Division 3 — The co-operative principles

6. Co-operative principles

The co-operative principles are the principles set out in the following Table.

Table of co-operative principles

Principle
1. Voluntary and open membership A co-operative is a voluntary organisation, open to all persons able to use its services and willing to accept the responsibilities of membership, without gender, social, racial, political or religious discrimination.

---

Principle

2. Democratic member control

A co-operative is a democratic organisation controlled by its members, who actively participate in setting policies and making decisions. Members serving as elected representatives are accountable to the membership. In co-operatives other than co-operative groups members have equal voting rights (one member, one vote). Co-operative groups are organised in a democratic manner.

3. Member economic participation

Members contribute equitably to, and democratically control, the capital of their co-operative. Usually, at least part of that capital is the common property of the co-operative. Usually, members receive limited compensation, if any, for capital subscribed as a condition of membership. Members of a co-operative allocate surplus to be used for any or all of the purposes of —

- (a) developing the co-operative, possibly by setting up reserves, at least part of which are indivisible; and
- (b) benefiting members in proportion to their transactions with the co-operative; and
- (c) supporting other activities approved by the membership.

4. Autonomy and independence

A co-operative is an autonomous, self-help organisation controlled by its members. If a co-operative enters into agreements with other organisations, including governments, or raises capital from external sources, it does so on terms that ensure democratic control by its members and maintain its autonomy.

5. Education, training and information

A co-operative provides education and training for its members, elected representatives, managers and employees so they can contribute effectively to the development of the co-operative. A co-operative informs the general public, particularly young people and opinion leaders, about the nature and benefits of co-operatives.

Principle

---

6. Co-operation among co-operatives

Co-operatives serve their members most effectively and strengthen the co-operative movement by working together through local, national, regional and international structures.

7. Concern for the community

Co-operatives, while focusing on member needs, work for the sustainable development of their communities through policies accepted by their members.

7. Interpretation to promote co-operative principles

In the interpretation of a provision of this Act, a construction that would promote co-operative principles is to be preferred to a construction that would not promote co-operative principles.

Division 4 — Application of Corporations Act to co-operatives

  - (c) if the rules provide for a rate to be payable that is higher than the rate applicable under paragraph (a) or (b), at that higher rate.
- (3) A former member may agree to the rate of interest being less than that which would otherwise be payable under this section and may agree to no interest being paid.

- (1) A deposit, debenture or CCU to which an amount payable to a former member is applied under this Division or section 73(2) is to be repaid or redeemed, as the case may be, as soon as repayment or redemption would not, in the opinion of the board, adversely affect the financial position of the co-operative.
- (2) The deposit, debenture or CCU must in any case be repaid or redeemed within 10 years, or within any shorter period that the rules of the co-operative may require, after cancellation of the member's membership.

- (1) This Division only applies to distributing co-operatives.
- (2) Sections 132, 133 and 134 apply to a distributing co-operative only to the extent that they are not inconsistent with rules of the co-operative that were in effect immediately before the commencement of the Co-operatives Amendment Act 2016 section 32.

[Section 131 amended: No. 7 of 2016 s. 32.]

132. Former shareholders to be taken to be shareholders for certain purposes

- (1) Even though a person's shares in a co-operative have been forfeited under this Part, the person is to be taken to be the holder of shares in the co-operative (the same in all respects as those that were forfeited) for the following purposes —
  - (a) the entitlements of a shareholder in relation to the purchase of shares in the co-operative pursuant to an offer described in section 289(1)(a), (b) or (c) or the purchase of all the shares in the co-operative, if the offer or purchase occurs within 2 years after the person's shares were forfeited;

  - (b) the purchase of all the shares in the co-operative by another co-operative.
- (3) Subsection (1)(c) does not apply if the winding-up is for the purposes of a merger under Part 12 Division 1.
- (4) For the removal of doubt, it is declared that the entitlement under subsection (1)(a) of a person whose shares have been forfeited does not include an entitlement to vote on any matter.
- (5) This section does not apply to a forfeited shareholding in a co-operative if section 133 operates to require that forfeited shareholding to be regarded as a forfeited shareholding in another co-operative.

[Section 132 amended: No. 7 of 2016 s. 33.]

133. Entitlements of former shareholders on mergers etc.

- (2) A person referred to in subsection (1) is, for the purposes of the operation of section 132, and the further operation of this section, taken to have held shares in the new co-operative and as having had those shares in the new co-operative forfeited under this Part when the person's shares in the original co-operative were forfeited.
- (3) The extent of the forfeited shareholding in the new co-operative is determined as follows —
  - (a) if the entitlement of active members of the original co-operative in the circumstances concerned is solely an entitlement to be allotted shares in the new co-operative, the forfeited shareholding in the new co-operative is the shareholding to which the person would have been entitled had the person's shares in the original co-operative not been forfeited;
  - (b) in any other case, the forfeited shareholding in the new co-operative is the shareholding that is the same in all respects as the forfeited shareholding in the original co-operative.
- (4) The determination under subsection (3)(a) of the person's shareholding in the new co-operative must be made —
  - (a) solely on the basis of the person's shareholding in the original co-operative when the shares were forfeited or, in a further operation of this section in respect of the person, when the person was first to be regarded as having a forfeited shareholding in the original co-operative; and
  - (b) without regard to any additional shareholding in the original co-operative to which the person would have become entitled had the shares not been forfeited, whether as a result of any bonus share issue or otherwise.

[Section 133 amended: No. 7 of 2016 s. 34.]

134. Set off of amounts repaid etc. on forfeited shares

- (1) If a person has an entitlement because of the operation of section 133, the entitlement operates to end any liability of the co-operative —
  - (a) to repay to the person under section 127 any amount for the forfeited shares concerned; or
  - (b) in respect of a deposit held by the co-operative, or debentures allotted or issued to the person, or CCUs issued under section 127 for the forfeited shares concerned, except a liability to pay interest that is payable but unpaid.

[Section 163 amended: No. 7 of 2016 s. 45.]

164. Deposit, debentures or CCUs instead of payment when share repurchased

- (1) If a co-operative repurchases a share of a member, the co-operative may instead of paying the purchase price to the member —
- (a) in the case of a deposit-taking co-operative, apply the amount as an interest bearing deposit by the member with the co-operative; or
  - (b) allot or issue debentures or CCUs of the co-operative to the member in satisfaction of the amount.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies only if —
- (a) the board considers that payment of the repurchase price would adversely affect the financial position of the co-operative; or

- (3) The deposit, debenture or CCU bears interest during any period —
- (a) in the case of a co-operative with share capital —

    - (ii) if the rate of dividend payable for that period has not been decided, at the rate (or the higher or highest rate) payable for the immediately preceding period for which a rate has been decided; or

- (iii) if a rate of dividend has never been decided for the share capital of the co-operative, at the rate that the board of the co-operative considers reasonable;
  - or
  - (b) in the case of a co-operative without share capital, at the rate that the board of the co-operative considers reasonable; or
  - (c) if the rules provide for a rate to be payable that is higher than the rate applicable under paragraph (a) or (b), at the higher rate.
- (4) The deposit, debenture or CCU must be repaid to the member or redeemed, as the case may be, as soon as repayment or redemption would not, in the opinion of the board, adversely affect the financial position of the co-operative.
- (5) The deposit, debenture or CCU must in any case be repaid or redeemed within 10 years (or within any shorter period that the rules of the co-operative require) after the repurchase of the shares concerned.

- (2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), each member has only one vote at a meeting of the co-operative.
- (3) If its rules so provide, a member of a co-operative group may have the number of votes (up to 5) at a general meeting that is specified in the rules.
- (4) If the rules so provide, the chairman has a casting vote at a board meeting or general meeting.
- (5) In the case of joint membership —
  - (a) the joint members have only one vote between them; and
  - (b) that vote may be exercised, subject to the grant of a proxy or power of attorney, only by the joint member determined in accordance with the rules.

168. Voting by proxy

- (1) If the rules so provide, voting may be by proxy at a general meeting.
- (2) The instrument of proxy may state the way in which a proxy is to vote on a particular resolution.

- (4) The rules of a co-operative may limit the number of persons for whom a person may act as a proxy on the same question.
- (5) A person cannot exercise more than one proxy vote during a vote on the same question unless the vote is conducted by poll demanded under section 194.

169. Control of the right to vote

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), a person must not directly or indirectly control the exercise of the right to vote of a member.
Penalty for this subsection: a fine of $6 000, or imprisonment for 6 months, or both.
- (2) If a person controls the exercise of the right to vote of a member at a meeting of a co-operative —

  - (c) an agreed purchaser controlling a member's vote pending settlement.

[Section 169 amended: No. 7 of 2016 s. 46.]

171. Effect of relevant share and voting interests on voting rights

- (1) Subject to subsection (3) and section 167(5), a member of a co-operative cannot vote if another person, whether or not a member of the co-operative, has a relevant interest in any share held by the member or in the right to vote of the member.

- (2) A member who cannot vote because of this section may apply to the Registrar to review the matter.
- (3) The Registrar may order that the member may vote if the Registrar is satisfied in the circumstances of the case that loss of the right to vote would be unjust or unreasonable, and the order of the Registrar has effect accordingly.

[Section 171 amended: No. 7 of 2016 s. 47.]

172. Rights of representatives

A person appointed under this Act to represent a member of a co-operative —

- (b) is entitled to exercise the same rights to vote as the member represented.

173. Other rights and duties of members not affected by ineligibility to vote

A provision of this Act that disentitles a member of a co-operative to vote, either generally or in relation to a particular matter, does not affect any other right, entitlement, obligation or duty of the member as a member.

174. Vote of disentitled member to be disregarded

Any vote cast by or on behalf of a member of a co-operative when not entitled to vote must be disregarded.

Division 2 — Resolutions

  - (b) the reasons for proposing the special resolution; and
  - (c) the effect of the special resolution being passed.

178. How majority obtained is ascertained

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply if a poll is taken at the meeting of the co-operative.

- (1) A special resolution, other than a special resolution required to be passed by special postal ballot, has effect from the date that it is passed.

182. Decision of Registrar on application to register special resolution

- (1) If the Registrar is satisfied that the co-operative has complied with this Act, and that a special resolution passed by special postal ballot is not contrary to this Act, the Registrar must register the special resolution.
- (2) If the Registrar considers that the effect of a special resolution lodged for registration would be in contravention of this Act or any other law, the Registrar —
- (a) may refuse to register the special resolution; and

- (b) must give written notice to the co-operative that the special resolution —
    - (i) in the case of a special resolution referred to in section 180(2), has no effect; and
    - (ii) in any other case, has no effect as from the date that it was passed.
- (3) A certificate of registration of a special resolution given by the Registrar is, in favour of any person advancing money to the co-operative on the faith of the certificate or in favour of any guarantor of that advance, evidence that the resolution was properly passed.

Division 3 — Resolution by circulated document

Part 9 — Management and administration of co-operatives

Division 1 — The Board

197. Board of directors

- (1) Subject to this Act and the rules of the co-operative, the business of a co-operative is to be managed by a board of directors.
- (2A) The board must consist of at least 3 directors (not counting alternates of directors) and at least 2 of the directors must be ordinarily resident in Australia.
- (2) The board of directors may exercise all the powers of the co-operative that are not, by this Act or the rules of the co-operative, required to be exercised by the co-operative in a general meeting or by postal ballot.
- (3) The acts of a director are valid despite any defect that may afterwards be discovered in his or her appointment or qualification.

[Section 197 amended: No. 7 of 2016 s. 56.]

198. Election of directors

- (1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3) and (4), the directors of a co-operative are to be elected in the manner specified in the rules of the co-operative.

- (7) A nomination for election or appointment to the office of a director must give details of the qualifications and experience of the person nominated.
- (8) Unless this Act or the rules of a co-operative provides otherwise, a director is eligible for re-election at the end of his or her term of office.

- (4) A transferor of a CCU remains the holder of the CCU until the transfer is registered and the name of the transferee, and the details of the transferee's CCU holding, are entered in the register of CCU holders referred to in section 230(1).
- (5) Despite any rule of law or equity to the contrary, a condition subject to which a CCU is issued is not invalid merely because the CCU is, by the condition, made irredeemable or redeemable only on the happening of a contingency however remote or at the end of a period however long.

[Section 257 amended: No. 7 of 2016 s. 92.]

258. Priority of CCU's on winding-up

260. CCUs to be issued to non-members

CCUs may be issued to a person whether or not the person is a member of the co-operative.

261. Minimum requirements for rules concerning CCUs

- (b) the rights of the holders of CCUs may be varied only in the way and to the extent provided by their terms of issue and only with the consent of at least 75% of those holders of CCUs who, being entitled to do so, cast a formal vote to accept the variation at a meeting;
- (c) the holder of a CCU has, in the person's capacity as a holder of a CCU, none of the rights or entitlements of a member of the co-operative;
- (d) the holder of a CCU is entitled to receive notice of all meetings of the co-operative and all other documents in the same manner as the holder of a debenture of the co-operative.

  - (d) details of how capital and interest on capital are to rank for priority of payment on a winding-up;

- (e) whether there is a limit on the total holding of CCUs that may be acquired by persons who are not members of the co-operative and, if there is a limit, what the limit is.
- (3) The statement approved by the Registrar for the purposes of the issue is to set out the terms of the issue, the rights of the holders of CCUs, the terms of redemption and the manner of transferability of CCUs.
- (4) The Registrar is not to approve the terms of issue unless satisfied that they will not result in a failure to comply with co-operative principles and are not contrary to the rules of the co-operative or this Act.

263. Directors' duties concerning CCUs

In discharging their duties, it is proper for the directors of a co-operative to take into account that the holders of CCUs, in their capacity as holders of CCUs, have none of the rights and entitlements of, and are not entitled to be regarded as, members of the co-operative.

- (5) Any premium payable on redemption is to be provided for out of profits or out of the share premium account or an account created for that purpose.

265. Capital redemption reserve

(2) If —

  - (i) the person has acted honestly; and
  - (ii) having regard to all the circumstances of the case (including, where applicable, those connected with the person's appointment as an officer, or employment as an employee, of a co-operative), the person ought fairly to be excused for the contravention, the Supreme Court may relieve the person either wholly or partly from a liability to which the person would otherwise be subject, or that might otherwise be imposed on the person, because of the contravention.

- (3) In determining under subsection (2) whether a person ought fairly to be excused for a contravention of the Corporations Act section 588G as applying under section 337 of this Act, the matters to which regard is to be had include, but are not limited to —

- (a) the person may apply to the Supreme Court for relief; and
  - (b) the Supreme Court has the same power to relieve the person as it would have had under subsection (1) if it had been a court before which proceedings against the person for negligence, default, breach of trust or breach of duty had been brought.
- (3) Where a case to which subsection (1) applies is being tried by a judge with a jury, the judge after hearing the evidence may —
- (a) if he or she is satisfied that the defendant ought pursuant to that subsection to be relieved either wholly or partly from the liability sought to be enforced against the person, withdraw the case in whole or in part from the jury; and

- (3) A meeting held for the purposes of this Act, or a meeting notice of which is required to be given in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or any proceeding at such a meeting, is not invalidated only because of the accidental omission to give notice of the meeting or the non-receipt by any person of notice of the meeting, unless the Supreme Court, on the application of the person concerned, a person entitled to attend the meeting or the Registrar, declares proceedings at the meeting to be void.
- (4) A meeting held for the purposes of this Act, or a meeting notice of which is required to be given in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or any proceeding at such a meeting, is not invalidated only because of the inability of a person to access the notice of meeting, unless the Supreme Court, on the application of the person concerned, a person entitled to attend the meeting or the Registrar, declares proceedings at the meeting to be void.

- (5) If a member does not have a reasonable opportunity to participate in a meeting of members, or part of a meeting of members, held at 2 or more venues, the meeting will only be invalid on that ground if — and may make such consequential or ancillary orders as the court thinks fit.

- (7) An order may be made under subsection (6)(a) or (c) notwithstanding that the contravention referred to in the paragraph concerned resulted in the commission of an offence.
- (8) The Supreme Court must not make an order under this section unless it is satisfied —
  - (a) in the case of an order referred to in subsection (6)(a) —
    - (i) that the act, matter or thing, or the proceeding, referred to in that paragraph is essentially of a procedural nature; or
    - (ii) that the person or persons concerned in or party to the contravention acted honestly; or
    - (iii) that it is just and equitable that the order be made;
  - and
  - (b) in the case of an order referred to in subsection (6)(c) — that the person subject to the civil liability concerned acted honestly; and
  - (c) in every case — that no substantial injustice has been or is likely to be caused to any person.

- (b) within 6 months after the creation of the charge, the chargee purports to take a step in the enforcement of the charge without the Supreme Court having, under clause 34, given leave for the charge to be enforced, the charge, and any powers purported to be conferred by an instrument creating or evidencing the charge, are, and are taken always to have been, void.

- (2) Without limiting the generality of subclause (1), a person who —

- (b) in all the circumstances of the case, it is just and equitable for the Court to do so.

35. Certain transactions excluded

- (1) Nothing in clause 33 affects a debt, liability or obligation of a co-operative that would, if that clause had not been enacted, have been secured by a charge created by the co-operative.
- (2) Nothing in clause 33 operates to affect the title of a person to property, other than the charge concerned or an interest in the charge concerned, purchased for value from a chargee under a charge, from an agent of a chargee under a charge, or from a receiver appointed by a chargee under a charge in the exercise of powers conferred by the

- (3) If a charge created by a co-operative secures a debt of an unspecified amount or secures a debt of a specified amount and further advances, a payment or advance made by the chargee to the co-operative in accordance with the terms of the charge is not to be taken, for the purposes of subclause (2), to be a variation in the terms of the charge having the effect of increasing the amount of the charge or the liabilities, whether present or prospective, secured by the charge.

- (4) A reference in this clause to the chargee in relation to a charge is, if the charge is constituted by a debenture or debentures and there is a trustee for debenture holders, to be construed as a reference to the trustee for debenture holders.

  - (a) the debt or other liability, the payment or discharge of which was secured by the charge, has been paid or discharged in whole or in part; or

- (b) if a notice has been lodged under clause 17 in relation to a charge on property, being a charge that, at the time when the notice was lodged, was already registered under Division 2, the earlier or earliest time and day appearing in the Register of Co-operative Charges in relation to the charge, being a time and day entered in the register pursuant to clause 17; or
- (c) to the extent that the charge has effect as varied by a variation, notice of which was required to be lodged under clause 36(2), the time and day entered in the Register of Co-operative Charges in relation to the charge pursuant to clause 24;

registered charge means a charge that is registered under Division 2;

subsequent registered charge, in relation to another registered charge, means a charge the priority time of which is later than the priority time of the other registered charge;

unregistered charge means a charge that is not registered under Division 2 but does not include a charge that is not a registrable charge.

- (2) A reference in this Division to a person having notice of a charge includes a reference to a person having constructive notice of the charge.
- (3) If, by virtue of the definition of priority time in subclause (1), a registered charge has 2 or more priority times each of which relates to a particular liability secured by the charge, each of the liabilities is, for the purposes of this Division, taken to be secured by a separate registered charge, the priority time of which is the priority time of the first-mentioned registered charge that relates to the liability concerned.

46. Priorities of charges

- (1) Subject to this clause, Subdivision 2 has effect on the priorities, in relation to each other, of registrable charges on the property of a co-operative.
- (2) The application, in relation to particular registrable charges, of the order of priorities of charges set out in Subdivision 2, is subject to —
  - (a) any consent (express or implied) that varies the priorities in relation to each other of the charges, being a consent given by the holder of one of those charges and being a charge that would otherwise be entitled to priority over the other charge; and
  - (b) any agreement between the chargees that affects the priorities in relation to each other of the charges in relation to which those persons are the chargees.
- (3) The holder of a registered charge, being a floating charge, on property of a co-operative is taken, for the purposes of subclause (2), to have consented to the charge being postponed to a subsequent registered charge, being a fixed charge that is created before the floating charge becomes fixed, on any of the property unless —
  - (a) the creation of the subsequent registered charge contravened a provision of the instrument or resolution creating or evidencing the floating charge; and

- (b) a notice about the floating charge indicating the existence of the provision referred to in paragraph (a) was lodged with the Registrar under clause 13, 17 or 36 before the creation of the subsequent registered charge.
- (4) If a charge relates to property of a kind to which a particular paragraph of clause 4(1) applies and also relates to other property, Subdivision 2 applies so as to affect the priority of the charge only in so far as it relates to the first-mentioned property and does not affect the priority of the charge in so far as it relates to the other property.

Subdivision 2 — Priority rules

47. General priority rules in relation to registered charges

- (1) A registered charge on property of a co-operative has priority over —
  - (a) a subsequent registered charge on the property, unless the subsequent registered charge was created before the creation of the prior registered charge and the chargee in relation to the subsequent registered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the prior registered charge had notice of the subsequent registered charge at the time when the prior registered charge was created; and
  - (b) an unregistered charge on the property created before the creation of the registered charge, unless the chargee in relation to the unregistered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the registered charge had notice of the unregistered charge at the time when the registered charge was created; and
  - (c) an unregistered charge on the property created after the creation of the registered charge.
- (2) A registered charge on property of a co-operative is postponed to —
  - (a) a subsequent registered charge on the property, if the subsequent registered charge was created before the creation of the prior registered charge and the chargee in relation to the subsequent registered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the prior registered charge had notice of the subsequent registered charge at the time when the prior registered charge was created; and

- (b) an unregistered charge on the property created before the creation of the registered charge, where the chargee in relation to the unregistered charge proves that the chargee in relation to the registered charge had notice of the unregistered charge at the time when the registered charge was created.

48. General priority rule in relation to unregistered charges

An unregistered charge on property of a co-operative has priority over —

- (a) a registered charge on the property that was created after the creation of the unregistered charge and does not have priority over the unregistered charge under clause 47(1); and
- (b) another unregistered charge on the property created after the first-mentioned unregistered charge.

49. Special priority rules

- (1) Except as provided by this clause, priority given by this Division to a charge over another charge does not extend to a liability that, at the priority time in relation to the first-mentioned charge, is not a present liability.
- (2) If a registered charge on property of a co-operative secures —
  - (a) a present liability and a prospective liability of an unspecified amount; or
  - (b) a prospective liability of an unspecified amount,priority given by this Division to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge does not have actual knowledge extends to the prospective liability, whether the prospective liability became a present liability before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge.
- (3) If a registered charge on property of a co-operative secures —
  - (a) a present liability and a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount; or
  - (b) a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount,and the notice lodged under clause 13 or 17 about the charge sets out the nature of the prospective liability and the amount specified, then priority given by this Division to the charge over another charge extends to a prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge to the extent of the maximum amount specified.

- (4) Subclause (3) applies whether the prospective liability became a present liability before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge and despite the fact that the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge had actual knowledge of the other charge at the time when the prospective liability became a present liability.
- (5) Subclause (6) applies if —
  - (a) a registered charge on property of a co-operative secures —
    - (i) a present liability and a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount; or
    - (ii) a prospective liability up to a specified maximum amount,but the notice lodged under clause 13 or 17 about the charge does not set out the nature of the prospective liability or the maximum amount specified; or
  - (b) a registered charge on property of a co-operative secures a prospective liability of an unspecified amount.
- (6) In relation to a charge referred to in subclause (5) —
  - (a) priority given by this Division to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge has actual knowledge extends to a prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge that had become a present liability at the time when the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge first obtained actual knowledge of the other charge; and
  - (b) priority given by this Division to the charge over another charge of which the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge has actual knowledge extends to a prospective liability secured by the first-mentioned charge that became a present liability, as the result of the making of an advance, after the time when the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge first obtained actual knowledge of the other charge if, at that time, the terms of the first-mentioned charge required the chargee in relation to the charge to make the advance after that time.

- (7) Subclause (6)(b) extends to the prospective liability whether the advance was made before or after the registration of the first-mentioned charge and despite the fact that the chargee in relation to the first-mentioned charge had actual knowledge of the other charge at the time when the advance was made.

3. Persons not to act as receivers

- (1) A person is not qualified to be appointed, and cannot act, as receiver of property of a co-operative if the person —
  - (a) is a mortgagee of property of the co-operative; or
  - (b) is an auditor or an officer of the co-operative; or
  - (c) is an officer of a corporation that is a mortgagee of property of the co-operative; or cl. 4

- (d) is not a registered liquidator under the Corporations Act; or
- (e) is an officer of a corporation related to the co-operative; or
- (f) has at any time within the last 12 months been an officer or promoter of the co-operative or of a related corporation, unless the Registrar directs in writing that this paragraph does not apply in relation to the person in relation to the co-operative.

- (2) In subclause (1) —

officer, in relation to a corporation, does not include a receiver, appointed under an instrument whether before or after the commencement of this clause, of property of the body.

- (3) Subclause (1)(d) does not apply in relation to a corporation authorised by or under a law of the Commonwealth, of a State or of a Territory to act as receiver of property of the co-operative.
- (4) Nothing in this clause prevents a person from acting as receiver of property of a co-operative under an appointment validly made before the commencement of this clause.

4. Supreme Court may declare whether controller is validly acting

- (1) If there is doubt, on a specific ground, about —

- (a) whether a purported appointment of a person, after the commencement of this clause, as receiver of property of a co-operative is valid; or
- (b) whether a person who has entered into possession, or assumed control, of property of a co-operative after the commencement of this clause did so validly under the terms of a charge on that property, the person, the co-operative or any of the co-operative's creditors may apply to the Supreme Court for an order under subclause (2).

- (2) On an application, the Supreme Court may make an order declaring whether or not —
  - (a) the purported appointment was valid; or

- (b) the person entered into possession, or assumed control, validly under the terms of the charge, as the case may be, on the ground specified in the application or on some other ground.

5. Liability of controller

- (1) A receiver, or another authorised person, who, whether as agent for the co-operative or not, enters into possession or assumes control of a property of a co-operative for the purpose of enforcing a charge is, despite an agreement to the contrary, but without prejudice to the person's rights against the co-operative or another person, liable for debts incurred by the person in the course of the receivership, possession or control for services rendered, goods purchased or property hired, leased, used or occupied.
- (2) Subclause (1) does not constitute the person entitled to the charge a mortgagee in possession.
- (3) If —
  - (a) a person (the controller) enters into possession or assumes control of property of a co-operative; and
  - (b) the controller purports to have been properly appointed as a receiver of that property under a power contained in an instrument, but has not been properly appointed; and
  - (c) civil proceedings in a federal court or a court of a State or Territory arise out of an act alleged to have been done by the controller, the court may, if it is satisfied that the controller believed on reasonable grounds that the controller had been properly appointed, order that —

- (d) the controller be relieved in whole or in part of a liability that the controller has incurred but would not have incurred if the controller had been properly appointed; and
- (e) a person who purported to appoint the controller as receiver be liable for an act, matter or thing in so far as the controller has been relieved under paragraph (d) of liability for that act, matter or thing.

6. Liability of controller under pre-existing agreement about property used by co-operative

- (1) This clause applies if —
- (a) under an agreement made before the control day in relation to a controller of property of a co-operative, the co-operative continues after that day to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, property (the third party property) of which someone else is the owner or lessor; and
  - (b) the controller is controller of the third party property.
- (2) Subject to subclauses (4) and (7), the controller is liable for the portion of the rent or other amounts payable by the co-operative under the agreement that is attributable to a period —
- (a) that begins more than 7 days after the control day; and
  - (b) throughout which —
    - (i) the co-operative continues to use or occupy, or to be in possession of, the third party property; and
    - (ii) the controller is controller of the third party property.
- (3) Within 7 days after the control day, the controller may give to the owner or lessor a notice that specifies the third party property and states that the controller does not propose to exercise rights in relation to the property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the co-operative or anyone else.
- (4) Despite subclause (2), the controller is not liable for the portion of the rent or other amounts payable by the co-operative under the agreement as is attributable to a period during which a notice under subclause (3) is in force, but the notice does not affect a liability of the co-operative.
- (5) A notice under subclause (3) ceases to have effect if —
- (a) the controller revokes it by writing given to the owner or lessor; or
  - (b) the controller exercises, or purports to exercise, a right in relation to the third party property as controller of the property, whether on behalf of the co-operative or another person.

- (6) For the purposes of subclause (5), the controller does not exercise, or purport to exercise, a right referred to in subclause (5)(b) merely because the controller continues to be in possession, or to have control, of the third party property, unless the controller —
  - (a) also uses the property; or
  - (b) asserts a right, as against the owner or lessor, to continue.
- (7) Subclause (2) does not apply to the extent that the Supreme Court, by order, excuses the controller from liability, but an order does not affect a liability of the co-operative.
- (8) The controller is not taken because of subclause (2) —
  - (a) to have adopted the agreement; or
  - (b) to be liable under the agreement otherwise than as mentioned in subclause (2).

7. Powers of receiver

- (1) Subject to this clause, a receiver of property of a co-operative has power to do, in Australia and elsewhere, all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in relation to, or as incidental to, the attainment of the objectives for which the receiver was appointed.
- (2) Without limiting subclause (1), but subject to any provision of the court order by which, or the instrument under which, the receiver was appointed, being a provision that limits the receiver's powers in any way, a receiver of property of a co-operative has, in addition to any powers conferred by the order or instrument, as the case may be, or by any other law, power, for the purpose of attaining the objectives for which the receiver was appointed —
  - (a) to enter into possession and take control of property of the co-operative in accordance with the terms of the order or instrument; and
  - (b) to lease, let on hire or dispose of property of the co-operative; and
  - (c) to grant options over property of the co-operative on conditions that the receiver considers appropriate; and

- (f) to repair, renew or enlarge property of the co-operative; and
- (g) to convert property of the co-operative into money; and
- (h) to carry on a business of the co-operative; and
- (i) to take on lease or on hire, or to acquire, property necessary or convenient in connection with the carrying on of a business of the co-operative; and
- (j) to execute a document, bring or defend proceedings or do any other act or thing in the name of and on behalf of the co-operative; and
- (k) to draw, accept, make and endorse a bill of exchange or promissory note; and
- (l) to use a seal of the co-operative; and
- (m) to engage or discharge employees on behalf of the co-operative; and
- (n) to appoint a legal practitioner, accountant or other professionally qualified person to assist the receiver; and
- (o) to appoint an agent to do any business that the receiver is unable to do, or that it is unreasonable to expect the receiver to do, in person; and
- (p) if a debt or liability is owed to the co-operative, to prove the debt or liability in a bankruptcy, insolvency or winding-up and, in that connection, to receive dividends and to assent to a proposal for a composition or a scheme of arrangement; and
- (q) if the receiver was appointed under an instrument that created a charge on uncalled capital or uncalled premiums of the co-operative —
  - (i) in the name of the co-operative, to make a call for money unpaid on shares in the co-operative, whether on account of the nominal value of the shares or by way of premium; or
  - (ii) on the giving of an adequate indemnity to a liquidator of the co-operative, in the name of the liquidator, to make a call for money unpaid on account of the nominal value of shares in the co-operative;

and

- (r) to enforce payment of a call that is due and unpaid, whether the calls were made by the receiver or otherwise; and
  - (s) to make or defend an application for the winding-up of the co-operative; and
  - (t) to refer to arbitration a question affecting the co-operative.
- (3) The conferring by this clause on a receiver of powers in relation to property of a co-operative does not affect the rights in relation to that property of any other person other than the co-operative.
- (4) In this clause, a reference, in relation to a receiver, to property of a co-operative is, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to the property of the co-operative in relation to which the receiver was appointed.

8. Controller's duty of care in exercising power of sale

- (1) In exercising a power of sale in respect of property of a co-operative, a controller must take all reasonable care to sell the property for —
- (a) if, when it is sold, it has a market value, not less than the market value; or
  - (b) otherwise, the best price that is reasonably obtainable, having regard to the circumstances existing when the property is sold.
- (2) Nothing in subclause (1) limits anything in Part 9 Division 3.

9. Supreme Court may authorise managing controller to dispose of property despite prior charge

- (1) On the application of a managing controller of property of a co-operative, the Supreme Court may by order authorise the controller to sell, or to dispose of in some other specified way, specified property of the co-operative, even though it is subject to a charge (the prior charge) that has priority over a charge (the controller's charge) on the property that the controller is enforcing.

cl. 9

- (2) The Supreme Court may make an order if satisfied that —
  - (a) apart from the existence of the prior charge, the controller would have power to sell, or to dispose of, the property; and
  - (b) the controller has taken all reasonable steps to obtain the consent of the holder of the prior charge to the sale or disposal, but has not obtained the consent; and
  - (c) sale or disposal of the property under the order is in the best interests of the co-operative's creditors and of the co-operative; and
  - (d) sale or disposal of the property under the order will not unreasonably prejudice the rights or interests of the holder of the prior charge.
- (3) The Supreme Court may have regard to the need to protect adequately the rights and interests of the holder of the prior charge.
- (4) If the property would be sold or disposed of together with other property that is subject to the controller's charge, the Supreme Court may have regard to —
  - (a) the amount, if any, by which it is reasonable to expect that the net proceeds of selling or disposing of the other property otherwise than together with the first-mentioned property would be less than so much of the net proceeds of selling or disposing of all the property together as would be attributable to that other property; and
  - (b) the amount, if any, by which it is reasonable to expect that the net proceeds of selling or disposing of the first-mentioned property otherwise than together with the other property would be greater than so much of the net proceeds of selling or disposing of all the property together as would be attributable to the first-mentioned property.
- (5) Nothing in subclause (3) or (4) limits the matters to which the Supreme Court may have regard for the purposes of subclause (2).
- (6) An order may be made subject to conditions.

10. Receiver's power to carry on co-operative's business during winding-up

- (1) A receiver of property of a co-operative that is being wound-up may —
- (a) with the written approval of the co-operative's liquidator or with the approval of the Supreme Court, carry on the co-operative's business either generally or as otherwise specified in the approval; and
  - (b) do whatever is necessarily incidental to carrying on the business under paragraph (a).
- (2) Subclause (1) does not —
- (a) affect a power that the receiver has otherwise than under that subclause; or
  - (b) empower the receiver to do an act that the receiver would not have power to do if the co-operative were not being wound-up.
- (3) A receiver of property of a co-operative who carries on the co-operative's business under subclause (1) does so —
- (a) as agent for the co-operative; and
  - (b) in his or her capacity as receiver of property of the co-operative.
- (4) The consequences of subclause (3) include, but are not limited to, the following —
- (a) for the purposes of clause 5(1), a debt that the receiver incurs in carrying on the business as mentioned in subclause (3) of this clause is incurred in the course of the receivership;
  - (b) a debt or liability that the receiver incurs in so carrying on the business is not a cost, charge or expense of the winding-up.

cl. 11

11.      Controller's duties in relation to financial institution accounts and financial records

- (1) A controller of property of a co-operative must —
- (a) open and maintain an account with a financial institution, bearing —

    - (iii) otherwise, the title "controller"; and
    - (iv) the co-operative's name;

  - (d) keep the financial records that correctly record and explain all transactions that the controller enters into as the controller.
- (2) A director, creditor or member of a co-operative may, unless the Supreme Court otherwise orders, personally or by an agent, inspect records kept by a controller of property of the co-operative for the purposes of subclause (1)(d).

- (3) As soon as practicable, and in any event within 14 days, after lodging the report with the Registrar, the managing controller must cause to be published in a national newspaper, or in each State and Territory in a daily newspaper that circulates generally in that State or Territory, a notice stating —

- (a) that the report has been prepared; and
  - (b) that a person can, on paying the fee prescribed by the regulations, inspect the report at specified offices of the Registrar.
- (4) If, in the managing controller's opinion, it would seriously prejudice —
- (a) the co-operative's interests; or
  - (b) the achievement of the objectives for which the controller was appointed, or entered into possession or assumed control of property of the co-operative, as the case requires, if particular information that the controller would otherwise include in the report were made available to the public, the controller need not include the information in the report.

- (5) If the managing controller omits information from the report as permitted by subclause (4), the controller must include instead a notice —
- (a) stating that certain information has been omitted from the report; and
  - (b) summarising what the information is about, but without disclosing the information itself.

13. Reports by receiver

- (1) If it appears to the receiver of property of a co-operative that —
- (a) a past or present officer, or a member, of the co-operative may have been guilty of an offence under a law of the Commonwealth or of a State or Territory in relation to the co-operative; or
