Summons signed at and year first mentioned above.	.	in the said State, on the day
		Signature of J.P. or C.P.S.

NOTE.

The above charge is an offence that allows you to decide whether it will be heard before a Magistrate or Judge and jury. There are therefore certain essential preliminary steps that must be taken on the date this summons requires you to attend Court. YOU MUST THEREFORE APPEAR AT COURT ON THAT DATE.

IF YOU DO NOT APPEAR A WARRANT MAY BE ISSUED FOR YOUR ARREST.

When your case is called in Court the Magistrate will ask you (a) if you want it to be heard by a Magistrate or by a Judge and jury and (b) whether you wish to plead not guilty or guilty. Each time you must tell the Magistrate what you wish to do. He will then inform you what must happen as a result of the answers you have given.

However please note that if you intend to defend the charge it will not be heard.

NOTICE OF PROCEDURE FOR INDICTABLE OFFENCES

You have been charged with an indictable offence. This notice sets out what will occur before the charge against you is dealt with. If after reading this notice you do not understand its contents or have any questions, you should seek legal advice.

[Note: 2 or more Justices of the Peace may sometimes sit instead of a magistrate in a court of petty sessions.]

PART A

Indictable offences are serious offences. Some of them can be dealt with only in the Supreme Court or the District Court by a judge and a jury. If the charge against you is one of these read Part C.

Other indictable offences can be dealt with EITHER by a judge and jury in the Supreme Court or the District Court OR by a magistrate in a court of petty sessions. If the charge against you is one of these read Part B and Part C.

PART B

If the charge against you is one that can be dealt with in a court of petty sessions and a magistrate considers that the charge can be adequately dealt with in that court, you will be asked to choose one of the following —

- to have the charge dealt with by a magistrate in the court of petty sessions,

OR

- to have the charge dealt with by a judge and jury in the Supreme or the District Court.

If you choose to have the charge dealt with in the court of petty sessions, you must tell the magistrate.

If you choose to have the charge dealt by a judge and jury, some procedural matters will occur in the court of petty sessions before your case is sent to the Supreme Court or the District Court. Part C deals with those matters.

PART C

This Part explains the procedural matters that will occur in the court of petty sessions if the charge against you is to be dealt with in the Supreme Court or District Court.

Schedule

Before you are given the opportunity in the court of petty sessions to plead to the charge against you, the prosecution will give you —

- a document stating the facts of the case against you in connection with the charge,
- a copy of any statement made by you to the police and signed by you,
- a copy of any interview with the police that was written down and signed by you,
- notice about any tape or videotape of any interview of you by the police,
- a written version of anything you said to the police that the police think is relevant to the charge.

You should read all the papers that the prosecution give you.

When you next come before the court after getting the papers from the prosecution, the magistrate will ask you if you want to plead to the charge. You do not have to, but if you want to, you can plead guilty or plead not guilty.

If you plead guilty the charge will be sent to either the Supreme Court or the District Court together with a copy of the papers that the prosecution gave you.

If you plead not guilty or if you do not plead, the charge will be adjourned to a further hearing in the court of petty sessions prior to committal to the Supreme or District Court, and you will be given a notice explaining the procedures in that hearing.

PLEAS OF GUILTY

By law a court can take into account a plea of guilty and the stage when a person pleads guilty and may impose a lesser sentence accordingly.
