of the following for the purposes of controlling and managing the proceedings —
  - (a) make an order that proceedings be heard and determined at another place if —
    - (i) the warden is satisfied that the proceedings could more conveniently or fairly be heard and determined at the other place; or
    - (ii) the parties consent to the proceedings being heard and determined at the other place;

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007*r. 30

---

- (b) extend the time for complying with any regulation in this Part or any order made by the warden (even if the time for complying has expired), or shorten it;
- (c) adjourn or bring forward a hearing to a specified date;
- (d) stay any proceedings, either generally or until a specified date;
- (e) consolidate proceedings;
- (f) hear 2 or more proceedings on the same occasion;
- (g) hold a hearing by audio link or video link (as those terms are defined in the Evidence Act 1906 section 120);
- (h) allow a party to amend its application, objection, response or particulars under regulation 144;
- (i) dispense with any interlocutory proceedings;
- (j) as to the hearing of any interlocutory application —
  - (i) direct the parties to confer in order to identify the issues between them and resolve as many as possible before the hearing and to identify the issues to be heard; and
  - (ii) direct the parties to file and exchange memoranda before the hearing in order to identify the issues to be heard;
- (k) expedite the listing of proceedings for a substantive hearing if the warden is of the opinion that a party has frivolously or vexatiously instituted or defended proceedings or that the party's case otherwise has no merit;

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007

r. 30

- (l) do anything else that in the warden's opinion will or may facilitate proceedings being conducted and concluded efficiently, economically and expeditiously.
- (2) Without limiting subregulation (1), for the purposes of the substantive hearing of proceedings or the hearing of an interlocutory application a warden may do all or any of the following —
  - (a) direct the mining registrar to issue a witness summons referred to in regulation 157, whether on behalf of a party or on the warden's own motion;
  - (b) inspect any document produced at the hearing, and retain it for such reasonable period as is required, and make copies of the document or any of its contents;
  - (c) require any person to swear or affirm to answer truly any relevant question put to that person by the warden or any person attending the hearing.
- (3) A power of the warden to make an interlocutory order or give a direction includes a power to vary or cancel the order or direction.

153. Applications for interlocutory orders or directions

- (1) A party may make an application for an order or direction of the warden by lodging and serving it in the form No. 36A in the First Schedule.
- (2) The application shall be supported by an affidavit that is lodged and served together with the application.
- (3) The application must be made at least 7 clear days before the substantive hearing to which the application relates.

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007*r. 30

---

Division 6 — Conduct of hearings*154. Conduct of hearings generally

- (1) In conducting any hearing the warden —
  - (a) is to act with as little formality as possible; and
  - (b) is bound by the rules of natural justice; and
  - (c) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and
  - (d) may inform himself or herself of any matter in any manner he or she considers appropriate.
- (2) Subject to subregulation (3), a hearing is to be conducted in public.
- (3) If the warden is satisfied that it is desirable to do so by reason of the confidential nature of any evidence or matter or for any other reason, the warden may direct that the hearing be conducted wholly or partly in private.
- (4) If the warden gives a direction under subregulation (3) the warden may give directions as to the persons who may be present at the hearing.
- (5) Irrespective of whether the warden gives a direction under subregulation (3), the warden may order that —
  - (a) any evidence given before the warden; or
  - (b) the content of any documents produced to the warden, during any part of the hearing is not to be published except in the manner and to the persons specified by the warden.

155. Attendance at mention hearings and interlocutory hearings

- (1) A party must attend a mention hearing or the hearing of an interlocutory application —
  - (a) through a lawyer or agent; or
  - (b) if the warden so orders — in person.
- (2) Despite subregulation (1), a warden may conduct a mention hearing or the hearing of an interlocutory application in the absence of a party, including any lawyer or agent of the party —
  - (a) on an application under subregulation (3); or
  - (b) otherwise, if the warden thinks fit.
- (3) If it is impracticable, by reason of distance, illness or otherwise, for a party to attend a mention hearing or an interlocutory hearing, either through a lawyer or agent or in person, the party may apply in writing to the warden for the hearing to be conducted in the absence of the party.
- (4) An application under subregulation (3) shall be —
  - (a) lodged at least 7 days before the day of the hearing; and
  - (b) accompanied by written submissions that are sufficient to enable the hearing to be conducted in the absence of the party.

156. Attendance at substantive hearings of proceedings

- (1) Unless the warden orders otherwise, a party shall attend the substantive hearing of proceedings in person, regardless of whether the party's lawyer or agent is also present.
- (2) If a party is a body corporate, an officer of the body corporate who is authorised to attend on behalf of the body shall be taken to be the party for the purposes of subregulation (1).

Division 7 — Evidence*157. Summons of witness

- (1) Each party that seeks to procure the attendance of a witness to give evidence or produce documents may do so by means of a witness summons issued by the mining registrar in the form No. 37 in the First Schedule and served personally on the witness.
- (2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), a witness summons is served personally on a witness if —
  - (a) it is handed to the witness or, if the witness is a person under a legal disability, to the witness's parent, guardian or litigation guardian; or
  - (b) in the case that the witness or the witness's parent, guardian or litigation guardian, as the case may be, does not accept it, it is put down in his or her presence and he or she is advised of the nature of the summons; or
  - (c) it is handed to a person who is authorised in writing to receive documents on behalf of the witness; or
  - (d) it is handed to someone at the witness's usual or last known place of residence or business who is believed, on reasonable grounds, to have reached 18 years of age.

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007

r. 30

- (3) A witness who attends in answer to a summons shall be entitled to —
  - (a) an amount that is likely to be sufficient to meet the reasonable expenses of attending before the warden; or
  - (b) arrangements to enable the witness to attend before the warden; or
  - (c) the means to enable the witness to attend before the warden.
- (4) A witness is not required to attend unless at the time of the service of the summons subregulation (3) has been complied with.

158. Time for service of summonses

- (1) A witness summons shall be served not less than 30 days before the date fixed for the relevant hearing.
- (2) Where a witness summons has not been served within the prescribed time, the party seeking to rely on the witness summons may apply in writing to the mining registrar to fix a new date for the hearing and issue an amended witness summons.
- (3) On an application under subregulation (2), the mining registrar may fix a new date for the hearing and issue an amended witness summons.

159. Content of an affidavit

- (1) Except as provided in subregulation (2), an affidavit lodged in proceedings before the warden shall be confined to facts to which the person making the affidavit is able to depose from his or her own knowledge.

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007*r. 30

---

- (2) An affidavit may contain statements based on information received by the person making the affidavit, and believed by that person to be true, if the affidavit also contains —
  - (a) the sources of the information; and
  - (b) the grounds for believing that the information is true.
- (3) Any addition, alteration or erasure in an affidavit shall be initialled by the person making the affidavit and the person before whom the affidavit was sworn or affirmed.

160. Production of documents before hearing

- (1) Where a witness summons requires a person to produce documents, but does not require the person to give evidence, at a hearing the person may, instead of producing the documents at the hearing, lodge them, together with a list of the documents, with the mining registrar at least 7 days before the first day of the hearing.
- (2) When documents are lodged together with a list of the documents under subregulation (1), the mining registrar shall endorse on the list that the mining registrar has received all of the documents specified on the list and return a copy of the endorsed list to the person lodging the documents.
- (3) The mining registrar may, in accordance with any directions of the warden, permit a party to inspect documents lodged by another party under subregulation (1).

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007

r. 30*161. Directions for expert witnesses

- (1) A party shall not adduce expert evidence at a hearing except in accordance with directions given by the warden.
- (2) If the warden directs a party to lodge and serve a statement of an expert witness, the statement shall set out, or be accompanied by a document setting out —
  - (a) the full name of the expert; and
  - (b) details of the expert's qualifications to give the evidence; and
  - (c) to the extent practicable, details of any material on which the expert has relied in reaching his or her opinion.

162. Party may adduce affidavit evidence

- (1) A party may, if the another party does not object, adduce the evidence of a witness at a hearing by tendering an affidavit of the witness.
- (2) A party wishing to adduce affidavit evidence under subregulation (1) shall lodge and serve the affidavit at least 14 days before the first day of the hearing.
- (3) The affidavit may be tendered in the absence of the deponent unless an objection is lodged under subregulation (4).
- (4) A party served with a copy of the affidavit may, within 7 days after that service, lodge a written objection to the affidavit being tendered in the absence of the deponent.

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007*r. 30

---

163. Records of evidence

- (1) A warden shall ensure that evidence given in proceedings is recorded electronically or by written transcript.
- (2) Any party to any proceedings in which the evidence of a witness in which evidence has been recorded in accordance with this regulation is entitled to obtain a copy of that evidence in the form of a written transcript upon payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule.
- (3) Each determination of a warden, and the reasons for the determination, shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the warden, and shall be recorded in a register kept for the purpose.
- (4) Any person may obtain a copy of the determination referred to in subregulation (3) upon payment of the fee prescribed in the Second Schedule.

164. Return of documents and other exhibits after hearing

- (1) If an exhibit tendered at a hearing is retained by the warden without being received into evidence, a person who was lawfully entitled to the possession of the exhibit before it was tendered is not entitled to the return of that exhibit until the publication of the warden's determination.
- (2) If an exhibit is received into evidence at a hearing, a person who was lawfully entitled to the possession of the exhibit before it was received is not entitled to the return of that exhibit —
  - (a) if no appeal against a determination of the warden is made, until 21 days after the day on which the determination is given; or

r. 30

- (b) if an appeal against the determination of the warden is lodged, until the appeal has been dealt with.
- (3) The mining registrar shall give written notice to a person of the person's entitlement to the return of an exhibit under subregulation (1) or (2).
- (4) The notice shall be given as soon as practicable after the entitlement arises.
- (5) If the person does not take possession of the exhibit within 30 days after the person receives the notice, the mining registrar may dispose of the exhibit as the mining registrar thinks fit.
- (6) A document produced at a hearing but not tendered as an exhibit shall, in accordance with the directions of the warden, be returned to the party that produced the document.

Division 8 — Costs*165. Costs

- (1) Except as ordered under this regulation, regulation 139 or 142, each party is to bear the party's own costs.
- (2) In addition to the power to award costs under regulations 139 and 142, a warden hearing and determining proceedings under Division 2, including interlocutory applications related to those proceedings, may make an order for a party's costs to be paid by another party.
- (3) One order under subregulation (2) may be made in relation to 2 or more proceedings heard and determined on the same occasion under Division 2 even if those proceedings are not joined.

- (4) Subject to subregulation (6) and in addition to the power to award costs under regulation 139, a warden hearing and determining proceedings under Division 3 may make an order for costs against a party if the warden is satisfied that the party —
  - (a) frivolously or vexatiously commenced or defended the proceedings, or any step in the proceedings; or
  - (b) otherwise occasioned undue delay in the proceedings.
- (5) One order under subregulation (4) may be made in relation to 2 or more proceedings heard and determined on the same occasion under Division 3 even if those proceedings are not joined.
- (6) If a warden makes an order for the payment of costs, those costs shall be in accordance with the scale of costs set out in the Fourth Schedule.
- (7) The Magistrates Court (Civil Proceedings) Rules 2005 Part 15 Division 1 apply in relation to proceedings with the necessary modifications and, in particular, references in those rules —
  - (a) to a case are to be read as references to proceedings under this Division; and
  - (b) to the court are to be read as references to the warden; and
  - (c) to the Registrar are to be read as references to the mining registrar; and
  - (d) to a judgment are to be read as references to a determination of the warden under this Division; and
  - (e) to an approved form are to be read as references to a written form; and

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007

r. 30

- (f) to court and bailiff fees are to be read as references to fees prescribed in the Second Schedule item 13.

166. Warden's review of decisions of mining registrar

- (1) A person dissatisfied by an assessment of costs made by a mining registrar may apply to the warden for a review of the assessment.
- (2) The application must be made within 21 days after the date of the mining registrar's assessment and be conducted as if it were an interlocutory application under this Part.
- (3) On a review the warden may —
  - (a) affirm the mining registrar's assessment; or
  - (b) vary the mining registrar's assessment; or
  - (c) set aside the mining registrar's assessment and substitute his or her own assessment.

167. Security for costs

- (1) A warden may, on application made by a respondent in proceedings under Division 2, order an applicant in the proceedings to give security for costs.
- (2) If an order is made under subregulation (1), monies comprising the security are to be paid to the Director General of Mines who shall hold the money and disburse it in accordance with any order of the warden.

168. Recovery of costs

- (1) A person to whom costs are to be paid under a determination of the warden under this Part may enforce it by lodging a certificate of the assessment of the costs given by the mining registrar, and an affidavit stating to what extent it has not been complied with, with a court of competent jurisdiction.

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007*r. 30

- (2) A certificate that is lodged with a court under subregulation (1) shall be taken to be a judgment of that court and may be enforced accordingly.

Division 9 — Miscellaneous*169. Representation

- (1) A party is entitled to be represented by a lawyer.
- (2) A warden may, if the warden is of the view that exceptional circumstances exist, give leave to a party to be represented by a person other than a lawyer.
- (3) If a party is represented by a lawyer or agent, or there is a change in that representation, the party must ensure that the warden and the other parties are notified in writing of that representation or change in representation.

170. Warden may act on its own initiative

- (1) A warden hearing proceedings may exercise his or her powers on the application of a party or on his or her own initiative unless the Act or these regulations or another written law provides otherwise.
- (2) A warden may make an order or give a direction on his or her own initiative with or without —
  - (a) allowing any of the parties to make submissions; or
  - (b) hearing the parties.
- (3) If a warden decides to allow any party to make submissions before making an order on his or her own initiative, the warden shall notify each party likely to

r. 30

be affected by the order of how and when the submissions are to be made.

- (4) If the warden decides to hear any party before making an order on his or her own initiative, the warden shall notify each party likely to be affected by the order of the time and place of the hearing.

171. Practice directions

The Chief Magistrate from time to time may issue, amend or cancel practice directions.

172. Application of sections 142 and 146

Sections 142 and 146 apply in relation to proceedings and, for that purpose, references in those sections —

- (a) to proceedings in the warden's court are to be taken to include references to proceedings under this Part; and
- (b) to the warden's court are to be taken to include references to the warden.

173. Copy of determination

- (1) When a determination of any proceedings has been made by a warden, a determination in the form No. 38 in the First Schedule may be signed by the warden or mining registrar.
- (2) A copy of the determination shall, on payment of the prescribed fee, be delivered to any person applying for it.

174. Offences

A person who —

- (a) having been served with a summons to attend before the warden, fails without reasonable

Mining Amendment Regulations 2007*r. 31

---

excuse to attend in obedience to the summons;
or

- (b) having been served with a summons to produce before the warden any document, fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the summons; or
  - (c) misbehaves before the warden, wilfully insults the warden, or wilfully interrupts proceedings before the warden; or
  - (d) makes, before the warden, a statement that —
    - (i) the person knows, or ought to know, is false or misleading in a material particular; or
    - (ii) omits anything without which the statement is, so far as the person knows or ought to know, misleading in a material particular;
- or
- (e) refuses to comply with a requirement of the warden under regulation 152(2)(c), commits an offence.

Penalty: a fine of $10 000.
